

THE CAROLINIAN.

SALISBURY:
Saturday Morning, July 11, 1835.

CANDIDATES FOR CONGRESS

The Hon. ABRAHAM RENCHER, and BURTON CRAIG, and RICHMOND M. PEARSON, Esqs., are candidates to represent this (Rowan) district in the next Congress of the United States.

The sixtieth Anniversary of our Independence was celebrated on the 4th instant, in this town, by a meeting of the Rowan County Temperance Society. The Society with the Delegates from the Auxiliary Societies, ten in number, and a numerous company of operators assembled in Mr. Vogler's Grove. The meeting was opened with prayer by the Rev. Mr. Lockridge; the journal of proceedings at the last meeting were read and the Delegates of the Auxiliary Societies presented themselves. The Declaration of Independence was read with great distinctness by C. L. Torrence Esq., and an Oration appropriate to the occasion as the Birth-day of our country's freedom, and as the annual meeting of the Temperance Society was pronounced by Gen. James Cook. The orators of several of the physicians of this county were then read disapproving of the use of ardent spirits. The Officers of the Society for the ensuing year were chosen, and after several resolutions and votes of thanks, the society adjourned.

VIRGINIA—THE PRESIDENCY.

At a large meeting of the citizens of Mecklenburg county, Virginia, on the 15th of last month, assembled for the purpose of nominating Judge White for the Presidency, and adopting such other measures as should be deemed proper to defeat the Baltimore Ham-bone scheme for fixing the succession, the following Resolutions were passed:

1. Resolved, That we will support Hugh L. White as the candidate for the next Presidency of the United States, and will use every honest and honorable means to sustain his election to that office.

2. Resolved, That we propose P. P. Barbour as a suitable person for the Vice Presidency of the U. States. Resolutions were also passed appointing Committees to take the necessary steps in that County to promote the election of Judge White.

As regards the nomination of P. P. Barbour for Vice President, we declare our decided dissent from it. We had enough of this gentleman at the last Presidential election, when his name was held up for the same office in opposition to Van Buren. His last year's letter on the eve of that election has destroyed the confidence of the State Rights party in his fitness to say nothing else. He smells too strongly of Jackson-Van Burenism. He can bring no strength to the Whig ticket, but his name would operate as a dead weight.—North Carolina will never support him. We do not believe he could receive the vote of a single State in the Union.

In reference to the Vice Presidency, we would remark, that Judge Mangum has been frequently proposed in different sections of the country as a suitable candidate for that station. The Whig Press of the Old Dominion especially has shown itself favorable to such a nomination. Of Judge Mangum's qualifications there can be but one opinion, and if the Whig Party could unite on him, we cannot imagine a better selection.

On this subject the Virginia Examiner has the following judicious remarks: "We sincerely regret that we are compelled to differ with our personal and political friends, in not supporting Judge Barbour—we have no alternative left. What claims has Judge Barbour over Judge Mangum? Has he more honesty? Has he more capacity? Has he more firmness? Or has he more standing? Is Virginia more entitled to a Vice President than North Carolina? If we were to decide, we are clearly of the opinion that WILLIAM P. MANNUM has every claim, far above Philip P. Barbour—yes, we have to boot, but that Judge Mangum would not be a better selection. Ticket more strength than any man in the United States. A majority of the opposition to the present Administration cannot, will not, and ought not to surrender to any man in the election of President and Vice President; the true State Rights Party have gone as far as they should go, in supporting Judge White, without taking another more objectionable to place upon his ticket.—If this should be done, thousands who yield to White a reluctant support, would throw away their votes, rather than support a ticket so strong impregnated with Jacksonism.—The policy of making even a partial surrender of principle, to accomplish a lesser object, may be questioned. The mischief which must inevitably result from its total abandonment can never be repaired."

"Mr. Van Buren is expected to arrive in this city, in a few days. His equipage, it is stated, exceeds that of any other dignitary who has travelled through the country in a long time. Two splendid match horses went on from here to meet him a few days since. The Vice President travels in his bonnet and fur, with his out-riders.—New York Daily Advertiser.

