

the short period of five years, a greater daily circulation than other paper in America! Yet such is the fact, and at this moment the Courier & Enquirer circulates daily in the city of New-York more than one hundred per cent more papers than any of the cotemporaries.

Daily papers sent out of the city, are not printed until 2 o'clock P.M., when all the News received by the morning mails, or by Foreign arrivals, are inserted in a Second Edition: so that the Daily subscribers in the country, literally receive a Morning and Evening Paper combined; and this being the only paper collecting news on Sunday, it follows of course that the news by all foreign arrivals on that day, will be found in the columns of the Courier and Enquirer only.

A Price Current and Review of the Market will be published weekly, and the Second Edition will always notice any change which may occur in the state of our market. Whatever appears in the Daily Paper, will of course, also be published in the Semi Weekly.

Daily Paper $10 per annum. Semi-Weekly Paper $4 per annum. Payable in advance.

N. B. All Post Masters who have no objections to act as our Agents, are requested to receive subscriptions and remit the money at the risk of the Publishers, at the time of ordering the paper. It is expected that they will retain in their hands 10 per cent of the amount received, as a remuneration for their trouble.

Salisbury:
OCTOBER 10, 1831.

On Friday of Davidson Superior Court, which was held last week, came on the trial of Jones & Craig for an alleged libel on Jas. Marshall, which was removed from this County. The case was argued for the state by John M. Moreland Esq. and for the defendants by Judge Nash. The jury retired for about fifteen minutes and returned into court with a verdict of not guilty.

In consequence of the trial the Editor was necessarily absent which will account for any inaccuracies which may be found in the present paper.

At a meeting of the Rowan Troop of Cavalry, at the Court House on Saturday the 1st inst, Henry Giles was elected Captain, Robert Hule 1st Lt. Willis Moore 2nd Lt. Robert N. James Cornet, Wm. J. Jones Judge advocate and Horace Beard Bugleman. The next meeting of the Troop will take place on the 1st Friday in November. A punctual attendance of the members is desired.

We invite a careful perusal of an article in another column of our paper taken from the Banner of the Constitution.

The Richmond Whig.
This paper hurls the democratic flag inscribed "Democracy—The Constitution—State Rights," and of all the papers in the United States we know not one which is sicker Federal—which is more decidedly and unequivocally opposed to the Republican doctrine. The Whig should haul down these false colours and substitute the genuine one in their stead. He should have more bravery and honor than to fight under an enemy's flag. What a bold combatant he is when he can blind the people by his Janus policy and war only with the few. The only just and accurate criterion by which to come at the character of a man's political opinions is to examine and sift the opinions themselves without reference to the declarations of men that they belong to this or that party. Is an Orang-utang a human being because it resembles one and may be decked out in man's apparel; we must not suffer ourselves to be deceived by appearances. We should strip this Jack-daw of his plumage and send him to his own kind again. The Whig and his is a Federal print and yet it is found herding with those of the republican party with all the exterior trappings which belong to them, and by which it has succeeded in practising upon the credulity of the people which is assisted by its location in no small degree. Does the Whig advocate the power of the general government to construct works of internal improvement? Does it acknowledge the constitutionality and expediency of the tariff? Does it back the United States Bank with all its anti-republican monopolies? It does, as its columns demonstrate. Does it support the claims of Henry Clay, the great leader of the Federal party whose interests are closely and indissolubly identified with those measures, for the Presidency? It does, and it glories in it. Is this "Democracy the Constitution—State Rights?" They are the bane of Democracy, the destroyer of the Constitution and an enemy to State Rights; where then is the republicanism of the Whig? Where is the love and reverence for the constitution? Where is the successor which has ever lent to the States in their struggles for the maintenance of their reserved rights? We have no objections to the choice which the Whig has made in joining the Federal party, but we protest against the longer creation of one flag. This is not honorable Mr. Plattsburgh. What? Wear your neighbors' clothes without his consent? Is this courteous and civil? Is this the kind of politeness among the Federals? [We have better teachers and practice better manners.]

The whole nomenclature of the paper is strangely inconsistent with its species. It is certainly amiss to be styled "the Constitutional Whig" without the fact, we have often wondered why it is that the Whigs are afraid to assume their old and proper name? We would not acknowledge the principles of a party and merge the name. We would have all names.

The Legislature of Tennessee assembled on the 19th ultimo. We have received the message of the Governor to the two Houses of the Legislature. It is entirely confined to the consideration of subjects of local importance, a reference to which cannot be interesting to our readers. The Governor congratulates them upon the prosperous and flourishing condition of the State.

