

Salisbury:

DECEMBER 4, 1827.

Proceedings of the meeting held at the court-house on Saturday, to make arrangements for celebrating the 8th of January, in our next.

The Legislature.—In preceding columns of this day's paper, will be found the incipient proceedings of the legislature, with the Governor's message, which was sent to both houses on Tuesday. It will be seen that the legislature has paid a deserved tribute of respect to the worth of that venerable and good man, Jous Harwood, by resolving to wear crape in memory of his virtues, and by adjourning and attending his funeral, which took place on Tuesday, the 20th.

Our latest advices from Raleigh, do not enable us to advise our readers who are elected Governor and Comptroller. John S. Haywood, oldest son of the late John Haywood, was, on Monday the 26th ult. elected Treasurer of the State, by a majority of 136 votes over James Sewell, Esq. of Fayetteville.

Messrs. Stone of Raleigh, Cowan of Wilmington, and Dewes of Salisbury, have been elected Engraving Clerks. Mr. Dewes was elected on Saturday the 24th, by a majority of two over Mr. Hill, after Messrs. Jasper, Lilly, Covington, and Hodges, had been withdrawn.

On Tuesday last, the election for Comptroller came on. The first balloting resulted as follows:

John L. Henderson, of Salisbury	48
John H. Greene, of Warren	38
James Grant, of Halifax	30
Thomas Blackwell, of Rockingham	15
James Legrand, of Montgomery	14
Ambrose K. Hainsay, of Chatham	11

A considerable number scattering.

A bill to provide for electing the Sheriff, by the people, was presented in the Senate, by Mr. Montgomery, of Orange, on Saturday, the 24th.

Kentucky.—We have, daily, new developments of Jackson's strong hold on the affections of the people of Kentucky. It is reported from Nashville, that Mr. Calhoun, the Jackson candidate for Congress in the district lately represented by Mr. Young, dec'd. is elected. If this be the case, the representation in Congress from Kentucky is now two to one in favor of Jackson. In this district, at the election last summer, there were two administration candidates, and one for Jackson; but notwithstanding the former were thus divided, they were then strong enough in the district to elect one of their candidates. But so great has been the change within a few months, that a decided friend of Jackson's has now been elected.

Since the above was written, we see it stated that Mr. Chilton's majority was 784, in six out of the ten counties in the district; and that the friends of the administration admit Mr. C. is elected, but say his majority is not over 500. The Washington Telegraph says, "We know Mr. Chilton personally. He is a young gentleman of talents and much promise, but he is almost a stranger in the district. He has not resided in the district more than 12 or 18 months, and had very few acquaintances, if any, in it before that period. The district is large; and Mr. Calhoun, his competitor, has resided and practised law in it for many years."

The Six Militia Men.—The proceedings of the court martial which tried and condemned to death six militia-men, for mutiny and desertion, at Mobile, in 1814, have lately been found tucked away in a recess in the War Department at Washington. So much abuse and slander had been bestowed on Gen. Jackson, because he approved the sentence of the court martial in condemning those mutineers, that it became necessary the proceedings of the court should be spread before the public, in order to counteract the calumnies which the General's enemies have so industriously disseminated. But on application to the proper officers at Washington, no documents of the kind were to be found; and the administration papers went so far as to assert, that Mr. Madison (then President) had sent them back to Tennessee, as developing too bloody a transaction, to be suffered to remain on record! At this late day, however, after the slanders of Gen. Jackson have made the most of this source of abuse, the lost documents are found, tucked away in some obscure corner of the war office!

Navigation of Rivers.—A letter from Augusta, published in the Charleston Courier, in reference to the lowness of the water in Savannah river, expresses the opinion, that the removal of the impediments in the river, will increase instead of diminishing, the difficulties of navigating it—for, "as impediments are removed, so will the water flow more quickly to the ocean"—and leave the river lower than it would have been had the obstructions remained. This is a new objection to the improvement of the navigation of rivers: but we think it more specious than solid. The Fayetteville Observer says there are persons who believe the clearing out of the Cape Fear has not been an improvement, but that it has only opened a way for the water to run out of the river!

