

POETRY.

LEON TO ZORILDA.
Why that adness—why that sigh?
Zorilda, tell thy Leon why?
Why, oh! tell me, does the tear,
Now thy bloom of beauty e'er?
Why does sorrow on that brow,
Brood with pensive sadness now?
Why from thy brilliant laughing eyes
Now fades the pure cerulean dye?
Oh, why dost seem so sad—depress'd?
What sorrow thus annoys thy breast?
What robs thy bosom of its ease?
What poison thus destroys thy peace?
Why mingle not among the gay?
Why pine in solitude away?
Why devote thy youth's bright hours,
To solitude's sequester'd bow'rs?
Why from thy cheek, now fades the bloom?
What anguish doth thy youth consume?
What is it, tell me, in thy breast,
That robs thy bosom of its rest?
Oh, lady! shall thy bosom pine?
And pleasure yet be found in mine?
Oh, no! it cannot, cannot be,
It will in sorrow pine with thee.
Can I commingle with the gay?
Can I distort in pleasure's ray?
No, never, while that breast of thine,
Shall sorrow thus—shall thus repine.
Then, fair Zorilda, lovely one!
Thou brightest angel earth upon,
Do not thus in sorrow stray,
Waste not thus your life away.

Horace H. Beard, TAILOR.

RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the public, that he continues to carry on the above business in all its various branches and with his usual neatness and punctuality in executing it. He has received the London and Philadelphia, Spring and Summer Fashions from his correspondent in Philadelphia who authorized him to teach his much esteemed system of Cutting for $25, which can be had from the subscriber on application.
P. S. Orders from a distance will meet with prompt attention. Country produce of every description will be taken for work at the market prices.
N. B. H. H. B. returns his sincere thanks to his friends and customers for past patronage, and hopes by unremitting attention to business to merit a continuance of the same. 744f

NO TARIFF OF PRICES. FREE TRADE.

EARTHENWARE, LOOKINGGLASSES, &c.
THOMAS J. BARROW & CO.
Importers 88, Water St. New-York.
OFFER for sale, the largest and most complete assortment of Earthen ware, Glass, China, plain and gilt Looking Glasses, &c. which the New York market will afford, comprising every style and variety of the newest patterns. They return their most cordial thanks to their friends in the Southern States, for their support in the persecution now carrying on against them, for their refusal to join a combination to fixing one tariff of prices for Crockery, throughout the trade. It is mainly attributable to the influence of our Southern friends, that we have been enabled to survive thus far, in this most trying situation; exposed to the combined influence and capital of the whole trade, endeavoring to effect our ruin and expel us from business. We pledge ourselves to our friends to give them every satisfaction in our power as regards the quality of Goods, the excellence of our packers and the lowness of our prices, for cash or city exceptions; and in return, solicit from them a continuance of their patronage, and particularly request those who have influence with their friends to exert it in our behalf, so we trust the cause is one they are all interested in, and much benefit will accrue to us from their friendly acts in this way. It has been said, the combination was broken up. As it regards prices this is true, and all, we think, friends or foes will allow that we have effected this change; but we do assure our friends, that at no period since we commenced our system of unshackled prices were we in greater want of assistance than at the present moment. This combination of men are leaving no means untried for effecting our ruin, that they may revive the old system; our credit and character are assailed in every shape, our importations waylaid and stopped in every instance where threats are sufficient to intimidate the manufacturers from supplying us;—in fine, no vexation or trouble which the malice of men could devise has been neglected in this struggle to subdue us. We once more call upon every friend of free trade to come up to our support, and pledge ourselves to give them no cause to repent of their liberality.

A SPECULATION.

FROM the great success attending the last Club, S. J. SYLVESTER, Licensed Lottery Broker, 130 BROADWAY, New York, respectfully submits the following plan to his friends in this section of the country:
THE NEW YORK LOTTERY, Extra Class, No. 18, will be drawn 21st SEPTEMBER:—36 Numbers, drawn 60 lots.
The chief Prizes are
$50,000, 310,000,
20,000, 20,000,
10,000, 5,880,
It is the intention of S. J. Sylvester to draw
25 Packs, Whole Tickets, 500, 300
25 do. Half Tickets, 499, 210
25 do. Quarters, 149, 150
Tickets 600 at $10, $1080
100 Shares, each $100
100 Shares, each $4280,
100 Shares, each $4280, 4280,
Deducting $4280 from $10,000, leaves $5800, divided into 100 shares, the greatest possible loss will be $58 each share.
It is certain the Tickets will draw more than the above named sum, but this amount is mentioned as they cannot bring less. To those who remit $58 in Notes or Prices, a regular certificate of each Package and Combination Number, will be forwarded. The Tickets will be lodged in the Bank till after the drawings and the Prize money immediately divided among the Shareholders.—Such a chance seldom occurs to obtain the splendid Capitals. The plan has met with so much approbation in New York and Philadelphia, that already 43 shares have been taken.
Messrs. Yates and McIntyre, the Managers, will, with each Certificate, give a guarantee for the payment of all the prizes.
S. J. SYLVESTER begs leave to remark to those who do not know him, that he has permission to refer to the Managers, Messrs. Yates and McIntyre; and also, if required, can give the names of the first houses throughout the United States and the Canadas. Many will not wish to risk so much; S. J. Sylvester has therefore for sale in the same scheme, Whole Tickets $16, Halves $8, Quarters 4 dls.
All Letters by mail, meet the same attention as on personal application, if addressed
S. J. SYLVESTER, New York.
N. B.—There are good schemes drawing every Wednesday in New York. Those of my distant patrons wishing to adventure 5, 10, 20, dollars, or upwards may depend on having tickets remitted by forwarding their orders by mail. Address as above.
The Editors of the Washington Union, Edenton Gazette, Roanoke Advocate, Western Carolinian, Raleigh Star, and Fayetteville Journal, will publish the above until the 10th September and forward their accounts to S. J. S. 887

Notice.

WILL be offered for sale on Tuesday the 20th of September next, at the late residence of Norman Owings, dec'd. the following property viz: Horses, Cattle, Hogs, sheep, one still & tubs, Waggon and Gears, Farming Utensils, Household and Kitchen Furniture, and various other articles too tedious to mention. Terms of Sale made known on the day of Sale by me.

Runaway

ON the 10th of September last, from my plantation in Jones county, two negroes, one named WASHINGTON, about 27 years of age, a very bright mulatto, on one of his hands there is a scar occasioned by a gin; he will change his name and endeavor to pass for a free man. The other named JOHN, a common mulatto, about 50 years of age, very intelligent; he will probably pass as the servant of Washington, and change his name. A reward of 25 Dollars will be given for the delivery of either in any jail, so that I can get them.

Thomsonian System.

DR. KIRKPATRICK would respectfully inform the citizens of Rowan and adjoining counties that he has located himself at the house of Mr. Henry Roseman, ten miles south east of Salisbury, for the purpose of practicing medicine, upon the above system. He may, at all times, be found at his residence, except when professionally engaged. He is aware of the prejudice of some people against this system; but he is also confident that if they will give it a fair trial in any disease either acute or chronic that all prejudice will be removed. His charges will be moderate to suit the pressure of the times. 386f
