

was raised from Tazewell Hill. Findleyville is 30 miles north of Camden, 19 north of Lancaster county-house, S. C.; 30 miles south of Charlotte, N. C.; within two hundred yards of Waxaw Creek, one mile and a quarter of the South-Carolina line, and less than two miles from where Gen. Jackson was born.

A short time since, I was written to by a gentleman in Cincinnati, Ohio, for certificates in relation to Gen. Jackson's birth-place and parentage; I supplied them, and expect they will soon be published; and I hope they will put down some of the base slanders against the General.

JAMES D. CRAIG.
Findleyville, N. C. Sept. 12, 1828.

Mr. Editor: As the General Assembly will soon convene, I beg leave to suggest an item of business for them. I have for some time had the impression, that the important business of our courts is too much impeded, and the county, as well as the parties litigant, run to unnecessary cost, by the numerous cases of Affrays, Assaults and Batteries. Indictments against Overseers of Roads, &c.; and I would propose that an act be passed by the legislature, giving Justices of the Peace jurisdiction over these petty cases; let a justice hear, determine, and assess fines, allowing an appeal to the county court. In this way much time and money might be saved, in the shape of lawyer's fees, clerk's fees, sheriff's fees, attendance of suitors and witnesses, say after day, on court, &c. &c. It is earnestly hoped the legislature may take this subject into serious consideration, at their next session, and do something in the premises.

At the superior court for Rowan county, held in this town last week, a vote was taken on the Presidency, by the Grand Jury:

14' rose for Jackson;
4 sat still...and said, that if they knew which was the best man, they would vote for him; but we give them up; for you scarcely ever see a man who is for Old Hickory, that is afraid to own it...he is open and above-board in his preference of the Tennessee Farmer.

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

By the arrival of the packet ship Florida, at New-York, the editor of the New York Enquirer has received English papers to the 1st Sept.

The Russian and Turkish war is still waging and is in doubtful suspense. The Russian army, to say the least, has sustained a most important check before the walls of Choumla. Reports are even very prevalent, that they have been defeated. At all events, there has been some hard fighting. A month has elapsed since the last Russian Bulletin. Portugal is in the same state as ever. The crops, in Europe, appear not to be so bad as was anticipated.

The Standard, of the 30th August, says, the contents of the despatches received yesterday, are kept a profound secret. They are believed to be important. The military movements of the Turks are believed to be important. The rumours of the success of the Turks are beginning to be credited. There had been win days hard fighting under the walls of Choumla. The report is that the Russians had fallen back with a loss of 40,000 men. It is said by some that it was possible for the Russians to be repulsed, once, twice, or thrice, and still to renew the attack till they succeeded. It was deemed certain, that the Russians had suffered a reverse, at least. A great curiosity was expressed to know what the secret intelligence was.

Reports were in circulation, in London, on the 28th, that some unpleasant discussions had taken place between France and England, on the Toulon expedition.

It was said, in Smyrna, on the 18th July, that Ibrahim had received positive orders from his father, not to evacuate the Morea.

The French papers are taunting the English, and the Duke of Wellington, for the conduct of that country in the affairs of the East. The London Courier is very sensitive, and scolds a little.

The London Courier has given up Daniel O'Connell, as an incurable. They have written his epitaph, and consigned him to contempt. Daniel will rise again. It appears that the Sultan has a much more numerous army, than any one in Europe expected he possessed.

The Emperor Nicholas had gone to Odessa, till his preparations for the siege of Schumla could be completed. It surprised many.

It is believed in England, that on the opening of the next session of Parliament the Duke of Wellington will recommend some arrangement to be made with the Catholics of Ireland.

The Turks publish bulletins of their own, and claim victories in proportion as they lose ground.

The crops in England will amount, it is said, to fully an average crop. Potatoes and such kinds of vegetables will be most abundant.

Lord Cochrane is about to quit Paris and return to Greece. The potato crop in Ireland will be most abundant. The English papers are still speculating on the conduct of Don Miguel.

We are happy to learn that another Gentleman has become a subscriber to the Fifty Dollars Scheme, for raising $1,500 in behalf of the Presbyterian Missionary Society of N. Carolina. Our informer says, "The work must be done. Let every friend of Zion look this way, and help." When Christians are convinced that any thing must be done, it is easily accomplished.

West Tennessee.—It is stated in the Memphis (Western district of Tennessee) Advocate, of the 12th ult. that the Crops of Cotton, and Corn, are unusually abundant, in this section of the District. We are informed that throughout the Counties of Haywood, and Tipton, notwithstanding the late drought, there will be more than average crops made. From the counties of Fayette and Hardeman, accounts are also flattering; and, in the county of Shelby, our planters confidently calculate upon making a general average of 1000 pounds of cotton to the acre, and an equally abundant crop of corn.

At the late communion near the College in Prince Edward, 15 were added to the church.

The Rev. John J. Robertson has been appointed by the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church, agent to visit Greece, to inquire into the state of Religion there, to disseminate religious publications, and to ascertain the disposition of the people for receiving Missionaries of that church.

Tracts on the Sabbath.—Directors of the Philadelphia Tract Society have resolved that they will proceed without delay, to place within the reach of every family in the City and Suburbs some judicious Tract, whose object shall be to promote the sanctification of the Sabbath.

Philadelphia Presbytery.—In this Presbytery there are 6,743 communicants, 42 churches, 36 ministers, 13 Licentiates, and 19 candidates for licensure.

Western Theological Seminary.—The Spectator says that the Rev. Dr. Janeway, Professor of Polemic and Didactic Theology in the Western Theological Seminary, has arrived in Pittsburg with his family, and that he will probably soon enter on his official duties.

