

POETRY.

From the Lady's Book.

HE IS GONE! HE IS GONE!

He is gone! he is gone!
Like the leaf from the tree,
Or the down that is blown
By the wind o'er the sea,
He is fled, the light-hearted!
Yet a tear must have started
To his eye when he parted
From love-stricken me!
He is fled! he is fled!
Like a gallant so free,
Flumed up on his head,
And sharp word by his knee,
While his gay feathers flutter'd,
Sure something he mutter'd
He at least must have utter'd
A farewell to me!
He's away! he's away!
To far lands o'er the sea—
And many's the day
Ere home he will be;
But where'er his steed prance
Amid thronging lances,
Sure he'll think of the glances
That love stole from me!
He is gone! he is gone!
Like the leaf from the tree:
But his heart is of stone
If it ne'er dream of me!
For I dream of him ever!
His buff coat and beaver,
And long sword, O! never
Are absent from me!

PROPOSALS

For publishing in the City of Washington, two Weekly Newspapers, (in pamphlet form.) SEE TO BE SUPPLIED
THE MECHANIC'S REGISTER,
THE OVERSEER
THE FARMER'S REGISTER.

A PORTION of the Daily Telegraph and the Mechanic Arts. Having the matter in type, we propose to make up two weekly royal sheets to contain sixteen octavo pages each; one to be entitled—The Mechanic's Register—the other, The Farmer's Register—the other, The Mechanic's Register. The Farmer's Register will contain agricultural notices, and such other matter, common to a newspaper, as will be interesting to that class from whom we derive the staff of life. The Mechanic's Register will contain such general information on Mechanics, in addition to the ordinary newspaper notices, as will render it a valuable acquisition to the library of that useful and influential class of citizens for whom it is intended. These two publications will contain no advertisements but those connected with agriculture and the mechanic arts. For these works, we ask the especial contribution of those whose avocations, in life, enable them to give practical and useful information.

The price for these will be one dollar and fifty cents per annum, paid in advance. As this sum cannot be remitted by mail, any postmaster is authorized to receive it on account, and the paper will be forwarded on his receipt.

The Editor is willing, where one individual will obtain eight or more subscribers, and remit one dollar and twenty five cents for each; to forward these papers at the rate of one dollar and twenty five cents per volume. Each volume to contain fifty two numbers.

The object of both these works will be, to place a cheap newspaper within the reach of every citizen; and, at the same time, to make it doubly interesting, by giving important information, suited to the avocations of those for whom it is intended. We admit that it is our desire that they shall find their way to the fireside of every honest citizen; and we are resolved to do all in our power to make them worthy of such favor. The Register will contain a due proportion of political matter, and in addition to the valuable information, pertaining to their special objects, which the title designates, it will embody important state papers, in a convenient form for preservation. The public mind has been much excited on the subject, and with a view to embody in a condensed form, an authentic account thereof, the first numbers will contain the correspondence between General Jackson and Mr. Calhoun; which will be followed up by the publications explaining the causes of the dissolution of the late cabinet; this embodying a mass of interesting history upon that subject, in a pamphlet form. As it is expected that many village and neighbourhood clubs will be formed for their circulation, we intend to publish a large edition of the first numbers.

Our subscribers and Agents are respectfully desired to promote the object of this address, and Editors with whom we exchange, are requested to give it an insertion in their respective papers. When they take into consideration the extra expense incurred by us, in furnishing them the report and proceedings of Congress, the request will not appear unreasonable. The favor will be reciprocated if desired. DUFF GREEN. Washington City, August 8.
