

On Sabbath morning, the Lords Supper was administered to about 400 communicants. The services of the day were peculiarly solemn. Divine service was also performed in the afternoon, and at night; and the impressions made by the preaching of the word, during the solemnities of these four days, we trust, will be found solid, durable, and productive of permanent happiness to many precious souls.

Several resolutions of an interesting character, were adopted by the Synod, on the last day of their Session. From these, the first following have been selected, for present publication; and with them, this hasty sketch of the Synodical proceedings shall be concluded.

1. The Synod of North Carolina, from long observation, feeling deeply impressed with the great value of Sunday school institutions, and convinced of the important effects they are calculated to produce on the rising generation, do hereby earnestly recommend to the friends of Zion, within their bounds, the formation of Sunday-school-unions, for each county in the state, auxiliary to the American Sunday school union, which holds its sessions in the city of Philadelphia. To this end,

Resolved, that the Rev. Messrs. Colin McIver, James G. Hamner, and the Hon. Henry Potter, be a committee, to draft such form of a constitution as may be expedient for such societies to adopt, and to publish an address, furnishing the community with such explanations and directions, as may be proper for directing the public mind, and exciting public exertion, on this subject.

2. Resolved, that this Synod will highly disapprove of the conduct of any of their members, who may leave the place of the Sessions of this Body, for the purpose of returning home, on the Sabbath day, without obvious necessity.

3. Resolved, that it be recommended to our sessions, and to the friends of Zion, in general, to take into serious and prayerful consideration, the worthy example set before the Christian public, by the Bible societies of Monroe county, New-York, and of Nassau-hall, New Jersey.—The object of this resolution is, to induce benevolent institutions and individuals, not to limit their exertions to any section of our country; but to introduce a higher degree of method and certainty in their operations.—For instance, let any person, or number of persons, so disposed, agree to supply, in any given time, every family within a given region.

4. Resolved, that this Synod are sincerely grateful to the inhabitants of Salisbury, for their kindness and hospitality, during its present Session; and that the Synod will return home, with the most ardent prayers for their temporal and spiritual welfare.

The next meeting of the Synod is to take place on the evening of the first Tuesday in November, 1828, in the city of Raleigh.

The Rev. Mr. McCauley, an able Divine of the city of New-York, has been chosen President of Transylvania University, in place of Dr. Holley, dec'd.

Senator Eaton.—In the Nashville Republican of the 18th ult. we find a communication from Maj. Eaton, one of the senators in Congress from that state, on the subject of the communication made to Gen. Jackson by Mr. Buchanan, pending the election of President of the U. S. in 1825. It is of too great length for insertion in this week's Carolinian; but shall find a place in our next.

The Legislature of Tennessee met in Nashville, on the 17th ult.; and was organized by the Senate's electing Gen. Wm. Hall, of Sumner county, their speaker—Russell Dance, clerk, &c.; and by the House of Representatives electing John H. Camp, of Giles county, speaker—Camp 26, Brady 11; T. J. Campbell, clerk—&c. Gov. Carroll sent his message to both Houses, on the same day; it is a plain, practical, business document. Gov. Carroll goes out of office this session; and the new Gov. elect (Gen. Samuel Houston) will be sworn in, and assume the duties of the office.

A bill was introduced, in the Senate, on the 20th, that no female shall, after the passage thereof, be imprisoned for debt. We hope it may pass.

Wolf river, Tenn.—A boat, laden with ten tons of merchandise, &c. started from the mouth of Wolf river, on the 5th ult.; and it was expected she would be able to ascend as high up as La Grange, Fayette county.

The Jackson (Western Tennessee) Gazette, says that "the crop of cotton, corn, &c. proves to be abundant throughout the Western District." The same paper says it has been healthier, in that section, than in any preceding season for several years.

The Indians.—The Springfield (Illinois) Spectator of the 5th ult. says an express passed through that place the day before, with despatches from Gov. Cass and Gen. Atkinson to Gov. Edwards, with information that the negotiations between Gov. Cass and the Indians at Fox River, had been suddenly broken off, and the Indians dispersed; that Gov. Cass had sent to Gen. Atkinson to meet him with troops, as high up the Ouicoinin river, as he could ascend with boats, to chastise the Indians, &c.

Joseph Hemphill, Esq. formerly a very distinguished member of Congress, has been nominated by the friends of Gen. Jackson in Philadelphia, as a candidate for the same situation, in opposition to John Sergeant, the administration candidate. It is thought Mr. Hemphill, in case he is elected, (which it is probable he will be) will be elected Speaker of the House of Representatives, the friends of Jackson having a considerable majority in the House, and Mr. H. being more likely to unite their strength than any other man.

At the election in Baltimore, on the 1st inst. the Jackson candidates for the Legislature were elected by a majority of about 500 over those in favor of the administration.

