

and apparently the most... The... of the world... of the world... of the world...

New-York.—The North-Carolina Journal, of the 25th ult. in noticing the nominations for Governor in the state of New-York, says: "The Union Convention was composed principally of Federal gentlemen, the Herkimer Convention was composed of Buck-Tails."

AGRICULTURAL SHOW. The exhibition of live stock, and of domestic hogs, manufactures, under the Roman Agricultural Society, was held in this place, on Thursday last.

LITERARY PRIZES. The proprietor of the Philadelphia Album intends distributing the following literary prizes. The merit of the pieces to be decided by a committee of literary gentlemen of Philadelphia, viz:

Our town has been healthy during the whole season, and it is hoped and believed that the cool weather, which we now enjoy, will effectually dispel the few traces of autumnal chills and fevers.

Our River is now in fine boating order, our Merchants are receiving and opening an unusual supply of Dry-Goods and Groceries, which, they say, they can afford to sell at very low prices.

We are requested to state, that $50 counterfeit Bills, purporting to be the issue of the Bank of Cape Fear, are in circulation. From certain circumstances, we are led to apprehend, that they have originated in the neighborhood of Columbia, S. C.

It is stated in the Norfolk Beacon, that the Grand Jury of Gates county, in this State, at the last term of the Superior Court, presented the White Oak Spring Canal Company, for not having performed their contract with the State.

On Wednesday evening the British Sloop of War Harlequin, arrived at New York from Carthagena, with $385,000 in doubloons, in part payment for the Frigate La Plata, built by Mr. Eckford.

It is stated in the Quebec papers that some chests of treasure, which were lost in a frigate, sixty-seven years ago, in the St. Lawrence, about nine miles above that place, have been found.

The British frigate Sybille has lost 100 men killed and wounded, in an attack upon some Greek pirates, and was obliged to withdraw from the contest, and surrender a prize and some prisoners she had taken.

Two Deer were found dead a few days since, in St. Thomas' Parish, with their horns so firmly locked together, as to render it impossible to separate them, now that their heads have been severed from their bodies, without breaking the horns.

Lock Jaw.—A physician, in the western county, has cured a patient of this dreadful malady, by causing his legs to be immersed to the knees in fresh warm ley.

The Greenville (S. C.) Republican, says, that a specimen of gold found in the district, was lately exhibited there—the piece was worth nine dollars and was found on Tiger river.

A Sad Mistake.—A rattle snake was about a fortnight since discovered in the canal, in Warwarsink, by an emigrant from the land of St. Patrick; who supposing it to be an eel, without any ceremony grappled it, exclaiming, "An eel! an eel, by the powers!"

An Ostrich upwards of 9 feet high, weighing more than 200 pounds, bearing both the white and blue feathers, has been added to the royal menagerie in London.

An apparatus has been invented at London, which is calculated to reduce fluids from the state of steam, or the highest degree of boiling heat, to the temperature of spring water. The process may be performed with any required rapidity; or, in other words, any number of gallons may be cooled or heated, per minute, by the employment of equal quantities of cooling or heating fluid.

On the 15th July, two wealthy Jews were executed at Constantinople. One of them was a broker to the Janissaries; the other was one of the richest bankers in the empire. His property, to the amount of forty million of piastres, was confiscated.

The last Jackson (Ten.) Gazette states, that since the resumption of specie payments by the Tennessee Banks, North Carolina money is at a discount of 5 per cent, at Nashville; and the United States notes bear a premium of 3 per cent.

Letters from Florida, received in New York, state that young Murat and Col. Macomb, of Tallahassee, had recently fought a duel in that territory; and that the former was wounded, but not severely.

As in the gloomiest years, some days Of milder nature bless; So his, however sad, displays His glooms of happiness.

CHARLESTON PRICES, Oct. 23. Cotton, 50 to 55; sugar, 10 to 12; coffee, 10 to 12; rice, 10 to 12; indigo, 10 to 12; tobacco, 10 to 12.

CHARLESTON PRICES, Oct. 23. Cotton, 50 to 55; sugar, 10 to 12; coffee, 10 to 12; rice, 10 to 12; indigo, 10 to 12; tobacco, 10 to 12.

CAMDEN PRICES, Oct. 21. Cotton, 50 to 55; sugar, 10 to 12; coffee, 10 to 12; rice, 10 to 12; indigo, 10 to 12; tobacco, 10 to 12.

CHERRY PRICES, OCT. 27. Cotton 50 to 55; sugar 10 to 12; coffee 10 to 12; rice 10 to 12; indigo 10 to 12; tobacco 10 to 12.

MARRIED. In Iredell county, on the 19th ult. by the Rev. D. Gould, Mr. Ezra A. Sharpe to Miss Asenith King, daughter of Elisha S. King, Esq.

DEED. At Charlotte, on the 17th instant, Mr. Duncan Campbell, aged 35 years, and on the 13th, John Foundling, the little innocent who was inhumanly left in a miserable hovel near this place last winter, an account of which was published in our paper of January 3.

In Iredell county, on the 22d ult. at an advanced age, Mrs. Harris, relict of the late Maj. Thomas Harris. Also, in the same neighborhood, (Centre Congregation) on the 23d ult. Mr. Joseph Templeton, aged 77 years.

In Mecklenburg county, at the house of Rankin Alexander, Esq., on the 23d ult. after a short and severe illness, Mrs. Margaret M. Wynans, aged 17, wife of Mr. William Wynans, and daughter of Alexander Torrance, Esq. of Iredell county.

By Saturday's Mail. In the trials which have lately taken place in New-York, of Messrs. Eckford, Barker, and others, our readers have been informed that Jacob Barker conducted his own defence.

