

POETRY.

LOOK NOT ON THE WINE WHEN IT IS RED.

Look not on the wine when it is red within the cup. Stay not for pleasure when she fills her tempting brackes up!

KING DEATH. The words of the following fantastic Song are by Barry Cornwall—the music by Charles Sigmond Krumpholtz.

For the coal-black wine! There came to him many a maiden, Whose eyes had forgot to shine.

VARIETY.

From the New York Courier and Enquirer.

WHAT IS MAN?—Originally dust—engendered in sin—brought forth with sorrow—helpless in infancy—extravagantly wild in his youth—mad in his manhood—decrepid in age—his first voice moves pity—his last commands grief.

Nature clothes the beast with hair—the birds with feathers, and the fishes with scales—but man is born naked—his hands cannot handle—his feet cannot walk—his tongue cannot speak.

In other words—man is a dunghill blanched with snow—a may-game of fortune—a mark for malice, a butt for envy—if poor, despised—if rich, flattered—if prudent, mistrusted—if simple, derided—his beauty, a flower—his strength, grass—his wit, a flash—his wisdom, folly—his judgment, weakness—his art, imperfection—his glory, a blaze—his time, a span—himself, a bubble.

Vulgarity.—'By the vulgar,' said Mirabeau I do not mean the mere mob but men of every class, who reflect but little. A very pointed definition and we may add, a very profound one; having no reference to the mere surface of manners, beneath which it, must be owned, inherent vulgarity of mind not unfrequently lurks—but to that due and constant exercise of the understanding, apart from which men are, in fact, no better, in reference to the great moral and intellectual end of the intelligent creation, than are the beasts who bear their burdens, or the brute elements upon which they tread,

"My dear," said a gallant to a lady, as they were returning from a musical assembly on the ice, "now if you don't O-sharp you'd be flat."

When we look at a field of wheat, we find that those stalks which raise their heads the highest are the emptiest. The same is the case with men—those who assume the greatest consequence have generally the least share of judgment and ability.

Christianity.—Christianity is a discovery of a future life, and acquaints us with the means by which its happiness may be secured; civil government is altogether an affair of the present state, and is no more than a provision of human skill, designed to ensure freedom and tranquility during our continuance on this temporary stage of existence.

It was said of a Bath physician, that he could not prescribe even for himself without a fee, and therefore, when well, he took a guinea, out of one pocket and put it into the other.

Dr. A. Blumenau,

From Hanover in Europe, and lately from Philadelphia. RESPECTFULLY informs the public, that he has located himself at the Mansion House in Salisbury, Rowan County, N. Carolina.

RECOMMENDATION. I, the undersigned, captain of the ship Amphitrite, from Amsterdam, lately arrived at this city with three hundred passengers, hereby certify that Dr. A. Blumenau, during the long voyage of 75 days, has treated the sick with the greatest care, and has proved himself in every respect, as a very humane man, and a skillful physician; and that out of seven or six, only two have died on the voyage.

PHILADELPHIA. I certify that the foregoing is correct as printed from the original Certificate, which is regularly attested before a Notary Public of Philadelphia.

Committed.

TO the Jail of Lincoln County on the 10th of August, 1831, a negro man, about 25 years of age, 5 feet 5 inches high, well formed, he speaks polite. He has a scar on his right cheek, he calls himself Nicholas, and says he belongs to Nathaniel Hops in Iredell County, North Carolina. The owner is requested to come forward, prove property pay charge and take him away.

BEEF MARKET.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the citizens of Salisbury and the public generally that he now has and intends hereafter to have good beef which he will have in market every Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday mornings. His beef is as good as that of any of his brethren and he is determined to sell it as cheap. He will pay the highest cash price for good mountain beaves, at any time.

WAGGONERS,

Driving to Fayetteville. WILL find it to their advantage, to stop at the Wagon Yard, where every convenience is provided for Man and Horse, to make them comfortable, at the moderate charge of 25 cents a day and night, for the privilege of the Yard, the use of a good house, fire, water, and shelter. Attached to the Yard, are a Grocery and Provision Store, Bread Shop and Confectionary, and a House for Boarders and Lodgers in a plain, clean, wholesome and comfortable style.—Fayetteville April, 1st 1828.

The Tennessee Spinster.

THE subscriber still continues to make the above Machines and keeps a supply constantly on hand which he will sell low for cash or on credit to punctual dealers. He likewise intends to keep on hand a good supply of COTTON GINS, and he will also repair the same to order.

Lost or Mislaid

THE first volume of Ascoug's Shakespeare. The volume is well bound and has green edges: No name is recollected to have been written in it. Any person having such a book would confer a favor on the owner by returning it to this office.

NOTICE.

BY virtue of a decree of the Hon. court of Equity, for the county of Montgomery, at last September Term of said court, I shall expose to public sale at the Court-House in Lawrenceville, on Saturday the 10th day of December next, a tract of land belonging to the heirs of Robert Moss, containing three hundred acres, situated in the County of Montgomery, on Mountain Creek, adjoining the lands of William Harris, Esq. and others. The above is supposed to be valuable from the signs of Gold which appear on it and there is water power on the premises. Persons wishing to embark in the Gold mining business would do well to attend. Twelve months credit will be given for one half of the purchase money, and eighteen months for the balance;—the purchaser giving bond and approved security.

W. J. JONES, ATTORNEY AT LAW. WILL practise in the Courts of this County, Davidson, Mecklenburg & Cabarrus. His office is a few doors below the Court-House. October 8th, 1831.

$25 REWARD.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, on the 6th of April last, a negro Girl about 27 years of age, of yellow complexion, with a scar above her eye. Said Girl has an only female child in Obatham county, belonging to a gentleman by the name of Hiram Clarke.
