

POETRY.

FROM THE NEW ENGLAND GALLERY. A GLANCE BACKWARD. The amber shorn that in the sky, And blushed upon the sea, has faded--

I sit me down in solitude, And throw my feet upon the fender, And gaze in meditative mood

Oh, me! it makes me sad to think Upon the swift revolving season-- And sentiment runs into me,

Time has been when I did not deem Ambition's need an empty bubble, When love was not a foolish dream,

THE subscriber offers to his friends and the public, a general assortment of DRY GOODS, viz:

Blue, Black, Brown and Drab Cloths, Cassimeres and Cassimerettes, Fine London Duffel Blankets and coarse blankets

My Store and Dwelling is two doors above Mr. T. W. Johnson's Store and Wagon Yard, King Street, My Wagon Yard is a few doors above my Store, in the centre of the Cotton business, corner of King and Cannon Streets,

Runaway ON the 10th of September last, from my plantation in Jones county, two negroes, one named WASHINGTON, about 27 years of age, a very bright mulatto, on one of his hands there is a scar occasioned by a gin he will change his name and endeavor to pass for a free man.

THE GEORGIAN, Savannah, the Telescope, Columbia, S. C., and Richmond Enquirer, are requested to publish the above weekly until further notice, and then forward their accounts to J. EAMAR.

J. MURPHY,

I am now receiving and opening at his store in Salisbury a large and fresh supply of almost every kind of Goods, suited to all seasons of the year, new style and patterns of the latest importations, selected by himself and son with much care in Philadelphia and New York and bought wholly and entirely for cash.

House and Lots for Sale IN HUNTSVILLE.

THE subscriber will sell or rent his house and lots in Huntsville, Surry county, at the shallow Ford of the Yadkin. The house is spacious, roomy and convenient.

More Negroes Wanted. THE subscriber wishes to purchase during the fall and winter a number of negroes, for which the most liberal prices will be given in cash.

Notice. I will hire several valuable Negroes and rent a valuable Plantation lying on the Yadkin River, the former residence of Wm. C. Love, dec'd.

Notice. THE subscribers having qualified as Executors of the last Will and Testament of Isaac Hargrave, deceased, at the August Term of Davidson county court 1830, hereby give notice to all persons having claims, debts, dues, or demands against said estate, to present them for payment, duly authenticated within the time prescribed by law, or this notice will be plead in bar of their recovery.

No longer to be "put off." THE Notes and accounts of A. Torrence, and A. Torrence & Co. are placed in the hands of C. L. Torrence, for collection; and I would advise those interested, to call on him before ten days before May Court.

Cotton Gin Making. THE subscriber respectfully informs the citizens of Davidson, and the adjacent counties, that he continues to carry on, at his Shop in Lexington, the business of making COTTON GINS, equal to any manufactured in the United States; indeed, his gins are preferred to all others, by those who have tried them; and have found a ready sale throughout a large extent of country.

State of North Carolina, Court of Equity, DAVIDSON COUNTY. JAMES SMITH vs. Hy. Feather: Petition for sale of real estate: In this case it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant is not an inhabitant of this State, it is therefore ordered that publication be made 6 weeks in the Western Carolinian, that they be and appear at the next Superior Court of Law to be held for the county of Davidson, at the Court House in Lexington, on the 1st Monday after the 4th Monday in March next, and plead answer or demur, or the same will be taken pro confesso and heard ex parte, witness, A. R. Caldwell, Clerk and Master in Equity of said Court at Office the 1st Monday after the 4th Monday in September, 1830. 651 A. R. CALDWELL, c. m. e.

More New and Cheap GOODS.

HACKETT & LEMLEY. ARE now receiving and opening at their Store in Salisbury, a desirable stock of New Style, Fancy and Staple GOODS, suited to the Fall and Winter seasons, purchased in Philadelphia and New York, of the latest Fall importation, which they will sell as low as any GOODS can be had in this part of the country. They respectfully invite their customers and the public generally, to call and examine their assortment, hear prices, and judge for themselves.

ATTENTION! N. B. H. & Co. have a lot back of their Store provided for the accommodation of persons riding to Town, with Backs and Troughs convenient for hitching and feeding Horses.

IN consequence of the day appointed for the meeting of the company of the Salisbury Light Infantry Blues coming on Christmas, they will parade on the first Saturday before Christmas being the 18th of Dec. 1830. By order of the Capt. J. H. HARDIE, Sec'y.

Administrator's Sale. WILL be sold on Friday the 10th day of December next at the residence of the late Alexander Penny, dec'd.

A Family of Negroes consisting of two women and their children, also, at the same time and place one Cow, a quantity of Heat and Corn, and perhaps twelve or fifteen barrels of Flour. Terms made known on the day of sale. JOHN GIBSON, Adm'r.

