

The Southern Times and the South Carolina State Gazette, have been amalgamated, and the paper is published now as the "Times and Gazette," under the superintendence of Mr. M. Morris, a native of South Carolina, and a graduate of Columbia College.

The ability and zeal of Mr. M. Morris have been sufficiently attested in the conduct of the Southern Times. The principles of the constitution have been eloquently sustained in its columns, and we have no doubt, that, through their influence much true knowledge of the proper policy of the National government will be disseminated, which cannot fail to work a reformation in the minds of the people, the only hope we have to restore the government to its original purity and beauty.

We must apologize for the accidental omission of some of the toasts drank at the dinner given at the Mansion Hotel, at the Anniversary Celebration in this place, which will be found in to-day's paper.

We insert to-day part of the proceedings at the Anniversary Celebration at Lincoln. For the want of room we have been compelled to defer the publication of the balance till the next paper.

The advantages of Newspapers.—To convince the community of the advantages which are to be derived from a regular and attentive perusal of newspapers, we only request parents to give one of their children free access to them, and debar the rest a sight. The former will be intelligent, agreeable and instructive, whilst the latter will, really, be ignorant, selfish and unpleasant in company.

Notice.

The Roman Bible Society will hold its annual meeting on Saturday, the 17th of August, at Union church, 5 miles east of Salisbury.

The Members of the Society are requested to be punctual in their attendance, and the congregation generally are invited to attend.

Rev. John Robinson, D. D. of Cabarrus, is appointed to preach a sermon on the occasion.

JESSE HANKIN.

July 15, 1830.

The ninth Anniversary of the Fredell Co Bible Society, will be held in Statesville, on Wednesday the 4th August. It is expected, that a discourse will be delivered by the Rev. Thomas Espy, and that addresses will be made by two or three other persons. As the Bible cause is advancing in our State, with a progress truly encouraging; and as this will be our last annual meeting previous to the expiration of the Great National Supply of two years; it is peculiarly desirable, that all our members and friends should favour us with their presence and assistance. Exercises commence at 11 o'clock.

D. GOULD, President of Fredell County, Bible Society.

Fredell Co. July 8, 1830.

Volunteer toasts drank at the Anniversary Celebration in this place.

By Mr. Smith, (Tutor at Chapel Hill): North Carolina—a stranger can well attest her liberality, her hospitality, and attachment to Union and Liberty.

By Mr. Clayland: The memory of Patrick Henry.

By N. Craig: Our University, the pride and boast of North-Carolina: May the people of this state, in their choice of representatives for the approaching Legislature, have an eye to those who will be willing to lend an able hand to relieve her from her present pecuniary embarrassments.

By Charles Savage: Henry Clay.

By Col. P. White: The people of Western Carolina: a fair specimen of what American freemen should be,—cordial in their friendships, democratic in their principles; seldom permitting merit to remain long unnoticed, they never suffer talents and enterprise to go away unrewarded.

By G. W. Brown: The day we celebrate; may each succeeding anniversary increase our zeal and patriotism in its cause.

By Maj. McClelland: The Orator of the day.

By James F. Long: The Fair of N. Carolina; surpassed by none, equalled by few.

By Thomas Mull, Jr.: To the Generous and the Brave.

By F. Slater: The Survivors of 76.

By D. F. Caldwell: Political infamy to the man who endeavours to inculcate the sentiment, that we have nothing to lose, but every thing to gain, by a dissolution of the Union.

By Maj. McClelland: Our old friend and companion, Gen. Stokes.

By B. Granger: The President and Vice President of the day.

FOR THE WESTERN CAROLINIAN

Agreeable to previous arrangements, the citizens of the Jersey settlement, and others assembled together at Pinkston's Store on Saturday, the 3d July, Capt. Smith being nominated martial of the day, formed a procession and marched to a beautiful Grove, where the Declaration of Independence was read by Thos. I. Bright, and an interesting, elegant and appropriate Oration was delivered by Doct. Burgess L. Deall, after which a large number of persons partook of a dinner. The cloth being removed, the toasts prepared for the occasion, were drank with cold water, with appropriate feelings.

- 1. The day we Celebrate: may its annual return be marked with such events of reciprocal interest and feeling, as declare to the world, Americans cease not to feel as freemen.
- 2. George Washington: The man who filled the measure of his country's glory, his name and his works will reach to the latest generation.
- 3. The President of the United States: May the eternal power that was his shield at New Orleans, never forsake him at Washington.

