Salisbury:

JANUARY 15th, 1828

Supreme Court.—The Supreme Court of this State met in Raleigh on Monday the 31st ult. John L. Henderson, Esq. of this town, has been appointed Clerk, in place of Col. Wm. Howards, elected Treasurer of the State. We understand there were three candidates, and that a choice was not effected until the third or fourth day after the court met.

EIGHTH OF JANUARY.

This proud day for our country, was celebrated in Salisbury, on Tuesday last, in a manner creditable to the public spirit and patriotism of our citizens.

In accordance with previous arrangements, Capt. Lemly's company of Light Infantry Blues paraded in the morning; and after performing various military evolutions, with much precision, and in martial style, they marched up Main street to the Court-House, where a line was formed on the left of the military, (under the directions of Col. Thos. G. Polk, marshal of the day, and Col. Henry Giles, assistant marshal,) composed of the Clergy of the town, Orator of the day, committee of arrangements, citizens and strangers; who moved in procession to the Lutheran Church, where had previously assembled a respectable company of that American "Beauty" whose sisters were so gallantly saved by their heroic countrymen at Orleans, on the ever-memorable 8th of January, 1815, of which this is the 13th anniversary, from the brutality of a licentious foreign soldiery.

The exercises in the church were commenced with a very impressive, chaste and appropriate Prayer, by the Rev. Thomas Wright. Immediately after, Gen. Romulus M. Saunders delivered a truly eloquent and patriotic address, which called forth the applause of the auditory.

In the evening, a Ball was given at the Fulton House, which was attended by a large and fashionable assemblage of ladies and gentlemen, citizens and visitors, who retired at a reasonable hour, gratified with having contributed their mite towards perpetuating the remembrance of so glorious an era in the annals of our country.

It was pleasing to witness so great a degree of unanimity among our citizens, on the occasion. Efforts had been used to divert the proceedings of every thing like a party complexion, and to honor the day on patriotic national considerations. With how much success these efforts were attended, the following note speaks more convincingly, because from a more disinterested source, than any thing we could say on the subject:

Salisbury, Jan. 9th, 1828.

Mr. White: I was highly pleased at the decorous manner in which the 8th of January was celebrated in your village. It was truly characteristic of the hospitality of a generous and high-minded people. It was literally a day of rejoicing for the event, and not an ostentatious show for party purposes: So should it ever be. I had been led to believe that the object of the celebration was, to assist in the approaching Presidential election; that it was not so much the day, as the man, that was to be celebrated; and although I can never see the return of that day without emotion, I felt that emotion damped by the fear that the good people of Salisbury looked more at the agent in the hand of Providence in achieving the victory, than at the consequences of the victory itself. I was deceived. The prayer by the Rev. Mr. Wright, and the Address by Gen. Saunders, (both truly patriotic and chaste performances) the good fellowship and cordiality of all parties on the occasion, all tend to do honor to the hospitable and liberal principles which, I hope, may ever direct the citizens of a Free Republic. A Visitor, and an Adams Man.

The Legislature of this State adjourned on Monday morning, the 7th inst. after a session of 60 days. A list of all the public acts will be found in preceding columns of to-day's paper; the private acts, and the resolutions, shall be given in our next.

On Thursday previous to the adjournment, Mr. Stewart presented a bill in the House of Commons, to alter the time of meeting of the General Assembly, to the 1st Monday in November, which was rejected on its first reading; and Mr. Borden presented a bill to reduce the per diem allowance of Members to two dollars, which met with the same fate, by a vote of 54 to 7.

Thomas Marshall was elected Brigadier General of the 2nd Brigade, on the second balloting.

On Thursday, in the Senate, the bill for the erection of a new county in the west, to be called Mason, was indefinitely postponed. The vote was 30 to 29.

On Friday, in the House, a bill was had for Cavalry Officers, attached to the 15th brigade, which resulted in the appointment of Benjamin B. Brittain, as Colonel, Wm. M'Ginnsey, as Lieut. Colonel, and Benjamin Richards, as Major.

The Resolution requiring the Governor to make known to the Secretary of War, the wish of the Legislature, that he would send the Corps of U. S. Engineers to survey the route for a Rail Road from Newbern through Raleigh, to the western part of the State, was taken up and rejected, 64 to 45.

FOR THE WESTERN CAROLINIANS.