The Baltimore Patriot says, that by late information from the elections in Ohio, it is pretty well ascertained that of the members to the 20th Congress, twelve will be in favor of the administration, and two against it.

The trial which has occupied the attention of a Court of Oyer and Terminer, in New-York for the last month, has passed before the Jury. Later papers state, that the Jury having given it as their opinion, that it would be impossible for them to agree were they to remain together a month, the Court ordered them to be discharged. Since their dismissal, it is ascertained, that they were divided in the following manner—seven in favor of convicting all the defendants, and eight in favor of convicting all but Henry Eckford. This inability on the part of the Jury to agree as to the innocence of any of the party implicated, seems to evidence a stronger color of guilt, on the part of the defendants, than we were before willing to admit.

Our representation in the 20th Congress, will be composed of the following gentlemen, viz: William Drayton, James Hamilton, J. T. R. Mitchell, Stirling Tucker, John Carter, Geo. McWhorter, Wm. D. Martin, Warren Davis and W. T. Nuckolls—the three last named are new members, in the room of Andrew R. Goran, John Wilson, and Joseph Gier.

COTTON.—A letter, dated the 19th ult. from New-York, says: "The Cotton market is about half a cent better than last week; 11 1/2 cents is obtained for the best of the old crop, but purchasers are unwilling to go higher."

From Buenos-Ayres.—By an arrival at Portsmouth, (N. H.) late advices from Buenos Ayres have been received. About a month since, Admiral Brown in the Buenos Ayrian service, had a severe engagement with the Brazilian Squadron; the Brazilians being far superior in numbers, were advancing to attack Brown—but he went among them in the night, and a severe action took place in the outer roads of Buenos Ayres.

It is said the Buenos Ayrians are about invading Rio Grande, a Brazilian province, and Gen. Le Core in the Brazilian service was about leaving Mont Video to take command of the Emperor's troops stationed at St. Anna, said to consist of 3000 cavalry and 5000 infantry.

The Island of Chiloe has declared its independence of the Chilean Government. This was brought about by Gen. O'Higgins, ex-director of Chile. Admiral Blanes has been elected president of Chile. Lima is tranquil. Cordova has recalled her deputies from Congress, and had marched troops against Catamarca.

The Paper Currency of Buenos Ayres was much depreciated, say fifty per cent. Gold ounces or Dubloons being worth 26 paper dollars.

BALTIMORE, OCT. 27. From Havre.—From our correspondents of the New York Mercantile Advertiser, we learn that the brig Delta, of Boston, sailed from Havre Sept 19th.

From Gibraltar.—The schnr. Hyphen, which arrived at New York on Tuesday evening, left Gibraltar Bay on the 27th ult. but had no communication with the town subsequent to the 24th.

Parish, Corning & Co. HAVE received by the late arrivals, their usual Fall Stock of British, India, French and Domestic DRY GOODS.

New Winter... THE Subscriber respectfully informs... Dress Coats, Pants... Accompanying the cut of several styles and figures, in terms, in full dress, the subscribers will be glad to furnish the most perfect system of arrangements, with unobscured precision.

NAIL MANUFACTORY... Now in operation, at the High Shoals of the South Fork, about seven miles south of Lincolnton, under the superintendance of Mr. Rogers, a first-rate Miller, late from Pennsylvania; where can be had all sizes of Cut Nails and Brads, together with every description of Wrought Iron and Castings.

Advertisement to Creditors. THE subscribers having qualified as administrators to the estate of Col. West Harris, deceased, give notice to all persons having demands against the estate of said Col. West Harris, dead, to present them for payment within the time required by an act of assembly, entitled "an act concerning proving wills and granting letters of administration, to prevent frauds in the management of intestate estates;" otherwise they will be barred of recovery, by the operation of the said act.

Book-Binder's Tools. AT the public sale of the tools belonging to the Book-Binder who left this place a few years since, a number of individuals are believed to have purchased articles, who may yet have them in possession, and to whom they can be of little or no value.

Ten Dollars Reward. RAN away from Henry Green, and Henry Probst, living in Caharras county, on the 5th of June last, a Negro man by the name of JOP, aged about 30 years, complexion black, very black, a flat nose, two or three of his front upper teeth gone, with small eyes a good deal sunk in his head.

Judge Murphey's Lottery. IN consequence of the failure of several persons in whose hands Tickets had been placed for sale, to make returns to the Commissioner, of the Tickets which they had sold, the drawing of this Lottery did not commence at the time appointed; though it appeared probable, from the returns made, that a sufficient number had been sold to justify a commencement of the drawing.

TICKETS in the above Lottery are for sale at the Office of the Western Carolinian, Salisbury, $5 each. The scheme (which will be found on the first page of our paper) is a very good one, and holds out as great a chance to adventurers for obtaining Prizes, as that of any lottery now before the public.

COURT of Equity, Oct. term, 1826: Jess C. Kerby, Executor of Samuel Kerby, dead, and John House, vs. Isaac Conrard, Samuel Stewart, Reuben Stewart, and David Stewart Original bill. Appearing to the satisfaction of the court, that David Stewart, one of the defendants in this case, does not reside within the limits of this state, it is therefore ordered, that publication be made in the Western Carolinian, for six weeks, that unless the said David Stewart appears at the next Court of Equity to be holden for Stokes county, at the Court-House in Germantown, on the third Monday after the fourth Monday in March next, and plead, answer or demur to the said bill, the same will be taken pro confesso against them at that term; and the case set down for hearing ex parte. Copy from minutes. G. 40 Ten JOHN C. BLUM, c. & c.