

POETRY.

[SALICIA.]

THE VALE OF LOVE.

I know a dear and lovely spot,
A scene of sunshine and of flowers,
And gladly would I fix my lot Amid its shining lawns and bowers.

FROM THE SEVENTH EVENING POST.

ARDENT SPIRITS.

The grape's invigorating juice,
Was given to man for proper use—
To ease the weak and faint;
And every vintage from the field,
Abundant healing drink would yield,

May 1st, 1826.

EGBERT.

[SALICIA.]

EPITAPH ON BONAPARTE.

Upon thy self-erected throne,
Thy genius like a meteor shone;
The world beheld thee, and admired;
Kings trembled, flattered, and retired

MISCELLANEOUS.

VANITY REPROVES ITSELF.

The following anecdote is an old one; but it is true to nature. When a person attempts to set up pretensions, who is not such by nature, by habit, or education, he will, most assuredly, ex-

ED. WEST, CARO.

"A London Tailor, worth thirty thousand pounds, died and left his estate to a thriftless son, who felt as much mortified at being the son of a tailor, as the Father does at being de-

He filled his bumper to the top,
And always fairly drank it up;
Well done! says Jack, a buck of York,
You go thro' ditch air, with your work.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

"Though a woman before her marriage may be admired for her gaiety, her dancing, dress, pointing, singing, &c. yet after it, we expect her charac-

"A man does not want to be doggled in his matrimonial connexion, or to possess a partner who seeks the ad-

"On the day of her marriage," says an admired writer, "a woman's tour of gaiety should end." In one of the How indecorous, offensive and sinful, is it to see a woman exercising authority over her husband, and say-

Assiduously conceal your husband's faults, and speak only of his merit.
In the marriage life, confidants are by

I would also strongly recommend a concealment from others of any little discord or disunion which occurs

In my opinion, there can hardly be a more despicable object than a married woman receiving the particular

RELIGION A SOURCE OF HAPPINESS.

There is no subject in all the range that an intelligent being can take below the skies so fascinating as true religion.

Some kidney Beans found in Herculaneum, have been planted and grew. They have remained in a state of preservation,

UNITED STATES LAWS.

An act making appropriations for the support of the Navy of the United States for the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, for defraying the expenses

For the pay and subsistence of the officers, and pay of the women, other than those at Navy

For the pay, subsistence, and allowances of officers, and pay of seamen and others at Navy

For the pay of Naval Constructors, Superintendents, and all the Civil Establishment at the

For repairs and improvements of Navy Yards, one hundred and seventy thousand dollars, to wit:

For a survey of the harbor of Savannah and Brunswick, in Georgia, Beaufort in South-Carolina, and Baltimore, Maryland, with a view to

For medicines, surgical instruments, and hospital stores, and all other expenses on account

For defraying the expenses which may ac-cure during the year one thousand eight hun-

For freight and transportation of materials, and stores of every description; for warlike

For contingent expenses for objects arising during the year one thousand eight hundred

For the pay and subsistence of the officers, non-commissioned officers, musicians, privates,

For clothing for the same, twenty-eight thousand seven hundred and sixty-five dollars.

For fuel for the same, six thousand dollars.

For contingencies, that is to say: for travelling expenses of officers, and transportation for

For sundry expenses arising in the current year, not hereinbefore mentioned, five hun-

For medicines, hospital stores, and instruments for the officers and marines stationed on

For barracks, nine thousand dollars.

For the Agency on the coast of Africa, for receiving the negroes, mulattoes, and persons

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the several sums hereby appropriated, shall be paid

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That no money appropriated for this act shall be paid to

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That the balance of the sum of one hundred and twenty

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That the sum of one hundred and twenty thousand dol-

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That the sum of one hundred and twenty thousand dol-

Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That the sum of one hundred and twenty thousand dol-

Sec. 8. And be it further enacted, That the sum of one hundred and twenty thousand dol-

Sec. 9. And be it further enacted, That the sum of one hundred and twenty thousand dol-

Sec. 10. And be it further enacted, That the sum of one hundred and twenty thousand dol-

Sec. 11. And be it further enacted, That the sum of one hundred and twenty thousand dol-

Sec. 12. And be it further enacted, That the sum of one hundred and twenty thousand dol-

Dissolution.

