Sm67 JO. WILLIAMS, Ckr.

Gen. SAUNDERS and Mr. WRIGHT.
Allypse, Oules and Sonten: The enclosed correspondence having been the subject of considerable misrepresentation, I am induced to send it to you, with a request that you will give it place in the Intelligencer. Yours respectfully, 7th March, 1827. J. C. WRIGHT.

Monday Evening, Feb. 25, 1827.
Sirs: From expressions used in the course of your remarks to-day, I wish to know if I am to consider you as personally responsible for such as I deem of an offensive character. My friend Mr. Archer will send you this. I am, &c.
R. M. SAUNDERS,
Mr. WATSON, of Ohio.

Washington City, 27th Feb 1827.
Sirs: Your note of last evening, which was handed to me by Mr. Archer, is of a character that requires no answer. Yours, &c.
J. C. WRIGHT.

Mr. SAUNDERS, of N. Carolina.
Tuesday Morning, Feb. 27, 1827.
Sirs: The expressions which you took occasion to apply to me in the debate of yesterday morning, in the House of Representatives, were of such a character as to induce me to request that you will favor me with an interview for the adjustment of our difference, in the mode usual amongst gentlemen. My friend, Mr. Archer, is fully authorized to make the necessary arrangements.

Yours, &c. R. M. SAUNDERS.
Hon. Mr. WATSON, of Ohio.

Tuesday Evening, 27th Feb 1827.
Sirs: I have received your letter of this morning. The very rude note you thought proper to send to me yesterday, altogether forbids my giving you the interview you request in the letter of this morning. Yours, &c.
J. C. WRIGHT.

Gen. R. M. SAUNDERS.
On the above correspondence, Mr. Noah (of the New-York Enquirer) remarks as follows:
'Brevity is the soul of wit,' and we know not any reason why it should not be the soul of challenges. This correspondence is very brief and delectable. But we think Mr. Wright is wrong, in spite of his name. Gen Saunders asks him a civil question, and at the same time gives him a piece of very important information, to wit: that the bearer of his note is a Mr. Archer. (There is, however, something like a menace in this. We should not ourselves like to receive a challenge through the hands of an archer.) Then Mr. W. informs the Gen. in the politest phrase that his note is of a character that requires no answer.' Here again he is wrong, for the essential object of the note was to require an answer.
But the General in his second epistle speaks out plainly and honestly. Mr Wright, however, has his excuse pat, and says that the original note was so passing rude as to forbid his going out to be answered.

'If you had asked me civility, I should have had no objection to receive a bullet in the thorax, but I have no notion of being ruffled and then riddled.' We admit the prudence and ingenuity of this get off, but we cannot understand its gallantry.

BOARD of INTERNAL IMPROVEMENT.
The late Legislature having made it the duty of the Board of Internal Improvement to examine the Clabfoot and Har-lows Creek Canal, and as the hands are idle, and the work cannot progress until this examination is made, Governor Burton has left this place for Fayetteville, where he will be detained one or two days on business of the Cape Fear Navigation Company; from thence he will proceed to Wilmington, for the purpose of viewing the operation of the Dredging Machine; and from thence, as expeditiously as possible, to the above mentioned Canal in the county of Carteret. Should there be Executive business, of an important character, which requires immediate attention, an express will be despatched by Mr. Campbell, the Private Secretary. It is expected, however, that the Governor will not be absent more than two weeks.

Raleigh Star.

The Nantucket Inquirer says that information has lately been received of the ship Lady Adams, Captain Tobey, which sailed from Nantucket about six years since, and had not been heard of. It appears from information recently obtained from an English whaler, that the Lady Adams was destroyed by fire on the coast of Japan in 1823. She had a crew of 16 persons, and at the time of the accident, had on board 1000 barrels of oil.

Capital at Washington.—On the 23d ult. the House of Representatives passed a bill appropriating $85,279 for completing the work about the capitol, the capitol square, &c. This magnificent palace has cost the nation near two millions of dollars, and it is yet far from being finished. The appropriation includes $10,000 for brick buildings for engine house, keeper's house, stables for horses, &c. It appears that each house employs four merrymen who keep several horses and carriages, and that a showy and costly barn is to be built at the public expense.

Ancient tree.—There is now standing in the ancient Park of Bowthorpe, near Bourne, an oak tree, which was very fruitful during the last summer, although the trunk is hollow, and has been used as a summer house for upwards of 400 years; it measures 48 feet in circumference, is neatly fitted up with table and seats, and will contain a tea drinking party of 10 persons. There is sufficient space for 28 persons in a standing position.

STAFF.
Mr. Stany health, we are happy to state, has so much improved, that he left home on Wednesday last, for home. Before his departure, he rode out frequently in his carriage, from which he found not the slightest inconvenience. Dr Beckwith, at whose house he had lain from the commencement of his indisposition, thinking entirely out of danger, and that he on travel to Newbern with perfect safety.

