

Salisbury:

JULY 10, 1827.

We are requested to announce Mr. Jacob... as a candidate to represent the county of Rowan in the House of Commons of the next General Assembly of this state.

The Catawba (Charlotte) Journal of the 2d inst. announces Dr. Samuel Henderson, of that place, as a candidate for Congress from that district, in opposition to Maj. Henry W. Connor, the late member.

Counterfeit—Counterfeit $10 Notes on the Bank of Newbern, are in circulation in this part of the state. They were put afloat here, it has been ascertained, by a man named Porter, who is (or has been) a pedlar. At Lexington, during the week of their last county court, he succeeded in putting off a considerable amount of these spurious bills; but their base character being detected, the villain decamped, after receiving back a number of the bills he had palmed upon the unwary people. In a few hours after, a number of persons went in pursuit of him; but, after they had broken down two horses, they were unable to overtake him, and it is feared he will escape altogether. This is, we believe, the first instance known of the bills of the Newbern Bank having been counterfeited. The public will do well to be on their guard, when bills of this description are offered them. They are well executed, and calculated to deceive those who are not very good judges: the signatures are good imitations; the bills are made payable to S. Watkins, at the principal bank in Newbern; dated Jan. 2d, 1819, letter D.

William B. Rochester, the secretary of Legation to the South American Congress, arrived at New-Orleans on the 2d ult. from Vera Cruz. We do not learn his object for coming home so soon; he has staid long enough, however, to claim his outfit, and salary for one year, making, together, nine thousand dollars!

Green Corn, from the field, was pulled, fit for use, at Warrenton, in this state, on the 20th ult. Corn was pulled and used in this town about that time.

The Weather.—There was a frost at Washington City on the night of the 22d June, ult.—And at Augusta, Georgia, on the 25th, it was so cold as to cause serious apprehensions of a frost. A very severe hail storm visited Abbeville district, S. C. about the same time.

There was a frost at Tarboro, in this state, on Sunday, the 24th ult. It was, at that time, nearly cold enough for a frost here.

Mr. White: The Cotton on my plantation in the Jersey Settlement, was in bloom on the 1st day of this month; which, I believe, is the earliest in the county. The 20th of June, if I recollect right, is the earliest, in ordinary years, that any fields of cotton have been in bloom in this part of the country. Owing to cool, unseasonable weather, the crop is much more backward than common.

Provision crops will be abundant, if we should have some refreshing showers soon. Yours, &c. A. J. KELLY. Rowan county, July 3d, 1827.

Severe Punishment.—A man by the name of Purnell, was tried before the Court of Sessions in Philadelphia, on the 16th ult. for kidnapping and selling free negroes, and convicted. He was sentenced by the judge, (King) to pay a fine of 4000 dollars, and costs of prosecution, and to be imprisoned in the penitentiary forty days.

Mineral Spring.—We have before mentioned, that Messrs. Boyd & McCulloch, in boring to obtain a supply of water for the use of their extensive Brewery in the city of Albany, (state of New York) after going down to the depth of 500 feet, struck a vein of mineral water, which immediately rose to the top, and continues constantly to discharge at the rate of a gallon a minute. The water has been analysed, and is found to be similar in its properties to the famed Saratoga water, and as strongly impregnated. This spring, being in the heart of the city of Albany, (containing a population of 20,000, and rapidly increasing in numbers) where every convenience and luxury is immediately at hand, and only a half day's ride from Saratoga, must soon prove a serious drawback upon the business of the latter. Indeed, the Albany papers say, that the spring in that city is already "all the go" for the fashionable and invalids. On the morning of the 26th May, more than one thousand persons visited it before breakfast; and drank it is computed, upwards of 250 gallons. Messrs. Boyd & McCulloch will probably abandon their brewing-business, as the mineral water concern will doubtless prove much the most profitable of the two.

At a vote recently taken on the Presidential question, by the grand jury of Cortland county, New-York, the result was eleven for Jackson, and nine for Adams. As a set-off to this, a Kentucky paper says a vote was taken, lately, on board a steam-boat on her passage from New-Orleans to Louisville; and the result was that Adams received 99, and Jackson 96. So the question is not settled yet.

The State of Maine has fixed upon Augusta, as the seat of their Government, and the Governor and Council, on the 5th inst. fixed upon the site for the Public Buildings.

SALISBURY BIBLE SOCIETY.

The next annual meeting of the Salisbury Bible Society, will be held at the Court House in Salisbury, on the 1st Monday in August, (it being the 6th day of the month.) The members are all desired to attend, as a new President is to be elected, in room of the Rev. J. O. Freeman, removed to Raleigh;—and all the other officers are to be either re-elected, or others elected in their places: And other important business to be transacted.

THOS. L. COWAN, Recr. Sec'y. July 10, 1827. 173

A resolution, was introduced into the legislature of New-Hampshire, on the 20th ult. pledging the support of that body, and of the people of that state so far as they can be influenced by their representatives, to the present administration of the general government; but a motion being made to postpone the resolution indefinitely, a long debate ensued, and the postponement was finally carried, by a vote of 137 to 79. This must be a damper to the zeal of a certain editor not a thousand miles from here.

At the late circuit court for Washington county, New-York, a Miss Thompson recovered $1000 damages of James Miller, for seducing and debauching her, while she was in his employ as a house-keeper. The damages were too light, for the profligate scoundrel. He ought to have been imprisoned, besides being mulcted in heavy damages.

