THE EARLY DEAD.

He rests—but not the rest of sleep... The rigid slumber is too deep... Death! Death! I know thee now...

CORNELIA.

EPICRAM.

On receiving a Note from a popular Actress, in dealing which, she had accidentally impressed what is popularly termed "a Kiss."

VARIETY.

We recommend the following to the particular attention of certain of our "long-winded" gentlemen of the Bar with whom length is considered strength.

From the London Morning Chronicle. In the cause of Sir M. S. Stuart and Potterfield, which was heard on Thursday, the Lord Advocate for Scotland spoke at great length, both in the opening and reply.

Lord Chancellor.—The object of reply is to correct errors or mis-statements made on the other side. If you go into new matter, they have a right to be heard again.

Lord Advocate.—It is fitting that the case should be thoroughly examined.

Lord Chancellor.—Yes, thoroughly, but then, thoroughly is not in the ratio of the length, but of the strength. It is often inversely as the length, but you have both length and strength.

A short and comprehensive Sermon—from the Portsmouth Journal of Saturday last:

Newspaper Borrowers.—Reader, if you have borrowed this paper, send it right back—as you may feel cheap after you have finished this paragraph.

If the tailor sends a new coat home to you, would you think your neighbor fair in his request for the first use of it?

If the baker leaves you a hot loaf, should you like to lend it to your neighbor and have it returned cold with the corners gnawed off?

If the penny post leaves a letter on your counter, should you think it right in your neighbor to seize it, before you had time to read it, to tally a load of potatoes on it, and thank you for the use of it some hours after he should not be so unfortunate as to lose it.

If these things are not right—then it is not right to borrow a newspaper on the day when it is published.

We have received a request from one of our subscribers to discontinue his paper for the present, for no other reason than he is plagued by borrowers.—We presume they are not such persons as he can very well deny the use of the paper. So it is with you borrower, whoever you are!

St. Clair's Defeat.—It was fifty years on Friday last, Nov. 4, since Gen. Arthur St. Clair was defeated by the Indians and British, in the Western Territory, which then was a wilderness, but which now is a populous and flourishing part of our country.

The United States Revenue.—The Washington Globe states that the United States Revenue for the present year will exceed the estimates by eight millions of dollars.—It was estimated at 23,000,000 dollars—it will be nearly 30,000,000 dollars.

I was going, said an Irishman, over Westminster Bridge the other day, and I met Pat Hewins. Hewins, says I, how are you? Pretty well I thank you Donnelly, says he—says I that's not my name. Faith, no more is mine Hewins, says he. So we looked at each other again, and sure it turned out to be neither of us.

Ladies Wanted.—A paper printed in the State of Alabama, speaks of a most deplorable and alarming scarcity of young ladies. Every respectable female, native or stranger, found there, is, as soon as possible, hurried to the hymenial altar.
