We are authorized to say, that James Campbell, Esq. Alexander Torrence, Esq. and James E. Hill, Esq. are candidates to represent Iredell county in the House of Commons of the next General Assembly. Gen. Geo. L. Davidson is a candidate for the Senate, without opposition.

THE NEW JUDGE.

We learn, by a gentleman direct from Raleigh, that no doubt existed in the minds of any one there when he left, but that Thomas Ruffin, Esq. late Judge of the Superior Courts of this state, would be nominated to the Council by the Governor, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Judge Badger.

INTERNAL IMPROVEMENT.

Maj. Fenwick, a member of the Board of Internal Improvement, passed through this town, on his way home to Lincoln county, on the 10th inst. It was the intention of the Board to have taken a survey of the Roads and Rivers in this county, and Judge Badger rendering it necessary for the Governor (who is, ex officio, President of the Board) to call together, and preside in the Council of State, for the purpose of making an appointment to supply the vacancy on the bench of the Superior Court.

The Directors of the Bank of Cape Fear, have declared a dividend of three per cent. for the half year ending on the 30th of June last.

In noticing the late anniversary of the Declaration of Independence, we perceive that many of our Editorial brethren have fallen into the mistake of styling it the fiftieth anniversary. This is the commencement of the fiftieth year of the Declaration of American Independence; but the 4th of July past is only the forty-ninth anniversary of that event.

NEW CHURCH.

At a meeting of a number of the citizens of Salisbury, in the court-house, on Saturday, the 9th inst. the subject of building a new Presbyterian Church in said town, was brought before the meeting, and discussed at considerable length. It was finally resolved, that it is expedient to erect a new Church, as soon as funds sufficient are subscribed.

We only have time and space sufficient in this day's paper, to state, that the brigade of U. States Engineers, composed of Gen. Bernard, Col. Shriver, Maj. Pousin, and Lieuts. Dutton and Triplett, arrived in this place on Saturday last, one party via of Yorkville, Charlotte, &c.; and the other by Greenville, Lincoln, &c. It is expected they will leave here this day (Tuesday, the 19th of July.)

NEW RELIGIOUS PAPER.

We have received the prospectus of a Religious Newspaper, contemplated to be published in the Town of Fayetteville, by the Rev. Robert H. Morrison, to be called the "North Carolina Telegraph." The Editor professes to have, for his object, the diffusion of intelligence, the correction of error, the removal of prejudice, the restraining of vice, and the cherishing of virtue.

To the great moral utility of publications of this nature, no Christian, no Philanthropist, will for a moment hesitate to bear the most ample testimony. The money that is paid for Religious Newspapers by the citizens of North Carolina, is sufficient to sustain two printing establishments; and we cannot be induced to believe, but that at least one half of those who take these papers from a distance, would very readily change their subscription to one at home.

Account from Madrid of May 9, state that news had arrived that the troops at Seville, having nothing to live upon, had risen and proceeded in a body to the residences of the canons and dignitaries of the church, whose doors they forced open, and pillaged their houses, crying "Down with the clergy! Down with the absolute government."

The English Continental Gas Association has made proposals to the Roman Government; on which a report is to be made. It is proposed to make the gas of olive oil, to promote the cultivation of the olive. It is intended to have two steam boats at Fiumicino, the port of Tiber; one of which is to navigate between Rome and the mouth of the river, and the other between Rome and Naples.

The Greek government has at present 35,000 men in pay, and the number is daily increasing. Count Metaxas, of Cephalonia, appointed commissary general of the army, has received 30,000 large piastres, for the purpose of making purchases at Zante, which he is doing every day without the slightest obstacle being thrown in his way by the British government, which permits them.

A letter from Constantinople of the 23d April, states, "that alarming news had arrived from the Morea. Ibrahim Pacha is in a desperate situation; he is surrounded by the Greeks; who are hastening to the spot from all quarters. The landing of this Egyptian in Greece, has been the signal for a levy en-masse. The masters of Christian vessels arriving from the coasts, consider Ibrahim as ruined."

Serious troubles took place at Trebisonde, at the beginning of March. The Pacha has lost his son; the town is surrounded by the rebellious agas. No particulars of this revolt have been received.

