BE it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, That in all cases where lands have been, or shall hereafter be, conveyed to, or for the United States, for forts, arsenals, dock yards, light-houses, or any like purpose, or in payment of debts due the United States, which shall not be used, or necessary for the purposes for which they were purchased, or other authorized purpose, it shall be lawful for the President of the United States to cause the same to be sold, for the price to be obtained, and to convey the same to the purchaser by grant or otherwise.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the President of the United States be authorized to procure the assent of the Legislature of any State, within which any purchase of land has been made, for the erection of forts, magazines, arsenals, dock yards, and other needful buildings, without such consent having been obtained; and also to obtain exclusive legislation over any such tract as is provided for in the sixteenth clause of the eighth section of the first article of the constitution; and that he be authorized to procure the like consent and exclusive legislation as to all future purchases of land for either of those purposes.

RE. XII.

An Act authorizing the Legislative Council of Florida to meet in October instead of December; and repealing the proviso in the sixth section of the act entitled "An act to amend an act for the establishment of a Territorial Government in Florida, and for other purposes," approved March the third, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three.

BE it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Legislative Council of the Territory of Florida shall begin its next session on the second Monday in October instead of December, and annually thereafter on the same day in the said month of October.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the proviso in the sixth section of the act entitled "An act to amend 'An act for the establishment of a Territorial Government in Florida, and for other purposes,'" approved March the third, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, be, and the same is hereby, repealed: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be construed as approving any act or acts heretofore passed by the Legislative Council of the Territory of Florida.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Governor and Legislative Council, at the next session of said Council, to divide said territory into thirteen election districts, in such manner as to give to each the same number of qualified electors, as nearly as conveniently may be, and to secure to each district an equal representation; and the said Governor and Council shall have power, from time to time, to alter and regulate the several districts in such manner as the increasing population of the territory may require.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That the Judges of the Superior Courts in said Territory shall have power to order extra terms of said Courts, or to adjourn them to any other time and place when the public interest may require it, and when, from sickness or other cause, the Judges cannot hold the regular terms giving due notice of the same; and it shall also be lawful for the said Judges to hold Courts in either of the Districts, when the Judge of the district is absent, or prevented from attending by sickness or other cause.

Approved: 28 April, 1828.

MRS. FENNEL, informs her friends and the public generally, that she has opened a BOARDING HOUSE, one dose north-east of the Episcopal Church on Green street, where she is prepared to receive and accommodate Travellers and Sea Men in a neat and elegant manner. The dwelling is the one formerly occupied by Dillon Jordan, senr. She assures them that no expense nor exertion shall be wanting on her part to render her house unexceptionable in every respect; therefore, respectfully solicits a share of public patronage.

ITEMS.

Wool.—Jacob Heyser, Esq. of this vicinity, says a Commodore's sheep, last season, clipped 40 1-2 lbs. of wool off three of his merino sheep. On Saturday last, we were shown a sample of a fleece of twenty three and a half pounds shorn from one of his flock this season.—The sample was the finest wool we ever saw, and measured twelve inches long.

The British Ability is, it seems, fast becoming Catholic. The heir to the Dukedom of Leeds, the Grandson of the friend of the venerable Pinckney of South Carolina, has just led the late Miss Caton, now Lady Hervey, to the altar.

A monster of a Shad, was taken in Connecticut river, lately, which weighed 12 pounds and 7 ounces.

Nobility.—An Adams print urges the election of Messrs. Adams and Rush, to the two highest offices in the country, because they are sons of distinguished men. Precisely the same reason would be urged under a monarchical government; but republicans think there should be no such thing as hereditary nobility. Since the first of November last, there steam boat arrivals, and the same number of departures at Wheeling, on the Ohio river.

Massachusetts in a bad way.—By a statement of the State Treasurer of Massachusetts, it appears that the Commonwealth owed the sum of $76,236, and that the cash in the treasury was only $4,664. The Treasurer states, "that without an immediate supply, he must in a very few days be under the necessity of stopping payment."

Morgan has lately been seen sculling up Niagara Falls in a potash kettle, with a crow bar for an oar. "Fact! 'pon honor." Mid. Gaz.

The following harmonious hymenials are recorded in the (Allentown, Pa.) Freidens-Bothe: "In West-Penn township, Mr. Wm. Arner to Miss Magalena Daubensyeck; and in Landguschwamm, Mr. George Bubenmeyer to Miss Layai Henninger." An unmarried woman, negligent of her person, has no occasion to look out for a husband—few gentlemen will select ladies for their wives, who are not attentive to their graces.

A married woman, negligent of her person, and careless of her charms, will soon weaken the respect of her husband, and become charmless in his sight. No married woman ought ever to be seen by her husband, with a soiled gown, handkerchief, or a tucker on.—Ann.

Pension to Canning's Family.—The House of Commons have agreed to give a pension of £3,000 a year to the family of this statesman. It was carried by a vote of 161 to 54.

Margaret Nicholson, who attempted to stab the late king, died on the 13th May, in Beihlem Hospital, aged nearly 100 years.

London, May 11, 1828.

The state of parties in this country of sin and sea-coal, is far from being tranquil. The undiplomacy of Wellington has offended the ultima-thule Tories; his conduct on the retrenchment matters, has astonished the whole gang of sinecurists that perambulate the most fashionable streets of the metropolis. It is considered atrocious in his grace to indicate the least disposition to any thing radical. The ultras begin to look upon the good Arthur as the revival of Canning. The repeal of the Test and Corporation acts has filled with apprehensions all the gouty lords and bishops, who yet linger as the remnants of a generation that is rapidly passing away.

We are to have war in the East, and the merry faces such accounts produce, is a satire on human nature. It is thought by Malthus and the population men, that the world is too full, and that a few years war would be one of the most fortunate things that could happen. The discussion of the Roman Catholic question has stirred anew all the old embers of prejudice which has existed for several centuries in this country. You may rely upon it, that Ireland cannot long groan in her present condition. Every thing looks fair and encouraging. The liberal sentiments of the age cannot be put down. The pepum of Minerva must be raised. N. T. Enquirer.
