MISCELLANEOUS THEMS

M. Achille Murat, the son of the late King of Naples, and nephew of Bona-parte, advertises in the Florida Advocate that he will practise as Counsellor at Law in all the Courts of the Territory. A curious, but not unprecedented revolution in the fortunes of an individual-once a Prince in Europe, now a lawyer in America. Like Dio. nysius of eld once a King of Syracuse. afterwards a School-master in Corinth. The man who has a proper sense of respect for himself thinks it no derogation to be useful in the pursuit of an ver altogether desert him, if he remain true to himself. One of the most distinguished men in this country (AL bert Gallatin) was a native of Geneva. Listening Senates have been instructted by his wisdom, and the Ministers. of Kings have deemed it an honor to correspond with him. No country on the Globe presents so many inducements to the enterprizing emigrant to exert their facolties; as the United States. She opens her arms to receive the wanderer. She cherishes, animates and rewards him .- Comp.

One hundred and sixty acres of unimproved land, adjoining the town of Tallahassee, in Florida, recently sold at public sale, for nineteen thousand six hundred and ninety-one dollars.

Emigrants .- The ship Jefferson. Cormick, at this port, last week, from Havre, brought out 174 Swiss emigrants, men, women, and children, Their appearance and deportment give assurance that they will benefit both themselves and the country by the change. Between 500 and 600 Swiss emigrants also arrived at New-York. Applications for passage are more than the American vessels can accommodate ; from one district of Switzerland nearly 6000 persons were arranging to embark for America.

CULTURE OF CELERY.

Mr. Knight from experience recommends planting celery at greater distances than is usually done, and covering the beds into which the young seedlings are first removed with half rotten dung, overspread to the depth of two inches with mould, and to keep them very moist. Mr. Wedgwood finds that seedling plants do best to remain in the beds till of considerable size

A horse in Easton, Pa. with harness on ran away, entered the dwelling house of Mrs. Brown, and went up stairs in the second story. " Continuing his travels a little farther, ho tumbled down a stair-case, broke the bannisters, and with a terrible crash came rolling into the kitchen, causing no small dismay and scattering of the family-and a great derangment of the supper table.

New Store Coach .--- We have been gratified, says the Albany Advertiser, at seeing a newly constructed stage coach, the property of E. Young of this city. Seats placed outside the carriage, in front and rear, so that it will carry twenty one persons. It is a very elegant and substantial piece of workmanship, worthy the inspec-tion of the public.