THE mercantile concern heretofore existing at Wilkesboro, N. C. under the firm of B. J. Parks & Co. is this day dissolved, by mutual consent.

WM. P. WAUGH,
JOHN FINLEY,
BENJ. J. PARKS.

Wilkesboro, Oct. 11, 1825. 412

William P. Waugh.

AFTER returning thanks to the public for their liberal patronage, takes this opportunity of informing them, that he has just opened a general assortment of GOODS, at the stand

Wilkesboro, April 13, 1826. 412

New Store and Tavern

IN WILKESBORO.

THE subscriber has opened a House of Entertainment in the town of Wilkesboro, at the stand lately occupied by Joel Yarnoy. He pledges himself that his Table, his Rooms, his

He has also opened a new and extensive assortment of GOODS, adjoining the establishment, which he will sell low for cash, produce,

April 13, 1826. BENJ. J. PARKS.

NEW STORE

IN LEXINGTON, N. CAROLINA.

THE subscribers having entered into copartnership, in the Mercantile business, under the firm of Brown & Hunt, in the Town of

March 6, 1826. MICHAEL BROWN, ANDREW HUNT.

Estate of Robt. Simonton.

ON Tuesday, the 30th day of this instant, will be sold, at Public Vendue, at the late residence of Robert Simonton, Esq. in the Town of Also, several valuable Plantations in the neighborhood of Statesville, on some of which is wheat, oats, and corn, now planted, and

The sale will continue from day to day, till the whole is disposed of. A reasonable credit

GEORGE L. DAVIDSON,
THEOPHILUS FALLS, } Es'rs.
JAMES CAMPBELL, }
May 2nd, 1826. 413

Estate of Robt. Simonton.

ALL persons indebted to the estate of Robert Simonton, Esq. are required to make immediate payment; and all those having claims

GEORGE L. DAVIDSON,
THEOPHILUS FALLS, } Es'rs.
JAMES CAMPBELL, }
May 2d, 1826. 413

Valuable House and Lot.

IN the town of Salisbury, for sale. The subscriber will dispose of his House and Lot in the town of Salisbury, at a bargain, and on ac-April 29, 1826. GEORGE MILLER.

N. B. If the house is not sold soon, it will be rented to any one who will take good care of

New Leather! New Fashions!

BENEZER DICKSON again tenders his unfeigned thanks to those who have patronized him, and begs leave to inform them and all and new Leathers and Boot Trees which will enable him, by his own faithful attention to his shop, of as good materials, in as fashionable a style, and workmanlike manner, as any in the United

Call at the sign of the BIG BOOT, opposite Street, Salisbury, N. C.
Dec. 3d, 1825. 68

Masonic Celebration.

THE 24th June (being the anniversary of the birth of St. John the Baptist) will be celebrated by Masons Lodge, No. 52, at April 2, 1826. 715

The Latest Fashions.

JACOB HEBEL has again to announce the citizens of the town of Lexington, (Davidson county) and the public at large,

Tailoring Business.

In all its various branches, in the above-named place, where he pledges himself to be ready, at all times, to execute fashionable and durable

Lexington, April 26, 1826. 712

Tailoring.

THOMAS V. CANON,
RESPECTFULLY informs the fashionable part of the community, and all such as

To all to whom these presents shall come, Be it known, that I, Allen Ward, of Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania, have nominated and appointed Mr. Thos. V. Canon, of Con-

March 27, 1826. 99 ALLEN WARD, [seal.]

Estate of Charles Biles.

ALL persons who have any claims against the estate of Charles Biles, dec'd. are desired to present them to the administrators, without SAM'L LEMLEY, } Ad'rs.

ALEX. BOYD, }
March 27, 1826. 94

THE FINE YOUNG HORSE

AERONAUT,

DESCENDED from the most renowned stock of Horses ever bred in England

AERONAUT will be five years old next spring; is greatly improved since the last season, in size, grandeur, symmetry and elegance, being now

Robert Moore will be shown at the terms of the Superior Courts in Salisbury, Statesville, and

Feb. 23, 1826. ROBERT MOORE.

Notice to all whom it may concern.

ON the first day of December 1825, I excuted two bonds, of three hundred dollars each, one due the 25th Dec. 1825, the other

DAVID AYERIST.

Estenton, Geo. April 3, 1826. 429