In Tennessee, the legislature has, by a resolution, in Committee of the whole, declared it expedient to introduce into that state the penitentiary system, at this time. It may be inexpedient "at this time" to adopt said system there; but we verily believe the members of the legislature do not discern the true interests of their constituents, if we are to understand them as putting the seal of absolute exclusion on the penitentiary system.

Cotton Blankets.—In a Natchez (Mississippi) paper, mention is made of a cotton blanket, at a store in that town, made in France. It is said to be very fine in quality, and beautiful in appearance; is 9 feet in length, and 8 in breadth; and weighs 6½ pounds. It is said that cotton blankets are preferred to any other in France, and that they are altogether used there: Woolen ones are only made for exportation. Cotton shirts are also preferred by the French, to those made of other stuffs. It is worthy of inquiry, whether the people of the United States, particularly of the Southern section of it, would not consult their best interest, by making and using not only cotton blankets, but such other articles of necessity in every family, as are now manufactured, in whole or in part, of wool. Every new expedient that can be resorted to for promoting the staple productions of our country, must of necessity benefit the people thereof; for it contributes towards giving scope to their enterprise and industry.

Mr. Emmett.—We mentioned, in our last, that Thos. Addis Emmett, of New-York, the distinguished civilian, and polished gentleman, had been attacked by a severe stroke of apoplexy; we have since learned that he died next day. Mr. Emmett was a native of Ireland; and, (characteristic of his countrymen) his heart was always found beating with a fervid pulse in behalf of oppressed humanity in his own ill-fated country; and he never ceased from eloquently pleading the cause of Ireland, against the tyranny of England, till the rebellion in the latter induced him to expatriate himself from his native land, and adopt the United States as his home and asylum. It is said that the day on which he was attacked with apoplexy, was the anniversary of his arrival in this country, more than twenty years ago.

In consequence of the extraordinary cold weather at the north, the New-York Canal has been closed by ice 10 or 15 days earlier than usual; consequently, produce to the amount of five or six hundred thousand dollars, has been shut out from market till spring.

In Vermont, his Excellency the Reverend Mr. Ezra Butler, who has for two years held the office of Governor of that state, has published an address to the people, declining a re-election, and expressing a determination to devote the remainder of his life to preaching the Gospel.—Mr. Butler is a Baptist Clergyman, (or Elder,) but having laid aside his clerical, to assume a responsible secular office, it is said he now regrets not having stuck to his text; and intends, henceforward, to eschew all the ephemeral honors of this world. Mr. Samuel C. Crafts, a member of Congress from that state, is nominated for the next Governor. For fear of accidents, the legislature has taken time by the forelock, and nominated candidates for Electors of President and Vice President—all good Adams-men and true.

In Sampson county, in this state, at the late fall term of the superior court, the Grand Jury took a vote on the Presidency:

Jackson	14
Adams	4

IN PHILADELPHIA.
The friends of Gen. Jackson have had a meeting, and resolved to testify their satisfaction at the result of the late elections in New-York, by a public celebration: the 25th of November, being the anniversary of the evacuation of the city of New-York by the British in the Revolution, was agreed upon as the most suitable day for the celebration.

A disease resembling the small-pox, prevailed in the British province of Nova Scotia, at the last dates. It baffles the skill of the physicians: several persons have died with it, who had previously been inoculated with the small-pox. It is quite a different disease from what is called the varioloid.

At Memphis, in Tennessee, (at the Chickasaw Bluff, on the Mississippi river) flour sells at $5 per barrel, bacon 7 cents per lb. pork 6, whiskey 30 to 33, salt 65 to 75. At the same place, on the 27th Oct. North-Carolina Bank Bills were at 8 per cent. discount; South-Carolina and Georgia do. 7 do.; Virginia 2, &c.

