CITY OF LONDON.—A Court of Common Council, especially summoned, was held on Thursday at Guildhall, in consequence of a resolution most unanimously signed, for the purpose of taking into consideration what measures should be adopted in consequence of the proceedings in the House of Lords upon the Reform Bill.

Mr. Fallows then read the resolutions, which were, in substance, as follows:—That the Court had heard with great regret and disappointment the extraordinary and distressing communication made by ministers, that his Majesty had refused to them the means of carrying through the House of Lords the Reform Bill, which had been passed by a large majority of the House of Commons, and which was required by an overwhelming majority of the people.

It may be mentioned that Mr. P. was allowed to fall by one height—from six inches to fifty feet, and upwards. The principle is also thought to be applicable to steam as well as to water machinery.

Mr. P. is understood to desire to take out a patent of his invention immediately. A more full description will then probably be presented to the public, and means be taken to exhibit conclusively its utility.

Philip P. Barbour is now fairly before the people of the United States, as a candidate for the Vice-Presidency. On the first page of this week's paper will be found the proceedings of the Virginia and North Carolina State Conventions at each of which he was nominated for the office of Vice President.

WELLINGTON.—Mr. Baring, Chancellor of the Exchequer, East-India Company, President of the Council, Lord Hill, Commander-in-Chief, Lord Robert Peel, Home Secretary, Lord Wharfedale, Postmaster of the Forces, Lord Althorpe, Secretary of State, Lord Ellenborough, Board of Control, Lord Privy Seal, Earl of Rosslyn, First Lord of the Admiralty, Duke of Buckingham, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, Sir James Scarlett, Attorney General, Sir Edward Sugden, Solicitor General, Lord Lyndhurst, Master of the Rolls, Lord Chancellor, Sir John Leach, Ditto, Sir W. Hardinge, Secretary at War, Mr. Hume, &c.

FOR THE WESTERN CAROLINIANS.—The present age has been aptly styled, the Mechanical age. Probably, during no other equal period of time, have so many and such valuable improvements in the useful arts, been made, as within that portion which has elapsed of the present century.

By reference to the second page of our paper, it will be seen that the Cholera has made its appearance on the continent of America. We have seen no account however, of its appearance in the U. S.

Since the foreign news, which appears in another column of our paper, has been, in some instances, we have seen papers containing some one day later. They state that the Duke of Wellington was unable to form a Tory Cabinet, and that Earl Grey had been retained as Premier.
