as it is their interest to keep her, she shall not go, no matter how much she may desire it. seh as balls, and music, -though, they, God knows we wish to see no State second so celify the music of our balls quite as from the Union; we wish to see the Union pre-

as what they have been accustomed to o "ane," before they even reach South Car-

the so generally considered. The dayshey

e to keep their predacestors company

give the whole of it without division.

ANOTHER MESSAGE.

eits. Possibly some of them may wish served, and devously hope it will be preserved and subsist for revolving ages to come .- but when back in " Pearl Street," and " Maiof one thing we are certain ;-it never can be preserved by force :- there is but one way to preserve it. . h F deral Government do be serious, the feelings of every true justice,-yes equal pustice to all parts of the and Southern man, should swell with country, and men nothing can destroy the and indignation, at the imperimence of Union ;- and without this nothing can preis city brangarts, these "dandy facks." serve it. blustering is aminunit to the whole South, beir foot on South en ground with arms in will be the day that they will begin to * * * * * The propi of Rowan bave done the dust," and, not many of them will ever well in protesting in this deliberate and solemn form against this unconstitutional system of op-Is it not outrageous, that the people of the pression; I wish the whole state would "do both, should be thus threatened, by those likewise," Our oppressors would then have the lave fattened on Southern labors Do they no ground to say, and even to bear, that North on by these menages to bush our complaints. Caroling was fast becoming a tar II state. At 18 General Jackson had any friends who support voke, without a home, we know it is not so, and the no state is t d him from prin iple purely, without regard med - We must not only be slaves, but we more decided opposed to the Tariff; abroad, he silent slaves [1 If in a strange coinci- newever a different spinion is entertained, ...

Washington City & mary 13, 1933.

what during the Revolutionary War, a Congress is now engaged in dismosing the of Torice come all the way fro. New Bill (Tariff) reported by the Committee of South Caroling, to fight for KING Was and Means. The Tariff men alone mak-GE, and high taxes, -not many of them speeches. The southern members, have de-Preturned; If this new squad comes, it will termined not to discuss it. They cannot hope to throw any additional hight upon this subject, the liberies of this country No and the times demand astian, we feel that the other man besides General Jackson could prof the Walker pamphlet on the subject of sta permitted, therefore to touch upon a to Tariff party have the destinies of the country in mulge such doctrines and live in the South. The fresidential the Colver States, has transgreat to Congress, the Capenance of South upon them the responsibility of rejecting the together with all the other papers bill. The Bill is one which, if it pam, will afford by throw them both into the bands of one or with the subject. He has accome substantial relief. If it pass, as reported, it will two empire states. with a very long Memag . beta great improvement upon the principles of list g made upour fire form, before the Mes, the Bill of 1832. It restores a moderate revenwe come to land, we are constrained to defer ue duty upon many of the furnise of life, which Lyon the ponalty of $1000 mid by him under should next seek, when we hope were made free of duty by the bill of last see the Alien and Sedition Law I should not be sion, while it brings down the duty open the surprised if the whole dectrine of '98 The greater part of the Message is made up protected articles to the standard of 1816 and six on the Ordinance and other meain rome instances much below that scale; one and of South Carolina also also recommends valuable feature in the bill is that it rejects both Congress certain measures to be adopted by the minimum and the per centum principle, and counteracting the operation of the acts imposes a duty of so many dollars for every laboratory in motion.

These measures all probundeed dollars worth , this will enable eve y

M. Clays land. Bill hundred dollars worth; this will enable even body to understand the amount of taxation imhundred dollars worth; this will enable eve v exercised or, not, at his discretion. He many words, recommend the posed upon them. was all a mere hoax? and who can doubt, that latter drafted the proclamation and the former is very clear from the tenor of the docuthat his whole having is in that direction. but for the stand made against it by members subscribes to its doctrines? See gioria mundi from the South, it would have scaled our fate trungs. By feares the right of a State to as eds. as forever I trad the supported that bill, and been which no somehern state will ever give up. leaviers Government, than we believe they been heard through our borders; it would have When the reading of the Message was find hushed Josepher. They knew the vote-was a shed in the Scoute, Mr. Calhogn, tone, and said perilous one to them personally, but prompted in the Scoute, Mr. Calhogn, tone, and said the should prove recreans to his duty if he ted by the spirit of a generous patriotism, they and notation the very first opportunity to deep looked alone to these countries went regardless ain estiments made in the M stage "He of consequences to the marives. Thank God be had understood the Chief Mugistrate they had constituents intelligent enough to unas we that the object of South Carolina, not- derstand the wisdom of their course, and gensading her remeated declar tions to the group enough properly to appreciate it. The saled Mr. C. Mr. Callions paining, saked, do I Congress who passed that Bill are builty en-sale that part of the message correctly I if I great, even before it common feet, in passing ment, are determined not to submit to any thing beyond it ! Let the fame of those whose names have been importalized in history by resistance to improper taxation, and whose memories to all future time have been cherished in the me n? Doon to forget that he is rest question. But what does this unwillingness to ultion, or, is be about to become reduce taxes show ! Does it not show who I'w Libourer sich the infamous GARRE ave and who receives? If these manufacturers were conscious that they paid these taxes, they of Universal Emancipation?" The truth would be the last people in the world to go to war to enforce their collection.

