

TO KEEP BACON.

FROM THE AMERICAN FARMER.
Extract in the Editor, Saturday Union-Voice, Jan 26, 1825.
"Having lived in this county upwards of forty years, I had tried many ways to preserve Bacon, for having been raised in old Virginia; I am very fond of good bacon and cabbage; but I need not here repeat the various experiments. Last spring I tried a method which proved effectual against bugs, flies, skippers, rust, and rancidity; and now is the time for others to satisfy themselves. It was as follows:

On taking my meat from the pickle, for I fill my tubs with strong brine, as soon as the meat is salted, I boiled the brine and skimmed it clean of all lumps, and put it away in the tubs again—When the meat was well smoked, being afraid to venture the whole of it, I packed away six hams and two shoulders in the brine again, and kept them down with boards and weights. The brine was quite pure and sweet when I went to salting this fall. The bacon had been thus well smoked, and put back again in brine and kept, chiefly, until this fall, was so good and pure as to attract the notice of all that eat of it—besides, the flavour being well preserved, there was no outside rust to pare off and throw away.

With respect, your humble servant,
JEREMIAH KINDALL."

Godfrey Haga, Esq. who died on Monday week, at Philadelphia, made, by his last will, the following disposition of his property:—To the Pennsylvania Hospital one thousand dollars; to the Northern Dispensary, one thousand dollars; to the Southern Dispensary, one thousand dollars; to the Pennsylvania Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, one thousand dollars; to the German Society, two thousand dollars; to the Bible Society, four thousand dollars; to the Widow's Asylum, five thousand dollars; to the Orphan Asylum, ten thousand dollars; to sundry persons, fifty thousand five hundred dollars; to the Brethren's Church (the Moravian Church) in Philadelphia, two thousand dollars; for the relief of superannuated and their widows, belonging to the Brethren's Church, six thousand dollars; to the Society for Propagating the Gospel among the Heathen, twenty thousand dollars. This constitutes a fund, the interest of which is to be applied by the Society for the purpose of educating pious young men at Zazareth Hall, for the Gospel ministry. The residue of his estate, valued at more than two hundred thousand dollars, is bequeathed to the said Society for Propagating the Gospel among the Heathen, and to be appropriated, from time to time, as the Society shall direct.

Hill Dune!—Mr. Lewis H. Foote, of Elkton, Md. killed a hog on Monday week, which weighed 533 pounds. The weight of this hog on the 20th March last was 70 pounds—making an increase of four hundred and sixty-three pounds in two hundred and seventy days! Am. Par.

Extract of a letter received in Beviers, N. J. dated Paris, Dec. 13, 1824.

"The public attention is now entirely engrossed by the trial of persons accused of assassination, child-murder, and of the most incredible of all crimes, vamphyrium. This latter has been found guilty, condemned, and executed; for having stolen and killed a young girl of twelve or thirteen years of age, and satisfied his thirst by drinking the heart's blood of his victim, and his hunger, by feasting on the flesh of innocence. Who, in this enlightened age, would have dared to imagine such enormities; much less, who would have been thought possessed of the unnatural appetite for committing them? Yet the fact is but too true—the slaughtered victim was before our eyes; the heart open and dry; the crime confessed by the perpetrator of it; and, finally, the culprit's death has but feebly paid the forfeit of his crime."

Curious Bequest.—A Bachelor Gentleman, who came from England a few months ago, lately died in the neighborhood of N. York, and has directed by Will, that the whole of his personal property, amounting to about $20,000, after the payment of 1200 in legacies to his servants, consisting of a female, with him at the time of his decease, and a boy who left him a short time since, be equally divided between ten of the oldest maids resident within ten miles of his late and native abode, in England.

It is said that Mr. Cooper, the famous novelist, has undertaken a History of the American Navy. His "Pilot" proves his peculiar fitness for this enterprise. A complete, well digested history is much wanted. It may be endured, with the interest of romance without a deviation from fact, or extravagant colouring.—ib.

The Prices.—Four gentlemen of the name of Prices, all of very different dimensions, are members of a London society, and are thus distinguished by the other members—the tall one is called High Price, the short one Low Price, the fat one Full Price, and the thin one Half Price.

Salisbury, March 8, 1825.

The memorial from Abbeville, E. C. and Washington, Geo. on the subject of the National Road, shall be attended to in due season.