Notice. N. B. All persons indebted to the estate of said Penny are earnestly requested to come forward and make immediate payment as no further indulgence can be given.

Factorage & Commission BUSINESS.

THE subscribers inform their friends and the public that the above business is continued by them as usual, in CHARLESTON, upon Ed. Moulton's Wharf, where they are prepared to attend to all business committed to their care, and for the transaction of which their services are now rendered to the public.

Goods at Auction. IN pursuance of an attachment, levied at the instance of George W. K. Key & others on the estate of Nathan Moffitt, and agreeably to a special order to me directed, I will sell at the highest bidder before the Store in Lexington, formerly occupied by said Moffitt all the GOODS in the said Store, comprising an assortment of Dry Goods, Hardware, China Ware and a variety of other articles. The sale to commence on Monday the 20th of December next, and to continue from day to day until the whole stock is sold.

Ten Dollar's Reward. RANAWAY from the subscriber or was kidnapped, a negro woman named J. DE, who was placed on my farm in Rowan county, N. C. She is about 35 years of age, of the common color of negroes. She is stout, well built--of rather a sulky countenance--thick lips, and has lost some of her teeth.

New Goods.

ALEXANDER & COWAN, beg leave to inform their friends and the public in general that they are now receiving and opening at their store in Statesville, (the store formerly occupied by Messrs. Shephard & Simmonds) a general assortment of Fresh and Seasonable Goods, consisting of almost every article usually kept in Stores, which were selected with great care, by W. F. Cowan of the above firm, and purchased for Cash, from the latest importations in New York, Philadelphia and New-ark; all of which they are determined to sell as low for Cash as goods of the same quality can be purchased any where in this section of the State.

They would also, respectfully, present their sincere thanks to their friends and the public for the liberal share of patronage they have heretofore received of them and hope by close attention, candid and fair dealing, to merit a continuance of the same.

ALEXANDER & COWAN. N. B. Those owing the late firm of W. F. Cowan & Co. will please call and settle the same by each or note, in order that they may be enabled to close that concern. A. & C. Sept 7th, 1830. 6m60

EBENEZER DICKSON, Boot and shoe Maker! EBENEZER DICKSON respectfully informs the inhabitants of Salisbury, and the neighborhood generally, that he has purchased out the Shoe makers' shop owned by Thomas Mull, Jr. and that he will carry on the business as usual in the same house, where he will be glad to accommodate the old customers and such others as may choose to call on him.

A New Mail Route FROM RALEIGH TO SALISBURY. UNDER this arrangement, the stage runs twice a week, and goes through in two days, each way. The accommodation is good. Passengers who are travelling from Raleigh to Salisbury, or vice versa, or South of Salisbury, will find this to be the nearest, cheapest and most expeditious route West of Raleigh. Passengers who are travelling from Salisbury North, will find this route, by the way of Raleigh and Petersburg, to be the nearest, cheapest and most expeditious route that can be travelled to the North, by two days. A passenger who travels this route from Salisbury, by the way of Raleigh and Petersburg, to Washington City, will go in five days, and will sleep three nights out of five all night.

STAGE FARE $5. THE Contractor will pledge himself to keep first rate Mail Coaches and good gentle horses and drivers of the best kind, and he will spare no pains in trying to render those who patronize him, comfortable, and safe through his route. Passengers who are unacquainted with this route, will secure seats by application at Mr. P. Guion's Hotel, in Raleigh, and at Mr. William H. Slaughter's Hotel, in Salisbury. The stage will leave Salisbury every Wednesday and Saturday, at 8 A. M. and arrive in Raleigh every Thursday and Sunday, at 7 P. M. and will leave Raleigh every Wednesday and Saturday at 6 A. M. and arrive at Salisbury every Thursday and Sunday at 7 P. M. GEORGE WILLIAMS, Contractor. June 14th, 1830. 251

Town Ordinances.

WHEREAS encroachments have been made from time to time, on the Public Rights of the town of Salisbury, by the erection of Fences, Pickets, Porches, Platforms and other Buildings, by which the citizens have been incommoded; and whereas the subject was brought before the Town Commissioners at their last meeting; it was thereupon unanimously Ordered, that all fences and other encroachments, wherever found to exist, shall be removed by the first day of February next, on pain of neglect, all persons so offending will be immediately proceeded against as the law directs.

It was further Ordered, that no person shall be permitted to place any House, Wharf, Benches or other articles, by which the passage of the citizens may be obstructed, in the streets or walks, under the penalty of $2 for each day every such offence.

It was further Ordered, that the law respecting mad dogs, passed July the 9th last, shall be repealed, and the same is hereby repealed and of no further force.

It was further Ordered, by the Board, that the above Ordinances be published in the Western Carolinian and the Yadkin and Catawba Journals, 4 weeks in succession. BENJAMIN AUSTIN, Cks. Salisbury, Nov. 6th, 1830. 4-43
