

James P. Lowry has been elected solicitor of the 11th district, Robert L. Carothers, of the 6th district, and Edwin Wilson, of the 8th district.

The Editors of the Nashville Republican, and those of the Knoxville Register, are elected printers to that State.

In the Nashville Republican, of the 5th ult. there is a publication from the Nashville Jackson Committee, relating to the execution of the six militia-men in 1814, at Mobile, for mutiny and desertion.

Montgomery Lodge, No. 13, in the town of Salisbury, Connecticut, requests all editors "favorable to masonry," to publish to the world, that Richard Hollister has been expelled from all communication with [said] lodge, and cut off from all the rights and privileges of masonry, for unamiable conduct.

The Editor of the New-York Enquirer, in copying into his columns a paragraph on the subject of making Wine from the Muscadine Grape, regrets that he had forgotten from what paper it was taken: We are happy in being able to relieve the Maj. from his regrets on this subject: the article first appeared in this paper, (the Western Carolinian.) Mr. Noah can now make the necessary acknowledgment, if he thinks the doing so worth his time, and the space it will occupy in his columns.

Nashville College.—The second regular commencement in the University of Nashville, was celebrated in that town on the 3d ult. Eleven young men, alumni of the college, had the degree of A. B. conferred on them; and the honorary degree of A. B. was conferred on Richard S. Williams, of Columbia; the honorary degree of A. M. was conferred on Judge Wm. E. Kennedy, and Aaron V. Brown, Esq. senator in the legislature; the degree of L. L. D. was conferred on Judge Francis Xavier Martin, of Louisiana, (formerly of this state,) and the degree of D. D. was conferred on the Right Rev. Joshua Soule, Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

John Graham, Esq. a member of the legislature of Tennessee, now in session, died at Nashville, on the 29th ult.

Fayetteville.—The Fayetteville Observer, of the 18th inst. says: "Considerable quantities of Goods have been received in town since our last, by boats and wagons from Wilmington. There is an evident improvement, also, in the produce market; so that, on the whole, business has assumed a more animated appearance."

Cherokee Indians.—We are sorry to learn, that the efforts of the U. S. commissioners (Gens. Davidson and Gray of this state, and Gen. Cooke, of Tennessee) to assemble the Cherokee Indians, with a view to enter into a treaty with them for a cession of some of their lands, are likely to prove unavailing. Tuesday, the 10th ult. was appointed by the Commissioners, on which to meet the Indians; but the latter could not be prevailed on to attend. Some of the principal Cherokee had written to the Commissioners, which induced the latter to return to the Agency. There seems to be but little hope of the Commissioners being able to get the Indians ever to meet them,—much less to treat with them. Gens. Davidson and Gray, two of the Commissioners, reached their places of residence last week,—that of the former being in Irwell, and of the latter in Randolph county.

Lithotomy.—The highly important and painful operation of extracting the stone from the bladder, (which operation is termed, among physicians, Lithotomy) was performed upon the body of Mr. James Locke, of Rutherford county, Tennessee, on the 15th of July last, by Doct. Frederick E. Becton, in the presence of several physicians and students of medicine. Mr. Locke was about 50 years old when he submitted to the operation, and had labored under the disease for more than ten years, suffering all the agonies peculiar to that most afflictive of human maladies, and did not possess, withal, a sound constitution; yet the wound was healed, and the patient on his feet, in three weeks after the operation. The stone extracted weighed four ounces, avoirdupois; and was of the species called "Mulberry Calculus," composed of the oxalate of lime. There are at least half a dozen persons within the circle of our acquaintance, (some in this county) who are suffering the indescribable pains and excruciating tortures incident to that dreadful malady the gravel. Are there none of the medical profession among us, who can trust to their skill in advertising an operation in lithotomy? Professional fame, and its concomitant, an extended practice, would await the successful operator in this case.

SALISBURY RACES.

The Races over the Salisbury course commenced on Wednesday, the 17th inst. and continued three days.

