

THE FARM.

AGRICULTURAL HINTS.

Great God of Eden! 'Twas thy hand That first did earth to man reveal...

Fresh at thy glance the flowers spring, Kind'd by the Sun's first rays...

God of the Clouds! thy hands can open The fountains of the sky, And on the exponent thunders stop...

The Farmer, when the seed time's o'er, Sings in the morning green...

God of the Harvest! in thee alone Are due our thanks and praise, When Harvest's grateful labour's done...

They shall our thoughts on Heav'n's rest, Thy grace we will adore, And think that God, whose mercy's blest...

CONSCIENCE.

Conscience, what art thou! thou tremendous power,

Who dost inhabit us without our leave; And art within ourselves another self...

How dost thou fight a torch to distant deeps! Make the past, present, and the future frown!

As with a pool of thunder, to strange horrors, In this long restless dream, which ideots hug...

A TOUCH OF THE SUBLIME.

Give ear, ye woods, ye hills and mountains, Ye swelling floods, ye rills and fountains...

Let lightning round the skies be driven, Let thunder shake th' expanse of heaven...

Let all things wear a general black; E'en let the sun his rays keep back...

THE PROVERB DISCUSSED.

"There's time for all things" it was said By him who Wisdom plac'd his bliss in...

There's kissing time, I'll not deny; But, then, that time (excuse me, sir!) Can never come when you are by."