- 4. The Vice President of the United States.
- 5. American Liberty: God's gift, nature's right: may licentiousness be banished from her presence by temperance.
- 6. North Carolina: Distinguished from her sister states, for her early patriotism and independence.
- 7. The American Militia: The safe-guard of lives, fortunes and liberty, and the protection of "Beauty and Booty."

- 8. The surviving Revolutionary Patriots: With their associates in arms: They fought and died for the independence we now enjoy whilst living, they have our gratitude and affection: and when dead, a grateful people will not forget them.
- 9. Charles Carroll: The only surviving signer of the great Charter of American Independence.
- 10. The American Press: May virtue be its guide.
- 11. The Constitution of the United States: May it forever remain in the power of the majority; and not be over-ruled by the minority.

- 12. A judicious Tariff: May the Union of our forefathers that purchased independence, be not forfeited by Division.
- 13. The American Fair: 4 Cheers.

The following are among the volunteers that have been collected:

By the President of the day Wm. Moore: Our Elective franchise: Too precious to be bartered for flattery, or a little whiskey. May the influence of Temperance Societies forbid the notorious trade.

By Dr. B. L. Beall: Intemperance: A disease which if not terminated by resolution: may end in mortification.

By Dr. B. Austin: The Jersey Settlement: Celebrated for its industry, economy, and richness of soil: This day bears witness to its talents, its political energy and temperate habits: may year after year find its citizens the same happy, social, temperate, and independent people.

By John March, Esq.: Andrew Jackson: May prosperity attend his judicious acts.

By J. S. Pearson, Esq.: More Cotton Factories, and fewer Pianos.

By Dr. B. Austin: The more water, the less whiskey.

By Dr. B. L. Beall: Woman: "The star of the Rover, the hope of the Lover, The spell that inspires, and the spirit that beguiles,

The song of the Poet, the dream of the Lover, The infidel's Heaven is beauty in smiles."

4 Cheers.

FOR THE WESTERN CAROLINIAN.

CELEBRATION IN LINCOLN.

The Anniversary of the Declaration of Independence, was celebrated in Lincoln on Saturday the 3d of July.

The Morning Reveille called the citizens to the emblem of liberty, and at sunrise the band struck up Hail Columbia, when the beautiful star spangled banner was hoisted and unfurled by the breeze, seventy feet in the air, after which the favourite tune of Yankee doxie was played and thirteen rounds fired.

At 11 o'clock the procession formed on the Academy hill composed of a number of revolutionary veterans, a well equipped troop of cavalry, and a large concourse of citizens; and moved with enlivening national airs, to the court-house where they were met by the "fair" whose smiles gave a peculiar charm to the occasion and mingled with the enthusiastic and martial glow of feeling a gentle and pleasing sensation that seemed to stamp happiness on every brow.

The Declaration was read by James Pinkney Henderson, Esq. in a forcible manner, and a chaste and elegant oration was afterwards pronounced by Michael Hoke, Esq. A universal burst of applause followed the reading of the Declaration, and the delivery of the Oration.

At 2 o'clock upwards of a hundred persons sat down to a sumptuous barbecue prepared by Col. John Zimmerman, Jacob Reinhardt, and Charles Leonard, Esqs. Gen. Moore and Jacob Forney, Esqs. presided. In the midst of the hilarity produced by the gusts of the feasting and the animating spell of the sparkling goblet, a heavy and refreshing shower of rain fell and drove the company to the village, rejoicing with grateful feeling to the Author of our Blessings for the providential visitation that saved the parched crops of the farmers.

The following are the regular and such of the volunteer sentiments, as were handed in that were drank at the table:

1. The day we celebrate: What better evidence of the value of our blessings, than to see every body here thinking what they please and speaking what they think. Let it be so forever.

2. The signers and defenders of the Declaration of Independence: The memory of their devotion to the cause of freedom fills our hearts with love to those who are gone, and gratitude to those who survive.

3. The President of the United States: He asks nothing but what is clearly right, he will submit to nothing that is wrong.

4. The Vice President of the United States: Thrice has his country's gratitude called him to the second office in the nation's gift: May he live to wear the laurels that are twining to wreath his brow.

5. The present Cabinet: Able and energetic are the men who compose it: The best proof of their ability and energy is to be found in their official productions.

