THE HORRIBLE BRED HORSE

WILL stand the coming season at Boyles Farm, Lincoln County. He was gotten by the justly Celebrated RACE HORSE and breeder old Sir Achilles His dam, a fine blooded mare—her pedigree can be traced to many of the most distinguished racers of the day. As to Sir Achilles, his reputation, and that of his colts, and their descendants, are so well established, that it is scarcely necessary to say any thing at the present day, as they have been among the most successful distance horses, in the States of Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia and Tennessee, for the last fifteen years.

RIOT.

Is a handsome bay, five feet three inches high—four years old next spring. It is thought that he will make a good breeder, as his form and blood are both good. Particulars made known in due time. H. G. BURTON. R. A. BURTON. December 31st 1832.

NEW BINDERY.

WITH a view to the more efficient prosecution of their business, the Subscribers have established a BOOK-BINDERY. Account Books, Records, &c. ruled and made to order; and every kind of Binding promptly executed in the best and neatest manner, on reasonable terms. J. GALES & SON. Raleigh, Dec. 2. 1832.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19 1832. Office of the Commissioners under the Convention with Denmark.

THE Board of Commissioners had hoped to close the adjustment of claims under the Convention with Denmark, during their present session, but having received several applications for re-hearing, and being anxious to afford to claimants every possible chance of establishing their claims, in those cases, and in others, where there was a deficiency of proof have determined to adjourn until the first day of March, 1833, and as there is but one month after that period allowed by law for the final settlement of claims and distribution of the funds, it has become necessary to order, and NOTICE is hereby given, that no application for rehearing or for filing original or supplemental memorials, or the introduction of proof, will be received after the first day of March, 1833. By order: 5164 ROBT. FULTON, Sec'y.

Union of the Evening POST AND BULLETIN.

On the first Saturday in January 1833, the Bulletin will be united with Atkinson's Saturday Evening Post. The publisher of the Bulletin has felt for a considerable time past, the duties and labors of its publication a burden from which he was anxious to be relieved, as well from ill health as other causes; and determined to close his duties as a publisher, he has succeeded in making an arrangement with Mr. Atkinson of the Saturday Evening Post, which he fully believes will be agreeable to all parties. The patrons of the Bulletin will be greatly the gainers by this transaction. The Saturday Evening Post has maintained for eleven years an enviable reputation among periodicals. The untiring industry of its Editor, by which he has weekly crowded his ample columns with the most interesting tidings of the times, has been amply proved, and his successful exertions have been repaid by a constant accession of subscribers now exceeding fourteen thousand.

The Post is already of larger dimensions than the Bulletin, and it will be still further greatly increased in size at the time of the union of the two papers. Renewed exertions will be made to improve the character of the Saturday Evening Post & Bulletin, in order that it may obtain as a keep the first stand among American periodicals, for quantity and quality of matter, neatness and tasteful arrangement—beauty of printing, and superior quality of paper.

Notwithstanding the great number of copies to be published weekly, which after the union will exceed 30,000, the facilities of printing, on two superior power presses, will enable the proprietor to present to his readers the very latest intelligence, and his mammoth sheet will afford ample space for the important state papers that are weekly divulged in consequence of the critical state of affairs at home and abroad, without curtailing the amusing miscellany prepared for the sentimental and the lovers of wit and amusement—the agriculturalist and the man of science—the politician or the fireside circle—and affording advertisers a medium of communicating their wishes to the public unvarnished by any other similar vehicle in the United States—having by far the greatest circulation of any newspaper through all the States and Territories, but more particularly through the States of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland and Delaware.

As but few papers after the union will be printed over the actual number required for subscribers, it will be advisable for those who wish to commence with the new and improved series, to forward their names early accompanied by the cash for a year's subscription, free of postage— as the publisher is determined to make his paper more intrinsically valuable than any other, to receive only good and punctual subscribers. He is determined to exact a strict compliance with his terms, and those who are not able or willing to comply with them, must seek elsewhere for amusement and instruction.

The nominal price of the Post & Bulletin will be the same as for many years past. From all who pay in advance, two dollars will be thankfully received; but if not paid within six months from the annual commencement, $2.50 will be required. If not paid during the year, three dollars will be insisted on, and compulsory measures adopted towards delinquents—$1.25 will be received for six months subscription in advance, but never a less sum.

The present Editor of the Bulletin will continue to give his services to the united paper.
