

NEW YORK, AUGUST 27.
LATE FROM ENGLAND.

The British Packet Zephyr, arrived here yesterday from Falmouth and Halifax, with the July mail. Captain Church came up in his boat last evening with the latter bag, and politely furnished us with Halifax papers to 18th inst which contain extracts from London papers to July 17th inclusive. The Packet left Falmouth on the 19th ult.

LONDON, JULY 13.
It is our painful duty to record the dissolution of his Sandwich Majesty. The sad event took place yesterday morning at four o'clock. Pohl, the Governor, and the rest of the suit, were supporting their Royal Master's legs at the foot of the bed.

As His Majesty perceiving the hour of his dissolution to approach, he requested the French gentleman who accompanied him to this country to express his earnest desire that his remains, together with those of his late beloved wife, should be removed to his native Island, as soon as the Governor and his attendants were sufficiently recovered to see that melancholy duty performed.

No final decision was understood has yet been come to by His Majesty's Government upon the subject of the application of the King of Portugal for military aid. The question, altho' one of considerable difficulty and great delicacy, has lost much of its political importance by the declaration of France, that she has no intention of interfering in the affairs of Portugal, and that her Ambassador, Hyde de Neuville, exceeded his instructions in offering military assistance to the King.

Turkey and Greece.—The Greeks are endeavoring to raise an expedition to proceed against the Turks who occupy several points in Macedonia; but it is feared that they must confine themselves to a defensive for the present, as the Pacha of Egypt is preparing to send a fleet in Candia manned with Austrian and Malay sailors.

The Greeks have, it is said, resolved to devote a great portion of their loan to the vessels, which they will convert into vessels of war.

Since the death of Lord Byron, most of the English officers have quitted the Greek army. Among the number is Col. Stanhope.

LONDON, JULY 17.
By the private letters from Calcutta of the 16th of March, it appears that the war with the Burmese would in all probability prove one of considerable magnitude, and the Governor-General was inclined to take a serious view of the affair.

Aug. 11.—The Ministers of France, Austria, Russia and Prussia, at Johannisburg, continue their conferences. No English Plenipotentiary having joined them, this circumstance gives rise to various conjectures. It is however affirmed, that Sir H. Wellesley, British Minister at Vienna, was invited like the other Ministers, by Prince Metternich, to visit Johannisburg, but that he declined.

The only result of the conferences yet known is that the Wirtemberg Minister for Foreign Affairs has succeeded in his mission, to obtain the establishment of the diplomatic relations between the cabinets of Vienna and Berlin, and the Court of Wirtemberg.

NEW ORLEANS, AUG. 9.
ITURBIDE.
We have been politely favored with the following letter, brought by the Post Boy:

BALIZE, AUG. 4th, 1824.

To the Editors of the Mercantile Advertiser.

GENTLEMEN: By the schooner Perseverance, just arrived from Soto Lamaria, and through Mr. Capaz of New Orleans, and capt. Castagnola, I have obtained the following information, and have not the least doubt of its authenticity.

On the 15th July an English brig arrived off this port, and in the night the Ex Emperor Iturbide, in company with an Italian by birth, bearing the title of General, and two Priests, came on shore from the brig. Iturbide was soon recognized, and the whole of those that landed made prisoners. On the 16th they were sent to a town in the interior called Padilla, where on the 20th Iturbide, and his companion, General, were shot. The Priests were still in prison, but it was expected they would share a similar fate. The wife of Iturbide and family remained in the brig until she was informed her husband was dead, when she, together with those who remained on the Perseverance left. Those gentlemen gave other particulars which I have not time to give.

I remain your obedient servant,
P. DEMERVILLE.

Sea Serpent.—This animal was seen by two gentlemen of Portsmouth, (N. H.) on Wednesday afternoon, near the Little Boat-head, North Hampton. His passage through the water was exceedingly swift, leaving a long wake behind.

From the Detroit Gazette, August 13.
A BLOODY BATTLE.

A letter from Green Bay, dated July 14, says—"I have only the following news to write: 2 soldiers, Clark and Wilson, deserted from this post a few days ago, armed with 4 muskets, &c. They were pursued by the Indians, (who were generally employed to bring back deserters) and were overtaken. The soldiers were determined not to be taken, and when the Indians came within musket shot distance, the action commenced and lasted for some time. The following is the result:
Soldiers killed 2
Indians do 4
Total 6"

A letter to the Editors of this paper informs them of the decease of one of their subscribers at Nachitoches, Louisiana, in these brief but comprehensive terms: "Spotswood Mills is dead. He was assassinated in our town a few nights ago." [A. Int.]