According to the Baltimore Patriot, an administration paper, there are 25 Jackson, and 19 Adams members, elected to the legislature of that state.

Much as is after nothing.—The Editors of the National Intelligencer lately received a letter from somebody, which was post-marked at Salem, in this state,—in which the writer, after much other vulgar abuse of the editors, tells them, that for apostatizing from their party, and supporting the present administration, "the gallows would be too lenient a punishment for them;" but that "impaling, or the faggot, should be employed." At this, the editors deal out the most furious anathemas against the friends of Gen. Jackson, as being the most intolerant, persecuting partisans on earth. In this cry, all the "affiliated presses" join chorus—"Little dogs and all." Now it so turns out, that the correspondent of the Intelligencer, is some itinerant blackguard,—who is as likely to be a friend of Adams as of Jackson: he was only abusing the editors,—who, he knew, were as irritable as hornets, on the subject of the presidency. This is a counterpart of the joke lately played off on John Binns, of Philadelphia: Some wag wrote him an anonymous letter, advising him that a conspiracy was on foot by his political opponents, to give him a corporal chastisement. Binns takes the alarm, and issues a flaming advertisement, offering a reward of five hundred dollars, for the "detection of the nefarious ruffians!" He was afterwards informed, by the same wag, probably, that the thing was all a jest.

New-York.—The New-York Enquirer, of the 4th inst. in a postscript, says, in reference to the ward elections, which had just taken place; "We have heard from three-fourths of the Wards: Jackson's majority in all is immense; he carries every thing before him."

At a meeting of the people of Newton county, Georgia, resolutions were passed by the meeting, pledging itself to support Mr. Calhoun for Vice-President, in connexion with Gen. Jackson for President;—while the administration papers are amusing themselves with commenting on a report, that Messrs. Clinton and Van Buren have become politically reconciled, and that Gov. Clinton is to be supported as the Jackson candidate for V. Pres. Their chuckling on account of this report, however, has been short-lived;—for the whole story is proven, from authority, to be unfounded. What next?

To Poets.—The proprietor of the Augusta Theatre offers a premium of $50, for the best original Poetical Address, to be spoken at the opening of said theatre, on the 19th Dec. next;—the address not to contain over 60, nor under 45 lines: the prizes to be awarded by three literary gentlemen of Augusta.

A good deal has been said in the newspapers about the Gold Mines near Greenville, S. C.; the paper of that place has made a candid statement on the subject, from which it appears the workmen there average, in their diggings, about a dollar's worth of gold per day.—Just what we expected: a man can make that much, by digging potatoes.

Morgan.—Eli Bruce, sheriff of Niagara county, New-York, has been removed from office, by proclamation of Gov. Clinton, for having been concerned in the abduction of Wm. Morgan. By recent facts, which have been elicited, Bruce appears to have been one of the principal actors in that disgraceful affair.

Love Matters.—A Mr. D. S. Barnum, of Baltimore, (the son of the keeper of "Barnum's Hotel" in that city, said to be the best house in the U. S.) having runaway with a Miss Gilmor, a wealthy heiress, the event has created almost as much bustle as the abduction of Miss Turner by E. G. Wakefield, in England. The proud father of Miss Gilmor, thinking the son of a tavern-keeper an unworthy associate for his daughter, has seriously set himself about dissolving the bands of matrimony subsisting between her and Barnum, although they were solemnized by a Doctor of Divinity. Miss Turner was divorced from Wakefield by an act of Parliament; but we do not learn by what process Mr. Gilmor expects to get his daughter divorced from her "lawfully wedded" husband.

Longevity.—There is a man now living in Wake county, in this state, by the name of Arthur Wall, who has entered on the one hundred and ninth year of his age. The Raleigh Register says, that, "a few days ago, he walked three miles; but said he was somewhat fatigued, and thought he discovered from it that old age was creeping on him."

Another Suicide.—We are informed, that a Mr. John Colbert, living near Harbin, in Iredell county, took his departure from this troublesome world on Saturday, the 6th inst. by the aid of a rifle, with which he blowed his brains out. He was about 45 years old, had a family, with which he had always lived happily; was a carpenter, and a remarkably ingenious workman. He had previously attempted to cut his throat; and it is thought he had been laboring under an estrangement of mind,—under the influence of which he "shuffled himself off this mortal coil."

Storm.—On Monday night, the 8th inst. this section of country was visited by a very severe storm. During its continuance, (which lasted for several hours) there was scarcely any cessation of the deafening roar of the thunder. Mr. Peter Krider's house, about one mile from town, was struck by the electric fluid; which shattered the house, discharged a loaded gun, shattered the stock, and did some other damage to the ceiling, flooring, &c. when it passed out, without injuring any of the family. An immense quantity of rain fell on Monday night, Tuesday, and Tuesday night; streams of water which, before, would scarcely float a feather, were so swollen by this rain, as to render them unfordable. For many weeks previous to the rain, the country had suffered greatly from the drought.