We saw it stated some time since, that a carriage was making at the Amherst Coach Manufactory for Mr. Van Buren at a cost of $1,400. For our part, we shall find no fault with Mr. Van Buren or any other person, because he may choose to travel in princely state. We leave to Van Buren and his satellites the vile delusion, "of the natural enmity of the rich towards the poor," which they have endeavored to impress on the credulous working classes of the North. Van Buren has fed exclusively, these many years, at the Public Crib.—He travels in his carriage worth $1,400, with four horses and out-riders; a style perhaps unparalleled in this country for sumptuousness and splendor; and his parasites cry out—Lo! the Poor Man's Friend, the People's Candidate, the Advocate of Reform, the sworn enemy of the Rich who tramples on the Poor.—And they will not join in the disgusting idleness in this pampered hypocrite rolling in luxury on the People's money, and stigmatized by his servile press and interested parasites, as "Aristocratic," the "silk stocking and ruffled shirt gentry," as HIREN, BRIBED, CORRUPTED BY THE BANK to calumniate the MEK and LOWLY MARTIN VAN BUREN!

Editorial change.—The last No. of the Charlotte Journal appears under the editorial guidance of Mr. R. H. Mads, formerly of this place. From our acquaintance with Mr. Mads, we feel assured that much may be expected from his labors in the Whig cause. He is a gentleman every way qualified for the laborious task which he has assumed. The Journal, hitherto neutral in politics, has hoisted the White flag. Success!

THE PUBLIC LANDS.

As there seems to be a great interest felt on the subject of the Public Lands, and as the People appear anxious to know how their Representatives in the last General Assembly voted upon that subject, we publish for their information, the Yeas and Nays. It will be seen that both of our Representatives and our Senator voted for the Resolutions submitted by Dr. Henderson, of Surry.

Those who voted for the Resolutions, were—Messrs. Albritton, R. H. ALEXANDER, G. H. Alexander, Allison, Baker, Barringer, Battle, Bedford, Bell, Blatchford, Block, Brandon, Bray, Bummel, Candler, CLEMENT, Coor, CRAIG, Crump, Davenport, Dockery, Dudley, Fleming, Foreman, Gairrell, Henderson, Henry, Hawkins, Harpoot, Harrison, Hartley, Henderson, King, Kittrell, W. Horton, J. Horton, Houlder, Howard, King, Kirtrell, Latham, Lilly, Lindsey, Locke, Long, Loundermilk, Manley, Manner, Martin, Matthews, Monk, Muller, McClesse, M'Lean, M'Neil, M'Pherson, Norcum, Owsby, Outlaw, Perkins, Ponderator, Rash, Sewell, Sloan, Smallwood, G. Smith, Stockard, Swindell, Taylor, Tillet, Tomlinson, Wadsworth, Walker, Watson, Taylor, Weaver, John Williams, Williams of Green, Williams of Richmond, Witcher, Zygler.

Those who voted against them, were—Messrs. Bodie, Braswell, Brown, Bynum, Byram, Carter, Fitzrandolph, Foushee, Frink, Gwyn, Harris, Haywood, Hutcheson, R. Jones, Judkins, Kennan, Lee, Lyon, Marsteller, Perry, Potts, Powell, Register, Roebuck, Slade, J. L. Smith, Swanner, Tatham, Whitfield, Williamson.

The Senate, it will be recollected, refused to consider those Resolutions, but laid them on the table, which amounted to a rejection of them.

Those who voted for laying the Resolutions on the table, were—Messrs. Arrington, Baker, Britain, Bernice, Cooper, Cowper, Dobson, Durham, Edmonston, Edwards of Warren, Edwards of Person, Emmett, Flynn, Flowers, Gwyn, Hawkins, Holmes, Howell, Hussey, Kerr, Lindsey, Lockhart, M'Connell, Montgomery of Hertford, Moye, of Green, Staley, Spaight, Stephens, Wilder, Whitaker, Whitehurst, Wyche, Wilson.