We owe an apology to our readers, for the inferior quality of the paper on which the "Carolinian" has now for two weeks been printed. A contingency which we could not foresee—and, consequently, beyond our control—caused a failure in our regular supply of good paper; we were obliged, therefore, to print on such as was within reach. Printers have often to complain of interruptions in the regular publication of their papers: the cause of these interruptions is almost invariably the same as that of which we are now complaining; and it requires much forecast and attention for us to meet every contingency incident to bad weather, bad faith, &c. This is the first time we have had to make an apology of this nature; and we hope it is the last: for we know the punctuality of our paper-maker (Mr. Shober, of Salem) forbids the idea of any failure on his part to supply us according to contract, as we have never yet been disappointed from that quarter.

GEN. LA FAYETTE.

The La Fayette committee of Fayetteville, in this State, have given notice to their fellow-citizens throughout the State, more particularly the participants in the Revolutionary war, to visit that town during the stay there of Gen. La Fayette, who was expected to arrive in Raleigh on the 2d or 3d inst., and be in Fayetteville on the 7th. How long he is expected to remain there, we are not informed; but we presume not long enough for any person to see him there, who has not started ere this. Cards of invitation to a splendid "La Fayette Ball" in that town, were received here week before last.

Mr. White: Please to give this place in the Western Carolinian:

THINGS I NEVER SAW.

A FARMER IN C. B. C.

WASHINGTON, FEB. 23.

Yesterday, being the Anniversary of the Birth Day of WASHINGTON, a respect for his memory was shown by the firing of salutes of artillery; and, notwithstanding the unpleasantness of the weather, several of the volunteer military companies of the city turned out, and made a handsome display. In the evening there was a splendid Ball, attended by the chief men of the nation, and a great number of citizens and strangers.

Charles Ball was recently convicted of manslaughter in Vermont, for the crime of killing his father, and was sentenced to the State Prison at hard labor for life. His mother, who was a witness on the trial, testified, that she had several children, and the prisoner was the mildest tempered of the whole of them!

Desha, the son of the Governor of Kentucky, has been found guilty of murder; but a new trial has been granted.

Cotton.—There has been quite a calm in the market for some days past—the high rates to which this staple had suddenly advanced; the scarcity of money, and the decline in Exchange, have brought most of the purchasers to a stand, and consequently very few sales have been effected.

NEW CAVALRY COMPANY.

A subscription paper is left at Major Yarbrough's Hotel, for receiving the names of such gentlemen as are disposed to join a new Cavalry company in this county.

THE SUPERIOR COURT.

By an act of the last General Assembly, the terms of the Superior Court for Rowan county have been altered. The spring term will commence on the first Monday in April, instead of the second Monday, as under the old regulation.

MISS.

On the 21st of February, instant, at her residence in Burke county, in the 45th year of her age, Mrs. Mary Tate, widow and relict of the late Col. Wm. Tate. She had been long and severely afflicted with a pulmonary consumption, which she bore with a fortitude and resignation worthy the christian spirit which she possessed. In the death of this amiable woman, society has sustained a loss, and her family a bereavement, which time cannot repair. In every walk of life, her conduct was most exemplary. As a wife, parent, friend, and neighbor, she was dutiful, affectionate, kind and charitable. While she lived in the practice of every social and domestic virtue, in the autumn of her life, when the influence of her example was felt and appreciated by her family and the community in which she lived, she fell a victim to the dreadful malady, which so frequently severs the bonds of friendship and affection. She had just passed the meridian of her days, like the sun in his evening's declination, quitting his splendor, but retaining his magnitude, and pleasing more, though dazzling less.

On virtue, still, her thoughts were ever turned; Her moral worth increased with years: Tho' in our parent earth, her form's inurn'd, Her memory is embalmed in tears.

COMMUNICATED.

On the 23d inst. at his house in Quebec, Henry Blackstone, Esq. (eldest son of the late Sir W. Blackstone, the distinguished Commentator on the Laws of England) for many years his Majesty's Coroner for the district of Quebec.

By Saturday's Mail.

Gen. La Fayette arrived in Raleigh on Wednesday last, the 2d inst. A dinner and ball was given to him the same evening, the particulars of which we have not yet learned. On Thursday evening, he left Raleigh for Fayetteville, where he proposed staying a few days. In the latter place, very splendid preparations were making for the General's reception and entertainment.

