

SILK WORMS.

This being the season the Silk Worm is about hatching... we publish the following directions for managing them.

FROM THE SOUTHERN ADVOCATE.

Hatching the Eggs.—The eggs should be kept in a temperature of 40 to 60 degrees of the thermometer, and in a dry situation—where neither ants, rats nor mice can molest them.

If abundantly fed they will not wander about. During the period of their feeding, which is generally from 36 to 42 days, they undergo several changes, technically termed "moultings."

After they have finished their course moultings and feeding, their colour becomes much lighter, particularly the head of back, and they are of diminished size.

one can be conveniently spared. The moths die very soon after laying their eggs, and these may be folded up loosely in the paper on which they were laid, and put away in a dry place sufficiently cool to keep them from hatching, and sufficiently warm to keep them from freezing, there to remain until the following season.

JOHN BOARDMAN.
Huntsville, April 21, 1829.

Virginia.—In the Williamsburg district, Mr. Richard Coke has been elected to Congress by a majority of 65 votes over Mr. Bassett, the late member.

The election of members to the Convention to revise the Constitution, are going on; we have seen the result in but few counties, and cannot therefore judge of the result.

Green Peas were sold in the market at Norfolk, Virginia, the last week in April, at $2 a peck—$3 a bushel!—Dear eating.

Judge Fernan, author of an anomalous bank scheme in the state of New-York, is now on a visit of reconnaissance to the gold region of this state.

Notice is hereby given, that the annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, of the Diocese of North-Carolina, will be held in St. Luke's Church, Salisbury, on Saturday, the 29th day of May.

FOREIGN NEWS.

LATE FROM ENGLAND.

By the packet-ship Columbia, Delano, at New York from London, the editors of the Commercial Advertiser have received regular files of London papers to the 31st of March inclusive, with Shipping Lists to the same date.

Catholic Emancipation.—The consideration of the Roman Catholic Relief Bill was resumed in the House of Commons, on Monday the 23d of March; after a few verbal alterations, Mr. Banks proposed as an amendment, the exclusion of Roman Catholics from Parliament.

On Monday the 30th of March, Mr. Peel moved the third reading of the bill for the relief of the Catholics. The Marquis of Chandos proposed as an amendment, that it be read a third time that day six months, i. e. rejected.

For the amendment, 142
Against it, 320
Majority in favor of the Bill, 178.

The bill was then read a third time, and passed.
The Morning Post of the 31st, says: "It is to be presented to the House of Lords this day. No debate is likely to take place on the first reading."

The Irish Forty Shilling Freeholders' Disfranchisement Bill, was also read a third time and passed.

able Military events. Not far from Famli, there has been a considerable battle between the Russians and Turks, in which the latter were defeated with considerable loss.

Egina, 31st, January.—The Steam Ship Karleia, Capt. Phalango, in an expedition to the Gulf of Volo and Negropont, captured four Turkish Vessels of War, which make a very welcome increase to our flotilla.

In addition to the above, Capt. Chapman informs us, that it was reported in Hamburg, on the first ult. that the Prussians had entered into a treaty with Russia; by the condition of which, they were to keep in readiness 40,000 troops, and were accordingly buying all the horses they could procure, for the cavalry, and it was expected the next campaign would be decisive.

Portugal.—The unfortunate country appears to be in a most deplorable condition under the sanguinary mis-rule of Don Miguel. We yesterday stated the fact of five individuals having been executed by order of the usurper, who had only been sentenced by the legal tribunal to transportation for life—as an unheard-of interference with the judgment of a criminal court.

The others were served in the same manner, and the bodies were then cut down and laid on the ground, when their heads were chopped off, and stuck upon iron points fixed on the posts of the gallows, where they were to remain three days? Orders had also been sent to Oporto to execute eleven individuals, among whom were some of the most honorable and distinguished characters of the country—one of them was appointed Counsellor of State by Don Pedro himself.

From the Baltimore Gazette.
We learn from Washington that Mr. Louis McCane is now there, preparing to proceed to England. His family will not go out with him. His daughter went to Washington with him, and will remain with the ladies of the President's family.

Mr. Gallatin, Judge Preble, with Mr. Gallatin, Jr. are also there prosecuting the objects of the commission, some time since instituted, for the defence of the State of Maine, in its claim to the disputed territory bordering on the province of New Brunswick. They have collected all the testimony in the case, and are now engaged in furnishing a statement for the consideration of the arbitrator between the parties, the King of the Netherlands.

Hartford Post Office is again before the Post-Master General. Mr. Norton arrived there on Sunday, accompanied by a delegation from Hartford, and intends to regain his place if he can.

Eccentric Liberty.—Some individual in Massachusetts, who chuses to remain incognito, has sent to the address of our Public Treasurer, a box containing two hundred and fifty Family Prayer Books, with a request that the same may be distributed "among all the members of Government and Courts of Justice."

An Augusta paper, advertising to the late conflagration in that city, says, "We have been informed of one singular occurrence: An infant of but two weeks old, was laid on a bed, something being lightly thrown over it: when a stranger gathering up the bed, threw it and the child together, out of the second story. But its half distracted mother, on running down to its relief, found the little innocent uninjured."

Diplomacy.—It is known to our readers that Mr. T. Moore of Kentucky has been appointed to supersede Gen. Harrison as Minister to Colombia. It is said that Mr. Moore once stated, in a letter which he wrote home to Kentucky, that General P. B. Porter was "as deaf as an adder."

Gov. Houston.—His letter of resignation is still unexplained. We received a variety of papers from various parts of Tennessee and Alabama on Thursday night—and though they publish this mysterious letter, they throw no light upon its contents. A Huntsville paper merely glances at its singular character, and states that it is made more interesting by the rumors which were then in circulation.

The Protestant members of the bar in Dublin, have petitioned Parliament in favour of Catholic Emancipation. The London Atlas of the 8th ult. says, "We state with deep regret, that his Majesty has been seriously indisposed. His malady has arisen more from mental agitation than bodily ailment."

The late 4th Auditor.—The Norfolk Herald learns from a correspondent at Washington, that the late 4th Auditor, "Dr. Watkins, when the charge against him was first agitated, protested his innocence; but admitted that he had borrowed money or withheld it, when entrusted with certain sums belonging to some of the officers of the Navy. He will be before the Grand Inquest at Washington in a few days."

Liverpool Cotton Market.
Friday Evening, March 27, 1829.
The demand for cotton has been extremely limited during the whole of the present week; and prices of American descriptions may be quoted about 1-2d lower than on this day fortnight; but there is no alteration in other sorts.

Mr. Clay.—We have had a report within a day or two that Mr. Clay had been killed in duel by John Pope, of Kentucky, the gentleman lately appointed Governor of Arkansas. There seems to be no doubt that the story is false. Care. Observer.

The President.—We learn (says the Norfolk Herald) by the Potomac, that the President of the United States intends to pay a visit to Fortress Monroe—the time not stated, but understood to be in the course of a few weeks.

The Richmond Enquirer states that Mr. Madison is the sole surviving member, both of the Convention which formed the Constitution of the United States, and the Legislature which formed the Constitution of the State of Virginia.

Mr. Ingham, the Secretary of the Treasury, intends, it is said, to return to Washington about the 1st of June. His health is now completely restored.
