Thomas S. B. Craven, Surgeon Dentist.

Under signed members of the Legislature of North-Carolina, have employed Thomas S. B. Craven as a Surgeon Dentist. In the various operations they were completely satisfied with his performance, and think those who may place themselves under his hands will be as well satisfied of his competency as they have been.

$50 REWARD.

ON Saturday night the 31st April an attempt was made by some Villians to break into the Lutheran Church in this county, commonly called "the Organ Church." When some of the Congregation reached the Church on Sunday morning to prepare it for the services of the day, they found a false key sticking in the door, and so broken that it could not be got out without first taking off the lock. It appeared that the false key had been applied to the lock for the purpose of opening the door, but not fitting the lock, it struck fast, and in attempting to force it they twisted off the handle of the key, and crooked the wards. We believe, from some circumstances, that the object of the Villians, was to do some injury to the interior of the Church, and perhaps, to put poison in the sacred elements that had been provided for the administration of the Lord's sacrament on the same day. It will be recollected, that many Lutheran clergymen were in attendance on that occasion; the Lutheran Synod of N. C. and adjacent states, then holding its conference at Organ Church. The above reward will be given to any person who will make a discovery of the Villians, or who will put us in a way to bring them to justice and punishment.

Runaway

ON the 10th of September last, from my plantation in Jones county, two negroes, one named WASHINGTON, about 27 years of age, a very bright mulatto, on one of his hands there is a scar occasioned by a gin; he will change his name and endeavor to pass for a free man. The other named JOHN, a common mulatto, about 30 years of age, very intelligent; he will probably pass as the servant of Washington, and change his name. A reward of 25 Dollars will be given for the delivery of either in any jail, so that I can get the n. JAMES LAMAR.

Catawba Springs

REOPENED. THE Subscriber having recently purchased from Mr. Charles Jigoot, the above-named Establishment, respectfully informs the public that he has fitted it up in a handsome style and is now prepared to receive company; and from the liberal arrangements he has made, is determined to promote the comfort of all those persons who may visit his establishment, and flatters himself to be able to give satisfaction. The charges will be proportioned to the pressure of the times.

The properties of these Waters have lately been analyzed by Professor Olmsted, who highly recommends their use for all complaints of the liver, debility, &c. &c.

The Catawba Springs are situated in Lincoln county, North Carolina, near Beattie's ford, on the Catawba River, on the main stage route from Washington to Georgia, via Salisbury and Lincolnton, and within 14 miles of the latter place; is distant from Charleston, S. C. 230 miles; 105 miles from Columbia; 110 miles from Greenville, and the same distance from Camden and Cheraw.

The main Northern line of Stages, together with the Cross Stage from Columbia, Camden and Cheraw, will pass the Springs regularly twice a week, and go west as far as Ashville, N. C. the roads leading from all these places to the Springs, are generally good for private conveyances. W. S. SIMONTON.

$25 Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber in Mecklenburg County, about fifteen miles south of Charlotte, a yellow boy with thick lips and a down countenance until spoken to. He has one lap tooth in his upper jaw and is about twenty one years of age. He goes by the name of SCOTT. His clothing is not recollected. If left my plantation, it is believed, with Mrs. Jno. Mathews' negro and one other belonging to Mr. Poits who, it is thought, decoyed the others off. I am inclined to the opinion that they have all taken the route by or near Salisbury for some of the Northern States. I will give Ten Dollars for his apprehension. If taken in the County of Mecklenburg—if out of the County or State Twenty Five Dollars—in either case to be secured so that I get him again. 373

$25 Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber living in Mecklenburg County, about seven or eight miles south of Charlotte, a likely black boy whose name is HECTOR, stout well built and finely proportioned for a slave. He is about 23 years of age and about six feet in height. He carried with him when he left my plantation a suit of mixed home-made, a pair of corded pantaloons and other clothing which I am not able to describe. He left my plantation with other negroes and I have every reason to believe they have taken the route thru or near Salisbury for some of the non slave-holding States. I will give Ten Dollars if taken in the County of Mecklenburg—if out of the County or State Twenty Five Dollars, but in both cases to be secured so that I get him again. 373