Those who voted against laying them on the table, were—Messrs. Barco, Bateman, BEARD, Caldwell, Dowd, Fairly, Harrison, Hogan, Kendall, Little, Lowry, M'Callan, M'Queen, M'Williams, Martin, Mast, Montgomery of Orange, Moye of Pitt, Parker, Phelps, Sawyer, Sheridan, Shipp, Welborn.

The WHITE Cause.—The most cheering prospects of the success of the People's candidate for next President are daily crowding upon us. In this State the honest portion of the Van Buren party are dumb-founded by the nomination of such a man as R. M. Johnson for Vice President on the ticket with Mr. Van Buren. The pill is too bitter, they cannot swallow it.—And we cannot blame them for it, though they deserve to be punished with a membership of Col. Johnson's domestic circle the balance of their lives, to answer for the political sin they committed in aiding the base scheme of the Baltimore Caucus.

We think that if Mr. Van Buren actually had any real merit of his own, or any claims upon the support of the American People for his first office in their rank, his being associated with such a morally and politically corrupt man as R. M. Johnson should blast them forever.—Judge the man by his associates."

Our exchange papers are crowded with the proceedings of the meetings of the People in favor of Judge White. Even in Kentucky the white ball is rolling.—A recent letter from a highly respectable gentleman of that State, says—"This State will go for White—the nomination of Johnson for Vice President has blasted what few promises Van Buren ever had here. Johnson is least respected at home, where he is best known."

From Alabama, too, we have cheering news. The following extract of a letter, though of a private character, we have ventured to publish. It comes from a gentleman of the highest respectability, residing in the Mobile Congressional District, and dated June 29th.—"This District is decidedly White—judging from the candidates for Congress. Gen. Murray, our late Representative, is a White man, but has lost a resolution. F. S. Lyon, who is a candidate to fill the seat of Gen. M., is a White man. Col. Bates, who is also a candidate for Congress, is not only a White man, but for many years, has been an avowed State Rights man. There is a Mr. Taylor also a candidate for Congress in this district. The contest will be between Lyon and Bates. They are both high in honor, ability, and the cause of White can lose nothing by the election of either."

Martin Van Buren has issued proposals to print by subscription what our motto to be a History of his own life, and of Col. Johnson's. It is understood to be conducted by Martin himself, through General Butler, and the Kitchen. It is to be published in the name of a Mr. William Emmons historiographer to the Hair Apparatus.

We have received another No. of the Apprentices Companion, and again remark that it is admirably suited not only to the class of readers for whom it is especially intended, but its furnishing much valuable instruction to the more indolent ones of our land who perhaps in the pride of their erudition, would spurn the name of apprentice.

"Tall Oaks from little Acorns grow."—From a few remarks of ours, in regard to the Camden Cotton market, a considerable controversy has grown up between "A Cotton Buyer in Cheraw," and the Editor of the Camden Journal; but, before the matter at issue was settled between them, a third man appears in the last Watchman, who writes from King st., Charleston, and conclusively (as he probably thinks) settles the whole affair in favor of Charleston. Now, we are not anxious to take up the cudgels in favor of either party; but we think a part of the reasoning of the writer in the Watchman is entirely fallacious. We cannot conceive how it is, when the prices for Cotton are almost as good at Cheraw as at Charleston, that our planters can clear more money by carrying their crops to the latter market, at a great increase of expense, labor, and time. The difficulties with which the Cheraw merchant has to contend in transporting the Cotton after he buys it, matters nothing with the planter, so he gets a fair price for his cotton. We do not believe that, let them open whatever source of communication they may, below Cheraw and Camden, the Charleston market can ever supercede that of Cheraw in interest to the planters in this section of country.

