

POETRY.
FROM THE STENOGRAPHIC VIRGINIAN.
The following lines were written in a Tent, at Union Grove, immediately after the parting exercises of the Camp Meeting, by one of the female converts, from Rockbridge.

PARWELL.
Now, holy consecrated ground,
Where I the God of Ab'ram found;
Behold the Gospel's joyful sound,
Dear "sacred grove" farewell,
Call'd here by mercy's melting voice,
From depths of sin, to make my choice;
In dying love, I now rejoice,
Once bound for deepest Hell.
Dear Ministers of God, farewell!
You saw me hurrying down to Hell,
And tears of grief and sorrow fell,
And prayers were said to Heaven;
Your fervour reach'd the "God of love,"
Whose habitation is above,
He made his spirit kindly move,
That sin might be forgiven.
Dear Christian friends, now call'd to part,
The falling tear may often start;
But this emotion off eieers my heart,
That God is with me still;
His presence fills the widest space,
The fairest eye may claim his grace,
The meekest suppliant find his face,
If they obey his will.
Than living God, whose power I own,
Come make my sinful heart thy throne;
Be thou its sovereign, thou alone,
To rule each thought and word,
Oh write thy law upon my mind,
Each thrilling joy, each promise kind,
That others may the Saviour find
And lean upon the Lord.
And Oh! in mercy pity those,
Who still the Gospel peace refuse,
And know not "God is love,"
Oh! gracious Father, make them know,
The awful gulph that yawns below,
And you fair Heaven above.
Perhaps we ne'er may meet again,
On this most darkly chequer'd plain,
Of sorrow and distress;
But may we meet in Heav'n above,
And shout and sing redeeming love,
In everlasting bliss.

PROPOSALS
For publishing in the City of Washington, two Weekly Newspapers, (on pamphlet form.)
THE MECHANIC'S REGISTER,
THE OTHER
THE FARMER'S REGISTER.

A PORTION of the Daily Telegraph will be devoted to Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts. Having the matter in type, we propose to make up two weekly royal sheets to contain sixteen octavo pages each; one to be entitled—The Farmer's Register—the other, The Mechanic's Register. The Farmer's Register will contain agricultural notices, and such other matter, common to a newspaper, as will be interesting to that class from whom we derive the staff of life. The Mechanic's Register will contain such general information on Mechanics, in addition to the ordinary newspaper notices, as will render it a valuable acquisition to the library of that useful and influential class of citizens for whom it is intended. These two publications will contain no advertisements but those connected with agriculture and the mechanic arts. For these works, we ask the special contribution of those, whose avocations, in life, enable them to give practical and useful information.
The price for these will be one dollar and fifty cents per annum, paid in advance. As this sum cannot be remitted by mail, any postmaster is authorized to receive it on account, and the paper will be forwarded on his receipt.
The Editor is willing, where one individual will obtain eight or more subscribers, and remit one dollar and twenty five cents for each; to forward these papers at the rate of one dollar and twenty-five cents per volume. Each volume to contain fifty two numbers.
The object of both these works will be, to place a cheap newspaper within the reach of every citizen; and, at the same time, to make it doubly interesting, by giving important information, suited to the avocations of those for whom it is intended. We admit that it is our desire that they shall find their way to the firesides of every honest citizen; and we are resolved to do all in our power to make them worthy of such favor. The Register will contain a due proportion of political matter, and in addition to the valuable information, pertaining to their special objects, which the title designates, it will embody important state papers, in a convenient form for preservation. The public mind has been much excited on the subject, and with a view to embody in a condensed form, an authentic account thereof, the first numbers will contain the correspondence between General Jackson and Mr. Calhoun; which will be followed up by the publications explaining the causes of the dissolution of the late cabinet; thus embodying a mass of interesting history upon that subject, in a pamphlet form. As it is expected that many village and neighbourhood Clubs will be formed for their circulation, we intend to publish a large edition of the first numbers.
Our subscribers and Agents are respectfully desired to promote the object of this address, and Editors with whom we exchange, are requested to give it an insertion in their respective papers. When they take into consideration the extra expense incurred by us, in furnishing them the report and proceedings of Congress, the request will not appear unreasonable. The favor will be reciprocated if desired.