Judge Isaacs, of Tennessee, has, by his published letter, proven, conclusively, the electioneering of Mr. Markley, to get General Jackson to promise the Secretaryship to Mr. Clay, and confirms all the explanatory part of Mr. Buchanan's letter. As to Mr. Clay himself, let Judge Isaacs be heard.

"I have said, that in the conversation with Mr. Markley, I spoke of my own high regard for Mr. Clay, and I now say that I did so with entire sincerity. True, I was the personal and political friend of Gen. Jackson, and had, throughout the canvass, if not efficiently, at least heartily supported his election; yet it was known to many of my acquaintances, both in Tennessee and at Washington, that (at least down to that period of that conversation) next to Gen. Jackson I should have preferred Mr. Clay for the presidency. The mortifying change which my opinion of that gentleman soon after underwent, may be of no other avail, than to teach me how much I had misunderstood him."

New Cotton.—The Tarboro' (North Carolina) Press, of the 6th inst. says that a small parcel of the Cotton of the new crop, was brought into this place a few days since, and sold for $9 12 1/2 cents per hundred—it was said to be from the Mexican seed, and of a superior quality. We understand that in this vicinity, the Cotton crop of this year will perhaps average half the quantity of that of last year, notwithstanding its unpromising appearance a few months since. The abundant crop of Corn, and the superabundant quantity of Brandy made this season, will doubtless amply compensate the planters for the loss sustained by the partial failure of the Cotton crop.

Life of Washington.—Mr. Sparks of Boston, has issued proposals for publishing by subscription, "The works of George Washington, with Historical Notes and Illustrations." This work will be comprised in no less than eight, nor more than twelve large octavo volumes. It is stated, that the most valuable parts of the entire collection left by Gen. Washington at Mount Vernon, both of a public and private nature, are to be prepared and published.

Yellow Fever.—It will be observed by the Bill of Mortality, that there were but three deaths, by what is termed Yellow Fever, during the past week. In the corresponding week of 1824, there were thirty two. And the delightfully cool weather of the last four or five days, warrants the belief, that the disease will very soon disappear entirely.

Charleston Courier, 2d Oct.

Shocking.—Mrs. Wilson, wife of Wm. Wilson, of Clemmill, N. J. under some excitement, a few days since, procured a quantity of laudanum, and proceeded to the edge of a neighboring swamp, where she took four ounces of the liquid, placed a pillow under her head, covered herself with a blanket, and died. She was not found for several days after the unhappy act. It is added that Mrs. W. rose from a bed of recent confinement.

The Albany (New-York) Gazette publishes a statement made by the coroner of the city, in which the death of a man named John Hogle is attributed to the prescriptions of a wretched quack named Warren. On an examination being made by two physicians, it was discovered that arsenic, nearly in its pure state, had been administered. Warren has succeeded in making his escape.

The Duchess de Berri, on the 12th August, after mass, passed the troops at Dieppe, in review; when a great number of ladies were present!

Theological Seminary, Prince Edward, Va.—It appears, from the New-York Observer, that more than $20,000 of the $25,000, necessary for the Establishment of "The New-York Professorship" in the Union Theological Seminary, Prince Edward, Va.—have been already subscribed. The Rev. Dr. Rice and the Rev. Mr. Roy, who have been engaged for some time past, in soliciting contributions to the important object, have left the city of New-York, having constituted Messrs. Joseph S. James, Knowles Taylor, Abijah Fisher, Ralph Olmstead and Richard T. Haines, their agents to receive further contributions and donations, until the endowment be completed. The condition annexed to the subscription is, that the whole sum of $25,000 be raised by about the first of June next.

Princeton Theological Seminary.—We learn by a gentleman from Princeton, N. J. that the semi-annual Examination in the Theological Seminary, commenced on the 20th inst. and closed on the 24th; at which time 14 young gentlemen received the certificate of the institution, as having passed successfully through the prescribed course. The Charge to the students was delivered by the Rev. Dr. Russel of Newark, and the Sermon before the Directors by the Rev. Mr. Nevins of Baltimore. On the evening of the 21st, the Society for Inquiry on Missionary Subjects held its annual meeting, when an Essay on the spiritual wants of our country was read by Mr. Potts, and an Oration on the elevation of moral character which the contemplation of the Christian System is fitted to produce, by Mr. Riddle. The whole aspect of the meeting was solemn and interesting.

Henry Carrington, Esq. of Charlotte, and Nathaniel Venable, Esq. of Prince Edward, were elected Trustees of the College.
