SUPPORT YOUR OWN PRINTERS!

Reading an article headed "Support your own Mechanics," has induced us to throw together a few remarks on the habit of the people of the West...

In soliciting subscribers for our own paper, some individuals have said to us—"Oh, I can get the Saturday Courier for the same price you charge for yours, and it's got more in it than your paper."

We go against the Courier too because it is an Eastern paper. We want to see Western literature and Western periodicals encouraged.

We presume that no one will say that a newspaper is of no advantage to the town or county in which it is printed. Why then not foster and cherish them in preference to those printed at a great distance from their own?

The above remarks apply, with equal force, to the whole Western and Southern country. We have often been surprised to see with what avidity the little editors of the whole interior country catch at the long advertisements of Eastern and Northern publications...

MARRIAGES.—I have a theory of marriages.—There should be none—or few in Autumn. Spring, when nature puts on "her mantle of green," trimmed with flowers, is the appropriate season for the youthful and romantic—the fresh in heart and hope; Summer for the more mature, worldly, and light-hearted; Winter for the cold and prudent—those who lack additional cash and comfort—from whose vocabulary "bliss has long been expunged," and "convenience" substituted in its place.

FILIAL DUTY.—There is no virtue that adds so noble a charm to the finest traits of beauty, as that which exerts itself in watching over the tranquility of an aged parent. There are no tears that give so noble a lustre to the cheek of innocence, as the tears of filial sorrow.

CHARACTER.—Among the zealous and devoted Christians who were raised to do good in the world through Whitefield's instrumentality, was a man by the name of Hogg, a grazer and large butcher in Gloucestershire. His character for integrity was so thoroughly appreciated that even the irreligious farmers in the neighborhood often said to him in dealing: "Mr. Hogg, we know you will give us the value of our cattle; you are the best judge of the proper price; take them, and pay us what you think them worth."

THE NEW YEAR.—This being the day of all the days in the year for burying old grudges, recent antipathies, spite, envy, malice, and all uncharitableness in the ocean of oblivion, we have, as far as possible, excluded all politics from our columns. For this day, at least, we are non-combatant. We forgive the Tories and the Agrarians, the Utopians and the Fanatics, with the single exception of the Immediate Abolitionists. The Lord forgive us! but we cannot forgive them.—Courier & Eng.

EDUCATIONS RISE.—A precious youth in a county in Massachusetts, had arrived to the age of nine years, when his father sent him to school. He stood beside his teacher, to repeat the letters of the alphabet. "What's that?" asked the master—"Harrow," vociferated the urchin. "No, that's A." "A." "Well, what's the next?" "Ox yoke." "No, that's B." "Taint B, neither, it's an ox yoke; catch all hemlock! Gosh ninety! I think I don't know!"—Boston Transcript.

VALUABLE LANDS In the Market!

BY Virtue of a Deed of Trust to me executed, by William Dismukes, for the purposes therein expressed, I will expose to Public Sale, in the Town of Wadesboro, on Tuesday, the 14th day of April next, (it being the week of Anson County Court,) the following TRACTS OF LAND:

ONE TRACT, Containing 250 Acres, Lying on the Gold Mine Branch, known by the name of the Pinion Land; this Tract has GOLD on it, as several pieces have been found by Mr. Dismukes and others; the soil is suitable to the growth of Corn, Wheat, and Cotton.

ONE TRACT, CONTAINING 95 ACRES, The one-third interest, the other two-thirds belonging to Jacob Austin, and the heirs of Jonathan Austin, which can be bought on reasonable terms. This Tract contains the celebrated Gold Mine where a piece of Gold weighing 26 lbs. was found. This Mine has yielded upwards of Ten Thousand Dollars worth of Gold without the aid of machinery. I am confident this amount, or more, could be gotten from this mine, if properly worked by men of science, and the knowledge of Mining.

ONE TRACT, Containing 200 Acres, Known as the Roe Tract. This is good for all descriptions of grain, and well improved.

ONE TRACT, Containing 100 Acres, Known as the Jesse Barnett Tract; it is excellent Land and under good improvement.

One Tract, Containing 145 Acres, Known as the John Holly Land, adjoining Richard Rodgers and Archibald Lacey; this is second rate Land. A Credit of Nine Months will be given. ALEXANDER W. BRANDON, Wadesboro, Feb. 21, 1835. (5) Trustee.

Situated at the North Corner of the Courthouse, SALISBURY, N. C.

With a well-built and well-arranged house, elegant Dining and Lodging-Rooms, clean and well-aired Beds, first-rate Cooks, attentive and industrious Servants, well-furnished Table and Bar, and an accommodating Landlord, the proprietors of the Manion Hotel can with the greatest confidence insure to all who may honor their house with patronage, a large amount of comfort.
