

that North-Carolina can now estrange herself from the "ancient dominion." Their belief is, that North-Carolina will and must have her old conductress. But while these sage calculators are thus consoling themselves with the idea of the continued servility of our state, the people have already broken into atoms, and trampled into the dust, the yoke by which the old dominion has held us in a state of dependence. Virginia may now, if she pleases, follow North-Carolina, in the Presidential election, for she can no longer lead us. "Poor, degraded North-Carolina," as one of her statesmen calls us, will now think and act for herself. The "Richmond party" may calculate as much as they please—the Raleigh Register may act the Echo as much as it pleases—our radical members of congress may write letters until their fingers cramp—it will all avail nothing: North-Carolina is free; the people's ticket will triumph. We now assert it—and we ask every person who sees this paragraph, to remember what we say—North-Carolina will not vote for William H. Crawford: The caucus ticket will be overwhelmed—the people's ticket will triumph, in at least 50 out of 63 counties.....or else we are no prophet.

The Legislature of New-York has fixed the 12th of April inst. for the day of adjournment, and to meet again in Albany on the first Tuesday in November next, for the choice of Presidential electors.

The unpopularity of the present Governor and Lt. Governor having become so perfectly manifest, in consequence of their having lent themselves to defeat the electoral bill, a caucus was held by their friends for the purpose of nominating other candidates for the next election.—Chancellor SANFORD was offered the Governorship, which he refused. Another caucus is to be held, when it is supposed Yates and Root, the present incumbents, will be re-nominated, but they will be rejected by an abused people.

PETERSBURG, APRIL 6.

It is mentioned in a northern paper, that Mr. Wirt intends resigning the office of attorney general of the U. S. in which event, it is said Mr. Monroe intends offering it to Mr. Clay. Two of the Kentucky papers, received yesterday, corroborate this rumor. Should it prove correct, it will be considered as the virtual withdrawal of Mr. Clay from the Presidential contest.—Republican.

The citizens of Norfolk county, in this state, friendly to the election of Mr. Adams to the Presidency, have had a meeting, and nominated him to that office. It is hinted, that meetings are to be held in the city of Richmond and the county of Dinwiddie, for the same purpose.—ib.

A few days ago, the members of the Baltimore grand jury, after discharging their ordinary duty, agreed to ballot for a President of the U. S. The result was—for Jackson 14, Adams 7, Crawford 2.—ib.

The discussion on the Tariff has called into action all the mental power of Congress. The speeches already made, by Messrs. P. P. Barbour, Clay and Webster, are inimitable specimens of their various styles of eloquence, and will entitle the Eighteenth Congress to a very conspicuous rank in the annals of our national Legislatures.—Washington Republican.

John Taliaferro is elected a Representative in Congress, from the District in Virginia, lately represented by W. LEE BALL, deceased.

Internal Improvements.—The Board for Internal Improvements met in this city on Monday last. Present the Governor, D. Cameron, John D. Hawkins, John Owen, Durant Hatch and Thomas Turner, Esqrs. The Cape Fear Navigation Company having complied with the terms of the act of last session, the Board agreed to subscribe for $25,000 additional stock in said Company, and will commence operations on the river below Fayetteville, as soon as the state of it will admit.

The next meeting of the Board will be at Fayetteville, on the 13th of May next. Until which time, the attention of the Civil Engineer will be wholly directed to the improvements making in the Cape Fear River below Wilmington, which, agreeably to the terms of the contract, are to be completed by the approaching Fall.

Mr. Hatch finding it inconvenient to remain longer a member of the Board, John P. Davis, Esq. of Craven, was appointed in his stead.—Raleigh Register.

Charles D. Cowe, of New-Jersey, has been appointed by the President (with the advice and consent of the Senate,) to be Consul of the United States for the City and Kingdom of Tunis.

WASHINGTON, APRIL 7.
At length, the Tariff Bill has been reported to the House, from the committee of the whole, in the House of Representatives. This was effected by a sitting of seven hours yesterday, during which time there was a good deal of discussion, and a variety of amendments proposed, some of which succeeded, and others were rejected.

Our readers are, however, cautioned against making calculations on the decisions in the committee of the whole, for they are all liable to be reversed, and considering the closeness of some of the votes, cannot safely be relied upon as indicative of what will ultimately be done.

The schr. Eliza arrived at New-Orleans from Tampico on the 3d instant, having on board upwards of a million of dollars, in doubloons—a larger cargo of specie than was ever before brought into that port in one vessel. The Eliza brought information that specie to a large amount, was left at Tampico, ready for exportation, and destined for New-Orleans.

Letters from Buenos Ayers, to the 7th of January, assert that Mr. Rodney had recovered his health, and had been received in due form by the government of the country. New-York Patriot.

By intelligence from Peru to the 26th December, it appears that Bolivar had proceeded against the usurper Agüero; and that the latter, by means of an officer who was as treacherous to him as he himself was to the State, was delivered as a prisoner to the Liberator—and his forces, 4,000 in number, immediately united with the Congressional army. Thus is civil war terminating in Peru; and thus speedily and successfully, it is to be hoped, will be brought to a close: the war with the mother country, which has been prolonged by the divisions heretofore existing among the native Peruvians. ibid.