RALPHIGH, MARCH 1.

The elegant and spirited troop of Cavalry, commanded by Colonel Thomas Polk, arrived in this City yesterday.—They were met beyond the limits of the town and escorted down Fayetteville street, to the Government House, by the Raleigh Blues, where they were received and addressed by his Excellency Governor Burton.

The next Cabinet.—It is ascertained with certainty, that Mr. Clay will accept of the office of Secretary of State, and it is generally believed that Mr. Cheves will receive the appointment of Secretary of the Treasury, though Mr. Rush our present Minister to the Court of St. James, is also spoken of. The Richmond Enquirer says that Jas. Barbour, present Senator in Congress, has been offered and will accept the Department of War. It is also rumored, that Gov. Clinton will be sent as Minister to England in the Place of Mr. Rush, who has signified his wish to return home.

We understand that the Government has lately received Despatches from Mr. Richard C. Anderson, Minister Plenipotentiary at Bogota, (brought by Mr. Larz Anderson, brother of the Minister), and accompanied by two Treaties, which had been negotiated by him with the Government of Colombia; one of amity, commerce, and friendship, and the other for the suppression of the Slave Trade; both of which are now under the consideration of the Senate.

Very Late from South America.

By the arrival last evening of the brig Sylvester Healy, in the short passage of 13 days from Carthagen, we have the papers of that place to the 5th inst. inclusive.

They contain the articles of capitulation, entered into between the respective commanders of the Liberating and Spanish armies, after the total defeat and discomfiture of the latter; but they are at too great length for our columns, occupying in continuation the principal parts of several successive papers.

The paper of the 5th contains the first part of the Message of the Vice President of Colombia, at the opening of Congress.

CHARLESTON, FEB. 24.

By the brig James Monroe, Capt. Seybert, we last evening received New-Orleans papers to the 8th inst.

The Legislature of Louisiana have passed an act, authorizing the Governor to name three commissioners from each parish in the State, to make the necessary preparations for the reception of Gen. LA FAYETTE.

Ran Away.

FROM the subscriber, on the 1st of January last, a negro man, 27 years old next April, yellow complexioned, long straight nose; peak up in his forehead, very hollow-footed; a straight well built fellow; had on a fine green broad-cloth close bodied coat, a full'd cloth short-out coat, a store-checked pair of pantaloons, a black fur hat, and a fine shirt. He was in his possession a forged pass. Any person apprehending said negro, so that I can be satisfied, shall have twenty-five dollars reward.—WILLIAM RIDGE, February 28, 1825.

Concord Bible Society.

THE Annual meeting of the Concord bible society, will be held in Concord in Cabarrus county, on the last Wednesday in March, 1825. It is expected that a general attendance will be given, &c. A. G. McBEIE, Sec'y.

Notice.

IS once more given, to all overseers of the Stage Road, and the last time it will be given to them; but it has been done so often that it has become perfect to them; but you may all rest yourselves well assured, that you may all look out to pay well for your not keeping the Stage Road in such repair as for the United States mail to be carried. But many will say—The stage, it's nothing to me; let them get on as they can; I have got this to do, but can put it off longer, till the roads will get better. But this will not do any longer for me. This is warning to overseers, from Salisbury, in this State, to Mason's Ferry. I wish for no Gentlemen that wish the government/well to be defunded at it, &c. H. HARRISON. 3150

Tailoring.

THE subscriber having removed his establishment from the town of Salisbury, to Cabarrus county, six miles west of Concord, and half a mile south-east from Poplar Tent church, has prepared and opened a shop there for carrying on the Tailoring Business, in all its various branches; having a correspondent in the city of Philadelphia, he will receive, at short intervals, all the latest and most approved fashions from the northern cities; and will warrant his work to be executed in the most durable and workmanlike style. He solicits the custom of the citizens of Cabarrus; and assures them that his best exertions shall be devoted to their service. THOMAS V. CANON. Feb. 23, 1825. 3149

Carriage Making Business.

NATHAN BROWN respectfully informs the citizens of Lexington, and the adjacent country, that he has opened a shop in that town on Main-street, opposite Mr. Hargrave's store, where he will be glad to receive orders in the Carriage Making Business: all kind of repair will be done on short notice, and liberal terms.

