was, on Thursday, the 2nd inst, elected Govern- over, and, all answering to their names, or of this state, after of ballotings. Mr. Burton, Gen. Stoker, Mr. Moore, Dr. Baker, Gen-Bryan, and Col. Avery, were in nomination.

perse gersees, on the subject of free schools, of Wake; William Martin, of Pasquoweek. We are much obliged to the authors for 18 m. B. Leckhart, of Northampton; Edbringing the subjects in as familie a light to mand D Dudlay, of M Manager , August the view of the public. It having been first tin H. Shepperd, of Stokes; Waiter F. broached by Governor Holmes, and Treas- Leake, of Richmond; John M. Marchead, urer Haywood, we hope that the people in of Guilford; every part of the state, (and especially those who have feigure and talent to illustrate the adproposition,) will fend their aid and influence towards the accomplishment of a measure which promises so much for the honor and respectability of the state, and the solid advantage of the people.

It appears now almost certain, that the election of President will devolve upon the house of far, the two highest returned to the home-who will be the third, it, as yet, a mere matter of speculation. Mr. Clay has Ohio, (16) Kentucky, (14) 7 in New-York, I in Delaware, and (probably) 3 in Missouri-in all 41. Mr. Crawford has Virginia, (24) Georgia, (9) 4 in New-York, 1 in Maryland, and 1 in Delaware-in all 39. So that, according to this calculation, (which is as egrect as we are now enabled to make it) the cancus candidate won't even get into the house of representatives. As near as we are enabled to judge, at this time, the four candidates will receive the following vote in the electoral college-how they will stand in the house of repre-entatives, requires a greater spirit of prophecy than we are master of :

	Jackson,				5	16
	Adams,					10
	Clay,				4	11
	Crawford,				3	9
,	will receive	the	other	four	votes,	wę

not yet divine.

Lest we should be suspected of favoritism, we have put down to Jackson as small a number as his opponents could reasonably ask for. We, however, believe he will get the four votes estimated as uncertain.

TAX ON MERCHANTS.

A large meeting of the merchants of Wil- Capital Stock paid in mington, (in this state,) was held on the 23d ult. the object of the meeting having been explained, a committee was appointed to draft a memorial to the Legislature, soliciting a repeal of the law, passed in the year 1822, imposing a licence tax on the stock in trade of merchants, and others therein enumerated. We have not learned whether the merchants throughout the state are disposed to second the views of those Notes of Banks, on hand, of Wilmington, or not. But we have no doubt, Real Estate, if the law in question is oppressive, unjust, or Bills of Exchange, obnoxious to the merchants generally, the legis Debts, consisting of discounted will feel themselves under an obligation to repeal it. But, on the contrary, if the act is found, by the legi-lature, to be the most judicious that can be passed on the subject, we feel a sured that that body will not be led away by the clamors of a few mercantile men.

Virginia .- On Monday, the 29th ult. the Lesislature of Virginia assembled in Richmond, be held at the Academy in Lincolnton. having anticipated their usual time of meeting on the 25th inst. H. Crawford as President, and Nathaniel Macon (of North-Carolina) as Vice President." Thus has Virginia thrown away her vote; for neither Crawford nor Macon can be elected. The election of Mr. Calhoun as Vice-President, is as certain as any event ever was previous to its occurrence : And Gen. Jackson, should the voice of the people be respected by the representatives of the nation, is as certain of being elected President.

South-Carolina .- As many honest individuals have been induced to lend a willing ear to the improbable tales propagated by the caucus party, relative to the Presidential election in South Carolina, we have the satisfaction to inform such persons, that the legislature of South-Carolina, (which body appoints the Electors) met on the 22d ult; J. B. I'on was elected President of the of a lady ! senate, and J. B. O'Neall speaker of the house of representatives. On the evening of the 24th the members assembled in the representative hall, to the number of 157, (the whole number in the legislature, 169;) on a motion that the meeting highly approve of Andrew Jackson for President, and John C.
