

POETRY.

ACROSTIC.

Was the best learning of the tragic art Drove full conviction to the willing heart.

EPIGRAM.

A better case into his basket did pass,
And proved a young child lying in safety.

MISCELLANEOUS.

JOHN RANDOLPH.

John Randolph, of Roanoke, is now about sixty-two years of age; upwards of six feet high; remarkably erect; late deal between those gentlemen.

Indeed, when we bear in mind the envy and malice he has so long entertained

THE FINE YOUNG HORSE
AERONAUT.
DESCENDED from the most renowned stock of Horses ever bred in England and America, will stand the annexed season at my stable, in Rowan County, ten miles North East from Salisbury, at twenty dollars the season, payable by sixteen dollars if paid within the season; ten dollars (cash) the single leap; and thirty dollars to insure a mare to be with foal, provided the property of the mare is not changed, but no liability for accidents can be admitted.

ERONAUT will be five years old next spring; is greatly improved since the last season, in size, grandeur, symmetry and elegance, being now sixteen hands high, remarkably heavy made, and yet so constructed as to exhibit the finest action. His constitution is not only sound, but of the most healthy, vigorous and durable cast, calculated to endure the greatest exercise without failure. He is a fine mahogany bay, his color most highly esteemed by the greatest judges on the subject, and free from all blemish or imperfection.

ERONAUT was gotten by the celebrated imported horse Eagle; his dam by the imported horse Dion; grandam by Expectation, one of the best sons of the imported horse Diomedes, out of a Medley mare, &c. Expectation was the favorite horse of his day in North-Carolina, his breeder Rubicon, Molly Long-legs, &c. The celebrated horse Eclipse and Lightyear, of England, were both his great-grandfathers; and the famous Horse Flying Childers, considered the fleetest horse ever known in England, or perhaps in the world, was the grand sire of Eclipse.
Aeronaut will be shown at the terms of the Superior Courts in Salisbury, Statesville, and Lexington; where gentlemen disposed to view him, can decide for themselves whether he is not the finest young horse ever produced in this state. He will be found regularly at his station, except when taken to be shown at public places. His pedigree and reputation, will be further illustrated in handbills, at the commencement of the season.

State of North Carolina, Rowan county:
IN Equity, April term, 1826. Joseph Luther and Anna his wife, vs. Daniel Herman and Polly his wife, William Yarbrough and Winifred his wife, William Elliott, William Manuel and Jane his wife; Petition for the sale of real estate. The complainants having shown to the satisfaction of the court, that the above named defendants are not residents of this state; it is therefore ordered, that publication be made in the Western Carolinian for three months successively, that unless the said defendants, Daniel Herman and Polly his wife, William Yarbrough and Winifred his wife, William Elliott, William Manuel and Jane his wife, appear at Salisbury on the second Monday after the fourth Monday in September next, and answer, or show cause why the prayer of the petition should not be granted, an order of sale will be made absolute, and they estopped from making any future objection.

State of North Carolina, Rowan county:
IN Equity, April term, 1826. John A. Chaf-fin and others, vs. Nathan Chaffin, John Johnston and Rebecca his wife, and others. It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that John Johnston and Rebecca his wife, are not resident in this state, it is therefore ordered that publication be made in the Western Carolinian for six weeks successively, that unless the said John Johnston and Rebecca his wife, appear at the next term of this court, to be held at the court-house in Salisbury on the second Monday after the fourth Monday in September next, and answer, or show cause to the satisfaction of complainants, the same will be taken, pro confesso as to them, and decree entered accordingly.

State of North Carolina, Stokes county: COURT of pleas and quarter sessions, March 1826; William Duggins, vs. Edmund Beasley; judicial attachment, levied on land. In this case, it is ordered by court, that publication be made for six weeks in the Western Carolinian, notifying the defendant to appear at our next court of pleas and quarter sessions to be held for said county, at our next court of pleas and quarter sessions to be held for said county on the 2nd Monday in June next, then and there to reply, plead, answer, or demur, otherwise judgment will be taken against him.
