PRESIDENTIAL.

FROM THE BALCONY STEPS.

To the Friends of North-Carolina:

Many essays have been written by the partisans of the Congressional Caucus to depreciate the character of the Candidates for the Presidency who are named in opposition to their candidate.

These partisans represent, that the "People's Ticket" is composed of men unpledged to vote for any particular candidate, and that no dependence can be placed upon them as to whom they will vote for.

The "People's Ticket" has been formed by the spontaneous expression of the will of a large portion of the people throughout the state, by whom different persons have been nominated as Electors.

It is evident that the greatest number of the people have publicly expressed a preference for ANDREW JACKSON: Hence Electors have been nominated who preferred him as their first choice.

But if a pledge were given by the Electors to vote only for Jackson, then, by the intrigues carried on in some states to effect the election of the caucus candidate, or the unexpected success of some other candidate opposed to the caucus nomination, all chance of the election of General Jackson should be destroyed.

Under this view that the "People's Ticket" appears before the freemen of N. C. All the friends of JACKSON have every thing they can desire. All the enemies of the caucus system, who would prefer some other candidate, have all they can expect in this state.

Follow citizens, the leading caucus paper in the Union (the National Intelligencer) has, within a few days, freely admitted, that they have considered Mr. Crawford as a candidate for the Presidency ever since the election of Mr. Monroe!

The subscriber takes this opportunity to return his sincere thanks to all those who have generously extended their favors to him; and by his faithfulness and industry, in future, hopes still to merit their friendship and patronage.

The Board for Internal Improvements met in this city on Monday last, present D. Cameron, John D. Hawkins, Thomas Turner and John Owen. Exrs. It appeared from the Reports of Mr. Fulton, that the work carrying on below Wilmington, will be completed in a few weeks, and if he can obtain the use of one of the River Steamboats to work the Roller, (which he has been prevented from doing since the last meeting owing to one of them being under repairs) it is expected the Ship Channel will be rendered sufficient for the passage of Sea-Vessels to the town.

will be your voice? This is done under the name of Republican. The plea for Congressional Caucuses is the preservation of Republican unity? Republican unity, fellow-citizens, is the unity of all the citizens in support of their rights.

Break down, fellow citizens, this hydra of despotism. Hurl it into immediate destruction! Let the Electors nominated to oppose caucus domination, have your firm and united support.

One of the stratagems on which the friends of the Caucus candidate have greatly relied for his election, is that of holding out a show of strength. To appear to be strong is, in their opinion, the most certain mode of becoming so.

INTERNAL IMPROVEMENTS.

The Board for Internal Improvements met in this city on Monday last, present D. Cameron, John D. Hawkins, Thomas Turner and John Owen. Exrs. It appeared from the Reports of Mr. Fulton, that the work carrying on below Wilmington, will be completed in a few weeks, and if he can obtain the use of one of the River Steamboats to work the Roller, (which he has been prevented from doing since the last meeting owing to one of them being under repairs) it is expected the Ship Channel will be rendered sufficient for the passage of Sea-Vessels to the town.

The Board has not yet made the Subscription, authorised by the act of last session, to the Roanoke Company, of $25,000 the Directors having declined receiving the subscription with the condition annexed of locking down from the Basin at Weldon's. The question will be laid before the meeting of the Stockholders next month, and there decided whether the proposed subscription shall be accepted or not.

The Board adjourned on Tuesday to meet agreeably to the provisions of their charter, on the 3d Monday of November next.

LA FAYETTE.

Philadelphia, Sept. 29.

The man whose glory it is to have been, and to be, equally an object of hatred to tyrants of all descriptions, and of love to every freeman and friend of freedom, made his entrance into our city yesterday in a manner that gave universal satisfaction and with circumstances of which it would be vain to attempt a full account and description.

Between seven and eight o'clock yesterday morning, the General set out for this city, with an immense escort, and about ten o'clock, the cheers of the multitude, who lined the turnpike, pronounced ground near the first gate. He entered the field under a salute of sixty guns, and at half past ten began, on foot, the review of the numerous body of troops, accompanied by Gov. Shulze and Maj. Gen. Cadwalader and their aids.

The spectacle of so many thousand citizen soldiers had in it every thing which it could possess of attraction and merit. The number of persons assembled for the occasion beyond the first turnpike gate may be estimated at nearly thirty thousand. The civic procession was formed near the stone bridge, on the Frankford road, and there united with the military; and they entered the city, according to the directions which we have already published.

The most dazzling and elaborate part of the gala and jubilee remains to be mentioned; we mean the general illumination, which began about a quarter past six in the evening, and was nearly complete by seven. No spectacle of the kind so varied, brilliant, and extensive, had ever been witnessed in this hemisphere.

Gen. Lafayette, after dining, paid visits in a private carriage to Mrs. Morris, the respected relic of Rob. Morris, to Mrs. Lewis, the relative of Washington, and to Gen. Cadwallader.

We are informed that the public committees have left Gen. Lafayette to dispose of his own time as he shall please. Their object is to make him as comfortable as they can, and to this end it is requisite that he should be as free from restraint as possible.—Nat. Gaz.

Dancing.—The Chinese have odd ideas of this amusement. When Commodore Anson was at Canton, the officers of the Centurion had a ball upon some court holiday: while they were dancing, a Chinese, who very quietly surveyed the operation, said softly to one of the party, "Why don't you let your servants do this for you?"
