

THE CAROLINIAN.

SALISBURY:

Saturday Morning, February 20, 1836.

THE PEOPLE'S TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR, EDW.'D B DUDLY OF WILMINGTON. ------

The present No. terminates the subscriber's connection with the Editorial Department of the Western Carolinian. Professional business renders it impossible for him to devote the time and attention which the present crisis in our affairs demands of the conductor of every honest, unbought Press. The Carolinian will bereafter be conducted by his late partner, Joseph W. Hampton-on whom, indeed, has fallen the larger share of the Editorial duties during the connection. In relinquishing the Editorial Chair entirely to Mr. Hampton, whose whole time will be henceforth devoted to it, the subscriber has the highest satisfaction, knowing that the paper is in the hands of a gentleman honest and capable,

In taking leave of the Carolinian, the subscriber will not cease to take an active part in the great contest now waging between the friends of Constitutional Liberty an! the Legion of trafficking politicians and man-worshippers. At the present time no honest man of common understanding can remain indifferent or undecided. And the PRESENT "are times that try men's souls" no less than when the battles of that Revolution were fought which made us a free and independent nation. ASHBEL SMITH. Feb. 20, 1836.

THE PEOPLE'S TICKET.

We this week unfurl the banner of WHITE, TY LER, and DUDLEY. Under this banner, with truth and the constitution our guides, we will zealously fight until victory shall perch upon it, or defeat call it down. or ought to do. As an individual friend of theirs, how-But let us not be misunderstood: we have not laid aside ever, we hope they will construe the Expunging resoprinciples for the advancement of men. A CRISIS lutions as an evidence that the People of Virginia prewhich severed us from the mother country-More fear- ately." ful because it is unperceived. In the struggle for independence we had the Crowned King of England with a standing army beyond the ocean to contend against; now, we have the present Executive Officer with forty thousand office-holders quartered in our midst, with a pensioned press to corrupt and sap the very foundation of our liberties. God has put a proper value upon all the blessings bestowed upon man; and the greater the blessing the more vigilance is there required for its maintenance, and the greater the danger of its violation by sacriligious hands. The most valuable of these blessings is that of LIBERTY; and truly has it been said that eternal vigilance is its price. With an untram- admit it to be, to course Mesers. Leigh and Tyler to remelled press, to speak "truth without fear," to warn sign, would it not be more manly and honorable to apthe People of the peril of their liberties and summon them to the rescue, all might be safe. But such is not the case at present in this country. Honesty and the love of country are merged in a scramble for office and freedom is kept up by a powerful political party with a tors to obey the instructions expected to be given them chief at its head appealing to the basest motives that can not only composed of all that is perfidious in politics; it has in its embraces another and a fearfully growing party urged on in their course by a spirit of Fanaticism than which none is more deadly hostile to our free institutions. Thus leagued for the dostruction of liberty, it is their interest to withhold the light of truth from the People; it is their interest to deceive the People, by crying "all's well!" and lull them into a fatal security from which they may only be awakened by the clinking of the chains of despotism .- May it be that the chains which are to enslave the freemen of America are not already forging .- May it be that they are not now among the living 'who shall write the history of our repolic from its commencement to its termination."

It is against these corrupt and evil parties, and their still more corrupt and vicious principles, that our voice shall be heard; it is to defeat their efforts to destroy the last vestige of liberty that we have unfurled the "Star Spangled Banner," and summon the freemen of North Carolina to rally around it. ANDREW JACKSON. Washington, Feb. 8, 1836.

The Resolutions which have long been under debate in the Virginia Legislature, instructing the Senators from that State to disgrace themselves by voting to expunge Clay's Resolution of censure from the journals of the Senate, have passed the House of Delegates by a majority of 11 votes. They have yet to pass the Senate. Report says that the party in Virginia at first wished to pass these slavish Resolutions for the purpose of driving Messrs. Tyler and Leigh from the Senate, that Van Buren might command a majority in that body. He now having this, by the recent election of several Van Buren Senators, they aim at a different result. They hope the patriotic and pursecuted Senators attention of the afflicted. from Virginia may disobey, and thereby incur the displeasure of the people, for violating the right of instruction, held so sacred by Virginians. PUBLIC MEETING IN ROWAN. On Tuesday the 16th instant, in pursuance of previous notice, a large and respectable meeting of the citizens of Rowan County assembled in the Courthouse in Salisbury, to nominate a candidate for President and Vice President, a candidate for Governor, and an Elector for this District. On motion of H. C. Jones, Genl. Thomas G. Polk was called to the Chair, and the following gentlemen requested to act as Secretaries, viz: R. N. Fleming, Esq., Noah Partee, Esq., Gen. Wm. H. Kerr, J. Haines, Esq., N. Chaffin, Esq., Col. E. D. Austin, A. Roseman JEsq., and Jacob Holdsouser; and Doct. John Scott and Rufus H. Kilpatrick requested to act as Secretaries. After a brief address from the Chais, in which the objects of the meeting were forcibly and eloquent-ly explained, Ashbel Smith rose and introduced the following Preamble and Resolutions, which were advocated at some length by the mover, and by Mr. Craige, Mr. Jones, Mr. John Giles, and Mr. Fisher, and unani-