The first day's purse, two mile heats, was won by Mr. Turner's Horse, North-Carolina, beating Mr. Harrison's mare, Susan Robison, in three heats: this race was well contested, the winning horse coming out ahead by only half a length, in the second heat. Susan Robison is 4 years old, sired by Sir Hal; North-Carolina, also 4 years old, by Virginia.

Susan Robison, 1-2-2 North Carolina, 2-1-1 Time—1st heat, 4 m. 5 s.; 2d heat, 4 m. 4 s.; 3d heat, 4 m. 8 s.

Second day's purse, one mile heats, was won by Turner's Colt, Indian Chief; beating Mr. Harrison's mare Jennina, Mr. Thompson's horse Napoleon, Mr. Huie's horse Cobesord, and Mr. Kelly's mare Betsy Robison.

Indian Chief, 1-1-1 Jennina, 2-4-4 Napoleon, 3-2-2 Cobesord, 4-2-2 Betsy Robison, distance Time—1st heat, 2 m. 2 s.; 2d heat, 1 m. 58 s.

Third day, Proprietor's purse, three best in five, was won by Mr. Couble's mare, in two heats, beating Dr. Moore's mare Regina, Mr. Irvin's horse Napoleon, Mr. Kelly's mare Flirtilla, and Mr. Huie's colt Stride. Much good running was lost in this race, by the unfortunate fall of Stride and Flirtilla, near the stretch in the second heat.

Couble's mare, 1-1-1 Napoleon, 2, dist. Regina, 3, dist. Stride, 4, fell. Flirtilla, 5, fell. Time—1st heat, 2 m. 2 s.; 2d heat, 2 m. 2 s.

The Editor of the New-York Enquirer, in copying into his columns a paragraph on the subject of making Wine from the Muscadine Grape, regrets that he had forgotten from what paper it was taken: We are happy in being able to relieve the Maj. from his regrets on this subject: the article first appeared in this paper, (the Western Carolinian.) Mr. Noah can now make the necessary acknowledgment, if he thinks the doing so worth his time, and the space it will occupy in his columns.

Villainy.—The Charlotte Journal, of the 23d inst. says: "An attempt was made, on Monday night, the 15th inst. to burn the dwelling house of Dr. William J. Polk, about three miles from town. The house is elevated three or four feet from the ground, and rests on pillars; and the incendiary had inserted pieces of lightwood between the weather boarding and ceiling, to which he set fire, with the intention of destroying not only the house, but the Doctor and his family, who were in it. But fortunately, his atrocious design was frustrated, as the fire was discovered in season to extinguish it, without material damage to the house, although at first it was thought the building could not be saved. The Doctor and his family were preparing to go to bed, when providentially stepping into a closet, he discovered the flames, already having reached the second story, and thus the lives of himself and family were saved. Had the fire been communicated half an hour later, the probability is that all would have perished. There is no doubt that the perpetrator of this diabolical act is a negro; and we have strong hopes that he will be discovered and suffer the punishment he deserves. A reward of $200 is offered by Dr. Polk for the discovery of the incendiary."

There is no doubt that the perpetrator of this diabolical act is a negro; and we have strong hopes that he will be discovered and suffer the punishment he deserves.

A reward of $200 is offered by Dr. Polk for the discovery of the incendiary.

DEATH OF REV. DR. HENRY.

Died in Charleston, S. C. on the 5th inst. after a short and severe illness, the Rev. Thomas Charlton Henry, in the 38th year of his age, Pastor of the second Presbyterian Church in that city. He was buried on Saturday morning, the 6th; beneath the centre aisle of the church, adjoining the remains of the late Andrew Finn. A correspondent of the Charleston Courier, in noticing the death of Mr. Henry, remarks: "The eulogy of nature is the eulogy of truth;—nor can we offer to the memory of the Rev. Thomas Charlton Henry, aught that can be held in comparison with the anguished sighs and tears of his numerous, mourning and afflicted congregation."

