

LOGICAL REASONING.

"In the address of the Jackson Convention of Maryland, this acknowledgment is made:—The Press in Maryland, with a very limited exception, where it has taken a part, is decidedly opposed to us."

The above, Mr. White, is an extract from the columns of a neighboring print, and I should like to know how you will get over the force and pungency of the reasoning therein contained.

Again, sir.—In the town of Nashville, in the state of Tennessee, there is a paper published, decidedly friendly to the existing administration.

Early Corn.—Roasting Ears were exhibited for sale in the Petersburg (Virginia) market, on the 20th day of June, ult.

The courts of common pleas in the state of New-York, are composed of a First Judge, (generally a lawyer of good standing) and two or more associates, in each county.

The communication of our correspondent "Chis," from the Wilkes district, on the subject of the "certificate" said to have been given by Mr. Lewis Williams to David Trimble, of Kentucky, relative to an expression made use of by the late Thomas Jefferson, in regard to "the extraordinary run of Gen. Jackson for the Presidency," comes too much in conflict with the rules we have laid down for our editorial guidance.

Gov. Clinton, of New-York, has lately visited, by invitation, the whole line of the Canal on Connecticut river, from Northampton, Massachusetts, to Barnet, Vermont.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

PHILADELPHIA, MAY 21, 1827. To the Editors of the New York Observer.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church was opened in this city on Thursday 17th May. We have been listening to the reports on the state of religion in various parts of the United States; and it is considered by the fathers of the church as the most interesting report ever presented to the General Assembly.

MORGANTHA BIBLE SOCIETY.

Extract from the minutes of a board of managers of the Morgantha Bible Society, April 27th, 1827: The board consisted of Col. John M. Greenlee, 1st Vice Pres.; Thos. Walton, Cor. Sec.; Sidney S. Erwin, Treas.; John Silliman, Rec. Sec.; John H. Steville, John McGuire, Martin Keebler, Mark Brittain, Wm. McKelvie, Adolphus L. Erwin, Managers.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND. From London papers to the 15th and Liverpool papers to the 16th of May, received by the packet ship Britannia at New-York.

"Dresden, May 5. His Majesty the King of Saxony has just expired, after twenty-one days illness. This event has excited general consternation; the troops are now taking their oath to their new Sovereign."

Frederick Augustus IV. King of Saxony, was born Dec. 23, 1750, and was consequently in the 77th year of his age; he married, Jan. 17, 1769, Maria Amelia, sister to the King of Bavaria.

The London Free Press says, it is now certain that the Marquis of Lansdowne takes office, along with Mr. Tierney and Sir James Macintosh, in the course, or at the end of the present session.

France.—The disbanding of the National Guards of France, (says the National Journal of the 20th ult.) of which some particulars will be found in this day's paper, reminds us very forcibly of the annihilation of the Corps of Janissaries in Turkey.

A distinguished lawyer at Havre, (France,) has laid an attachment upon a large quantity of goods belonging to the government of Hayti, for fees to the amount of 150,000 francs, which were promised him for digesting a Civil Code for the Island.

The condition of affairs in the French capital we are unable, with the little light at yet shed upon them, to comprehend. The dissolution of the National Guard strikes us as a high and bold measure. These troops were first organized to the number we believe, of 40,000, during the revolution, by La Fayette, who was their General in chief; and it was at their head, and by their means, that he escorted and protected Louis XVI. his Queen and family, in their melancholy journey from Versailles to Paris.

South America.—Extract of a letter from Carthagena, dated 12th May, 1827. It gives us great pleasure to state that there is every prospect of an immediate restoration to tranquility.

TROUBLE IN CANADA. The following article is an extract from the Canadian Spectator: Unpleasant Intelligence.—We are sorry to observe it announced in the Official Gazette of the 10th inst. that the agitators have so abused the ignorance of the people as to produce a revolutionary movement.

Major Laing, the intrepid traveller, with his companions, have been killed in the interior of Africa. They had reached Timbuctoo, where they were received in a friendly manner, and on their way from that city with an escort, were attacked by an unfriendly tribe, and the whole party strangled.

Native Silk.—On Monday last, we saw a specimen of beautiful Sewing Silk, raised and manufactured by a lady of Johnston, an adjoining county to this.