Of the Proclamation I have not time to say much. vou will perceive from his or an bere, and from his "Richmond" correspondents' that he has repudiated many lic meeting for free a comparison be of the inevitable inferences drawn from the proclamation. I have no doubt he repents which he like an unio two boys at vented itself deeply and sincerely of ever having published, chool. T. NORTH he said was like government it. Take my word for it-he will never at. an industrial, mo it hard studying, and tempt to practise upon its principles. There hard sorange boy, and therefore go will be no war if St. th Carolina should secone, along very well indeed : but the South to the spoils of office, they were his southern friends. These with very few exceptions would grand in one solid phalanx against any attempt to coerce by military power a secoding state. The idea of military spercion is to me a most abhorrent one. The first tap of the drum in such a conflict would be the funeral knell of liberty, and our property, and would ultimate-

In the House on Saturday a debate sprung up on the bill to refund to the heirs of Matthew brought is review upon that bill, Mr. Burg- s has taken the Book. It will not come up area under a week. In that time he can dutil good deal of poison, He doubtless will but he

Mr Clays land Bill will have the Senate hick's will be lost in the House. It is well understood here that Stevenso will go minis-Who, now doubts that the bill of last session for to England and Livingston to Prance. The

Carolina with the greatest spire, and alacrity. lication of the Peoclamation, are now forning | Fur be it from me to quote these by the he State-rights men, and turning out as refunecompany volunteered. The Proclamation, is, propriety might I quote the remarks of logue took place. stead of dividing the people of South Caruffin is uniting them. A person at our elbow saks, what is the object of all this voluntegeing? We answer, it is not, were in the Dispose and opinion to the Course course of the course course course from the course course course from the course of the course o lay it before our men from the slave, he PAUCLAMATION ... College, and at the Mills If any citizen of where the discipline is rig ticle without astonishthe Army and Navy. It is tre greatly deceived. wondered at, that men who ated in a Northern paner. rested in the notion; that they w to rule with the rod, should be r would have denounced it under authority; and should even ca oqualified reprobation; will spirit of insubordination into the c ate such publications here it cits of the country. Nor is it matter wonder that Nullification, which we ca ident "a southern man" feele at but regard as a spirit of opposition to a man ought to feel at this outrage. regular government, should claim its or ign from pampered Nabobs or declining fordlings; but the wonder is, that plate ou do a subscriber the favou unpretending men, of industrious and rein your paper, an editoria gular habits, should fall into the schemes, of their domineering slave driving neigh-Proclamation - . Ville fica bors. We do not mean to say, that the Lwish is published that possession of slaves in all cases produces mainciples of H C Jones this unchastened spirit of miscule to hay be more generally known than they are. I think no Southern man can read this acticle from the pen of Mr. Jones. most cases where the number is tews mey are treated as inmates, of the family and affection often mitigates the right of with calm feelings. In the name of combeir condition, aud prevents, the de bauching tendency of slavery; in some other cases, even where the establish ments are large, correct education, and entighten d principles of morality counteract this disgusting effect. But at a ge neral rule, it is nevertheless true, as we have asserted. It is the rank spirit of is M., Jones seems to have no feelings in Aristocracy, originating in the corrupcommon with the people of the South loos of slavery that has given the lead to but takes all his opinions from a certain Nullification; - Gorged and fatted indodescription of papers published at the leuce, in all ages, and countries, more North. Many of the people of Rowan especially where the means of revely will recollect that not long ago in A gub are about to be taken away from the sen sualists has associated itself with figner ween the Norts and the South in power and intoler

have often noticed t

In its c aracter,

ave-holding population !

S WESTERS CAROLINIAS.