We learn by the Philadelphia Gazette of Wednesday evening, that Mr. Baptist Irvine, who was connected with the Porto Rico expedition in 1822, has arrived at La Guayra from Curacao. After a confinement of sixteen months, he was liberated by a direct order from the King of Holland, without trial, inasmuch as he had not either directly or indirectly violated any laws of Holland. The several petitions he made during his captivity, were, it is said, unjustly detained by the government of the island from fear of exposing themselves to the displeasure of their sovereign. N. Y. Pat. 3d inst.

Louisiana Election.—There are no less than five candidates for the office of Governor in Louisiana, in the approaching election. These are, Messrs. Johnson, Villere, Marigny, Thomas, and Butler. The Governor is elected for four years, and ineligible the succeeding term.

The latest returns rendered it very certain that there has been no choice of Governor in New-Hampshire by the People.

It appears by Deverera papers of the 20th February, that Smith the Missionary, who was in prison under sentence of death, died there before the account of his pardon by the King of England, had reached that island.

The disputes between Governor Lumley and the house of assembly of Bermuda have lately been revived. In consequence of their former dissensions, the Governor was ordered home to England, but was sent back. The assembly, on the 13th ultimo, passed a series of resolutions, denouncing "various acts of his misgovernment," and "his attempted invasion on the rights and privileges of the people." The Governor then sent for the members, made a furious speech against them, and prorogued them to the first of April. The British Governors of the colonies, like the proconsuls of ancient Rome, have generally been famous for their oppressive exactions and their tyranny over the colonial vassals of the mother country.

From a document recently laid before the House of Representatives by the Secretary of War, it appears, that the number of Cadets entered at West Point, during 1824, was 97; the number who completed the regular course of study and instruction within that year, 35—all of whom received commissions in the army; and that the whole number discharged, or permitted to depart, within the year, was 53. The number of Cadets in the institution at present, is 244.—N. Y. Pat.

A forgery has been recently discovered on the Bank of England for 20,000l. The parties absconded with all the property.

It is computed that $300,000 are annually expended in New-Haven, in consequence of the location of Yale College, and of Seminaries of female education. For the last year, there have been educated, in six or seven schools of the higher class, about 250 young ladies, of which number, about 200 are from other states.

A small Mistake!
DURING the week of Rowan, April Superior Court, my great-coat was taken from Mr. John Howard's and another left in its stead. Mine was of a light drab color, large single cape, red lining, a side pocket in each breast, and the ends of the cuffs a little worn off: the coat left is a drab, also red lining, and had some old velvet on the collar—mine had none. Now I should not complain, did not the coat left happen to be a great deal more worn than my own. Whoever has made the mistake, will please swap back again, at Mr. Howard's, or any other convenient place for me.
AQUILLES CHESHIRE.

Shoe-Shop.....removed.
EBENEZER DICKSON, Shoemaker, wishes his friends, and every body else, to know that he has removed into a new shop, a few yards nearer to the court-house than his old stand, and almost immediately opposite the Bank, on Main street, Salisbury.

NOTA BENE.
I have now on hand, and intend keeping, a supply of the very best of LEATHER; and as I shall make it a point to employ first rate workmen, my friends and the public may depend upon getting as good work executed in my shop, in the line of Shoemaking, as ever was done in the town of Salisbury, or in the State. Fulton Turnpike Road.
IN pursuance of an act of the General Assembly of North-Carolina, passed at Raleigh, the 20th day of December, 1823, authorizing the making a Turnpike Road from Asheville, by the Warm Springs, to the Tennessee line, and to charter a company for that purpose. We the undersigned subscribers, commissioners appointed by said act, do hereby give public notice, that books are now open at Asheville, for the purpose of receiving subscriptions for stock in said Road, which books will be kept in the hands of Geo. Swain, Esq. where all those who wish to become stockholders will please apply.
The utility of making this Road, it is presumed, is so obvious to all, that it is unnecessary to say any thing on the subject; and as there can be no doubt that the stock will be the most advantageous, perhaps, of any in the state, it is highly presumable it will be speedily taken up. It will, therefore, be well for those who wish to become interested, to make a speedy application, as the books will be closed, and the company organized, as soon as the amount of fifteen thousand dollars is subscribed; of which sum, there is already five thousand taken by the state.

By SATURDAY'S MAIL.
A caucus of 106 of the members of the New-York Legislature, has nominated Col. Samuel Young as a candidate for Governor, in opposition to Gov. Yates, the present incumbent of that office. This rejection of Gov. Yates is a just consequence of his jesuitical and equivocating conduct, in relation to the Electoral bill.
This affair is said to be a decisive expression against the caucus candidate for President. It is said Col. Young favors Mr. Clay's pretensions to the Presidency.

Imprisonment for debt.—The bill, which has been before the Senate of the United States for some time, to abolish imprisonment for debt, passed that body on the 9th inst. by a vote of 24 to 19.