FOR THE WESTERN CAROLINIAN.
The great error into which many writers upon the principles of our government, and particularly upon the conservative principle, is that the constitution is a compact of the people en masse & not of the people of the States as separate sovereignties. They compare the relation which the States bear to the general government, to the relation which the counties of a state bear to the State itself. This is well calculated to mislead. But take away the sophistry which conceals this doctrine, and the danger of forming an erroneous opinion, will be removed. The parallel lacks this essential to be correct—The States were, when they formed the compact distinct sovereignties—they existed previous to the existence of the general government, whereas the counties derived their distinct existence from the State. They existed, it is true, but they existed as a whole and not as separate and distinct sovereignties. The States had a separate existence, previous to the formation of their general government, which they afterwards formed "for special purposes"; to come therefore to a right conclusion upon the theory of our government it should always be borne in mind that the constitution is a compact of the people of the States and not of the people of the United States. HARRIS.

FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.
SIX DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.
The ship Samuel Robertson, at New York, brings London papers to the 21st and Portsmouth to the 22nd August, both inclusive.
The latest accounts from Warsaw are to Aug. 4th up to which time the Russians had made no impression upon the Poles. The Dutch have retreated to Holland. The reported capture of St. Michaels by the Terceirians is confirmed.
Telegraph.
London, Aug. 21.—It is reported that a misunderstanding prevails in the Cabinet respecting the late alteration in the Reform Bill. We trust that this difference is not of a serious nature. For the sake of the country may it be speedily adjusted, for without unanimity there, the great measure must fail.
London, Aug. 20.—We shall not disguise our deep regret at the result of the division last Thursday evening, when Lord Chandos carried against the Ministers and to the serious injury of the reform bill, his amendment, providing that tenants at will, paying 50lb. per annum rent, shall be entitled to vote for county members.
London, Aug. 19.—We have reason to believe that nothing prevents a co operation between this country and France in some efforts to restore to Poland the blessings of peace and freedom; but the state of affairs in Belgium; that peace should be established between Holland and Belgium is therefore an object of great importance to the Poles, as well as the other European powers. It may turn out that Holland has been playing the game of Russia.

A report prevails that the Island of Madeira has surrendered to Villa Flor, and which is believed by the Portuguese merchants.

RUSSIA AND POLAND.
Berlin Aug. 10.—According to letters from Warsaw of the ult. the Poles laughed outright at the idea of being starved into submission by so inadequate a force as that of the Russians. They had provisions enough to stand a siege of four months, and the town was too well fortified on every side to allow of any fear that the enemy will attempt to take it by storm. There was a regular army of 40,000 men within the city, and a great number undisciplined troops, who were in the course of training; the whole of whom, as well as the other inhabitants, were animated with the best spirits, and resolved to fight to the last. The late movements of the Russians have betrayed much indecision. This is by some attributed to the influence of the mediation; and even taken as a proof that it has begun to operate.
Certain it is that their original intention was to occupy the whole part of the Duchy, which is surrounded by the Vistula and the Prussian frontier, and to establish a provisional Government at Kalisch. But they are still at 100 miles distance from Warsaw, and they have not yet occupied Kalisch. Most of the public roads, however, are infested with parties of Cossacks, who extend their excursions many miles beyond the line of main army, and stop, and harass or plunder all who have the misfortune to fall within their reach. They have brought the cholera morbus wherever there has been any kind of communication with them, but destruction invariably attends their progress without thinning their own ranks.

From the London Globe, Aug. 23.
Some days ago a report reached us that the Emperor Nicholas was dead. This was said to be a fabrication of the Jews at Berlin, and we disbelieved it. There seems, however, to hang a mystery over the news from Petersburg. That capital, exposed to the ravages of the cholera morbus, is left almost without a government. The Emperor, the Ministers, even the Chief of Police, have withdrawn to Peterhoff; and, it seems, the rabble, not the Sovereign, is autocrat for the day. In the meantime the Grand Duke, the only surviving brother of the Czar, is suddenly called to the seat of government, and a Prussian Physician, eminent for curing mental disorders, is confidently reported to have been sent for from Berlin. We do not vouch for these rumors—they may be idle stories; but many coincidences seem to give them probability, and the unexpected inactivity of the Russian army on the Vistula, whence we were taught to expect a decisive battle three weeks ago, may be an indication of irresolution, change and dismay in the quarter from which all orders must emanate.
