

THE CAROLINIAN.

SALISBURY: Saturday Morning, December 5, 1835.

STATE LEGISLATURE.

Our columns are very much crowded this week with the proceedings of our Legislature, which we deem of more interest to our readers than any thing else we at this time are able to give.

On reference to the proceedings, the reader may get a clue at the manner in which "the party" managed the election of Governor—applying the screws of party, and forcing the election upon the House without giving the members time to consider the qualifications of the candidate proposed.

We bespeak attention to the sensible and appropriate remarks of Messrs. King, of Iredell, and Clingman, of Surry, on Mr. Hoke's motion to go immediately into the election of Governor.

From the proceedings of the Legislature thus far, it is evident that the people may expect but little wholesome legislation from the present session. Elated with their small majority in that body, the Van Burenites seize upon every opportunity to show their power—permitting no office, (in their power) however trivial, to be filled with any but partisans.

By this course, they are palming upon the State a set of officers probably without qualifications, and breaking up all cordiality of feeling among the members, and all attempts at judicious action on the business of the people.

However, there is one consolation—the Amended Constitution being ratified, the present body will soon be dissolved—and we are very certain, never to meet again with a Van Buren majority in it.

At the next August Election, when Representation shall be equalized, when the large Whig counties of the West, which now send three republicans, shall then send four; and the small Van Buren counties of the East, which now send three Van Buren men, shall then send one, Van Burenism will give its last gasp in North Carolina.

These things will certainly be so. "Mark them down!" The Governor's election will also then be before the People, and the Van Burenites will find it not quite so easy to push their candidate through the great body of the Sovereigns, without giving them time to examine his composition.

Electors by the Legislature.—The official vote for Governor was—Spaight 103; Meares 86; W. D. Mosely, of Lenoir, and now Speaker of the Senate, (not in nomination) 4; Joseph M'D. Carson, of Burke, (not in nomination) 1.

The inauguration of the Governor elect, (says the Register,) will take place in the Hall of the House of Commons, on Thursday the 10th instant, at 12 o'clock, meridian.

Nathan A. Stedman, Esq., has been re-elected Comptroller of Public Accounts without opposition. Mr. S. has proved a worthy and efficient officer, and deserved a re-election.

On the 25th, Edward Stanly, Esq., of Washington county, was elected Solicitor of the 5th Judicial Circuit. The vote stood: Stanly 107; Stephen Miller 79.

On Friday, the 27th, John F. Poindexter, Esq., of Stokes county, was elected Solicitor General of the State, on the second balloting, as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Votes. John F. Poindexter, 84; John M. Dick, 83; John Scott, 83; John S. Guthrie, 4 withdrawn; Blank, 4.

On Saturday, the 29th, the Legislature went into a balloting, but without effect it seems, for a Judge of the Superior Courts, to supply the vacancy occasioned by the death of Judge Seawell. The Register gives the following statement of the ineffectual ballotings:

The Legislature find great difficulty in making a Judge to supply the vacancy occasioned by Judge Seawell's death. There have been seven ballotings without a choice. On the first balloting, John L. Bailey, Fred. C. Nash, and W. C. Stanly were in nomination, and the vote stood thus—Bailey 47; Nash 47; Stanly 29; blank and scattering 71.

On the 5th balloting, the name of Edward Hall was added to the nomination, and it resulted in giving the nomination to the nomination, and it resulted in giving the nomination to the nomination, and it resulted in giving the nomination to the nomination.

The final result.—Below, we give a list of the votes polled in 55 Counties at the recent election for and against the Amendments to the Constitution.—The Amendments, being adopted by the People, will go into effect on the 1st day of January, 1836.

Table with 5 columns: Counties, For Con., No Con., Rat., Rejec. Lists counties like Anson, Ashe, Buncombe, etc., with their respective vote counts.

Table with 4 columns: County, For Con., No Con., Rat., Rejec. Lists counties like Lenoir, Lincoln, Macon, etc., with their respective vote counts.

