The legislature of Illinois, at its present session, established a new county in that part of the state including the Lead Mines, which they have oddly enough named "Jo Daviess county."

The Board for Internal Improvements met at Fayetteville, on Friday last, and the Cape-Fear Navigation Company held a meeting on the same day. After finishing their business, on Saturday, the Members of the former Board proceeded in the Steam Boat Henrietta, down the River, in order to take a view of the River and of the works carrying on below Wilmington.

Mr. Eaton.—The National Intelligencer says that the Hon. John H. Eaton, senator in Congress from Tennessee, met with a serious accident, on Sunday the 4th inst. Whilst the family with which he boards was at Church, about noon, a fire broke out in one of the apartments. The efforts of Mr. Eaton were directed, with great presence of mind, as well as activity, to its extinguishment.

We understand, says the National Intelligencer, that Maj. John W. Hunter has been appointed by the War Department Agent for the settlement of the claims of the militia of Georgia, for services rendered during the years 1772, 1773, and 1774.

The North Carolina 74.—The Norfolk Beacon learns from Capt. Curtis, of the ship Hope, which arrived in Hampton Roads on Wednesday from Marseilles, via Gibraltar, that the U. S. ship North Carolina, put into Toulon before he sailed, to repair damages sustained in a very violent gale of wind off the Island of Corsica, by which she lost several of her sails and was very much strained.

The Greeks.—We have the satisfaction to announce that Mr. J. P. Miller, of Vermont, who has been a volunteer in the Greek service for two years, arrived in this city last evening. He is full of ardor and enthusiasm for the cause, and will go out immediately as the agent of the Greek Committee, in the ship Chancellor, which is now loading. A second ship, will be dispatched in a short time, in charge of Lieut. Carpenter of the Navy. And our friends in Boston and Philadelphia, can send their donations to the charge of these gentlemen, who will be associated with Dr. Howe and General Jarvis, our countrymen, in Greece.

The Greek Supply Ship.—The ship Chancellor, Capt. Baker, sailed from New York on Saturday, for Napoli di Romania, with a cargo of provisions, &c. for the Greeks. The value of the cargo is said to be $18,000. It consists principally of corn meal, flour, rice, and the like articles. Mr. Miller, of Vermont, who was three years in Greece, and eighteen months in active service, goes out in the vessel. He will have the charge of the supplies, and pay attention to their distribution.

Carps of the Chancellor.—The cargo of the Chancellor, bound to Greece, is as follows. The committee have given judicious instructions to the agent, Mr. Miller. Another vessel we learn will soon follow.

Florida Sugar.—The East Florida Herald of Feb. 21st, says that Col. Dummett, a planter of that county, will make 90 bushels of sugar from about 45 acres of cane. A specimen of the sugar raised on his plantation has been sent to St. Augustine, and pronounced superior to the best Havana sugar.