At a company Muster in Ashe co, N. C. on the 31st inst. a meeting of the friends of Gen. Jackson was held, which was attended by 80 or 100 persons. The meeting was organized by calling Mathias Poe, Esq. to the chair, and appointing Neal M. Colvard and David E. Moore, secretaries. The object of the meeting being explained at some length by Col. Geo. Bower, resolutions expressing their decided disapprobation to the present administration, and their preference for Andrew Jackson, and pledging themselves to use all honourable means to secure his election to the Presidency of the United States, were adopted with but one dissenting voice. A committee consisting of Col. Geo. Bower, Capt. Payton Colvard, and Capt. David E. Moore, was appointed, to correspond with other committees of the district, and make all other necessary arrangements for the meeting of delegates at Wilkesboro', to select some person to be voted for as a Jackson Elector for the district composed of the counties of Surry, Wilkes, Iredell, and Ashe.

MATHIAS POE, Presr. N. M. Colvard, Secretary. D. E. Moore, do.

Raleigh Jackson Meeting.—Our limits will not admit of our giving, in detail, at this time, the proceedings of the Jackson meeting held in Raleigh on the 28th ult. As we stated in our last, the Hon. Chief Justice Taylor presided; John K. Campbell and Benj. A. Barham, secretaries. An able and eloquent preamble and resolutions, expressive of a decided preference of Gen. Jackson as President, and John C. Calhoun as Vice President, were adopted. Col. William Polk, Col. James F. Taylor, Col. John Bell, Col. William Robards, Hon. John L. Taylor, Hon. George E. Badger, Charles L. Hinton, Benj. A. Barham, Benj. B. Smith, W. H. Haywood, jr. Charles Manley, Theo. Hunter, Geo. W. Haywood, Alex. J. Lawrence, composed the "Central Jackson Committee of Vigilance and Correspondence," to whom the committees of the several Districts, when they have agreed upon their electoral candidate, are requested to communicate such selection.

Mr. Calhoun, as far as our information extends, is most decidedly the choice of the friends of Jackson: their interests are inseparably blended. Our rallying word should be, Jackson and Calhoun.

Jackson Electors.—Among the resolutions adopted at the meeting of the friends of Gen. Jackson, at Raleigh, was one, recommending to his friends in the counties comprising each electoral district to convene and appoint committees, to meet in the central county of such district, and select a suitable Jackson candidate for elector for the district: and that immediate notice of such selection and nomination be given to the "Central Jackson Committee of Vigilance and Correspondence" at Raleigh, in order that the Ticket, when completed, may be formally announced to the friends of General Jackson throughout the State.

This is the course contemplated to be pursued by the friends of Jackson in this Electoral district, composed of the counties of Rowan, Davidson, and Montgomery. In due time, we understand, committees will be appointed by the people of each of these counties, to meet at Lexington, Davidson county, and nominate a Jackson candidate for Elector for this district.

Remarkable.—A white shad was caught on Christmas morning, in Pee Dee river, about 5 miles from Richmond county court house.

Equally Remarkable!—There are at this time (14th January, 1828) Peas in bloom in the town of Salisbury!

Joseph Pickett, James F. Taylor, and William Robards, are appointed Commissioners on the part of the State of North Carolina, to take possession of and sell the property of the late John Haywood, to indemnify the State against the loss it has sustained by reason of the defalcation in the funds of the treasury during the time Mr. Haywood presided over that department. These gentlemen have advertised for sale 110 valuable slaves, and several valuable tracts of land in the neighborhood of Raleigh: sale to take place in Raleigh, on the 20th of February next.

Kentucky.—A convention of friends of the administration, was held at Frankfort, Kentucky, on the 17th ult. Gen. Thos. Metcalf, now in Congress, was nominated for Governor; and Mr. L. J. Underwood for Lieut. Gov. Electoral tickets in favor of Mr. Adams, were also agreed upon. But can they be elected? We think not.

University.—On the 1st inst, William J. Alexander, of Mecklenburg county; William Robards, of Raleigh; Nicholas J. Drake, of Nash county; and Emanuel Shober, of Stokes county—were elected Trustees of the University of this State, to supply vacancies which occurred during the past year.

NEW-YORK, MONDAY, JAN. 14th, 1828.