Will also be carried on by him in the above named shop, in its various branches, and most moderate style. All orders, in either Carriage Making, or Windsor Chair Making, will be thankfully received, and faithfully executed, by the public's most humble servant, NATHAN BROWN. Lexington, Davidson co. Feb. 25, 1825.

Clock & Watch Repairing.

AARON WOOLWORTH takes this method to acquaint the citizens of Salisbury, and the adjacent country, that he has opened a shop in this place on Main-street, a few doors south of the Court-House, in the room adjoining Mr. Allison's store; where he is prepared to repair all kinds of Watches and Clocks, and warrant them to perform well for twelve months. He likewise will repair all kinds of Gold and silver work, in a neat, careful manner, and on very liberal terms. He solicits a share of patronage from the public, in his line of business; and only asks a fair trial, as he feels assured that he can satisfy any reasonable expectation, in all jobs in the above business. Salsbury, Feb. 16, 1825. 46

Strayed or Stolen.

FROM the subscriber, on the 24th inst. a bay horse, about fifteen hands high, nine or ten years old. He had on him a bridle, saddle and saddle-bags. The saddle-bags contained a full suit of black clothes, together with several other small articles; any person who will give me information respecting the said horse, so that I get him again, shall be liberally rewarded. M. W. MOORR. Salsbury, Feb. 28, 1825. 3149

LOOK OUT FOR

Bennet Solomon and Sally Gouger. A FEW days since, Bennet Solomon left his wife with three small children, in the county of Cabarrus, near to Millgrove, without any apparent early support. It is believed, beyond a doubt, that he has seduced a young woman by the name of Sally Gouger, to elope with him, as she has not been seen in this place since Solomon's elopement. Said Solomon is, as to stature, of diminutive size; round face, short neck; light coloured hair, of soft speech, of suspicious look, and down cast countenance when interrogated, and tallow complexioned, had on when he went from here, a blue broadcloth coat, and a red striped plaid cloak, and is extremely fond of a gun; hates to work, but is fond of women, shad-fish and cider. Said Solomon went off in my debt, $125, or thereabouts, 35 of which was lent money, and $15 of which was for security money. It is, by some, supposed that he will secrete himself in the county of Montgomery, where his father and some of his relatives live. He personally took care to collect his Miss Sally Gouger's dowry before they left this place. I am not the only sufferer; he owes a great many others in this county. I would be truly thankful to any person that would give me any information by sending a few lines to the Post Office in this place, North Carolina, Cabarrus county, Concord, so that I can find where he has secreted himself; and also send the editors of papers in this State, Georgia, Alabama, and Tennessee, to insert the above, and in so doing they will sympathize with his unfortunate wife and children, and myself, a poor, unfortunate, old man. JOHN B. SKELINGTON. January 26, 1825. 3149

Estate of Alex. Long, decd. THE subscriber having qualified as executor of the last will of Alexander Long, late of Rowan county, dec'd. at the court of pleas and quarter sessions for the said county, held on the third Monday of November last, notice is hereby given, that all persons having demands against the said estate, are required to present them for payment, within the time prescribed by law. JAMES I. LONG, Executor. Dec. 24, 1824. 41

The Co-Partnership

HERETOFORE existing between the subscribers, was dissolved by mutual consent on the 7th inst. The settlement of the affairs devolves on Charles F. V. Reeve, to whom all persons indebted to the late firm of BRIDGEWOOD & REEVE, will make payment. THOMAS BRIDGEWOOD, CHARLES F. V. REEVE.

The China, Glass and Earthen-Ware business, will be continued by CHARLES F. V. REEVE, on his own account, at his store, No 281 King-Street, opposite the Merchant's Hotel, who has received, by recent arrivals from Europe, 650 packages Liverpool and French Ware.

30 cases New-York manufactured gilt and mahogany framed Looking Glasses. Also, a general and extensive assortment of the most fashionable and improved patterns of Crochery, China, Glass-Ware, &c. suitable for town and country trade, which are now offered to the public on the most liberal terms.

Also, all the right, title, interest, estate, claim and demand, both at law and in Equity, which the said Seth Wade had of, in and to the estate of Thomas Stillwell, late of Johnston county, deceased; and of, in and to a certain suit pending in the Court of Equity for Randolph county, wherein the said Seth Wade was complainant, and Eleanor W.