Office Seeking.—In a letter from Raleigh, to the editor of the Carolina Observer, the writer remarks, that "there has never been, I suspect, since the formation of the government, such a crowd of office-hunters; and the vacancies to be filled, will I fear make it a very protracted session." To the pressure of the times, and the consequent stagnation of almost every branch of business, may be attributed the increasing disposition among our citizens to seek a share of the "loaves and fishes" of office.

In addition to the appointment of a new Governor, Public Treasurer, and Comptroller, heretofore named, we now learn that David L. Swain, Esq. has resigned the appointment of Solicitor of the Edenton circuit; consequently, a successor to that gentleman will have to be appointed at the present session of the legislature.

Small-Pox.—Dr. M. E. Sawyer, of Edenton, in this state, reports, under date of 12th ult. that there had been no new case of small pox in that town, during the past week. "Of 13 persons who have been vaccinated, and constantly exposed to this complaint, two have taken a disease, which partakes of the nature both of the King and Small Pox. In these cases the pustules though quite numerous, are very similar to that produced by vaccination: The disease is milder than ordinary cases of small pox, and will probably terminate in much less time."

Com. Porter.—It has been ascertained, by the last advices from Com. Porter's late cruising station, that he has gone on some secret enterprise; and although it is thought by many that his object is to intercept a Spanish vessel laden with money, bound from Havana to Cadiz, yet others think he has gone to Carthage, to assist in defending that place against a meditated attack from the Spanish squadron now fitting out at Havana.

Mr. Emmett.—A subscription has been set on foot in New-York, to raise money for erecting a monument to the memory of the late Thomas Addis Emmett. Wm. Sampson, Esq. has been selected to write the biography of Mr. Emmett; and his Excellency Gov. Clinton to deliver the Eulogy.

United States Bank Stock at Philadelphia, last dates, 123 1/2 to 123 5/8.
U. S. Bank Stock at N. York last dates, 193 7/8 a 124. Exchange on London 111 a 111 1/2.

NEW-YORK, NOV. 17.
Funeral of Mr. Emmet.—When this paper went to press yesterday, the funeral procession of the late Thomas Addis Emmet was entering Grace Church. The procession was very numerous, notwithstanding the storm of rain, mingled with hail. In moving from the late residence of Mr. E. the procession advanced through Beech-street towards Broadway, where it was met by an immense assemblage of individuals anxious to perform the last honors to the eminent deceased. Every window and avenue was filled with spectators. The flags on the public edifices of the city were displayed at half-mast, and there seemed to be but one expression of unaffected sorrow pervading the city. Spectator.

We understand that the Rev. Dr. McAuley has declined accepting the invitation of the trustees of the Transylvania University, to assume the Presidency of that institution, notwithstanding the very liberal offers with which it was accompanied; and his decision has given great satisfaction to the people of his charge in this city. New York Spectator.

Greece and Turkey.—A gentleman in Paris, writing to his friend in New York, says:—"You will find from the papers, that the Porte had rejected the mediation offered by England, France and Russia, in order to terminate the war in Greece. The combined fleets of these nations are now in the vicinity of the Grecian islands, and propose, by force, to separate the combatants. Although the Porte blusters a good deal, and is as proud and bigoted as he is ignorant, yet as it is not believed that he will be rash enough to provoke hostilities with these great powers, so the news has not depressed the stocks. "Don Miguel will soon present himself in Portugal, and assume the Regency. The constitution and its friends will, in all probability, receive very little favor at his hands. The English troops will, it is thought, be compelled to leave Portugal."

Georgia.—An entire change has been made in the State Officers of Georgia, by the Legislature, now in session. Hines Holt is the new Treasurer—Thacker Howard, Comptroller, Everard Hamilton, Secretary of State, and T. Mitchell, Surveyor General.
R. H. Wilde is elected a Representative in Congress, vice Mr. Forsyth, chosen Governor.

Louisiana.—The Attakapas Gazette says: We are told, the late Administration assembly at Natchitoches, was attended by about 15 persons, nearly a third of whom were doctors? We think the Adams cause in that country must be in a very sickly condition, to require so much medical aid to get up a meeting.