At a recent Convention of the Whig Party of Rhode Island, the Hon. Tristram Burgess, and Henry Y. Cranston, Esq., were nominated as the candidates for Congress from that State—it being entitled to but two members. The same Convention nominated Daniel Webster for next President of the United States.

Some time since, we published an account of a negro outrage in Hartford, Conn. We see by the newspapers that a Mr. Congdon, an abolitionist some where down East, was cow-hided by a free negro. "Saved him right."

Extract from a Letter received some time since, dated HARTFORD Conn., 1835.

"Our Legislature has just terminated its Session. Executive Patronage has been too strong for principle—this State is sold to Van Buren."

"Editor of the Jackson Van Buren Print here, the gross adulterator of the Kitchen Administration, and blind defender of all its measures, has been appointed Comptroller."

"They have obeyed the general party instructions and passed a Resolution requiring our Senators to vote for Tom Benton's expunging Resolutions."

"But it would be confidently anticipated that the Spoils Party would, on coming into power, fill all offices at their disposal with such as had earned their reward by their partisan zeal. The audacity, and the shamelessness however of the Van Burenites were even greater than I could have believed. They attempted to bring the Judges of our Supreme Court under the proscription of Party. In this State the Judges are removable by the Governor on a vote of two thirds of the Legislature. We have a learned, virtuous, independent, irreproachable Judiciary, which has not as far as I know, been even charged with sothing the purity of its orb in its crime. They were to be displaced to make room for the fitting tools of the Jackson Van Buren Party.—Our upright and talented Chief Justice was to have been succeeded by an individual not possessing the confidence of the community either in his moral soundness or legal attainments—"

"A notorious howling office-holder of this city. Fortunately their nefarious scheme failed, and old Connecticut was spared a scene of deep disgrace. The Party on counting their noses in Caucus, for this move, numbered a majority as was understood of the House, but would not make up the requisite majority of two thirds."

We give this extract as it is with only this comment: Let the People here see the promised fruits of Van Burenism."

The Convention.—At our latest dates from Raleigh, the Convention was expected to adjourn to-day, (11th) as they had got through with the most important business before them. For particulars we refer the reader to the following extracts.

From the Raleigh Register, of July 7.

STATE CONVENTION.

The Debate on the 2nd Article, which we noticed in our last, was not arrested until Wednesday, when the Convention determined, by a vote of 74 to 53, to amend the Article, by striking out the word Protestant, and inserting the word Christian. The effect of this amendment, if literally construed, will be to exclude from office all (and a long train of course, I dare say) who deny the truth of the Christ an religion, or the divine authority either of the Old or New Testament. Other species delivered on the occasion, cannot fail to prove a rich treat to the public. Judge Gaston's speech, which occupied the best part of two days in the delivery, was decidedly the greatest effort which it has ever been our good fortune to hear, and surpassed the most elevated anticipations of an audience long sensible of that gentleman's great and merited fame. It will hereafter be ranked among the best specimens of powerful Oratory, that our country has ever produced, and be read with delight, as long as talents and learning are admired. But the rich and finely modulated intonations of his voice—his animated and powerful delivery—must be lost to all, who were not witnesses of the display of his powers, and spontaneously acknowledged their influence.

On Thursday, the Convention determined, by a vote of 74 to 11, to elect the Governor of the State by the People, biennially.

The whole of Friday was occupied with the Report of the Committee appointed to arrange the Senatorial Districts, and appoint the Members of the House of Commons. The following is, we believe, a correct statement of the same:—Representatives to which the several Counties will be entitled under the new Constitution:

SENATE: Northampton, Hertford, Bertie, Martin, Halifax, Nash, Wake, Franklin, Johnston, Warren, Edgecombe, Pitt, Wayne, Craven, Currituck, Granville, Person, Cumberland, Sampson, New-Haven, Duplin, Onslow, Anson, Cabarrus, Caswell, Rockingham, Orange, Randolph, Guilford, Stokes, Rowan, Davidson, Surry, Jones, Iredell, Stokes, and Mecklenburg Counties will each be entitled to a Senator, making in all, 37. The remaining 13 Senators are distributed as follows:—1 to Perquimans and Pasquotank; 1 to Currituck and Currituck; 1 to Gates and Chowan; 1 to Washington and Tyrrell; 1 to Green and Lenoir; 1 to Beaufort and Hyde; 1 to Carteret and Jones; 1 to Brunswick, Bladen, and Colchester; 1 to Robeson and Richmond; 1 to Moore and Montgomery; 1 to Wilkes and Ashe; 1 to Burke, Vance, and 1 of Buncombe, and 1 to 3 of Buncombe, Haywood, and Watauga.

COMMONS: The following Counties will be entitled each to one Member, viz.—Brunswick, Columbus, Chatham, Greene, Haywood, Jones, Macon, Tyrrell, Washington, Ashe, Bladen, Camden, Currituck, Carteret, Cabarrus, Gates, Hertford, Hyde, Lenoir, Moore, Martin, Nash, Onslow, Pasquotank, Perquimans, and Vance—23.

The following Counties will be entitled to two Commissioners each, viz.—Anson, Bladen, Cumberland, Craven, Caswell, Davidson, Edgecombe, Randolph, Rockingham, Person, Beaufort, Bertie, Duplin, Franklin, Johnston, Moore, New-Haven, New-Hampshire, Northampton, Pitt, Robeson, Richmond, Sampson, Warren and Wayne—30.

The following Counties to three Commissioners each, viz.—Guilford, Mecklenburg, Rowan, Rutherford, Wake, Surry, Burke, Chatham, Granville, Halifax, Iredell, and Stokes—36.

And the following to four each, viz: Lincoln and Orange—in all 120.

The Convention met for a few moments on Saturday, the 4th of July, but the only business transacted was to receive the following Report, on the subject of private Legislation, from the Committee of Thirteen, through the Chairman, Mr. Meares.

All laws relating to the Administration of Justice, shall be uniform throughout the State.

The General Assembly shall have power to pass general laws, regulating divorce and alimony; but shall not have power to grant a divorce or secure alimony in any individual case.

The General Assembly shall not have power to pass any private law, to alter the name of any person, or to legitimate any bastard, or to restore to the right of Citizenship, any person convicted of any infamous crime.

Whenever a Bill of a private nature shall be introduced into either House of the General Assembly, it shall not be passed upon, until a tax of $10 has been paid, by the person introducing the same, to the Clerk of the House, to be by him accounted for, and paid over to the Treasurer of the State.

From Cheraw.—Our letter from Messrs. LaCoste & M'Kay, of the 6th instant, states, that Cotton has declined since the accounts from Liverpool of the 27th of May; we quote it at 17 to 20 cents—very little coming to market.—Whiskey 40 a 47; Paper 10; Ginger 10; Spice 10; Corn 93 a $1.00; Flour, northern, $2 a $3; Flour, country, $3 50.

[FOR THE WESTERN CAROLINIAN.]

4TH OF JULY CELEBRATION AT CONCORD.

According to previous arrangements, the citizens of Cabarrus, and the adjoining Counties, assembled in the town of Concord, at an early hour, for the purpose of celebrating the sixtieth Anniversary of American Independence. At the hour of 11 o'clock, a procession was formed in the street fronting Dr. Harris', with the Military, who volunteered their services on the occasion, in front. The Gentlemen next in order, the Ladies who honored us with their presence, the patriots of '76, Committee of Arrangements, Orator and Reader of the Declaration, President and Vice President and Parsons forming the rear, all under the command of Major, Izzan Cannon, as Marshal of the day, who, before reaching the stand, brought the rear in front. After being seated, a prayer was offered up to the throne of God by the Rev. Dr. Robeson; when, after a few introductory remarks, the Declaration of Independence was read by Capt. C. P. Meiker, and an elegant and appropriate oration delivered by William S. Harris. After the services were over, the company proceeded to the Concord Hotel, where a sumptuous dinner was prepared for the occasion by Dr. Harris, upwards of one hundred partook of the feast. After the cloth was removed, the following were announced as the Regular Toasts:

1. The Declaration of Independence: A beacon of liberty to an enslaved world.

2. The day we celebrate: Never will it cease to be joyously remembered until the funeral knell of liberty and patriotism, be sounded throughout our Union.