The 67th and annual volume of the York.

A bill was before the Legislature of Virginia, in its recent Session, for the relief of Mr. Randolph, the only surviving an illiberality unworthy of the resources and the reputation of that State, it was rejected.

It is said that in the parts of France where vine is made, one man will cultivate ten acres of vineyard; and that in this country, twenty acres might be taken care of by one man. Experiments in Maryland prove, that ten acres of vineyard will yield a net profit of $2,127 annually.

The jail of Mathews county, Virginia, was destroyed by fire on the 23d Feb. A negro woman the only prisoner, is said to have fired the building; the incendiary escaped.

On the 22d ult. the house of Stephen Rathbone, of Salisbury, Ct. was destroyed by fire, and two of his children, aged 3 and 5 years, were burnt to death. A person is in jail, who is supposed to have set it on fire.

The Boston Medical Intelligencer is edited by Dr. Coffin. This is an ominous name for a physician; but Doctor Coffin is a man of talents and industry, and although a coffin goes to his patient, it is no argument that his patients should come to a coffin. We might as well remark, on or was, the proprietor of Deadman's Island.

'The Coptic was the common language of Egypt before the invasion of the Saracens; it is a mixture of the old Egyptian and the Greek. Into this language the scriptures appear to have been translated at a very early period; probably between the third and fifth centuries.

A young lady having given a gentleman who was not very remarkable for his am happy to have been the cause of making something smart about you."

The Quebec (Canada) papers state that there is much distress among the poor of that city. The wages of ship carpenters are reduced to 25 or 35 s a day.
Last year the wages were 10 shillings.

Seamen.—Such was the scarcity of Semen at Baltimore on the 5th ult. that as high as $16 to $18 per month, was offered, and many vessels bound on foreign voyages were detained for want of men to navigate them. Several ship owners had sent to Philadelphia and other parts for assistance.

Kentucky, again! On the evening of the 5th ult. Mr. Adair, a respectable citizen of Elizabethtown, Hardin county, Ky. was stabbed by a Mr. Stockman, and died in about twenty minutes. Their difference was about the next Presidential election.

Boston Mozart Society.—This society gave a concert on Sunday evening to a very numerous audience, at Mr. Stroeter's Meeting House. The performances are highly spoken of by all who were present. There were above one hundred vocal and instrumental performers. It is not improbable that the performance will be repeated.

They have had a Siberian Winter in blocked up by snow near Calais in France.

Distressing accounts of the state of the were received. The fall of snow was very great—it was several feet deep—The Edinburgh mail had sixteen horses

PLANTING MACHINE.
By a notice in the Charleston papers, we perceive, that a Mr. Francis H. Smith has invented a labor saving machine for planting and cultivating Cotton, Co. & Rice &c. of which the following description is given:—It is drawn by one horse, and forms the first at one draught, which in the usual way requires three—It turns open the ground, drops the seed at regular distances, covers and rolls it at one operation. The plants being up, it then hoes them within an inch or two on both sides. It then returns the earth or hills them on both sides at once. In each separate operation of sowing, planting, hoeing and rolling, it will complete about eight acres per day. Another improvement consists in its being adapted to Corn, which it plants and cultivates with the same advantage as Cotton; it also drills Rice, Turnips, Lucern, Wheat or any other small seed. The machine is made heavy, strong and durable, suited to be used by negroes—the cultivator entirely of cast iron, with wings which can be renewed."

Cologne Water.—Our female readers, who are disposed to practice a little domestic economy, will find the following preparation of Cologne Water a very cheap substitute for the Cologne Water of the shops, for which they pay three or four hundred per cent more than the cost of this. The principal ingredient is only worth one dollar per gallon at retail by the druggists, and the perfumery costs very little. To one pint of alcohol add 60 drops of lavender, 60 do Bergamot, 60 essence of lemon, or 60 orange water.
To 1 gallon of alcohol put 240 drops of each of the perfumes.

On the 12th ult. at New Orleans, the facing match for $1,000, between the police Commander Perry, own'd in that city, and Jack of Clubs, from New Jersey, was won by the New-Orleans man on the Jackson course below town; the winning horse went in harness, the other under the saddle.

It is stated in the New York Commercial that a violent personal attack was committed at Paris, on the 20th of January, upon Prince Talleyrand, by Count Maubreuil, while leaving church, at the close of the service. The Prince was felled to the ground by the blow, and was severely stunned. He had been twice bled, and was recovering. The Count Maubreuil, had been employed by Talley-rand to recover the crown jewels, which had been taken by Jerome Bonaparte's wife; and some dispute existed in regard to his services.

Two men, Burrage Smith and John Whitney, residents of Rochester, who were supposed to be of the party that murdered Morgan, have fled, and sailed for Mexico. They were followed to Albany, and from thence to New York, where they chartered a pilot boat to take them to the Hook (about 30 miles) for which they paid 350 dollars, where they were put on board the brig Brown, which sailed immediately.