NEW ORLEANS, AUG. 8.
The Board of Health are under the painful necessity of announcing to the citizens of New Orleans, that the Yellow Fever has made its appearance, and that they have every reason to believe that it will very soon become epidemic. They, therefore, beg leave to suggest to such strangers as are in the city, the propriety of leaving it as soon as possible.

The Greek Cause.—Mr. William Polard of Black Rock, Pennsylvania, formerly an officer in the Navy of the United States, has received from the Greek authorities in London, a commission as Captain in the Grecian army; and will embark for that country.

Gen. La Fayette.—Whilst General La Fayette was receiving visits at New York, an elderly Cartman, in his frock, applied for admittance, and was refused. He declared he would not go out of the room without speaking to the general, and at length got into the room. Waiting a favorable moment, he went up to the General, and opening the breast of his frock, asked if he knew him. The General recognized him, called him by name, and extending his hand, said, "Yes, you assisted me off the field of battle, when wounded."

Philadelphia, Aug. 24.
The schooner Charlotte Cordat, captain McLeon, sailed from this port yesterday for Hayti. From fifty to a hundred free people of color went passengers in her, and we understand that upwards of two hundred more are waiting with impatience for a conveyance.

Our city is swarming with negroes, whose condition is deplorable in the extreme, and without any prospect of improvement but by emigration. They have become too thick to thrive.

In an official letter from the Secretary of War to the Governor of Georgia, it is announced that the United States has determined at an early period, to direct a survey for a national road from the seat of government to New Orleans.

BUFFALO, AUG. 17.
Mercantile Competition.—Two merchants from New Orleans, were in this village, last week, offering Orleans sugar, in large lots, at rates something lower than the New York prices. They proposed delivering it by the way of the Missouri, Ohio, Lake Erie, &c. We are informed that, owing to the immense competition in steam navigation on those rivers, this is practicable, and at very handsome advances to the owners.

Long passage.—The Russian ship Bores, two hundred days from Lisbon for Rio Janeiro, put into Terceira, June 25, with loss of maintopmast, &c. and in the greatest distress for provisions. This is probably the longest passage on record—the voyage between Lisbon and Terceira usually occupying about six days.

High Pressure.—We have already, says the National Advocate, referred to the rivalry existing between the North River Steam Boats, and the importunity of agents to induce persons to take passage in one or the other of the boats. Some complaints of assault and battery have already reached the Police; and we learn that a passenger was so jostled between these rival agents, that he fell into the river, and both sides had nearly lost him.

EARLY COTTON.
A load of cotton of the present year's crop had already been brought to market; and we remark that a waggon load of cotton of the present crop was brought to the warehouses at Hamburg (S. C.) on the 17th of the month. In the latter case, the arrival was a month earlier in the season than ever known before. Courier.

Dear News.—A packet of Greek newspapers lately arrived in London, the postage of which was only 77 10s.!!

SALISBURY'S

TUESDAY MORNING, SEPT. 14, 1824.

Several favors, which might have been attended to this week, have been unavoidably laid over till our next. They shall all receive such attention, in due time, as their merits may call for.

Concessions.—We shall resume, in our next paper, the publication of some more of the speeches delivered in the House of Commons of the last Legislature, on Mr. Piker's resolutions against caucusing. As the period approaches for electing Presidential Electors, it is necessary the principles of caucusing should be exposed to the view of the people, that they may thereby be assured of its anti-republican and aristocratic tendency. And in order that our readers may be fully and fairly advised of the whole character of King caucus, and of his insidious and wicked schemes against the good people of the United States, we shall publish a few more of the speeches delivered in our last Legislature on the subject, as being the most effectual means within our reach, at this time, of affording them the necessary information.

TOWN OF HALIFAX.
The state of the poll at a late election for a member of the House of Commons from the Borough of Halifax, in this State, indicates an increase of population—or, at least, an increase of voters, in that ancient town. The vote was,
For Mr. Pottar, 23
Mr. Byrom, 26

A few years since, the successful candidate received but eleven votes. We conjecture, that a fourth number of the votes of that town this year were given by a numerous class. Now these 49 voters, black and white, in Halifax, have as much political weight as one thousand white ones have, in many of the counties.