An agreement has been made between the Turkish Government and the Pacha of Egypt, by which the latter is to receive the revenues of the Morea for 50 years, if he can wrest that country from the Greeks.

The negotiation between Portugal and the Brazils is said to be finished. The Emperor will keep the sovereignty of the Brazils during the life of his father, and continue to reside at Rio Janeiro.

COTTON.

It is said to be an ascertained fact, that the late extensive speculations in the English cotton market have been principally by the banker Rothschild, and the merchants Cropper, Benson & Co. A London paper remarks that "Rothschild, while he advances Cotton above cent per cent. beats down with the same hand, the funds of all Europe 6 to 8 per cent. and then getting clear of his Cotton at the turn of the market to decline, buys into the funds of Europe at the turn of the Market to rise."

In the course of the debate on the war and marine budgets, the minister of marine stated, that every effort was made by the French government to prevent the continuance of the slave trade. All suspected vessels were watched strictly; and whenever any of them entered French harbours, their cargoes were closely examined, and if any thing was detected by which it could be inferred that they were intended to transport negroes, they were detained, and their captains and proprietors prosecuted.

A Paris paper states that Ferdinand is willing to recognise the independence of Mexico, on condition that his brother, the Infant Don-Francisco de Paulo, shall be placed on the throne, under the protection of Spain. M. Valjejo has been despatched to Milan, on a mission to the Emperor of Austria, with this project.

From Coca, a town between Segovia and Valladolid, we learn that a landed proprietor, in whose house were found the stone of the Constitution, and some arms, was sentenced to a fine of 1,000 ducats (991.) and to be banished for a year. The fiscal has called on the court to sentence him to the gibbet. At Porreix, in Catalonia, the friends of the altar and the throne set fire to the house of a rich farmer, suspected of negroism, and the unfortunate man, with a family, consisting of ten individuals, perished.

An edict of the archbishop of Tarragona has been published, authorizing the establishment of a new inquisition in Spain; composed of a junta of persons nominated by the archbishop, to proceed to the punishment which formerly came under the cognizance of the holy tribunal of the inquisition.

The Catholic Relief Bill was rejected in the House of Lords on the 16th May, by a majority of 43. It is stated that the debate was the most animated and protracted that has been for many years. The public interest seemed roused to the highest pitch.

The bill now before Parliament, on the subject of the Customs, will repeal 463 acts of Parliament. Accounts from all parts of the country representing the present spring as the most promising there has been for many years. An extensive coinage has taken place for exportation to the English Colonies, to supersede dollars, &c.

In the House of Commons on the 18th of May, a motion was made to repeal the window tax, from and after April, 1825. On voting the question, there was a majority of 37 against it. It is stated, that all differences which have taken place between Mr. O'Connell and Mr. Lawley, have been settled by the mediation of some common friends.

Ministers had communicated three state papers to parliament, of considerable importance, from the foreign department. The first was a treaty with Russia, settling the disputed claims which existed, with regard to certain rights of trade and navigation in the Pacific.

The second was a treaty between England and Sweden, providing for the establishment of the mutual right of search for the more effectual suppression of the slave trade. The third, the official document of the treaty of amity and commerce between England and the United States of La Plata.

The London papers speak of a rival this year to the popularity of the Rev. Mr. Irving. A Mr. Benson, who preaches in St. Giles' Church, is the fashion. He is represented to be, in manner and style, a striking contrast to the Scottish apostle.

Salaries of Judges.—In the House of Commons on the 16th, a resolution passed to raise the salaries of the Judges, instead of leaving them to a small fixed salary, and other precarious sources. The salaries of the Judges of the King's Bench was raised from about 9000 to 10,000; the Chief Justices of Common Pleas to 8000; Master of the Rolls 7000; Ch. Baron of the exchequer to 7000; Chancellor from 5000 to 6000; and the Puisne Judges 4000 to 6000.

France.—In the course of the debate on the war and marine budgets, the minister of marine stated, that every effort was made by the French government to prevent the continuance of the slave trade. All suspected vessels were watched strictly; and whenever any of them entered French harbours, their cargoes were closely examined, and if any thing was detected by which it could be inferred that they were intended to transport negroes, they were detained, and their captains and proprietors prosecuted.