6. The memory of George Washington.

7. Thomas Jefferson and John Adams: "But search the land of living man, Where will we find their like again."

8. North Carolina: She needs not the frothy politicians of the day with "Disunion" and "nullification" for their motto; true to her own interest, and that of the nation she is able to distinguish between good and evil report.

9. The Union of the States: May its existence be commensurate with the existence of time: May the anathemas of an enlightened people remain upon the politician who would advocate measures that tend to sever it.

10. The Army and Navy.

11. The Constitution of the United States, and the States' constitutions: May no strained construction of the former infringe the rights of the latter.

12. Charles Carroll of Carrollton: He is left amongst us the sole surviving signer to our charter of Independence: many are his years, and they are full of honour.

13. The American fair: Sweet solace of life, oh woman! whose form and whose soul

"Are the spell and the light of each path we pursue,

"Whether sunned in the tropics or chilled at the pole,

"If woman be there—there is happiness too."

VOLUNTEERS.

By the President, Gen. Moore: Unity of sentiment in religion and politics throughout the world.

By J. Forney, Esq. Vice President: The President and directors of the Catawba Navigation Company: May they at their meeting on the 19th inst. be united, and the result of their deliberations be the speedy opening of the Catawba river.

By Col. John Hoke: Let the public debt be speedily paid, the Tariff moderated, and the surplus revenue apportioned among the several States

[To be concluded in our next.]

HYMENEAL.

Married, on the 8th July, in this county, by Dr. John Scott, Solomon Weaver to Miss Celia Hill.

DIED.

Departed this life, on the 25th June, 1830 in the 66th year of his age, Mr. Jedediah Wallis, who although he was young at the time, took an active part in the Revolutionary struggle. In early life he made a profession of Religion, and became a member of the Presbyterian Church, in which for many years by a life of exemplary sobriety and regularity of deportment, he gave good evidence that he was governed by the principles of the Gospel. His loss will be long felt by his family and neighbors, for he was an active, honest, respectable, and useful member, both of civil and religious society.

In Montgomery county, N. C. on the 10th inst. Maj. Buckner Kimbrel, Jr. given on the 15th of May, 1830, for one thousand dollars, as it was fraudulently obtained. The said Haden left here a few days since for Alabama, where he sometimes resides. I am determined not to pay said note unless forced to do so by law. 12c9 BENJAMIN MAXWELL.

WAGONERS,

Driving to Fayetteville,

WILL find it to their advantage, to stop at the Wagon Yard, where every convenience is provided for Man and Horse, to make them comfortable, at the moderate charge of 25 cents a day and night, for the privilege of the Yard, the use of a good house, fire, water, and shelter. Attached to the Yard, are a Grocery and Provision Store, Bread Shop and Confectionary, and a House for Boarders and Lodgers, in a plain, cheap, wholesome and comfortable style.—Fayetteville April, 1st 1829.

Cabinet Making Business.

THE subscribers respectfully inform the public that they have entered into a copartnership, and will carry on the Cabinet Making Business, in the House formerly occupied by Thomas Holton, as a Tavern; and where Mr. Woodson kept his Shop previous to the engagement with Mr. Jarrot: The house is on Main Street a few doors east of the Court-House, where they will carry on the above business more extensively than ever was done in this place.

The materials shall be of the first quality, and their work executed in a durable, fashionable and elegant style; and their prices shall be moderate to correspond with the times.

Orders, from a distance, for

Sideboards; Bureaus; Dining, Breakfast, Card and Ladies working Tables;

Secretaries, and working Desks; Candle Stands, Wash Stands, Bedsteads, &c.

will be executed on short notice, and strictly in accordance with directions.

The subscribers solicit the patronage of the public, and hope they will merit it.

HORATIO WOODSON, JOHN M. JARROT.

July 14th, 1830.

N. B. H. Woodson, returns his thanks to the public, for the liberal patronage he has received at their hands, and hopes it will be continued.

No Combination and a Free Trade.

EARTHEN WARE & LOOKING GLASSES,

THOS. J. BARROW, & CO.

