

POETRY

THE FILL-GENTLEMAN'S APOLOGY.

Upraid me not—I never swore—Heralds love to thee,
For thou art only five feet high,

VARIETY.

THE DEPARTED.

The unusual number of sudden deaths during the late autumn and present winter has put far from us many of our most gifted and beautiful.

It is good to think of the dead.
They only are the wise; they have tasted the bitterness of death—and they too have inhaled the breath of another existence.

Employment, and particularly when that employment is directed to object both laudable and useful. Engels, is the most distressing complaint

"It is told of a religious recluse, who in the early ages of Christianity betook himself to a cave in Upper Egypt, which in the time of the Pharo-ahs, had been a depository for mummies,

There are, no doubt, many in this community, as well as in all others, who are enthusiasts in religion as well as in politics, whose time hangs heavy on their hands, merely because they talk more than they work.

Talents in a Napkin.—A gentleman once introduced his son to Rowland Hill, by letter, as a youth of great promise, and as likely to do honor to the University of which he was a member.

It is not in misfortunes only that woman exercises an irresistible power over men. The strongest passion in human nature is love. Female beauty alone, has often produced among men fits of momentary distraction.

IMPORTANT AND TRUE.

The Counsel at Chiefs of the Creek Nation, held near this town, has just announced. This Council, as we remarked in the last Enquirer, was convened to deliberate on the terms of a treaty recently proposed by the United States, through one of the Creek Delegation at Washington.

A BARGAIN!

LAND or SALE!
THE subscriber has three hundred acres of land, lying in a fertile section of the Forks of the Yadkin, adjoining the lands of Nathan Chaffin and others, which he will sell, on accommodating terms. The land is well situated, in a good neighborhood and convenient to a good mill. Any information respecting the land can be obtained by application to Nathan Chaffin, Esq. or to myself in Charlotte.

owner by returning it to this office. 39

PROSPECTUS.

It is proposed to publish a weekly newspaper at Chapel Hill, the village of the University of North Carolina, by the name of THE HARBINGER.

The plan has been already communicated to a number of gentlemen in different parts of the State, and we have been encouraged to the pursuance of it, by letters, not of approbation only, but of urgency. Some of the principal objects will be, with such talent as we can obtain, to diffuse literary information with correctness; to press the importance of popular and academic education, and explain their best methods directly, but with an independent freedom of structure, to discuss subjects on which it is important to enlighten the public mind, to publish events and circumstances occurring among ourselves, that deserve notice; to exhibit science in popular forms that will attract curiosity, and be generally intelligible; and to give a competent portion of the political and religious intelligence of the time, with a studious exclusion of all that is of a party character.

To conduct such a paper, will require the whole time, talent and diligence of an editor that will rank high in ability. For some time past we have been intent upon discovering a gentleman of this description who might consent to undertake it. Such a character, we fully believe, has been happily found in Mr.
William B. Chittenden, by profession an advocate in the city of New York. He is originally of our southern country, being a native of Virginia, and having been educated in one of the colleges of that state. We think we may venture to commend him to the public confidence, as qualified for the task of conducting the Harbinger.

An estimate has been made by a gentleman practically informed, comprehending every article of expense in furnishing and sustaining the necessary establishment with the admission of nothing superfluous. From this it appears that the publication can be commenced, provided 1200 subscribers can be obtained, for the first two years. If these terms, then shall be effected within a few weeks, we shall make the necessary dispositions as speedily as possible, and the issue of our first number will give notice of the beginning of the year for which the subscription is made.

It is a common complaint with the publishers of periodical works, that punctuality in remittance is less apt to be consulted in than in most other species of business. The one now proposed, we can assure the public, will be wholly without profit to any one, except the necessary remuneration to the editor, and to those he shall employ for the mechanical execution of the work. We set up no claims to the credit of liberality in making sacrifices.
But should the present plan pass into operation, we think it no improbable that emergencies may easily happen, calling upon us imper-iously to aid the establishment through temporary difficulty. With the certainty that we are to derive from it no emolument, we cannot balance an equal certainty that we may not sustain pecuniary loss. A periodical paper in all its movements must be the very terms set against time, and every experienced and reflecting man knows the truth expressed by Doctor Johnson, that he who enters the lists with time for his antagonist, must toil with diligence not to find himself beaten. Every one who favors the Harbinger with his patronage, we hope will do it with presence of mind to the importance of fidelity in his remittance. On this establishment must depend for its support. The editor with his assistants, whether they shall succeed or not, in fulfilling the expectations of the public, will give no pledge at least, that if there be disappointment, it shall not be chargeable to relaxation of effort on their part. Just their intention to conduct the business, that the accounts of receipts and disbursements may satisfy every one, that they ask no more from their subscribers than is really necessary for its support. Frank explanation they will be ever ready to give, and in such a manner as we may venture to pledge shall be satisfactory.

We would not enlarge on the qualities of the publication we proffer, even to excite in the bosoms of our fellow citizens a disposition to give it countenance and support, lest while consulting the subject, we might seem to expose ourselves to the charge of making vantous promises, or raise expectations too high for us to fulfil. But that a paper of such a character as has perhaps been already imagined in the mind of our readers, is desirable in our state, we cannot but think few will deny.

