Ca Mr. Van Buren, or his friends, complain if we observe towards him the same line of conduct? But, sir, we are told that we must consult the wishes of the Republican party-and to accomplish that, we are recommended to pursue a policy which we are confi 'ent must result in the promotion of Mr. Van Buren. We must forego the claims of our favourite, and the acknowledged favourite of our genatiquents. Sir, with what grace can his request be preferred ! Have we been encouraged in this noble disinterestedness, by the generous example f Mr. Van Buren? When did he sacrifice his own aggrandizement to sustain the integrity of the Republican P etv ? Sir, in the darkest hour of the R public-in the day of our greatest peril -- when we were exposed to the hazard of war-when hostile flect hovered in our coast, and our very soil was polluted by the daring tread of a invading foe - what was the aid and comfort extended by Mr. Van Buren to the Republican P .. v? We have noticed, in silence, for some time toward of the Globe, the organ of We, Von Buren, to create the impression that Van Bir was ponu ar in V. C ; that the people of this State disapproved of his rejection by the Sangt - as minister to Great Brittain; antt that they would vare for him for Vice. President. We have beretofore been silent, because we thought, the known character of the Editors of that prict (two of whom were once the proteges of Mr. Dlav, would thwart all their attend to to glorate Mr Van Buren in the public estimation But test our silence might be construed into an acquirecence in the truth of the Clobe's assertiers, we will now deny the truth of either of the above declarations. We deav 1st that he is popular in this State. He is not popular in M. Carolina because he once opposed the Re Bublican candidate for Bresident (Mr. Madison) and a sed for the Federal candidate Mr. Clinton; He is not popular in this State, because he is the friend of the Tariff and of appropria. Rions for internal improvement by the general government, we do not like him here, because be is in favor of creating from and distributing among the States, a surplus fund; We do not like him, because he once opposed the election our venerable chief magistrate and after wards supported him, in order to get an office which he did get. We do not like him, in fine, because he has not one single feeling in common with the people of the South.

deny the second allegation of the Globe that the people of this State disapproved of his rejection by the Senate of the U. States. So. far are they from disaproving of his nomination, that they think the Senate did perfectly right cause. in rejecting a man of his character, who, to addition to the facts already mentioned, attempted to tarnish the unsulfied name of our country, in his instructions to Mr. McLane, and who in order to secure the succession to the Presidency has prescribed every one who would not offer at his shrine the inscence of praise and adula" dion, and has accused all such as being enemies to General Jackson, when in fact they were atauding by his side at a time, when this same 'ma was calling him a " military chieftain, a frie od of Aaron Burr." and all that kind of thing, for the purpose of defeating his election and sacuring that of W.
