

SALISBURY

TUESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 24, 1824.

In the Freedom of North-Carolina

A number of the citizens of Cabarrus county having met at Concord, with a view of consulting on the most practicable method of forming a ticket, with the express view of promoting the election of JOHN Q. ADAMS to the Presidency of the United States...

This meeting have appointed John Phifer, Alphonso Alexander, and Joseph Young, a committee of correspondence.

JOSEPH YOUNG, Sec'y of the meeting. August 16, 1824.

[Although we readily give place to the above communication, we must express our regret at seeing an effort of this kind come from such a quarter. It looks as though man, mere peccable man, not principle, was the aim of some.

Heretofore, one peculiar circumstance has marked the progress of the contest in North Carolina—namely, that the friends of Gen. Jackson and Mr. Adams, though preferring different men, have agreed in principle. Their first object seemed to have been, to put down the odious practice of caucusing—and, of course, that party which built its hopes of success alone on caucus management.

A regular poll having been opened in Cabarrus county, for taking the votes of the people on the Presidential election, the following was the result:

At a muster of Capt. Hall's company, five miles from Hillsborough, on the 6th inst. the votes were, on the same subject, for:

Table with 2 columns: Candidate, Votes. Jackson 61, Adams 5, Crawford 1.

At a muster of Capt. Cornell's company of militia, in the Forks of the Yadkin, on the 22d ult. a vote was taken on the subject of the Presidential election; the number of votes taken on this occasion, was 102; of these,

A few weeks since, a vote was taken in Capt. Graves' company, in Caswell county, at which Gen. Jackson got 30, and Mr. Crawford only 8.

A writer in the Milton Gazette has labored hard to explain away this indication of the public voice—stating that it was not a fair expression of the people's will; that the company voted as they did, merely to please their captain, who had been newly elected, &c. &c.—and concluding with the declaration, that Gen. Jackson would not get over 50 votes in Caswell county.

To all this Capt. Graves has rejoined, under his own signature, that the vote was taken fairly, and was a faithful expression of the sentiments of his company, on the Presidential question.

Jeff Shipp, Esq. were elected delegates to the Convention. Hancock—William Hogan, senate—Hogan 433, Troy 256. Abraham Brewer, and George Hunter, commons—Brewer 901, Hunter 608, Fentress 310.

Bury.—Pleasant B. Roberts, Senate—Roberts 440, Hampton 380. Davis Durrett, and William C. Martin, commons—Durrett 1057, Martin 849, James Hicks 454.

Burke.—Samuel F. Carson, senate—Carson 352, Perkins 352. Merrit Burgin, and Peter Ballou, commons—Burgin 943, Ballou 913, Collins 675.

Cabarrus.—We made an error in the statement of the poll, in the election in the name of this county,—but we published it as communicated; the following is sent us as the correct result: Barringer 283, Phifer 264.

Montgomery.—James Legrand, without opposition. John Dargan, and John Culpeper, jr. commons—Dargan 703, Culpeper 601, Dum 483.

Jesse.—William Marshall, senate. James Gordon, and John Smith, commons.

Richardson.—Mr. W. L. Cole, senate. Tryo M'Farland, and Sanders Meredith, commons.

Irwin.—George Lee Davidson, senate—Davidson 415, King 353. James L. Hill, and Aza Beall, commons—Hill 782, Beall 660, James Campbell 542.

Mecklenburg.—Michael M'Leary, senate—M'Leary 622, David Kerr 148. Thomas G. Polk, and Matthew Bain, commons—Bain 991, Polk 987, Joseph Wilson 655.

Currituck.—Samuel Salyear, senate. Enoch Hall, and Willoughby D. Barnard, commons.

Bertie.—George B. Outlaw, senate. J. M. Shoon, and Wm. H. Rascoe, commons.

Turn of Newbern.—John Staley, Esq. without opposition.

MORE "SIGNS."

At the late election for members of Assembly, a poll was opened in the town of Hillsborough, and attended by two regularly appointed judges, for taking votes on the subject of the Presidency. Vehement harangues (a correspondent informs us) were made by two gentlemen, in favor of Mr. Crawford; but when the ballots were counted out, it appeared that

Table with 2 columns: Candidate, Votes. Gen. Jackson received 198 votes, Mr. Adams 62, Mr. Crawford 44.

At a muster of Capt. Kiding's company, in Orange county, on the 31st ult. a vote was taken on the Presidential question—which gave to Table with 2 columns: Candidate, Votes. Mr. Adams 34 votes, Gen. Jackson 33, Mr. Crawford 6.

At a muster of Capt. Hall's company, five miles from Hillsborough, on the 6th inst. the votes were, on the same subject, for:

Table with 2 columns: Candidate, Votes. Jackson 61, Adams 5, Crawford 1.

