MISCELLANY.

The following letter was written by Dr. Frankated for publication by the perin, and count on who received it :

"April 22, 1784. "I send you herewith a bill for ten Louis-d'ore; I ties. Persons wishing to be supplied, had better do not pretend to give such a sum, I only lend it to you. When you shall returns to your country you cannot fail of getting into some business that will, in time, cuable you to pay all your debts. In that case, when you meet with another housest man in similar distress, you must pay me by leading this sum to him, enjoining him to discharge the debt by a like operation when he shall be able, and shall meet with such another opportunity. I hope it may thus go through many hands before it meets with a knase to stop its progress. This is a trick of mine for doing a deal of good with a little money. I am not rich enough to afford much in good Colewert work, and so am obliged to be earning and make the most of a little."

THE BEST WAY TO BE HAPPY.

Never ait down and brood over trouble of any kind. If you are vexed with yourself or the world, this is no way to obtain satisfaction. Find yourself employment that will keep your mind active, and depend upon it this will force out nowelcome thoughts.

Who are the poor ! Are they the industrious !-Those who labor, provided their gains are small, have generally a feeling of independence with that little, akin to the rich man's treasure

Who are the unhappy 1 Are they not those who are insetive, and sit still, and tell us that, if fortune had only thrown this and that in their way, they should have been far happier !

It seems to me there is a great defect in the conduct of the unfortunate. If we are deprived of ordinary resources, instead of looking round and substituting other things, are we not prone to sit down and mourn over what we have lost ! This deadens the energies, kills the activity of our nature, and makes us aseless drones when we should be workbees.

ides this, indolence sets fancy at work, and presently we imagine ourselves to be in a condition that unfits us for work. We get the habit of observing the hange of the wind, we feel our pulses, look at our. tongues, and in a short time become regular dyspeptics. Industry then, preserves health, as well as happiness.

Bob Short's Maxims .- If a young man changes his politics from the strong side to the weak, at the age of twenty-five, he may be safely trusted as an honest man, for ten years afterwards.

Being on the weak side, if he maintain his political opinions at thirty-five, he may be trusted for five years longer. If, at the end of this time, he still maintains his opinions, signingst the opinions of the majority, you may trust him for life, with bushels of diamond; and compute his worth at double the deposite.

The young man who changes from the weak side to the strong at twenty-two, will sell himself for six and a quarter cents at thirty : and will not find a bidder of this much, at forty. If he changes back again at thirty, (the parties being reversed.) set the dogs on him, if ever you see him approaching your house-if they'll condesend to run him.

The intelligent man who has no opinion upon an exciting subject, is in the rogues school, and will be sure to graduate with it's first honors.

Judge Crawford said, "no honest man ever changed his political opinions, after thirty-five." (Meaning, of course, from the weak side to the strong.) He was in error. About one in six millions does change at that age, honestly,

The young man who is a great electioneerer at twenty-three, will be hung at thirty-three, if justice be done him.

The proportion of honest to dishonest politicians, are as one to twenty thousand. He who serves three years in BECKWITH'S Anti-Dyspeptic Pills.

THOSE who are afflicted with HEAD-ACHES, HEART-BURNS, and other distressing symp toms of disordered stomach, bowels, and liver, find relief in Dr. Beckwith's Anti-Dyspeptie F which can be had at this Office-price

The Doctor, who once resided in this place, now lives in Raleigh, has, after a long and en sive practice, been enabled to compound a most hable remedy for the chronic diseases of the digestive organs, so common in Southern climates, specially with those who lead sedentary lives.

It would be an easy matter to make out certificates to prove that these Pills are a "sovereign remedy " for "all the ills that flesh is heir to;" but

A new Blast.— A new paper has been started at Chestertown, Maryland, called the "Kent Bugle;" the first number of which we received yesterday. It discourses good music, for it is a Whig instrument, and proposes to blow nothing but Whig airs. We are particularly pleased with the overture, and hope the performer may always keep in as good tune and as good time as in this, his first ef-

Punishment for smoking in the Street.-Burnes. n his travels in Central Asia, in his discription of Bokhara, a large city, states, " You may openly purchase tobacco, and all the most approved appa-natus for inhaling it ; yet, if seen smoking in public, you are straightway dragged before the the Cadee, punished by stripes, or paraded on a donkey with blackened face, as a warning to others." This is a good hint to Europeans; for the prevalence of amoking in the streets of our towns is a great nuisince. Mathews, in his recent budget, has a hit. at the common practice, and says, "the dandies darken London by smoking cigars in the streets."

Advertising .- No wonder the New York papers thrive so finndsomely-they each contain every day two or three hundred new advertisements.-Persons who have their interest at heart will not Begrudge the triffing sum which an advertisement may cost-it not only brings merchants, tradesmen, chanics, &c., into public notice and procures them business, but gives a thriving feature to the Parallel of the Sexes.-Man is strong-Woman beautiful. Man is daring and confident-Woman is diffident and unassuming. Man is great in acon-Woman in auffering. Man shines abrond-Woman at home. Man talks to convince-Woman to persuade and please. Man has a rugged heart-Woman a soft and tender one. Man prevents misery-Woman relieves it. Man has science-Woman taste. Man has judgment-Woman sensibility. Man is a being of justice-Woman of mercy.

A great woman not imperious-a fair woman not vain-a woman of common talents not jealous-an accomplished woman who scorns to shine-are four wonders just great enough to be divided among the four quarters of the globe.

A Base Libel on the Fair Sex .- Talking of age, the longer women live, the younger they grow. I know Indies who, six years ago, were rated a 35, and now stand at 29. It is next to impossible for a woman to get over 40. This is pons asino rum, at which the sex invariably stick. The only person I ever met with who confessed that she had eed this barrier, was an old lady of 80.
