

Jackson's Elected!

By last Friday's mail, we received great and cheering news from the North and West. So decisive was the intelligence from New-York, Ohio, Kentucky, &c. in favor of the cause of Jackson and the people, that the Adams folks hereabouts were most wofully cast down and chop-fallen, and "gave up the ship!" they bit their lips through sheer disappointment.

The Editor of this paper, expecting to be absent from home, after this week, for a short time, has engaged a Gentleman of literary acquirements to attend to the Editorial department until his return.

Duelling.... A society has been formed in Camden, S. C. for the suppression of the murderous practice of duelling; it is called the anti-duelling association.

Native Silk. - skein of beautiful native Sewing Silk, the product of worms reared this summer, by Mrs. G. Fisher, of this town, has been presented to us; and can be inspected at our office, by those who may have a curiosity to see and hear to what perfection the culture of the silk worm may be brought in this climate.

Fire. - A kitchen in the outskirts of this town, was burnt entirely to the ground, on Wednesday night last. The dwelling to which it was an appendage, was saved, principally by the exertions of Mr. Van Eaton, a Revolutionary soldier, and a worthy citizen of Rowan.

Owing to an error in the manner of publishing some of the public treaties, we have been obliged to republish them; they will so crowd our columns this and next week, that we deem it necessary to ask the indulgence of our readers, for these two weeks: After which, we hope to render our paper more interesting to the general reader.

papers will be disordered of heated political disputes, and partisans eased of much bile; and harmony and plenty will be restored to the people and country.

ELECTION RETURNS.

Table with columns for County, Jackson, Adams, and Total. Includes counties like Rowan, Cabarrus, Mecklenburg, etc.

Jackson's majority 15,285, in thirty three counties only, but little more than half the state.

FOR THE WESTERN CAROLINIAN.

Ah! must we, then, believe the doom Whose whispered bodings oft we hear? Though still thy roses seem to bloom, The grave's dark angel hovers near.

FOR THE WESTERN CAROLINIAN.

We have been lucky enough to lay our hands on the following communication, in relation to the counterfeiter in Montgomery county, which got mislaid, soon after its receipt, among the wilderness of papers with which our office is filled.

FOR THE WESTERN CAROLINIAN.

Mr. White: Your paper of the 30th ultimo, contains a short notice of the apprehension and examination of three persons, namely, Lewis, Blakely, and Griffin, in Lawrenceville, Montgomery county, some short time past; charged with counterfeiting; and states, that "various implements for counterfeiting were found on them; but as they had no spurious money with them then, having probably hid it, they were very improperly discharged."

their possession, a chest of counterfeit money, that they had been engaged in gambling, or that their conduct had been such as could subject them to the operation of the laws against vagrancy.

There was not found on them any 'implements for counterfeiting' which could be recognised as such. There were found in a trunk belonging to one of them, by the officer who arrested them, a small steel punch, two pieces of iron or steel of a conic form, without letters or impressions, about three inches long, and about three-fourths of an inch in diameter at the large end; a small bottle of ink, and a small cutting instrument, somewhat in form of a horse beam; but no instrument that could be identified by any person present, or by the magistrates, as used in counterfeiting.

There was no proof of the existence of such an establishment in Montgomery as mentioned in your paper of the 30th ult; neither was it proved on trial that there had been any more than two such bills passed in the county; which, as appeared in evidence, had been passed by William Hurley, who had previously, at that time removed. Yet, strange to tell, a gentleman of the bar, a few days after this, in our superior court, on the trial of Griffin, for an assault, stated in his place, that Montgomery county was inundated with counterfeit money!

It is submitted to your readers, to decide whether this communication should not receive publicity through your paper, and thereby do an act of justice to men whose conduct has been misrepresented. P. W.

Montgomery, Oct. 10, 1828. [On the above we will remark, that the article in your paper of the 30th Sept. relative to the notorious counterfeiters, Lewis, Griffin, and Blakely, was written by the Editor, on the information of a highly respectable citizen of Montgomery, whose veracity we feel as safe in confiding in, as we should in that of the popular gentleman, who seems so strangely to suppose that somebody besides the Editor was the author of our article - and that that somebody was prompted to write the piece from sheer jealousy that the popular gentleman's favor among the people would interfere with his (Mr. Somebody's) "devoted wishes" in relation to the Presidency, no doubt. Now to disburthen the mind of this gentleman (who thinks he "possesses in a high degree" the confidence of the people) of the suspicions which hang around it, as he is now doubtless greatly bothered with other weighty matters, we will assure him, that no person but the Editor and his workmen, saw the article in question, till it was published in the Carolinian.

As to the expression in our article, so much complained of, that the counterfeiters were improperly discharged by the examining magistrates, we will repeat what we have before said, that it was not our intention, nor that of our informant, to cast censure on the justices for discharging the villains, for it was the opinion of most of those we conversed with on the subject, that the evidence was defective; but so strong and general were the suspicions abroad against these men, and so well satisfied in their own minds were the people of the neighborhood, that they were counterfeiter and swindlers, and some people had suffered from the villainy of the rascals, - that it was the opinion of most of the respectable citizens in the neighborhood, as well as of the Solicitor, and the presiding Judge of the superior court, that it was unfortunate, for the ends of justice, that these deprecators on the honest part of community were let loose again, - or, which is the same thing, that they were "improperly discharged." It is notorious now, that they were, and had been for some time, engaged in the nefarious business of counterfeiting bank notes, on various banks, particularly the U. S. Bank, and the State Bank of N. C. With the exception of Griffin, who is either in jail, or held to bail, they have fled, leaving some of their implements, paper, ink, &c. behind. A large quantity of the paper on which they print their spurious bills was left behind; we have seen some of it, as well as many of the bills they manufactured from it. And we would here again caution our fellow-citizens abroad, to beware of these villains and swindlers; they have too often slipped through the fingers of justice, and too long reposed on the credulity of the mindless part of the community. It is hoped that the iron grasp of the law may soon arrest them in their lawless course, and give protection and security to the community.]