It is stated in a New Orleans paper of the 17th ultimo, that four Osage chiefs and two females, accompanied by an interpreter, had arrived there with the intention to proceed to England.

The Murder of Mr Whipple.—The Albany Advertiser of the 16th ult. says the Grand Jury of the Court for that county have found a true bill against Jesse Strang, for the murder of John Whipple; and also against Elsie D Whipple, wife of the deceased, as accessory Mrs. W. was thereupon arrested, and confined in jail, to await her trial with Strang.

Cotton.—It is stated that the consumption of raw cotton in France and Switzerland in 1825, was 290,000 bales; in 1826, 280,000 bales. The present consumption in the United States is supposed to be from 175 to 200,000 bales; and if our Domestic Manufactures continue to increase, as they have done for a few years past, our consumption at home will soon exceed France and Switzerland united.

Carpenters.—A meeting of upwards of six hundred house carpenters, was held in Philadelphia, on the 13th ult. the object of which was to limit the time of work to ten hours per day. Resolutions to this effect were unanimously passed, and the proceedings of the meeting ordered to be published.

Ten Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, living in Concord, Cabarrus county, N. C. on the 2d inst. a Negro fellow by the name of JOHN, about 25 or 26 years old, dark complexion, 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, straight and square made, has a scar above his left eye-brow, two of his upper teeth out, has long flat feet, stammers when angry or scared; he can read, and perhaps write some, and will attempt to pass for a free man, and change his and his owner's name; had on, when he went off a striped coat of brown cloth, old fashioned, with yellow lining, a pair of striped pantaloons of cotton cassimere, a blue mixed homespur coat, a yellow and dark striped waistcoat, fashionably made, with a tear in it below one of the pocket wells, neatly darned, with other clothing not recollected; wore off a straw or old white fur hat. Any person taking up and confining said negro in any jail in the United States, so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward.

The Fayetteville Journal, Camden Journal, and Cherokee Spectator, are each requested to insert the above advertisement three weeks, and send a paper containing the same, accompanied with the price of publication, to the advertiser, and the accounts shall be promptly paid.

Ten Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on Friday, the 22d day of June, 1827, between Danville and Salisbury, a negro man by the name of William, 20 years of age, very black and very likely, about 6 feet high, good countenance, and very fine white teeth. I bought him from the Roanoke Company. He was raised near Halifax, N. C. and will try to get back to that place. I will give the above reward, and pay all other reasonable charges, to any person who will deliver him to Thomas and Samuel Rawlins, of Danville, or put him in jail, and send information to Rawlins, of Danville, who will pay the reward in my absence.

SUPERIOR Court of Law, April term, 1827. Eze Snow vs. William Snow; Petition for divorce. It appearing to the court, that two subpoenas were issued to the defendant and returned not found, and proclamation having been made according to act of assembly; it is ordered by the court that publication be made in the Greensboro' Patriot and Western Carolinian for three months, that unless the defendant appears and pleads at next term of this court, which will be held at Germantown on the 3d Monday in Sept. next, the petition will be heard ex parte, and judgment entered accordingly.

Public Entertainment.

THE subscriber having lately taken possession of that convenient and elegant building in the Town of Concord, lately occupied by Mr. Henry Williams, begs leave to inform the public that he is now prepared to accommodate Travellers on the most reasonable terms. His Table will be furnished with the best market can afford; his bar with the best liquors, his Stable attended by attentive and careful hostlers; and no exertions on his part shall be wanting to render the stay of those who may call upon him comfortable and pleasant.

MEDICAL & DRUG STORE.

E. WILLEY & Co. ARE now receiving and opening in Salisbury, a very general supply of MEDICINE, DRUGS, &c. which they offer for sale, wholesale and retail, on terms accommodating to the times. Arrangements being made at the North, they will be constantly receiving all articles in their line, of the latest importations. E. WILLEY, having devoted fifteen years to the Practice of Physic, flatters himself that he shall be enabled, by paying strict personal attention to the Apothecary Business, and particularly to the chemical and compound preparations, to please all those who may wish to purchase. Country Physicians, Merchants, and other individuals, are respectfully invited to call and supply themselves; or, by sending their orders, they shall be as faithfully dealt with as by personal application.
