ITEMS.

Puns.—The editor of the Boston Literary Gazette has issued a new edition of puns. Here it is: Where away?—A prisoner escaped from the Auburn jail on the 1st instant: his name is Where.

Where he's gone and how he fares, Nobody knows and nobody cares.

Coming out.—Charles Comming has been ejected from the office of Postmaster, for neglect.

Well done.—Burick and Skivington have completed the well at their distillery in Morton, after a series of disappointments. Water was found at the depth of 380 feet.

Sail, ho!—A Pennsylvania auctioneer advertises a sale of 500 dozen hoes.

Wide awake.—A person taken up for robbery, being asked by the justice in what manner he lived, very significantly answered, "My eyes are open when yours are shut."

Camp meeting.—17 brothers named Camp, by one mother, met at Royalton the 3d ult. it is said for the first time in 23 years.

Done up.—One Daniel Dunn was tossed in a blanket by his fellow workmen at a neighboring village for meddling with certain domestic affairs of one of their number.

Coke upon Littleton.—The Rev. Mr. Coke, a dissenting minister, has sued the parish of Littleton for 500 pounds damages.

Morgan found at last.—The editor of the Darien Gazette has made the important discovery, that the famous Wm. Morgan has been playing possum with the good people of New York, by perambulating the country in petticoats, and that he and the equally famous Mrs Anne Royal are one and the same person!! "What will Mrs. Grundy say to this?"

Difference of opinion.—The following colloquy actually took place between two Senators, during the late discussion on the Tariff Bill, on a motion to reduce the duty on Molasses, Senator Benton.—Whiskey is the healthiest liquor that is taken, as men are known to have been drunk upon it forty or fifty years, while rum finished its victims in eight or ten!

Senator Chandler.—I understand the gentleman from Missouri that a man may be drunk on whiskey for thirty years. This is a reason why I shall vote against the duty, as I shall favor of that liquor which should despatch the drunkard the soonest!

Raising Chickens.—A writer in the Charleston Courier says: I have read, in some collection of voyages, of a very brave but very diminutive man, who commanded an armed vessel belonging to Bristol. He was taken by an Algerine, and, not being able-bodied enough for field-work, was made to hatch eggs. He relates the thing with great indignation, in his own narrative of his capture and condemnation.

A singular epidemic called dengue, has been raging at Matanzas for some time past. The subject is first attacked with racking pains in every part of the body, succeeded by fever; after which there is soreness or stiffness in the legs, hands, jaws, &c. Great fears are entertained that it will soon assume a malignant and dangerous form, should the unhealed drought be of much longer continuance.—The disease is making the same ravages in Havana, where the small pox likewise exists.

Constantine Negris, a young Greek placed in a school of Paris by the Greek committee, has made such progress in his studies, that the principal half yearly prize for mathematics in the college of Charlemagne has been adjudged to him.

Cure for Dyspepsia.—We have heard of a dyspeptic clergyman at the south, who after a long confinement concluded to try the experiment of preaching once more, and accordingly he delivered three discourses in one day of an hour each.—Upon his return he told his negro servant that he felt much better for preaching.—The servant replied, "I tho't you wuld massa, to get so much trash off your tomah."