The committee on roads and canals in the house of representatives of the United States, made a report, on the 2d inst. on the subject of the National Road from Washington City to New-Orleans, accompanied by a bill on the subject. They recommend the Western Route, through Tennessee, &c. The following are their reasons for giving this preference:

"The committee have, after much reflection, decided in favor of the western route for the contemplated road, without intending, however, to exclude from the discretion of the Executive such future alterations of that route as the further reports of the United States Engineers, daily expected, or future inquiry, may recommend."

"In preferring the western to the middle or eastern route, the committee have been governed by a reference to the abundance and quality of the material which may hereafter be required for its more solid structure, and the various uses of which it will be susceptible, as well in peace as in war, it affording, where most needed, a ready channel of social, commercial and political intercourse; and the means of speedily concentrating and directing the public force to the defence of the nation."

New Post Offices.—The following New Post Offices were established in the State, from the 1st to the 31st December, to wit:

- Linville River, Burke county. Bear Creek, do. Bakersville, do. Toe River, do. North Cove, do. Mill Grove, Cabarrus county. Greensboro', Buncombe county. Ivy, do. Little Yadkin, Stokes county. Blakely, do. Wauhtown, do. Rainsboro', Guilford county. Roadville, Surry county. Lilesville, Anson county. Culpeper's Store, Montgomery county, has been discontinued.

A Mr. Wm. Rankin hung himself to death on the 3d inst. in Guilford county. He had, at times, been troubled with insanity.

Town Taxes.—Among the private acts passed by the legislature at its recent session, was one which makes it the duty of the sheriff of Rowan county to collect the taxes which may be assessed upon the citizens of the town of Salisbury by the Commissioners thereof, who have heretofore been collected by the Town Constable, the appointment of which officer will probably hereafter be dispensed with. Experience had proven, that some further provision in regard to the collection of the Taxes of the town, was called for; and we hope the present law may afford an effectual remedy for the evils complained of.

Medical Board.—The bill which passed the House of Commons, to establish a Medical Board, and to regulate the practice of physic and surgery in this State, noticed in our last, was indefinitely postponed in the senate on the 26th ult.

Mr. Clay.—We have been obligingly favored, by a friend in Washington, with a pamphlet containing an address from the Hon. Henry Clay, Secretary of State of the United States, accompanied by numerous testimonials, in the shape of letters from various public characters, and among them one from Gen. Lafayette—all going to vindicate Mr. Clay against the charge of entering into a corrupt coalition with Mr. Adams, by means of which the latter was placed in the Presidential chair, and the former rewarded with the post of prime minister. To satisfy the curiosity of our readers, we will publish extracts from Mr. Clay's address, as we can find room, and also make some extracts from his testimony. All this evidence, however, is of a negative character—the witnesses are Mr. Clay's personal friends, and testify to the best of their knowledge! Our opinion of the matter is the same it ever was, to wit:—that Mr. Clay voted for the man he "felt assured" would make him the best return for so doing. This elaborate attempt at smothering out the business, is labor lost; Gen. Jackson will be made President by the People, maugre it and all other efforts of a like nature.

Presidential Electors.—On reference to the proceedings of the legislature of the 29th ult. it will be seen that bills were presented in both houses on that day, with the view of changing the mode of electing Electors of President and Vice President, from the general ticket to the district system; and that they were rejected in each house, by large majorities. The rejection of these bills is said to have afforded a "test" of the strength of parties in the legislature; the friends of the administration generally voting for, and those of Gen. Jackson against the bills.

Cape Fear Notes.—We have seen by the Virginia papers that the call which the President of the Cape Fear Bank has made for a general meeting of its Stockholders, in order to consider "the propriety of surrendering their charter," has had the effect of depreciating the value of Cape Fear Notes in that State. We do not believe there is any just ground for this depreciation. Indeed it is not thought the charter will be surrendered. The State which is considerably interested, is opposed to the surrender. Should the business be continued, it is possible that the heavy tax of which the Directors complain may be repealed by the Legislature. Rat. Register.

Election of Mayor in Liverpool.—The election of Mayor which took place in Liverpool last October, was more closely contested than any, as we believe, on record. It lasted six days; and at the close of the polls in each of the five first days there was a tie between the candidates, Messrs. Robinson and Porter. The latter candidate succeeded on the sixth day, by a majority of 15. The votes then stood, for Porter 1780 for Robinson 1765. The Liverpool Albion speaks of many disgraceful scenes as occurring during the contest. "Bribery was openly reduced to a system. One party gave three pounds for each tally, and as much beer as the men could drink, while the other gave five pounds only, allowing the men to get drunk at their own expense."