At a muster of Capt. Cornell's company of militia, in the Forks of the Yadkin, on the 22d ult. a vote was taken on the subject of the Presidential election; the number of votes taken on this occasion, was 102; of these,

A few weeks since, a vote was taken in Capt. Graves' company, in Caswell county, at which Gen. Jackson got 30, and Mr. Crawford only 8.

A writer in the Milton Gazette has labored hard to explain away this indication of the public voice—stating that it was not a fair expression of the people's will; that the company voted as they did, merely to please their captain, who had been newly elected, &c. &c.—and concluding with the declaration, that Gen. Jackson would not get over 50 votes in Caswell county.

To all this Capt. Graves has rejoined, under his own signature, that the vote was taken fairly, and was a faithful expression of the sentiments of his company, on the Presidential question.

John Randolph, of Rembe—A Liverpool (English) paper, of the 19th ult. announces that "the Hon. John Randolph, of the United States, accompanied by his Lady, [sic] arrived here on Monday last." This must be a home-thrust at honest John's gallantry; for it is known, we believe, all over the world, that he never had a wife, however many LADIES may have partaken of his chivalrous hospitality.

SALISBURY BIBLE SOCIETY.

On Monday evening, the 16th inst. the Salisbury Bible Society met at the Court-House in this place. The exercises of the evening were commenced by a sermon, from the Rev. Mr. Gamble of South-Carolina. The meeting was then opened by reading the 11th chap. of Isaiah, by Dr. Freeman, President of the Board of Managers; and prayer by the Rev. Mr. Stafford.

The Society then proceeded to a choice of officers and directors; when all the officers, &c. of the preceding year, were re-elected for the ensuing.

The treasurer's and secretary's reports were then received; by which it appeared, that nearly three-fourths of the Bibles and Testaments had been distributed, and that the funds of the Society were in a prosperous condition.

It was Resolved by the board, that, in addition to the annual meeting, held in Salisbury, there should be meetings held at Unity, Joppa and Thytira, annually, when a sermon should be delivered, and collections taken up. The first of these meetings will be held at Unity, on the first Tuesday in November next.

A committee, consisting of C. Fisher, Esq. Treasurer, Dr. Alexander Long, Corresponding Secretary, and Thomas L. Cowan, Esq. Recording Secretary, were appointed to prepare the next annual report.

The meeting was then closed with prayer, by Rev. Mr. Watts. We were gratified at noticing the interest excited by the meeting, and at the prospect of having a number of respectable names added to the list of members.

He had just entered on his collegiate course; when he was attacked with fever, which in a few days terminated his existence. For the last two years, he had been a student of Morganton Academy, where he was greatly respected by all who knew him. He possessed a vigorous mind, and hid fair, by his diligence, to reach an honorable station in life. Those who have felt the pang, can best appreciate the affliction which this visitation of Providence will produce on all those with whom he was connected, and more especially his respectable parents.

COMMUNICATED.

At his plantation, in Rutherford county, on Monday morning, the 2d August last, at 6 o'clock, A. M. Doctor Joseph Hamilton, a native of the county of Tyrone, in Ireland, but for some years last part a resident of Rutherford county, N. C. aged 64 years. The loss of Dr. Hamilton was sincerely felt by a numerous kindred and circle of friends; the last moments of his life were sweetened amidst the divergences of death, after a long and continued illness, with the hopes of a happy eternity. He was for many years an eminent and respectable practitioner of medicine, in the county where he died; and was esteemed by all who knew him, as a humane and liberal Physician, a firm friend, an affectionate husband and parent, and a moral and honest man. Those whom he has left behind, find some consolation in the belief that the immortal part of that which is now inanimate dust, is in those regions of bliss where pain and sorrow are unknown, where joy and pleasure will forever reign in blessed union with his redeeming Saviour.

It is also useful in diseases of the liver.

CERTIFICATES.

I have within the last two years had an opportunity of seeing several cases of very inveterate ulcers, which having resisted previously the regular modes of treatment, were healed by the use of Mr. Swain's Panacea, and I do believe, from what I have seen, that it will prove an important remedy in scrofulous, venereal and mercurial diseases. N. CHAPMAN, D. M. Professor of the Institutes and Practice of Physic in the University of Pennsylvania.

I have employed the Panacea of Mr. Swain in numerous instances, within the last three years, and have always found it extremely efficacious, especially in secondary syphilis and mercurial diseases. I have no hesitation in pronouncing it a medicine of inestimable value. W. GIBSON, M. D. Professor of Surgery in the University of Philadelphia.

To the Public.