3. The Statesmen and Heroes of '76: May their memories be immortal.

4. George Washington: The adamant of his character unshaken by the lapse of time.

5. General Lafayette: Whilst liberty and patriotism finds an abiding place in our country, his memory will be cherished as second only to our illustrious Washington.

6. The Signers of the Declaration of Independence: May a halo of glory encircle their memories.

7. The Union: Cemented by the blood of our fathers, let not heartless ambition and grasping avarice, which cemented its birth, produce its dissolution.

8. North Carolina: Old Rip give signs of resurrection.

9. The State of the U. States: Their patriotism worthy the best days of this Republic.

10. Willie P. Mangum: The fearless opposer of lawless power, and able defender of the people's rights, may they honor him with their confidence.

11. David L. Swain: Our present Governor, the pride of our State, may she delight to honor him.

12. The Orator of the Day: May the native talent of North Carolina find encouragement in her own bosom.

13. The Fair: The only endurable aristocracy, who elect without votes, govern without laws, decide without appeal, and are never in the wrong.—(Repeated, and with three cheers.)

The following are some of the VOLUNTEER TOASTS:

By Gen. P. Barringer, President of the day.—This day 50 years ago our forefathers declared themselves free from the yoke of Great Britain; let us, their sons, this day declare ourselves ready to upturn the chains prepared for us and our children by Martin Van Buren and the Baltimore Caucus.

By Archibald Houston, Esq. 1st Vice President.—The Kitchen-Boys: May he never preside over the destinies of a Free People.

By Col. George Barabart, 2d Vice President. The surviving Patriots of '76: May their future days be crowned with peace, as their former was with glory.

By Maj. Izzan Cannon. The Whigs of the 11th Congressional District: May they show to the world, on the 13th of August next, their abhorrence to Collar-men and Collar principles.

By Samuel Harris, Esq. Hon. Hugh L. White and Hon. Willie P. Mangum: May the first receive the highest office within the gift of the American People, and the latter the second.

By Levi Hoop, Esq. The People of the United State: the source of all power: May they seek to be enlightened, to be able to judge between right and wrong, that they may show to the world that they are able to govern themselves by electing Judge White President.

By Capt. Moses Potts. H. W. Connor: A useless Representative to his District and State, but a useful tool in the hands of Martin Van Buren, the office-holder, and office-seeker.

By Capt. C. Meiker. Public Opinion: The ultimate arbiter, alike in all things, as freemen, we recognize none so mighty as to defy its power, none so lowly as to escape its coils.

By R. W. Allison. North Carolina: Rich in resources, may she try experiments to ebb the mighty tide of emigration.

By R. C. Carson, of Clear Creek. The Whig Candidates of Mecklenburg: Fighting under the banner of freedom, and Whitemen, may they achieve a glorious victory over Vanburenism and Pecumpee.

By John W. Sailer, Hon. J. C. Calhoun: The firm supporter of the Constitution and the laws, the friend of his country, the foe of her enemies, may the remembrance of his noble deeds ever be cherished by freemen.

By George Klatts, Esq.—May the Ship from Lincoln sail next December with the top sails spread, safe to the City of Washington.

By Col. William C. Means. Martin Van Buren: The prodigy of modern times, in whose character are blended the ambition of Napoleon, the treachery of Arnold, the duplicity of Barr, and the cunning of the Devil.

By C. Phifer. Henry Clay: A Demagogue in debate, a Socrates in wisdom, and in patriotism a worthy disciple of our great Washington.