EPITAPH.

"Pilgrim! shouldst thou approach this awful shrine, The merits of the honored dead I seek; The friend—the son—the christian, the divine, Let those who knew him, those who loved him speak. Oh! let them in some pause of anguish, say, What zeal inspired, what faith enlarged his breast! How soon th' unfeeling spirit wing'd its way From earth to heaven, from blessing to the best."

A most appropriate, impressive and excellent funeral sermon was delivered on the solemn occasion; at which the Rev. Clergy of the city attended, by the Rev. Mr. Gildersleeve.

CREW, OCT. 19.

The Steamboat North-Carolina, Captain Brooks, arrived on Sunday, fully loaded with salt and other merchandise for our merchants. This is her first trip, and we are very much in hopes she will be able to make her passages uninterrupted hereafter. We are sorry to say however that the river which has risen considerably has again fallen.

Rather Extraordinary.—William Chapman, Esq. has just shewn us an apple measuring 7 1/8 inches in circumference, being the second growth this year, on a tree in his garden. Mr. Chapman informs us that the tree on which it grew is now in full bloom. The first growth of apples on this tree was very fine and abundant.

We witnessed rather a novel as well as melancholy spectacle in the streets of this town on Wednesday last. Nothing more nor less than a man driving a waggon loaded with four coffins, containing the dead bodies of his two wives and two children. His last wife had died within a day or two, and having determined on burying her in N. Carolina, about 40 miles distant, he had disinterred the body of his former wife, who has been dead about four years, together with those of his two children, some time since deceased, and was transporting them to a new place of sepulture. All this may for aught we know be perfectly proper, but we never wish to witness a repetition of the scene.

RICHMOND, OCT. 3.

Racing Intelligence.—At a Race at Caswell Court House, N. C. a short time since, the celebrated race horse, Monsieur Tonson, is supposed to have ran his last heat. In a contest with Mr. Harrison's Frantic, he took the first heat with ease. In the second, his left fore-leg, (which prevented his running at Tree Hill last Spring) gave way, and he came out on three legs, still winning the heat. Many think him a horse of the greatest power ever run over an American Course.

FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

New York, Oct. 12.—We have received by the packet ship Birmingham, Captain Harris, which arrived last evening from Liverpool, our regular files of London papers to the 7th, and Liverpool to the 8th ult. inclusive. As we were led to expect from our last advices, the new Ministry were definitively arranged on the 3d ult. The following is the entire Cabinet as it now stands:—

First Lord of the Treasury, Lord Goderic; Chancellor of the Exchequer, Mr. Herries; Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, Lord Dudley and Ward; Secretary of State for the War and Colonial Department, with the lead of the House of Commons, Mr. Huskisson; Secretary of State for the Home Department, Marquis of Lansdowne; Master General of the Ordnance, Marquis of Anglesea; Lord Chancellor, Lord Lyndhurst; President of the Council, Duke of Portland; Lord Privy Seal, Earl of Carlisle; President of the Board of Trade, and Treasurer of the Navy, Mr. Charles Grant; President of the Board of Control, Mr. C. W. Wynn; Secretary at War, Lord Palmerston; Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, Lord Bexley; Master of the Mint, Mr. Tierney; Surveyor of the Woods and Forests, M. S. Bourne.

The intelligence from Greece is rather of a gratifying nature. Redschid Pacha had gone to Acarnania, where he had effected nothing. The Greeks having placed their wives and children within the natural fortresses of the country, followed his movements and intercepted his supplies, so as to prevent him from venturing to any distance from the coast. Ibrahim Pacha, through a similar reason, had been obliged to return to Modon and Coren, from whence he had despatched two European officers to Zante to buy provisions, with several Egyptian vessels of war to guard the convoy. This was the flotilla which Lord Cochrane attacked and defeated—an exploit which had increased the terrors of his name throughout the Levant, and imparted proportionate courage and ardor to the Greeks.