IN answer to a publication that appeared in the Western Carolinian of August the third, (instant) I admit that Samuel Johnson exhibited an account against me, and proved it before a Justice of the Peace, and I pled the statute of limitation. It is a duty, I think, that I owe to myself and my friends, to state my reasons for so doing.

In 1819, Sam'l. Johnson sent a negro boy, with an axe, to my shop, to get it dressed; I could not do it when he came, and loaned him a new one, until I could dress his. Some time after, I spoke to Johnson, whether he intended to return my axe or pay; he would do neither; he told me, if I would prosecute me for trading with his negro. Some time previous to this, Johnson proposed loaning me a cow to give milk for my family, as we were scarce of milk; I was to find her for her milk; it was in winter; Sam'l. Johnson also painted an old gig for me; I found the paints, &c. and he laid on one coat for which he was to receive $1 50 cents; I had done blacksmith work for Johnson, to the amount of $5 25 cents; and when he, Johnson, refused payment for the axe, I sued him; on trial before a Magistrate, he brought forward an account against me of $8; $3 for the use of his cow, which he charged me with having 5 months; I had the cow about 5 weeks—and 5 dollars for painting the gig; the cow, when taken, was to go for her feed, and gig to be painted for one dollar and fifty cents; yet out of these two items, he made an account of eight dollars. I never did consider myself justly indebted to him but one dollar and fifty cents, and he had got my axe without paying for it, so that I thought his painting account was fully balanced by my new axe; so I pled the statute of limitation.

As to Mr. Johnson's description of me, I have nothing to say. I impute his descending to such low and pitiful shifts to injure me, to his want of vision, &c. as he can see but a few inches before his nose; that part of the dispute I leave to him and my maker to settle, as I had no concern in my own tortiousness.

In the last place, he charges me with swearing, which no person believes. I know not in what sense he takes swearing; but whether it is in the sense of taking an oath before some legal tribunal, or whether in a vicious sense, is equally untrue and libelous, as I never made any pretensions to working much in cast-steel.

I feel much obliged to Mr. Johnson for his pious design in his publication; and as to his advice to the people to close their accounts against me, I hope I am ready to settle all my just accounts; and such unjust ones as Capt. Johnson's, I will always pay without putting any thing in the pocket, if I can.

NEW-YORK LEGISLATURE.

The following is the substance of the proceedings of the New York Legislature. They remind us of the commencement and termination of the late Neapolitan War.

From the Albany Daily Messenger, August 7. Yesterday, in the assembly, Mr. Livingston introduced a resolution requesting the senate to inform the house what disposition they had made of the resolution relative to giving the choice of electors to the people, which was sent to them the day previous.

Mr. Livingston made some pointed remarks on the course pursued by the senate; as to that resolution, which he considered as disrespectful and contemptuous, and he felt it his duty as a member; of the house, to call on them for information.

The resolution passed, with but one or two dissenting voices.

Mr. T. Spencer's resolution, censuring the governor, was taken up, and after considerable debate, passed, by a vote of 66, against 53.

The resolution from the senate to adjourn, which was sent to the house on Thursday, was then passed, and the house adjourned till 3 o'clock in the afternoon, to which hour the senate stood adjourned.

When the house met in the afternoon, the usual forms were gone through, and the house adjourned, to meet again according to law. The senate also adjourned at the same time.

Latest from Europe.—By the arrival of the ship MAJESTIC, at Charleston, on the 10th inst. London papers to the 26th June were received.

The King of Great Britain prorogued Parliament in great state on the 25th of June. His Majesty made a speech from the throne, with his crown upon his head, and Mr. Canning was present in full ministerial costume. Two Yeomen of the Guards dressed in the showy style of Henry the 8th's time were present, and upwards of 300 ladies, and all the Foreign Ministers, Nobility, &c.

The Speaker of the House of Commons, in addressing his Majesty, said that the Insurrection Act of Ireland had been continued, for the protection of the innocent; but that it was called for as a necessary temporary measure, but not to be considered as a permanent one.

The King in his speech, said that he continued to receive from all Foreign Powers full assurances of their determination to preserve the peace of Europe. Parliament is prorogued to the 24th of August next.

Cotton Gins.

THE subscriber still continues to make all kinds of Cotton Gins, at his shop in Salisbury, on Main-street, north side, three doors east of the Court-House. He will warrant his Gins to be as well made as any in the state; and will, hereafter, keep a supply constantly on hand, of his own make, for the accommodation of such gentlemen as live at a distance, or others who cannot wait.

The subscriber takes this occasion to give his thanks to all those who have patronized him in this line of business; and assures them, that, whenever they may again want jobs done, in the way of making or repairing Gins, his best exertions shall continue to be exerted to give them satisfaction. The public at large are respectfully invited to try the subscriber's Gins; and he feels confident, if they will once try, they will ever afterwards buy from his shop.