By Wm. Barringer. The fame of Washington: Bounded only by the circuit of the Sun, based upon the eternal foundations of Liberty and Virtue, and lifting its broad columns to the skies, it will continue to stand immutable and imperishable, while truth and mercy shall endure on the earth, looking down upon all things else passing to oblivion, gathering strength from the waste of centuries, and brightening amid the ruins of time.

By Thomas S. Henderson. The Ladies: The binders of our affections, the folders, gatherers, and collectors of our enjoyments.

By James Corrigan, Esq. May the blood of a Davidson, a Falls, and a Rutherford never be trampled upon by unshod feet.

By James S. High. Hon. H. L. White: A native of North Carolina, honorable and independent, may he receive the highest office within the gift of the American People.

By A. H. Moss. The young men of Concord and Cabarrus: When their country shall need them, may their readiness prove their devotion, and their watch word be our country, right or wrong.

By James W. Huggins, late of Crockett's District.—The Ladies: They have their ways, and for all that, and for all that, the fact is, there is no doing without them; so go ahead. (Three cheers.)

By D. M. Walker. The 4th of July: May it be annually celebrated by every true Democrat of the Union, while the Eagle soars and the Star-spangled Banner waves "o'er the land of the free and the home of the brave."

By F. G. Logan. North and South Carolina: Identified in interest and in feeling, may the same spirit which united them in '76, in opposition to foreign oppression, animate and unite them against wiggery and nullification doctrines and despotism at home.

By C. L. Partee, of Rowan. The Dinner: The balmy air and lively scene that surrounds the food renders it doubly delicious.

THEATRE!—The Salisbury Theatians respectfully inform the Public that they will make their first appearance, for this Season, on Thursday evening, the 30th of August next, July 11, 1835.

REMOVAL.

DAVID WATSON, CABINET-MAKER.

RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the public, that he has removed his Shop from his old stand, to the opposite side of the Street, four doors South of John Murphy's Store, and nearly opposite the Salisbury Hotel, where he is prepared to execute all orders for articles in his line in a very superior manner, at short notice, and on moderate terms. He will keep regularly for sale, such Furniture as Sideboards, Buffets, Secretaries, Bedsteads, Tables, Candle-stands, Wash stands, &c., &c. He returns his grateful acknowledgments to his customers for the very liberal patronage heretofore received, and hopes, by strict attention to business, to merit its continuance.

TO DEBTORS!—All those indebted to the undersigned must positively come forward and settle their accounts, as longer indulgence cannot be given. Salisbury, July 11, 1835. DAVID WATSON.

SALISBURY HOTEL,

Salisbury, North Carolina, (Situating on Main Street, a few doors above the building formerly occupied as the Branch of the State Bank of North Carolina.)

By THOMAS A. HAGUE;

WHO informs his Friends, and the Public generally, that he has lately purchased of W. H. Slaughter, Esqr., the Buildings, &c., which have been long occupied by him as a Hotel and advantageously known by the name of "OLD POINT COMFORT."

He is now prepared to accommodate Boarders and Travellers. The location is convenient to the business of the place, and still sufficiently retired to make it pleasant. The house is conveniently arranged for the accommodation of families, or single persons, either as regular or transient boarders. Clean and well-aired beds, honest and obliging servants, well furnished Table and Bar, first rate Cooks, a full Grainery, and an Oiler to attend to his spacious and well constructed Stables, whose character for attention and care in the management of Horses, is unimpeached. The Landlord will do all in his power to give general satisfaction to all who will be kind enough to patronize his establishment. The friends of his predecessor, he hopes, will extend to him their patronage, as he will devote the whole of his time to promote the well management of his concern.

Stage Passengers are informed, that the Great Northern and Southern Line of Stages—the Merchant's Line—Peck & Wellford Contractors, arrive at and depart from the Salisbury Hotel tri-weekly. Seats secured in all other Stages leaving Salisbury. T. A. HAGUE, Salisbury N. C., May 2, 1835.