Changing names.—There is a species of legislation in Massachusetts, which we believe is, with some solitary exceptions, peculiar to that state. Every session of the legislature an act is passed changing the names of from 25 to 50 persons—men and women, married and unmarried. Some of the changes appear reasonable enough; but others it is hard to find a motive for. Mr. "Winthrop Thing" may have had good cause for changing his name to "Winthrop Farman;" yet he is but a thing still. Two men, it seems, have changed names. "Be it enacted," says the law this year, "that William Foote White shall take the name of Sylvanus White; and that Sylvanus White shall take the name of William Foote White." But what, no doubt, in the estimation of most of the disconsolate Abigails among us, is the best part of this law for divorcing people from their names, is the facility it affords to changing their names, (a business, of all others during their lives, the most anxiously anticipated, and the most rapturously engaged in) without the interference in, or authority of, the Court of Hymen: For instance, in the last Massachusetts law of the kind, three unmarried ladies had their names changed, for no earthly reason, that we know of, but for the novelty of the thing: But this is enjoying the name, without the substance—for Time rolls on, and 'no loving pledge is given; No darling hope, no legacy from Heaven'.

4th OF JULY. Unanticipated events having conspired to prevent, in this place, the necessary arrangements for a systematic celebration of the anniversary of the declaration of independence, the citizens had, upon the spur of the moment, to adopt such methods of testifying their respect for the day, as best suited their diverse fancies. A respectable company of gentlemen, from the town and the county, repaired to the Spring, at Maj. Sneed's country establishment, in the vicinity of the town; where they partook of a Barbecue, which had been hastily prepared for the occasion. After dinner, thirteen regular toasts and a number of volunteers, were drunk to;—the whole enlivened and seasoned by wit, sentiment, and good cheer. The company broke up in perfect harmony, and all returned home before night, in as good order and well conditioned, as usual on such occasions.

In town, the officers of the 63d regiment having assembled for drill, and the company of Salisbury Light Infantry Blues for muster, an interesting martial display was witnessed, in the evolutions and firings of the two corps.—Both companies were dismissed at an early hour, and the members commingled with the other classes, in the civic festivities of the day. For the evening, the more juvenile part of our population had gotten up a Hall, furnished by Col. Yarbro', at the Mansion Hotel; at which, those participated, in turn, in those festivities which the promptings of patriotism had called forth in the elder part of the other sex during the day. From the flush of youth and health, and buoyant spirits, of one portion of the company, and the gallantry and ardent temperament of the other, this occasion of "treading down the mazy dance," as might have been anticipated, was not misimproved by them.

Upon the whole, although no pompous preparations were announced for celebrating the day, by our citizens, yet we feel assured that as reputable a degree of patriotic feeling was elicited, as is consistent with the staid character of the American people.

At Mocksville, in this county, we understand, a very interesting celebration took place; the particulars of which, we hope to receive in time for publication in our next.

The State of Maine has fixed upon Augusta, as the seat of their Government, and the Governor and Council, on the 5th inst. fixed upon the site for the Public Buildings.

At a vote recently taken on the Presidential question, by the grand jury of Cortland county, New-York, the result was eleven for Jackson, and nine for Adams. As a set-off to this, a Kentucky paper says a vote was taken, lately, on board a steam-boat on her passage from New-Orleans to Louisville; and the result was that Adams received 99, and Jackson 96. So the question is not settled yet.

GEN. JACKSON AND MR. SOUTHWARD.

An article in the National Intelligencer, insinuates that Gen. Jackson has challenged Mr. Southard—that this was written by Mr. Southard himself, or published with his approbation, cannot be doubted. The Intelligencer would not have ventured its publication without authority. We do not believe that Gen. Jackson has challenged Mr. Southard. If so, Mr. Southard has the correspondence, and can bring it out if he will. We believe the facts to be, that Mr. Southard at a wine party in Fredericksburgh, asserted that Gen. Jackson was not entitled to the credit of the victory at New Orleans—that Gen. Jackson, from real or pretended disability, had left the army, and was sent, by a pre-emptory order to return from Mr. Monroe, then Secretary of War, to whose energetic arrangements the nation was chiefly indebted for the preservation of New Orleans, and the defeat of the British Army. This charge of Mr. Southard was made known to Gen. Jackson by the gentleman to whom it was addressed, and the General considering it tantamount to a charge of desertion, opened a correspondence with Mr. Southard last winter upon the subject. A copy of that correspondence has been forwarded to the gentleman at Fredericksburgh. We have not read the correspondence, but understand that it reflects much credit upon Gen. Jackson, and discloses some facts in relation to the affair at New Orleans which have not, heretofore, been before the public.

They do not hesitate to warrant a cure (on condition of their attention to instruction) to all who may come well recommended for integrity and honesty; and no others need apply. Children, above three years of age, of respectable parents, will be received. From this it may be understood, that all adults must bring certificates of their standing in society. Greenborough Academy.

THE Trustees of this Academy have committed the charge of it to Mr. John D. Clancy. The exercises of the School will be resumed on the Monday before the 4th day of July. The advantages of this place for an Academy, are perhaps not surpassed by any other situation in the Western part of this State. The undisputed health and general morality of Greenborough, together with the superior talents of the Teacher and Trustees in rearing the youthful mind and overlooking the morals of such as may be committed to their care, will, it is hoped, insure a liberal share of patronage to this Academy. It is expected that those who take boarders will maintain proper authority over the students while under their care. The terms of tuition are the following, viz: For beginners $5 50 Reading, Writing, English Grammar, Arithmetic and Geography, 7 50 The Languages, 10 50 If accompanied with any branch of Mathematics, 12 50 Board may be had in respectable families at from six to eight dollars per month. The Exercises in the Female Academy, will be resumed on the same day. By order. JOHN M. DICK, Sec'y. June 16, 1827.

C. to Lincoln; will soon go into operation; so that there will then be a direct stage communication from the south, east and north, through North Carolina, to Tennessee, Kentucky, and the Western Country generally.