One reason why the subscription is high at first, is the necessity of furnishing the printing establishment as an outfit. The cost of this will not be less than seven hundred and fifty dollars, it may possibly be something more.
The continuance of this outfit, during the year, will explain the probability that the operation of this first year, the paper may be continued at four dollars per annum, if not a less sum.

It still remains to inform our friends, that the gentleman to whom we look to be our editor, having become successfully established in his professional practice in the city of New York, cannot feel himself justified in relinquishing his prospects, unless a pledge can be given that the paper shall be sustained for two years. If his services are to be secured, it must be by a competent number of subscribers at five dollars for the first year, and possibly four or less for the second.

It is now to be determined after this explanation, whether the publication we propose shall be patronized by a sufficient number of subscribers to warrant its commencement. We request of those gentlemen to whom this prospectus is sent, and of others who may be disposed to promote the object, and they will consent to act for us in obtaining subscribers, either the ourselves personally, or by some friend who may be willing to undertake the task.
And we would hope that these papers may be returned by mail, or some other conveyance, in the course of a month, that the question may be resolved as early as possible, whether the plan we propose is to pass into operation or not.

CONDITIONS SUBSCRIBERS WILL STATE.
1. The payment from each subscriber will be five dollars in advance, and five dollars and a half if not in made till after six months from the time of subscription, for the first year. For the second year, it will not be more, possibly it may be less than four dollars in advance, and four dollars and a half after six months.
2. The date of the first paper sent to a subscriber will be considered as the beginning of the year for which he subscribes.
3. The paper will be issued once a week, on a folio sheet, with good type, and not more than two columns allowed to advertisements.
4. We cannot stipulate at present that the publication shall commence, unless 1200 subscribers shall be obtained for two years.
5. All letters addressed to post paid to "The Harbinger," at Chapel Hill, N. Carolina.
These are such terms as we are able to offer, after having employed our best efforts upon the object for some months past, we are not ungrateful that they will be accepted. We can only say, that if competent encouragement should be afforded to the Harbinger it is not to be doubted that under the management of the editor we have proffered, it will be high in rank among the periodical publications of the United States. Should it fall in obtaining the necessary patronage, we shall not regret the time, exertion, or expense, which have been employed in the enterprise.

Chapel Hill, February 24, 1832.

TAILORING!

H-RACE-H BEARD, RESPECTFULLY informs the public that he has recently received, and will continue to receive regularly, as they are published, the London and New York Fashions, from A.
F. Saguens, of New York. Therefore, he is prepared to accommodate his customers in a neat and fashionable style. For durability, taste and fashion, his work far surpasses any done in this County. A very important object to the customer is, that he cuts out of 1 1/2 yards and uses less trimmings than any Tailor in the place, which is worthy of consideration.
N. B. All garments made by the subscriber, will be warranted to fit.
141 HORACE H. BEARD.
Salisbury, 1832.

NOTICE.

THE Subscriber has lately purchased of
A. B. Daniels, Esq. of Va. by whom he was bred, one half of the thorough bred horse Godolphin Eclipse, rising four years old, sixteen hands high; possessing a large share of bone and muscle; in colour, form and size, resembling his sire, the celebrated American Eclipse; whose pedigree it is unnecessary to mention—as he is universally known to be of the best speed and bottom in the United States; having beaten Sir Charles and Sir Henry out of $20,000.
Godolphin's Dam was sired by old Archie, and her Dam by M. d'evy.
Godolphin Eclipse is untrained, but thought by Judges to be equal to any in the world. He will stand at my stable only.

terms, See Hand-Bills.

MILL AND BOATS

ON the 6th of January last, there was a letter Mailed at Mount Pisgah P. O. at the end of the route N.
2135, directed to Robert Dana-way Lancaster Court-House, Virginia and signed by George Flowers, which said letter contained one half of a $50 U. S. bill No. 708, the right hand end of which is signed by S. Cheves President which is now in the possession of the said Flowers.—Also the right hand end of a $100 bill U. S.
Paper No. 3960 the left hand end of which is signed by W. McVivine Cashier, which is also in the hands of said Flowers. The above mentioned letter has been taken out of the Mail Bag by some means—supposed by slipping the strap which confines it.
A certain boy named Alfred Wallis who was mail carrier at the time and who has since absconded is supposed to be guilty of the offence. The said Wallis is about 16 years of age, light complexion and stout of his age. A reward of $50 will be given for his apprehension and prosecution to conviction.

New Goods!

DANIEL H. GIBBS is just receiving a full and select supply of Goods, which with his former stock, comprises every article usually kept in a Country Store, which he will sell low for cash or on a short credit, to punctual dealers. The public are respectfully requested to call and judge for themselves.
He also continues the manufacture of Hessian and Tr. Wax, warranted to be made of the best materials, and in a superior style of workmanship. Having a very large stock of Tr. Wax ware on hand and being determined to sell it at reduced prices, merchants would do well to call on him and get their supply.
Old Copper, Pewter, Feathers' Tallow, Bees-wax, and Wool, taken in exchange.