New-York. - Our last issue from this state, are of the 13th inst. The New-York Equiper of that date, gives authentic returns of the election of eighteen Jackson Electors, with a good chance of two more; which, with the two to be chosen by the Electoral college, will give us twenty certain, with a probability of 22. Van Buren is elected Gov. by from 20000 to 25000 majority over Judge Thompson. But amidst the triumphant success of the cause of Jackson and Reform, in that state, we regret that Mr. Noah should have been defeated for Sheriff of the city; owing to a schism in the Jackson party, a Mr. Shaw, a Jackson man, was elected. Maj. Noah was the first to espouse the cause of Jackson in that state; and has battled with the enemy most manfully, and deserves to be rewarded. Now that the cause he so ably sustained, has been triumphant, we hope he may be remembered.

Messa. C. C. Cambreleng, G. C. Verplanck, and G. P. White, have been elected members of Congress from the city of New-York, by upwards of 3000 majority.

New-Jersey has gone against us by a considerable majority. Corruption, subterfuge and money, were the agents used by the Administration, to carry their ticket. - We are sorry to hear it, for we had expected better things of her. But she will repent it; and, we hope, do better next time.

Maryland. - We have certain information of the election of five Electors in this state; and expect one or two more.

Ohio, beyond all dispute, has given her vote to the people's candidate. Even the Richmond Whig says: "From the most probable sources, we think the Jackson ticket has prevailed (in Ohio) by 4000 majority." So the vote of that state is settled.

In Kentucky, as far as heard from, the Jackson gain over what Maj. Barry, the Jackson candidate for Governor, received, is so large, there is no longer any doubt but what Gen. Jackson will receive the electoral vote of that state, by about 5000 majority. Besides, the Richmond Whig gives up that state too.

From Indiana, we have only partial returns, which are very favourable. There is but little question about her vote - she will go with all the rest of the western states - for the Old Hero.

Louisiana has voted, but we have no intelligence of the result - we hope, and believe, however, that she has showed her gratitude for her Deliverer, by giving her Electoral vote to him. If so, Jackson will receive 178 votes, to Adams's 83.

A Star in the East. - Well done Maine! Mr. Church, the Jackson candidate for Elector in the Cumberland district, state of Maine, has been elected over his Adams opponent, by a majority of 173 votes! This is pushing on the Nova-Scotia! is rebellion in King John 23's own household!

New Hampshire. - The vote of this state, is a very close one, and yet doubtful returns from 114 townships, give Adams about 20,000, and Jackson 18 or 19,000, leaving Adams about 1900 ahead.

Jesse Upton has been hung in Greensborough, what has risen to $1 a bushel in Fayetteville. Jackson got every vote in Fluvanna county, Virginia, and came very near it in Haywood, N. C. and Adams faces in Salisbury have been most astonishingly distended, all within a few days past!

Among the other pleasing intelligence which reached us by the last mail, is the contradiction of the death of the Hon. Saml. D. Ingham; he has passed the crisis of his disease, and is slowly recovering.

Georgia. - The Legislature of this state, convened on the 2d inst: Mr. Stocks was elected speaker of the senate; and Mr. Hudson, speaker of the lower house. Mr. Cobb has resigned his seat in the U. S. senate: O. H. Prince, Esq. has been elected to supply Mr. Cobb's unexpired term, till the 4th of March next; and the late Gov. Geo. M. Troup, has been elected for six years from and after the 4th of March next.

POSTSCRIPT. - We learn verbally from Raleigh, that Mr. Speight has been chosen Speaker of the Senate. Mr. Macon has resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate; and Gov. Fredell is a candidate to fill the vacancy. - We have heard of no opposition to Gov. Branch's re-election to the U. S. Senate, his present term expiring on the 4th of March next. - Mr. Dew is re-chosen one of the Engrossing Clerks in the Legislature.

Married.

In Stokes county, on the 13th inst. by the Rev. John Moore, of Guilford county, Alexander B. Dearing, Esq. of Rockingham, to Miss Ruth M. Rodgers, daughter of the Widow Rodgers of Stokes county.

In the Forks, Rowan county, on the 18th inst. by L. B. Rose, Esq. Mr. James Frost, to Miss Mary Cook, daughter of Capt. John Cook.

Died, on the evening of Sunday, the 16th inst. Miss Laura M. Troup, aged 18 years and 1 month. Her disease was consumption; and she suffered much during the last three or four months of her life; which she endured with great patience and fortitude. She returned, about 3 months before her death, from Philadelphia, where she had been pursuing her studies; with great success, for the two preceding years. Her acquirements were such as are rarely attained at her age. But neither acquirements, fortune, the affection of parents, nor the power of medicine, was able to arrest the progress of death, as is clearly evinced in this event. Religion alone can triumph over death. It will be gratifying to all her friends to know that she expressed a hope in the Saviour, and died with composure.