WHISKEY AND RUM.
Some of the opponents of Gen. Jackson, object to his vote in the United States senate, on foreign rum. He voted to increase the duty from the then existing tariff, to 43 cents per gallon. We admit there is some reason why this vote should be unpopular with the lovers of foreign rum—for hereafter they will have to pay a few cents more on the gallon; but, on the other hand, with the drinkers of whiskey it ought to be popular. Above all, the farmer, who raises the grain out of which whiskey is made, ought not to grumble at a vote which was intended, and is calculated, to raise the price of his corn and small grain. Nor can the moralist object to this view of the subject. If the People of the United States will drink spirits, it is not better to consume our own products in doing it, than to import the fiery element from the West Indies?

We will further remark, that it appears strange the friends of the caucus candidate should object to Gen. Jackson voting to protect domestic spirits, when it is known that their candidate for the Vice Presidency, Monsieur Gallatin, actually fomented an insurrection against the government, because Congress, during the Presidency of Gen. Washington, laid a small tax on whiskey, the Monsieur's darling beverage. Let them remember the whiskey insurrection, and say no more.

FURTHER ELECTION RETURNS.
Sampson—Thomas Boykin, senate. D. Underwood, and John Crumplar, commons.
Gates—Abraham Harrel, senate. John Walton, and W. W. Stedman, commons.
Barnwell—J. C. Baker, senate. Alfred Moore, and Jacob Leonard, commons.
Bladen—D. Shipman, senate. Mr. Singleton, and Mr. McMillan, commons.
Hyde—David Gibbs, senate. William Watson, and Mr. Jarvis, commons.

The election in Hertford county, it appears, was closely contested: the successful candidate for the Senate received 151 votes; the other, 127. Now how many counties are there in the west, that give from twelve to fifteen hundred senate votes? Yet Hertford has equal weight in the General Assembly with the largest county in the State! This is equality, and Republicanism, for ye!!

At the General Election in the county of Lawrence (Alabama) for Members of the State Legislature, the vote upon the Presidential question was taken at the election precincts, which resulted as follows:
Jackson, 849
Adams, 86
Crawford, 93
Clay, 63

Perhaps there is no county in the Northern part of the State (remarks the Alabama) which Jackson is so nearly quadrupled all the other Candidates together.

A letter from Wayne county, to the Editors of the Raleigh Star, states, that at a muster of Capt. Carraway's company, at Revell's, on the 29th of July, a vote on the Presidential question was taken; when Jackson received all the votes of the company, with the exception of three, which were for Crawford.

Another letter, to the Editors, from Washington county, dated the 13th August, says, "I feel willing to hazard the opinion, that two-thirds of this county are for Gen. Jackson as President."

Canadigua, N. Y. Aug. 12, 1824.
We have, to-day, had a specimen of the public feeling in this part of the country, respecting the conduct of the Senate at their late session. On entering the common in Waterloo, the first object that attracted our attention, was two men swinging from a gallows; approaching nearer, we found them labelled Flagg and Green. On the arrival of the stage here, last evening, it was no sooner known that it contained Redfield and other of the seventers, than the bells commenced tolling, and in 10 minutes some hundreds were assembled. Mr. R. thought it prudent to clear out. The people, however, soon pursued, (about 3 miles from his) at his lodgings, in effigy before the house. It is said, most of the members from this part of the state, have taken the canal, to avoid the villagers. I understand, however, the Rochester boys are prepared to give them a suitable reception on their arrival there. "P. S. Batavia. A few more specimens of public indignation. At Leroy, Mr. Redfield's own village, he was burned yesterday, in great style. Indeed, I do not believe an individual in this district, dare to advocate the conduct of the senate."

In Lincoln county, at his residence near the Island Ford, Mr. George Smith, in the 30th year of his age. He had been to Charleston, and was on his return, within 100 miles of home, when he was taken sick with the South-Carolina fever; he had no one with him but his little son, Noah, only eight years old—this child was obliged to drive and take care of the horses and wagon till he got home, the whole distance of 100 miles, his child was taken sick within one mile of home, and the father died soon after getting there.

This may serve as a caution, for the up-country people not to go south so late in the season.