The Christians of Glasgow, (Scotland,) have employed twenty Missionaries in their city during the past year.

French Mothers.—The last report of the Paris Bible Society states, that several mothers of families had been induced to establish family prayer, and read the Bible to their children, by reflecting that they ought not to neglect themselves while they assisted others to read it.

There are now four thousand bible societies organized and in operation throughout the world.

Mexico.—The Congress of Mexico have passed a law, which has been communicated to our government, repealing the law that prohibited the exportation of gold and silver bullion. The duties imposed are, one fifth, at the mines, and seven per cent. on the cost. This change will be greatly advantageous to those who are interested in mining speculations in that country.

Rapid Growth.—A grape vine, 9 years old in the garden of J. Patis, Philadelphia, which was broken off last spring took a fresh start, and has since attained a new height of thirty five feet.

A fat Birth.—The annual income of the Archbishop of Canterbury, who lately died in England, was no less than 25,000 sterling; or $111,000. This is equal to the compensation that we allow to our President and Vice President, the four Secretaries of the great Departments, the Postmaster General, the Chief Justice, and the six associate Judges of the Supreme Court, and the support of our Minister at London into the bargain. The Bishop of London succeeds to this golden manger of "the Church."

Important to Rats and Mice!—A London Journal communicates intelligence that white cats with blue eyes are always deaf.

The Markets.

Fayetteville, October 2d.—Cotton, 5 1/2 to 9 1/2; Beef, fresh in market, 3 cents; Bacon, 7 to 8; peach brandy, 50 to 60; apple do. 35 to 40; flour, 3 a 4 1/2; whiskey, 25 a 30.....United States bank notes, 4 1/2 to 5 per cent. premium; Bills on the North, 60 days, 4 1/2 to 5 per cent. ditto.

Remarks.—There has been a fine demand for new Upland Cotton of a prime quality, and 11 a 11 1/2 has been obtained, but the latter price only for very select brands; the quantity arriving is yet but small, and the general impression is, that as soon as a full supply arrives, prices will be reduced to 9 1/2 to 10 1/2. Old Uplands are neglected, and our quotations are merely nominal.

Communicated.

Departed this life, on the 24th of Sept. at his residence in Rowan, after a long and severe illness Mr. Anthony Peeler, aged 51 years. He was an honest and well-disposed man; a kind husband; a tender and affectionate parent, and esteemed by all who knew him. His death is deeply lamented by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. He left a wife and 13 children to whom his departure, and whom this truly is an irreparable loss. But this loss, we trust, is his gain; for he was the paragon of every thing that was designed to promote the Redeemer's Kingdom, but especially of Sunday Schools and Tract Societies. One remarkable trait in his character was, that he always manifested the greatest reverence for, and the strictest attention to the administration of the means of grace. As to his moral character, it was without a blemish. He filled the office of an Elder in the Lutheran congregation at Union Church, with universal applause. During his protracted illness, he evinced the utmost submission to the divine will, and bore all with a reference to the glory of God. And in the solemn hour of dissolution, the religion he possessed in health supported him in all his trials, enabled him to meet the "king of terrors" with calmness and composure, and to entertain a cheering and well-grounded hope of blissful immortality.

Take Particular Notice.

BENEZER DICKSON requests all persons indebted to him, to settle their accounts by the 1st day of November, or they may rest assured his papers will be placed in the hands of an officer for collection, without fail; for money, or its equivalent, I must have, and will have. I am very thankful for the patronage I have received from my former customers; but am sorry to say, now I no longer carry on the business myself, they seem to be as shy of me as though I would bite them; whereas when I kept them in shoes, they were very frequent visitors indeed.

Salisbury, Oct. 8, 1828.

The Tailoring Business.

BENJAMIN FRALEY, STILL carries on the above business, in all its branches, at the shop heretofore occupied by him, on Main street, a few doors east of Mr. Slaughter's Tavern, in the town of Salisbury. He continues to receive the London, Paris, and Philadelphia Fashions, regularly as they change; which will enable him to accommodate Ladies and Gentlemen with the most tasteful and elegant kinds of garments, made up with as much skill, as his neighbors can rightfully lay claim to. Of which, however, he is not disposed to boast overmuch, leaving it to the good sense of his customers to be themselves the judges of what is good taste. As he employs the best of journeymen, and has no apprentices, he thinks he has a right to say his work will be well done; and he warrants it to fit well. Owing to the great scarcity of money, cheapness of produce, &c. he will work lower than any other tailor in this part of the country, who will do a good work as he does.

Cutting out, of all kinds of Garments, done on the shortest notice.

He still offers to teach Ward's Patent Protractor system of Tailoring, which is practised by all the fashionable tailors in the United States.

He respectfully solicits a share of the public patronage, and hopes to merit it by work, rather than by extravagant professions.

The Faculty take pleasure in stating that the establishment of an Infirmary for Surgical cases, in connection with the College, has been attended with the advantages anticipated. It afforded to the students during the last course of instruction, the opportunity of witnessing a variety of operations—amongst these were most of the capital operations in Surgery:

To enable the Students to profit by the facilities which our situation affords for the study of Practical Anatomy, new and extensive rooms have been erected and provided with every thing necessary for the purpose.

The valuable Anatomical Museum of the College, has been improved by new preparations received from France and Italy, last summer.

It affords the Faculty additional satisfaction to state, that by an arrangement with the Literary and Philosophical Society of South Carolina, extensive and valuable collections in Natural History, have been placed in the College, and carefully arranged, so as to afford to those interested in the study of Nature, ample opportunity of acquiring information, not only in the departments connected with Medicine, but through the whole range of Natural History.

The rich collection of minerals particularly, must be considered very important to the Institution.
