y the Celebrated ce horse Washington, dam Betsy Rufby Virginia, will stand in LEXING.

Uwharie cannot only boast of a pure pedigree, but that he is nearly allied to the most distinguished horses that have for the last twenty years figured on the Turf. The request in which his stock is held, and the high prices they are commanding, will claim the attention of the judicious

Of Betsy Ruffin's produce (Uwharie's dam) sold last May a Tonson Filley, 1 year old, for $500, -last August a Tonson Colt, 2 years old, (unbroken and out of pasture) for $1,000-and in November last Hualps, a 3 year old Colt by Tonson's same stock, have been more fortunate: in a letter tion sent him for one year. to me of the 14th instant, from a most respectable source, it is stated that the Hon. B. Peyton, of Tennessee, lately sold the filey Lilach, 3 years old, out of the sister on the dam's side, of Betsy S. Money. I will also state that Polly Hopkins and Betsy Ransom of the same stock have been tahlishments in the city of New York. purchased since they have gone into the breeding stud, the former at $2,750, the latter also at a high and round figure, and sent to England to breed from Priam, the best horse in England.

As there are but few thorough bred mares in this region, Uwharie is put down to a Farmer's price, to promote the prevalence of stock. Of his extended pedigree and his performances more bereafter.

PROPOSALS To Publish in Rutherfordton, N. Carolina, A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER:

TO BE CALLED, THE CAROLINA GAZETTE

IT is well known, that since 1830, a newspaper has been published in this place, (though under a different name from that which the subscriber has adopted,) which was discontinued last Spring. Since that period, that vast region of country. West and north-west of Salisbury, including the counties of Lincoln, Burke, Rutherford, Buncombe, Yancy, Haywood, Macon, Iredell, Wilkes, and Ashe, containing a population of near 150,000 souls, ed in the Constitution, the great charter of our Union has been without a newspaper, and compelled to seek, abroad what should have been furnished at home.

Almost this whole region of country is so distinct in its situation-bordering on four States encompassed and traversed by Mountains-in the Markets which it fresents, in its interests in the habits and manners of its people, as to form a peculiar, detached community, poseasing much of the wild enterprising spirit, peculiar to the South-west, yet, tempered in a great degree, by the prudence and moderation of the East. Those topics, measures of Government, and contemplated works of Internal Improvement, which agitate the rest of the people of the State, scarcely attract the notice of its inhabitants. It is a country, too, of great fertility, although its resources have scarcely begun to be developed. In besuty and sublimity of scenery, fertility of soil, salubrity of climate, the extent, variety, and value of its productions, the importance of its manufacures, and in the extent and value fits mining interests, it is decidedly superior to any portion of the State. Recent discoveries, in fact, go far to prove its mining interest much superior in richness to any thing heretofore known in this country. The ideption of the Amendments to the Constitution, has added fourfold importance to the political influence of this portion of the State.

It is, that he may be useful to a people possessing s many advantages, bestowed upon them by a bountiful nature, by awakening them to a true sense of their own nterests, by directing their attention to, and demonstrating the practicability of, some system of Internal Im-provement, calculated to develope their resources, by flusing a taste for education and learning, and by a temperate but firm and independent discussion of State and general politics, that the subscriber has undertaken to supply that want, of which such frequent complaints nity. Such a practice has crept into use amongst have been made since the discontinuance of the Rutherford Spectator. In the discussion of general politics, the subscriber will be governed by principle, which now-a-days is so little regarded. He is no man-worshipper. He pins his faith to no man's skirts. He has no political prospects ahend to consult. He will not write for office; but will examples. support that man for office, whose opinions most nearly coincide with his own. Influenced by these reasons, he will support Judge White for the Presidency, in prefernce to Van Buren. At the same time, a fair hearing and a free access to the columns of the Gazette, will be afforded to all parties; but the subscriber will at all tunes bel hymself at perfect liberty to express his sentiments, without control from any quarter. He boarts that he is a native North Carolinian, and will not, by any appliention of party screws, he forced to justify what he con-cone, or censure what he approves.