Strange Partnership.—Charles Rhea and Samuel Atkinson, have recently associated themselves as Editors of the *Week-sidential canvass, one is declared to be a friend of General Jackson, and the other of Mr. Adams.—Knoxville Enquirer.

Six hundred thousand dollars of Kentucky Commonwealth's Bank paper, were consigned to the flames at Frankfort, the 15th ult. in pursuance of a Resolve

$1,475,000. There yet remain on hand $500,000—leaving about $800,000 in circulation unredeemed.

Bad Things.—An unfaithful servant, a smoky house, a stumbling horse, a scolding wife, an aching tooth, an empty purse, an undutiful child, an incessant talker, hogs that break through enclosures, a dull razor, and a pimpled face, a long story, musketoes, bed bugs, and daddies.

The editor of an evening paper has expressed his belief, that Philadelphia

REMOVAL.
The Office of the Western Carolinian is REMOVED from the building which it formerly occupied East of the Court-House, to one on the same street, South of the Court-House, immediately opposite the Bank; where those who may have business with the establishment, will please hither to apply.

At the spring term of the Superior Court at Oxford, in this State, the Rev. Mr. Meade was convicted of an attempt to seduce a young female, near that place, and fined twenty-five dollars.

Gov. Holmes is announced, in the Wilmington Recorder, as a candidate for re-election to Congress from that district. We have not heard whether he will have opposition, or not.

The Wilmington Recorder, of the 21st ult., says there is much less shipping in that port, than usual, at this season of the year.

Latin and Greek.—During the late session of the Massachusetts legislature, an act was passed providing further for the instruction of youth in that state. During the pendency of the bill before the legislature, a motion was made to strike out the words, "Latin and Greek languages," which was decided in the negative, thus evincing the determination of the legislature to strike these defunct languages into the heads of their youth.

The Knoxville Enquirer says that a sett in that part of Tennessee, on Monday, the

At the recent term of the Court of General Sessions, for York district, S. C. Wm. Thomson and Dempsey Reeves were tried on a charge made against them by Capt. Charles M. Hart, of having robbed him of a considerable amount of public money, and were very promptly acquitted. The Advocate says:

"After the testimony was closed on the part of the defendants, the Solicitor was so deeply impressed with the overwhelming nature of the evidence, which went to prove that on the morning the robbery was said to have been committed, the defendants were twelve miles from the place where the affair happened, that he deemed it his duty in frankness to state to the Court, that further efforts to rebut it would be unavailing."

The Advocate further remarks:
"We deem it proper to state, that the Judge remarked in substance, that from the evidence, there could be no doubt but Capt. Hart had been robbed as alleged. He stated that there was no ground to believe the insinuation thrown out in the trial, that he had robbed him-himself."

The northern papers received about a week since, gave currency to a report, from England, that Mr. Gallatin, our minister at London, had succeeded in compromising the difficulties existing between the U. S. and the British government, in relation to the commerce between the two countries. Our last papers, however, by Friday's mail, give a counter report, so that the interdict, contained in the President's proclamation, will, without doubt, go into operation—the effects of which, the people will soon be made to feel.

The Greensboro' Patriot, of the 24th ult., says that a marble tomb-stone was, a short time since, stolen from the grave of the late James Cunningham, in the yard belonging to Buffalo church, near that place. A tomb-stone is a queer article to steal; and we suspect the rogues who carried it off, did so more from a mischievous than a thieving propensity.

The Patriot of the same date, affords us another item of news; it is this: "The Hon. John Williams, minister of the United States to the Government of Guatemala, and the Hon. Lewis Williams, member of congress from this State, passed through this place on Thursday last, from Washington City." This is the first information we have seen of any one's having been appointed "minister" from the U. S. to Guatemala. Mr. Williams has lately represented the U. S. at Guatemala, as Charge des Affaires; but he returned home from there four or five months since, and resigned the situation, and a successor has been appointed. And from the rough manner in which Mr. Adams has been handled, for the course he has pursued in relation to the Republics of South-America, we had not expected to hear of his taking it upon himself (for the senate has confirmed no such appointment) to send a "Minister" to Guatemala, when it appears that a charge des affaires is fully competent to represent us there, and the latter officer costs the people only one-half as much as the former. Now the President must either have conferred this snug appointment on his friend Mr. Williams, (entitling him to $9,000 outfit, and $9,000 per annum as salary) after Congress adjourned, and thus bidden defiance to the "factious senate,"—or, the Greensboro' Patriot must, in its fondness for noticing great men, have mistaken plain Mr.
John Williams, of Tennessee, for "His Excellency the United States Minister to Guatemala." The Patriot would do well to bear in mind, that

"The rank is but the guinea's stamp;
The man's the gold, for all that."

"The rank is but the guinea's stamp;