Aust MC reofina Warrhro

son & Lunny Editors of the "G was like a lagy, lousy hov, who had conder at his conduct !

cad directly to such a result.

ich, and was too triffing to work, but

We tunk God, that this deprayed result of slavery has yet extended but little that the pure love of country, and devotion to good order have so far counter-acted this Madagascar poison in our spent of its time in scratching, and quar veiner There is get a hope, that before elling, and herefore could not get along, the full time of its destroying energy With such sen im ats as those, can we shall come, that the wisdom: and virtue of America will have expelled it from

But it is now plain, that not satisfied her avalem with advocating a system which taxes ess, he is deterred from so doing by the fear of the law, he will soon go still fur ther and adverses the right of Congress has already advocated principles that To show your readers how closely Mr. meeting lately held in Boston a lec-

Le any one compare this with M. lones' remark, and see how closely they to amart under its consequences, while A other writer says - Slavery is the

be abolished, or, the Union destroyed."

muss be loftfied off!

A sugger one says -" that if they can succeed in puring South Carolina down. the emancipation of the slaves will follow of he South 4-but the whole comes from many of them such as Gerrison & Lundy are very bad men and hence it is the first if so, I will take it, cost what it may to Congue the United States, as a Pariff Editor, more criminal in a Southern Editor, to ance enlisted under ambition, and finally vented itself in efforts to destroy virtuous

We are Southern in birth, education he people of the South for the benefit of and feeling but not so far as to diminish he Nowhern manufacturers, -he must a primary and superceding devotion to also propogate the seditious opinions of our country as a nation. We may be very. It is now very vident, that an pice ogainst the discussion of which, the ly, with the usual describe. Yankees are gagged. However, it may displease the purse proud and arrogan - we are bold to attribute these high to set the negroes free, and in fact, he reaching and disorganising principles to the existence of slavery. None but they who if sleep soft and wake merrily? who are fed sumptuously, and clothed proudnes is tracking alter certain morbid by by the labors of others, would have misguided philanthropiats at telever thought of such involent resistance North, I will here give you a few ex to law or if they had, would have been racts from some of their publications rac reckless as to avow it. Ages might have rolled awair and have been lost to ours was delivered by exertsin Rev. Simon | memory, before the strait forward hard Jacetta, in which he declares that the working people of Pennsylvania or Mas grand feature of Nullification,-its real sachusaits, would have thought of such Shvery,-that Slavery must sophistical delusion. It is no poor man's -no plain man's doctrine any wherebut should they embrace it they will have the rich will skiden themselves with their wealth, we therefore beseech the mague in our political system, which honesy of yeomancy, to leave it to those who weer" purple and fine linen."

FOR THE WESTERN CARGLINGAN

Mr. Edur and The following is an actual fact, and you may give it as such. Two men, Mr. A: and Mr. B., mat in the public road he other general sentiment of the northern peo day, and after some talk about the Tariff, South feers, -in one instance a Captain and his whole ple ; such is not the case ; with as much Carolina and Nullification, the following dis-> recommend to me a newspaper, that prints side. B. I cant my that I our name one

Georgi ROWANT

JOU will parade Salisbury, on Frie of February pest, at 10 ped in the uniform of the Those who do not attend, et may rest assured that the law wa enforced against them. By order of the C ptain.

J. OWENS, O. S.

Jan. 26, 1833.

DAVID L. POOL WATCH & CLOCK MAKER AND JEWELLER,

RESPECTIVILL informs the Cuisens of Salisbury and of the circumfacent c unties, that I c has returned from P. lac delphia, w cre he aca quired a competent practical kno-le edge of his art, and established his business in this town, in the reorment lately occupied by Mr. Benjamin Praley, Tailor, one door above Messra, Hackett & Lemly's Store, His work will be executed skilfully and perfects will be done in a t, as aful sun elegant style, not surpassed by any artist in this part of the country.

ENG BAVIND

Chaigs, Seals & Revs. Boer-Bointed Beneils and Leabs. on hand for the accommodation () his patrons : also a good assorting

WATCH MATERIALS among which are Patent, Plain, and GLASSES.

Mr. Pool, flattering himself with his ability to do his work well, respects fally solicits a share of the patronage of those who have use for bir skill He, however, asks at least a still 80tf ...

Schisbury, 1832

Strayed,

F ROM the Subscriber, to the upper part of Cabarus C unty awas 3 miles from Mill Grove Post Office, on the 15th just, a very dank BAY MARE, about & years old, 15 hauds think of the times, for the Merspapers tell so high, a white apor in the face, and percer our class of misgoided & slots .- many toler that I cant say how it is to-Can you hape a little marked with the Saddle, was shod on the fore feet when she left home. She was raised in Haywood county and it is likely she in