Importers, 88 Water-Street, N. York,

OFFER for sale 1,000 Packages Earthenware, Glass, China and Looking Glasses, comprising the most complete assortment ever offered in this market, and which will be repacked to the Country Merchant at the lowest prices. In consequence of having refused to join the Combination for regulating the prices of Groceries, in this city, we have been made the subjects of a most intolerant persecution, the object of which is nothing less than our entire ruin and expulsion from the trade, our characters have been assailed as men of integrity and fair dealing, our credit as a house of responsibility impeached and every endeavor made to ruin it, and to crown the whole our importations through the regular channels have been all stopped, (in consequence of threats thrown out to the Manufacturers in England) so that we have been obliged to employ Agents in Liverpool to make our purchases in such a manner that our names would not appear in the transaction—all the facilities attendant upon obtaining credit for our importations are denied to us, and nothing but cash in Liverpool will obtain for us our needed supplies of ware.—We are suffering these hardships in the cause of the Merchant and Consumer of this description of goods, no less than our own, and to them, as our last resort, we come for aid and assistance: so long as we are enabled to sustain ourselves against more than forty men, who have combined to bring about our ruin in this unheard of manner, we will continue to sell our goods Free and independent at our own rates for Cash or approved city acceptances only.

THOS. J. BARROW, & CO.

NEW-YORK CHEAP CLOAK Manufactory.

THE subscriber Manufactures, for the Southern and Western trade, and keeps constantly on hand, a very large Stock of Ladies', Gentlemen's and Children's CLOAKS, made of every description of Silk and Stuff Goods, purchased expressly for the purpose, at the lowest auction prices. These Cloaks are made in the best Style, by persons who have had several years' experience in the business; and will be sold, by the quantity, on liberal terms, at prices that will probably make them as safe and profitable a purchase as any description of Goods that can be purchased in this market. 10228

F. J. CONANT,

184 Maiden Lane, corner of Green st. N. Y. &c.

F. J. C. also manufactures and keeps constantly on hand, for sale, by the quantity, a large and complete assortment of STOCKS, of every description, warranted made of the best of materials, and in the handsomest Style.

THOMAS MULL JR. & ROBERT HUIE

HAVE mutually dissolved their copartnership in the purchase and sale of negroes.

Salisbury July 1st, 1830. 26tf

Catawba Lands,

FOR SALE

THE subscriber wishes to sell his plantation well known by the name of Postens place on the Catawba river 4 miles above Beatties Ford together with the negroes amounting to between 20 and 30—stock, Crop &c. on the place all of which he now offers for sale either separately or together.

The plantation contains 340 acres, a great portion of which is river bottom of first quality. The place taken together is equal to any tract of land on the river, as will appear from an examination of the premises.

The whole will be sold upon terms favorable both as to price and payments for which application will be made to my father James Conner 1 mile from Beatties Ford, where I may also be found myself from 10 August to 15th Sept.

HENRY W. CONNER, July 4th, 1830. 2m/34

Ten Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber on the 7th inst. a negro named Jim, about 30 years old, well set, very dark skin, with a wen on his forehead. Any person who may apprehend said boy, and confine him in Jail or otherwise, so that I get him again, will receive the above reward. It is thought the boy has received a pass from some evil designing and malicious person.

LEONARD EASTES, York county N. C. 27tf

Hampton & Palmer,

HAVE formed a copartnership, as Watch and Clock Makers, Silversmiths and Jewellers, for the purpose of carrying on the business, in all its various branches, in the town of Salisbury. They occupy the New Shop, built by James B. Hampton, adjoining his dwelling—on Maine street, 6 or 7 doors south of the Court-House.

They will carefully Repair all kinds of Watches, Clocks, and Time-Pieces, and warrant them to perform well. And are prepared to manufacture, and will keep on hand for sale, all descriptions of Silver Ware, such as Spoons, Ladles, Sugar Tongs, &c. Work sent from a distance will be promptly executed, and safely returned according to directions.

A good assortment of JEWELRY will be kept constantly on hand, and sold low for cash.

JAMES B. HAMPTON, JOHN C. PALMER.

Salisbury, April 2d, 1830.

James B. Hampton tenders his grateful acknowledgements to the public, for the liberal patronage hitherto extended to himself individually; and respectfully asks a continuance of it to the firm of which he is a partner. N. B. Those indebted to him, are earnestly desired to liquidate their accounts as soon as possible; as his new arrangement makes it necessary old scores should be settled up.

Notice.

THE Editors of the Richmond Whig, Richmond Enquirer and National Intelligencer, are requested to stop an advertisement, signed by me, for a Teacher, to take charge of a school in this place, and to forward their accounts for payment.