OUR RELATIONS WITH FRANCE.

The prospect of an amicable and speedy settlement of our difficulty with France is not at the present time very cheering. One point is clear—that there is a want of good faith in the professions of the American or French Cabinet—perhaps in both.

The prompt appointment of a Minister by the British Government to succeed Mr. Vaughan, while the United States have been for a long time half represented in England by a Charge, appears to indicate that that Government do not regard our French relations in the way to an amicable arrangement.

We much apprehend the time is not past for the application of "Delirant reges, plectuntur Achiivi."

ANOTHER LIFE OF MARTIN VAN BUREN

Has just made its appearance, as we learn from some extracts and notices of it published in the newspapers; for we have not seen the entire work. It is from the pen of Wm. M. Holland, Esq., Professor of the Latin and Greek Languages.

This Life by Prof. Holland is intended to promote Van Buren's election to the Presidency, and from the evidences before us, it is undoubtedly an ingenious and able partisan argument in his favor.

Mr. Holland avows the "most ultra democratic doctrines," and no doubt in all sincerity. With him in this respect we cordially and fully agree, unless by democratic he mean agrarian: for no tyranny is so unequal and intolerable as that of a mob, nor any aristocracy so insolent and servile too, as the leaders of a mob.

We are sorry that a gentleman of Mr. Holland's decidedly high order of intellect, can find no more worthy theme, than one which must needs be so ephemeral as a partizan life of the Kinderhook Intriguer.

TEXAS.

Col. Robinson, the agent of a colony in Texas has stated in the Nashville Republican that Mexico has ceded Texas to the United States. This is unquestionably an error. Texas has not, we believe, been ceded to this country; nor is there any probability that it will ever become a member of this Government either as a Territory or a State.

For our part we do not deem the acquisition of Texas by the United States as desirable on any account whatever. We are in no lack of territory—virgin soils equal to the best in the world.

We would here express our sympathies with the Texanians in their present struggle, if such expression would be of any advantage to them, and we greatly doubt the propriety of interfering more actively in their affairs.

We have received Gov. McDuffie's able Message, which the crowded state of our columns obliges us to defer noticing until next week.

Election.—A writ of Election has been issued to the Sheriff of Cabarrus county, ordering him to open polls on Monday the 7th instant, to elect a Commoner to supply the seat of Col. D. M. Barringer, resigned.

Whig Victory!—Hugh Waddell, Esq., a staunch Whig, has been elected from Orange county, to supply the vacancy occasioned by the death of James Forrester, Van Buren. Thus goes North-Carolina.

Cheering from Mississippi.—The Whigs are carrying all before them in Mississippi. Lynch (Whig) is most certainly elected Governor, over Rannels, (Van Buren). In Madison, Hinds, and Rankin, Lynch has a majority of 521.

The Yorkville Times says that the owner of a drove of hogs which passed through that place, had the "monstrous conscience" to ask six dollars gross for his pork. We think the man had no conscience at all, or at least that he was an unconscionable fellow.

In the Alabama Legislature, the friends of Judge White have a majority. Mr. McClung, a nephew of Judge White, was elected speaker of the House.

Interesting Correspondence.—Although friend Job is rather late with a part of his intelligence, we give place to his communication with pleasure:

JOB TINKER TO BOB SHORT.

House of Commons, Lobby, Nov. 23.

DEAR SHORT: Spaight is elected Governor at last; and I have adopted a new motto on the strength of his election. Perseverance is the word.

Yours, N. B. When you write to Ned Backet, tell him Jim Hutchison is expected to run for Camp-colourman.

The following Stanzas are translations of the song of the Archangels which forms the Prologue in Heaven to the Faust of Goethe. The first were done into English by Lord Gower, the second translation of the same stanzas which we have subjoined, is by David Syme.

PROLOGUE IN HEAVEN.

SONG OF THE THREE ARCH-ANGELS.

RAPHAEL: The sun his ancient hymn of wonder Is pouring out to kindred spheres, And still pursues, with march of triumph, His preappointed course of years.

