New Fashionable & Cheap GOODS.

MICHAEL BROWN HAS the pleasure of announcing to his friends, customers, and the public in general, that he is now opening, at his old stand in Salisbury, an elegant assortment of New, Fashionable, & Cheap Goods, direct from the cities of Philadelphia and New-York, and selected by himself, from the latest importations for the Spring of 1830; which he offers at a low price, as any quality of goods can be had in this market. His assortment embraces every article usually kept in stock. Purchasers are invited to call, examine, and judge for themselves. 15

Removal.

THOMAS DICKSON, Tailor, RESPECTFULLY informs his customers, and the public generally, that he has removed his SHOP, to the building formerly occupied by Lowry and Templeton, and more recently by Wade W. Hampton, as a Tailor's Shop; on Main street, the west side, a few doors from the Court House, in the town of Salisbury; where he is prepared to execute all descriptions of TAILORING, after the newest fashions, and on the shortest notice; and is prepared to make all kinds of clothing in the best style, having a large supply of every description of goods, which enables him to do work on the shortest notice. All kinds of Cutting-Out of Garments will be done on very moderate terms. All orders from a distance for work, will be most faithfully executed, according to direction, and within the shortest possible time. P. S. He has just received the latest fashions from Philadelphia and New-York; which will enable him to make fine Coats, &c. after the most approved style. 15

EBENEZER DICKSON, Boot and Shoe Maker!

EBENEZER DICKSON, respectfully informs the citizens of Salisbury, and the neighborhood generally, that he has purchased out the same manufactory, which was formerly owned by Thomas M. Hill, Jr. and that he will carry on the business as usual in the same house, where he was glad to accommodate the old customers and such others as may choose to call on him. His work shall be executed in a substantial manner, and his prices shall be the best that can be produced any where. His work shall not be excelled by any for neatness and durability. He keeps shoes of all sizes and qualities on hand, and is prepared to supply the market with shoes, which he can procure them as cheap as they can be purchased in this section of the country. He has sent on by Mr. Geo. W. Brown, merchant of this place, a supply of Northern leather of the first quality. 35c

Cabinet Making Business.

THE subscriber has opened a shop in the above line of business, first door above Mr. Jones's Tavern, and formerly occupied by Peter Krider, as a fine shop, where he is prepared to furnish the surrounding country with all kinds of furniture in the above line, such as Sideboards, Secretaries, Bureaus, Carver Cupboards, Breakfast & Dinner Tables, Ladies Cribs, &c. &c. He has in his employ two or three first rate workmen, and the best of timber, selected by himself. The subscriber hopes by due attention to business, to receive that share of patronage which merit deserves. 77c

Tailoring Business.

HORACE H. BEARD. RECENTLY, from Philadelphia. (where he worked for several years in the best shops.) respectfully announces to the gentlemen of Salisbury and the surrounding country, that he has commenced the above business in the house formerly occupied by Mr. Terrence as a Store, and a few doors below Mr. M. Hill's, where he is prepared to execute all kinds of work in his line with the utmost neatness and punctuality, and will prove that the charge against his profession for a want of the latter quality is not true as far as he is concerned. Mr. Beard will be enabled to make all kinds of garments agreeably to the latest Fashions, inasmuch as he is well acquainted with the best workmen in Philadelphia with whom he has made arrangements so as to receive the latest London Fashions as soon as they can be sent on. He will keep on hand the best workmen; he intends, as soon as convenient, to send to Philadelphia for such as he knows to be good and faithful. From his long experience in the business, and by the united attention, he hopes to merit a large share of public patronage. All orders from a distance will be punctually attended to, and executed on the shortest notice, according to directions. All kinds of cutting will be done on the shortest notice, and warranted to stand. Country produce will be taken in payment for work at the market price. 35c

Cotton Gin Making.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the citizens of Davidson, and the adjacent counties, that he continues to carry on, at his shop in Lexington, the business of Making COTTON GINS, equal to any manufactured in the United States; indeed, his Gins are preferred to all others, by those who have tried them; and have found a really safe throughout a large extent of country. His prices shall be as reasonable as at any other shop in the Southern States. All orders will be promptly attended to, and Gins finished in the shortest possible time. Repairs of Gins will be done on the shortest notice, and in the most substantial manner, by the public's humble servant, HUGH A. GINGAMON. Lexington, May 26th, 1830. 2c

New Cheap Store.

M. CLAYLAND and A. TORRENCE, having formed a partnership in the Mercantile Business, under the above firm, beg leave respectfully to inform the inhabitants of Salisbury and the surrounding country, that they have just returned from New-York and Philadelphia, with a beautiful assortment of New Style, Fancy and Staple GOODS, which have been selected from the latest importations, and will be offered at a very small advance for cash. Purchasers are invited to call and view their assortment. 14

A New Mail Route

FROM RALEIGH TO SALISBURY. STAGE FARE, 85. UNDER this arrangement, the stage runs twice a week, and goes through in two days, each way. The accommodation is good. Passengers who are travelling from Raleigh to Salisbury, or Tennessee, or South of Salisbury, will find this to be the nearest, cheapest and most expeditious route West of Raleigh. Passengers who are travelling from Salisbury North, will find this route, by the way of Raleigh and Petersburg, to be the nearest, cheapest and most expeditious route that can be travelled to the North, by two days. A passenger who travels this route from Salisbury, by the way of Raleigh and Petersburg, to Washington City, will go it in five days, and will sleep three nights out of five all night. The Contractor will pledge himself to keep first rate Mail Coaches and good, gentle horses, and drivers of the best kind; and he will spare no pains to render those who patronize him, comfortable, and safe through his route. Passengers who are unacquainted with this route, will secure seats by application at Mr. E. P. Guion's Hotel, in Raleigh and at Mr. William H. Slaughter's Hotel, in Salisbury.
