

FROM EUROPE.

By the James Cropper at New-York, from Liverpool, papers to the 17th Feb'y. are received, containing the following result of the new Ministerial arrangements, from which it appears that the whole London Press has been at fault in regard thereto.

NEW MINISTRY.

The Duke of Wellington, First Lord of the Treasury, vice Lord Goderich. Henry, Earl Bathurst, Lord President of His Majesty's Privy Council, vice the Duke of Portland.

Lord Lyndhurst continues Lord Chancellor.

Lord Ellenborough, Keeper of the Privy Seal, vice the Earl of Carlisle.

The Hon. Henry Goulbourn, Chancellor of the Exchequer, vice Mr. Herries.

The Right Hon. William Carr-Viscount Beresford, Master General of the Ordnance.

The Right Hon. Robert Peel, Secretary of State for the Home Department, in place of the Marquis of Lansdowne.

Mr. Huskisson remains Secretary of State for the Colonies.

Earl Dudley continues Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

Lord Melville, President of the Board of Control, in place of Mr. C. Wynn.

Mr. Charles Grant continues President of the Board of Trade, and Treasurer of the Navy.

The Earl of Aberdeen, Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, in place of Lord Bexley.

Mr. Herries, Master of the Mint, in place of Mr. Tlenerney.

Lord Palmerston, continues in the War Department.

In office but not in the cabinet—His Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence, Lord High Admiral.

Judge Advocate General—Right Hon. Sir John Beckett, Bart. vice Right Hon. James Amblercombe.

The Right Hon. Charles Arbuthnot, William D. Adams, and Henry Hawkins, Esqs. Commissioners of Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues.

Vice-President of the Board of Trade—T. F. Lewis, Esq.

Paymaster General—Right Hon. W. Y. Fitzgerald.

Under Secretaries of State—Home, S. M. Phillips, Esq. and W. Y. Peale, Esq. vice T. S. Rice, Esq. Colonial—R. W. Hay, Esq. the other not yet settled.

Foreign—Lord Howard de Walden, John Blackhouse.

Secretaries of the Treasury—Joseph Planta, Esq. and G. R. Dawson, Esq. vice T. F. Lewis, Esq.

Lords of the Treasury—Lord Grenville, C. H. Somerset, vice Right Hon. M. Fitzgerald. Earl of Mount Charles, Lord Elliott, E. A. McNaughten, Esq.

Commissioners for Affairs of India—The arrangement is not yet completed, but it is understood that Sir J. McDonald, and Dr. Phillimore, retire.

Sir C. Wetherall, is appointed Attorney General. Sir James Scarlett refusing to hold that office.

Solicitor General, Sir N. C. Tindall.

IRELAND.

Lord Lieutenant—Marquis Anglessea, vice Marquis of Wellesley.

Chief Secretary—Right Hon. W. Lamb.

The Duke of Wellington having accepted the post of First Lord of the Treasury, and Prime Minister, has resigned the command of the Army. One account says that Lord Hill is spoken of as his successor. Another says that the duties of the office are to be performed by a commission, to consist of Lord Beresford, Sir George Murray, and Sir Herbert Taylor.

The foregoing list does not contain the names of the Earl of Eldon, of the Earl of Westmoreland, or Viscount Lowther.

Notwithstanding the pains that have been taken in the formation of this Ministry, we are disposed to question its stability.

The news of the formation of the new British Ministry, under the direction of the Duke of Wellington, was received in Ireland with very great regret, and it seems to have inspired not only the leaders of the Catholics, but the whole of that population. Already a resolution has been passed the Catholic Board, stating that on no consideration will the Catholics support any public man who gives his sanction to any Administration directed by the Duke of Wellington.

Parliament was opened by royal commission; the Lord Chancellor read the King's speech.

The New Ministry, with Lord Wellington at its head, is composed entirely of Tories, and some dissensions have already taken place between some of its members. The country is not satisfied with the change.

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

By a number of successive arrivals at the port of New-York, we have French advices to the 21st, and English to the 20th February.

The latest intelligence is brought by the Ship Salem, in the remarkably short passage of 22 days from Liverpool. Papers to the day of her sailing, (the 20th February) were received. The most important item we perceive, is the return to England of Lord Cochrane, from Poros, top of the Grecian Isles in the Archipelago.

His reason for coming home is, that the Turks have not a single ship of any description on the sea, and that therefore the Greeks no longer require his aid. The Hellas frigate and the smaller vessels of the Greek navy, are cruising for the suppression of piracy.

He states that the Egyptians are retiring from the contest in the Morea with all possible celerity. Soon after the battle of Navarin, they commenced collecting all the vessels they could both Egyptians and Turkish, and embarked in them 15,000 of their troops who sailed for Alexandria, leaving 8,000 of them in the fortified places, in the most wretched and destitute condition. It is estimated that 12,000 must have perished since Sir Edward Codrington's statement of the battle was made, either by the sword, disease or famine.

Turkey.—A grand Congress of deputies, consisting of two from each large, and one from each small town in the Empire, has been ordered by the Sultan. Such an assembly is said to be without a precedent in Turkish history. Its real object probably is, to diffuse as far as may be, a spirit of unity among the faithful, and to reconcile them to any new measures which may be necessary to the prosecution of war in these evil times.

The accounts from Turkey are various, and in some instances contradictory.

The latest dates from Constantinople bear a warlike aspect, the Bosphorus has been closed against the vessels of all nations, and the subjects of the Three Powers, told that they must consider themselves as Rayas, or else quit the Capital, where no foreign right of protection could any longer be permitted!!