Instead of the Russians having been defeated at Erivon, it appears that on the 17th of July, they achieved a conquest over a body of Persians, composed of 16,000 cavalry. Abbas Mirza narrowly escaped.

The son of Napoleon had been indisposed, and was still attended daily by his Physicians.

A letter from Smyrna states, that since the knowledge of the treaty concluded between the Allied Powers had become general, the greatest irritation prevailed among the Turks. The feeling was especially directed against the Russians;—the war was to be held in great fear and detestation.

The nature of the news from Spain is unfavorable. Troops and levies of all kinds from the neighboring provinces were pouring into Catalonia, where insurrection was growing more and more general and audacious.

It is confidently stated, that Don Miguel proceeds to Lisbon to assume the regency of Portugal, without the consent and authority of his brother, Don Pedro. It is generally believed this step is about to be taken with the assent and concurrence of Great Britain. He was to embark at Venice in an Austrian frigate.

Paris, September 1.—The Journal du Commerce publishes the following extract of a letter, dated Constantinople, July 26, which it has received by way of Marseilles:—

"Nothing is talked of here but the approaching arrival of the squadrons of all the Christian nations, to second the intervention of the Powers of the West in the affairs of Greece; but people are convinced, that whatever repugnance the Government may feel for the proposed means of accommodation, it will not strike a blow; and the alarms that, under such circumstances, might be felt for the persons and property of the Franks, are entirely destitute of any reasonable foundation."

SPAIN.

Paris, Sept. 2.—A courier extraordinary, who arrived at Bayonne on the evening of the 29th, has brought the news of the change in the Spanish Ministry. The following are the names of those who now compose it:— M. Erro, Minister of Finance. M. Salazar, Minister of the Marine. M. Calomarde, Minister of the Interior. It is also said that the Duke de Infantado is nominated Minister of Foreign Affairs.

Exchange.—From the limited quantity of Produce at market, are necessarily difficult to be obtained. 1/4 per lb. for Cotton to Great Brit. and 1 1/2 cents to France, are the going rates. To New-York, 78 cents per cask for Rice, and 75 cents for square, and 51 for round bales of Cotton, are the asking prices.

All the above articles will readily sell at our quotations. Cotton begins to come in freely—the last European accounts do not appear to justify the prices given here; the purchases we understand being merely to supply the first demand of our own manufacturers.

In Warren county, in this state, on the 13th inst. Mrs. Sarah Cornelia Colman Green, wife of Mr. Nathaniel T. Green, (and daughter of the late Joshua Dinkins, of Mecklenburg county) in the 18th year of her age—leaving a mother. It was eighteen months from her marriage to the day of her death.

At his seat, near Hockingham, in Richmond County, 14th inst. Gen. Benjamin H. Covington, of a short but severe attack of typhus fever. General Covington was Clerk of the Superior Court of Richmond County, and chief Clerk of the Senate of this State.

In Montgomery county, on the 3d inst. Robert Peacock, Esq. aged 26 years. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and left the world with a bright prospect of a glorious immortality beyond the grave.

In Sandwich, Massachusetts, on the 26th ult. the Hon. Nathaniel Freeman, aged 86. He was an active Patriot of the Revolution, and his services are honorably mentioned in the histories of that period.

Lately in Sampson County, James Holmes, Esq. formerly sheriff of that county. Departed this life, on the 13th inst. Col. John Eager Howard, of Baltimore. The death of this distinguished Revolutionary Hero, and public spirited citizen, has covered that city with mourning. Every testimonial of veneration for his virtues, and gratitude for his services, civil and military, was shown in the last sad tribute of respect to his remains. Col. Howard was a Colonel of the Maryland line, during the Revolution, and distinguished himself in the battles of Guilford, Eutaw, and the Cow Pens, and was severely wounded at Eutaw; he was afterwards Gov. of Maryland, his native state.
