Envy not the mighty great,
Those powerful rulers of the state Who settle nations as they please,

HOPE.
Eternal Hope! when yonder spheres sublime, Pealed their first notes to sound the march of time,

DRAWING ROOM OF A VILLAGE INN.

On casting my eyes round the room The idea suddenly struck me, that every one of the company was simultaneously employed in the act of drawing,

TO MAKE SALT BUTTER FRESH.

Put four pounds of salt butter into a churn with four quarts of new milk, and a small portion of arnotts.

It is common to say, that a liar will not be believed, although he should speak the truth; but the converse of this proposition is equally true,

FROM THE SAVANNAH GEORGIAN.

Publishers of newspapers sometimes receive queer letters concerning the fate of some of their papers—the following note, pithy and to the point,

Sir: The paper which you send to this office for—, is not taken out—one of the firm having run away,

THE CONVENTION QUESTION—NO. 1.
Mr. Editor: The convention question has, for various reasons, lain dormant for a considerable length of time;

With this view, I have commenced the subject, with the expectation that all the real friends of the measure will lend their aid, and exert their influence, to accomplish an object in which every person regarding equal rights, must feel deeply interested.

The present constitution was formed when this country was involved in war; at a time when it cannot be supposed that the minds of the people were in that state of cool and calm deliberation,

In enumerating the many grievances under which the people at present labor, the first, and most prominent, is, that of representation in the General Assembly.

The convention question is at present warmly agitated in Virginia, and there can be no doubt of its final success.

At a recent Squirrel Hunt in this town, the following number of Quadruples were killed:
Squirrels, 466; Woodpeckers, 48;

To lessen the number of our desires, at least produce the same effect as proportionably to increase the power of gratifying them—and he who can reduce his wishes within the limit of the real demands of nature, will place himself beyond the reach of by far the greater number of the usual sources of discontent.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriwest of Lincolnton, on the 26th day of May, a negro boy named BILL, about 20 years of age, dark complexion, about five feet six or eight inches high, eyes considerably sunk in his head; he has no other particular marks, except a scar the cut of a knife, and several large warts on his face; he had on (when last seen in the neigh-he was raised in the neighborhood of Petersburg, in Virginia, and it is probable that he is trying to get back again. The above reward will be given by me, to any one that will deliver him to me, or to secure him in any jail so that I can get him again. CHARLES SHOLL.