It is remarkable, that the Kings of both Great Britain and France, in their speeches to the Parliament and Chamber, speak of the destruction of the Turkish fleet as an unforeseen and unfortunate occurrence, while the Emperor of Russia viewed this unhappy collision with the forces of an ancient ally, in so different a light, that he promptly conferred appropriate rewards on all the principal officers engaged in the battle, and extolled their bravery and good conduct to the skies!

Letters had been received from Constantinople to Jan. 11th. It was reported at Constantinople, that Count Capo D'Istria had arrived in the Morea, and had been proclaimed Chief of the Greek Government.

The French parliament assembled on the 5th Feb. and the King's speech was delivered on the 6th.

Extract of a letter received by the Rhine, dated Havre, Feb. 20, 1828.

"The Grand Sultan has issued a proclamation, in which he refuses to acknowledge the independence of Greece, & calls upon all his subjects, civil and religious, to defend their rights and their country. Still we do not believe there will be war!"

A letter of the 21st, says, the news from Constantinople is confirmed on all sides.

The Markets.—According to the latest advices, Tobacco in London was looking up and sales improving, while Cotton in Liverpool was rather more depressed, and prices a shade lower. Peter's Intel.

Congress.—The Appropriation and Tariff Bills are the principal subjects before Congress at present. It is impossible to predict the fate of the latter measure, such is the contrariety of views and opinions in relation to it. It is evident that the most decided friends of the Manufacturing interests, are the most determined in their hostility to the new Bill. Still the debate drags on, heavily it is true, but will probably yet continue some weeks—for the liberty of speech is a precious privilege in the eyes of our public men, which they will indulge and suffer to the utmost, although it appears to have been difficult to procure listeners of late.

Petersburg Intelligence.

Turkborough, N. C. March 21.

The Spring term of the Superior Court for this county was held in this place last week, Judge MARTIN presiding. We understand that there were no cases of public importance brought before the court this session.

Mr. Crawford.—The friends of the Administration seem to derive some comfort from a letter of Mr. Crawford's, written in reply to one from Mr. Clay, in which they say Mr. Crawford acquits the Secretary of all blame for the course he pursued at and since the election of Mr. Adams as President. Now let us hear what a correspondent of the New-York Enquirer says on the subject:

"There is another story going about the country. It is said, that Mr. Crawford has written a letter to this city, exculpating Clay from the charge of bargain, &c. Such a letter has been written; but if it ever sees the light, it will be found one of the most sarcastic and severest condemnations, not only of Mr. Clay but of the whole administration, which was ever penned. Mr. Crawford says, on the supposition of his innocence from the charge of bargain with Adams, that Mr. Clay should never have taken an office. Now, it is this taking of office that is the best evidence of his bargain. If there had been no bargain, and if Clay's conscience had been pure, he, or an honest man, would sooner have burned his right hand than taken an office, in which act the only word that could be written upon it was "bargain." Mr. Crawford further decidedly condemns the Panama Mission, the colonial business, and several other measures and principles of the present cabinet. I hope the letter may be published, but I fear they dare not."

In our paper succeeding the next, we will give extracts from J. Randolph's speech on the Retrenchment resolutions of Mr. Chilton. It would be impracticable, from its extreme length, to publish the whole in our paper; but in making extracts we shall be careful to select such parts as wander the least from the subject, and are the most pungent in satirizing the political coxcombs of the day.

The purpose of the society is one of such expansive benevolence, that the members have reason to expect their Association will receive not only the approval, but the aid of a generous Christian community.

The thorough bred Horse

ERONAUT,

WILL stand the present season, now commenced, and to continue until the 1st of August, at my stable in Rowan County, 10 miles from Salisbury, and 7 from Lexington; at the reduced price of eight dollars the season, payable by six dollars within the season; four dollars, prompt payment, the single lead; and twelve dollars to insure a mare to prove with foal, due as soon as the mare proves evidently with foal, or the property is transferred. Eronaut will stand in Salisbury and Lexington the four first days of each term of the Superior and County courts; when and where he will not shrink from a comparison with any horse in America, as to symmetry and elegance of form, vigour of constitution and force of muscular power, combined with the finest action. He will be very generally found at his station, except when taken to be shown at public places, or to a small distance occasionally to oblige, for a single day or two, a particular neighbourhood.

Description.—Eronaut is a fine mahogany bay, with black legs, main and tail, a handsome star and small blaze in his face, seven years old this spring, sixteen hands high; uniting, in a high degree, the size, grandeur and elegance of his sire the Imported horse Eagle, with the great substance, power and compactness of the sire of his dam, the Imported horse Dion. His great strength of body and limbs enable him to stand high as a horse of power, and will enable his stock to carry weight at any requisite age, and render them more suitable for the harness, saddle, or draught, the most useful portion of their labour. Eronaut has never been trained to the turf, in consequence of there being no races near him when he should have been trained; yet his great power, symmetry and blood, and particularly the strength of his limbs, have made it evident to the best of judges who have inspected him, that he must have been a distinguished runner if he had been judiciously trained at the proper time.

Pedigree.—Eronaut was sired by the Imported horse Eagle, his dam by the Imported horse Dion, grand-dam by Expectation, (one of the best sons of the Imported horse Diomed, out of a Shark mare) great grand-dam by Mr. Buchanan's thorough bred running horse Medley, out of a Celar and Fearnought mare, named Kori-Kan, a fine chequer, fifteen hands and a half high. From which it is evident, as far as his ancestry can be traced, he must be very nearly if not entirely thorough bred, and from the most select stock of horses ever known in England and America. ROBERT MOORE. March 26th, 1828. 613

He will be constantly at his stand in Salisbury with the exception of a few public days, during which he will be exhibited at Davidson and Cabarrus courts, and some of the public gatherings in Rowan county.