GABRIEL: And still the earth's enduring motion Revolves with unobscured speed, And o'er the chequer'd earth and ocean Darkness and light by turns succeed.

MICHAEL: The whirlwind and the storm are raging From sea to land, from land to main; And adverse elements engaging, The trembling universe enchain.

THE LORD.—THE HEAVENLY HOSTS. The three Archangels come forward. RAPHAEL: The sun, along the void of space, Is sounding with his brother spheres, And rolls on his predestined race.

GABRIEL: And fast, beyond conception fast, You fair Earth on its axis flies, Now in night's dreadful shadows cast.

MICHAEL: And tempests in contention strain From sea to land, from land to sea, And in their fury weave a chain Of deep works through eternity.

THE THREE: The angels may not understand, But gain new vigour as they gaze: The works of thy creating hand Are fresh as in creation's days.

THE LINCOLN NEWS.

"Truth our guide—The Public Good our aim." The Subscribers, believing that some channel of communication is wanting in Western Carolina thro' which its citizens can interchange freely their opinions upon the various subjects of Politics, Religion, Literature, and the Mechanic Arts, propose to publish in the Town of Lincoln, a Weekly Paper under the above title.

In proposals of this kind, it is usual for those who make them, to set forth their political principles; and though we are not politicians by trade, yet our silence upon this subject might be construed into a want of candor, we will briefly give an expose of our political opinions.—As the first article in our political creed, we place the accountability of those who exercise power to those who give it.

With regard to the approaching Presidential election, we are decidedly opposed to the nominee of the Baltimore Convention, and will zealously, and firmly oppose his election. We are opposed to the Caucus System, let it be named what it may.

We have thus briefly, and candidly laid down our political principles, and we will maintain and support them with firmness, but at the same time, with a respectful attention to the opinions of those who may differ with us. Our paper we intend to be free, and unshackled, and will therefore give place to well written communications, let them come from what party they may, so that they be free from low invective and abuse, which never subserve the great object we have in view in the discussion of political questions, the truth, but always have a tendency to degrade, and lower the public press.

The adoption of an enlightened and vigorous system of improvement by our State, highto so much neglected, being necessary, as well for the prosperity individually of our citizens, as for the State at large, every measure tending to this end shall receive the cordial support of the "NEWS."

We will devote a portion of our paper to Agriculture, Literature, Religion, and such other matters as are usually found in a miscellaneous weekly paper. Our object will be to have something for the plates of all, and we will take this occasion to request those who have leisure, and who are friendly to our undertaking, to favor us with communications upon any subject of interest.

The paper will be issued the first of March, upon a fine medium sheet, printed with fair type, at $2 per annum, payable upon the receipt of the 2nd number. Advertising at the usual rates.

E. S. ZEVELY, R. J. WEST, Dec. 5, 1835. Editors throughout the State, friendly to the undertaking, will confer a favor, by giving the above a few insertions.

Concord, December 5, 1835. SOLOMON WEAVER.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in Raleigh, under date of "MONDAY EVENING, December 1."

"DEAR SIR: John M. Dick of Guilford was this day elected to supply the vacancy on the Bench of the Superior Court in place of the late Hon. Henry Seawell. The Raleigh papers will give you the number of ballotings which the party, who have the numerical strength, thought proper to inflict on the State for the sole purpose of ascertaining whether Mr. Henry of Fayetteville would serve if elected. Saturday's mail brought them his absolute and unconditional refusal.—Sunday intervened—a day here appropriated to the most unholy of purposes—the sermons were applied, the party rallied, and, after performing one or two political evolutions, were dismissed, under the orders of a Drill Sergeant to be punctual in their attendance on the battle field at the roll of the drum—or rather the ringing of the bell. Monday came, and the party, who on Friday, by their votes, pronounced Mr. Dick incompetent to the task of a Prosecuting Officer, were fully convinced by their leaders that he was eminently qualified to preside on the Bench!! Thus we go—God save the State!"
