PENSION OFFICE, October 3, 1836. The following Circular Letter, addressed to the Pension Agents by the Second Comptroller of the Treasury, is published for the information of Pensioners, and those who may act as their attorneys, in drawing their stipends for them. CIRCULAR

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, SECOND COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE, September 1836. The agent for paying pensions at

Sir: In order to guard more effectually against a repetition of frauds, as heretofore practised by the production of forged papers, the first three following additional rules will be observed by the accounting officers of the Treasury.

1. In every case where the pensioner employs an attorney to receive his pension, the execution of the power must be in the presence of at least one witness, other than the magistrate before whom it is acknowledged. No payment to an attorney shall be made until the pensioner has signed a voucher in his own handwriting.

2. In all cases where the signature of the pensioner or his attorney is required, such pensioner or attorney will write his name at length, if capable of so doing; otherwise, his signature may be by mark or cross, in which case the execution must be in the presence of at least one competent witness, other than the justice or notary who acts officially in the case.

3. No payment will in future be made to any pensioner, either in person or by attorney, who has not applied for his pension for more than one year, without the production of evidence of his identity, as prescribed in the instructions from this office of June 10, 1833, chapter 1, section 2, and form B; nor until such evidence has been transmitted to the Commissioner of Pensions, and a special direction authorizing the payment has been given.

4. In cases where a certificate has been issued by the Commissioner of Pensions to the widow or children of an officer or soldier under the act of June 7, 1833, or under the act of May 15, 1828, in proof of the relationship of the applicant to the deceased officer or soldier is to be required by the pension agent, that proof having been necessarily filed in the office of the Commissioner of Pensions prior to the issuing of such certificate.

Respectfully, Sir, Your obedient servant, (Signed) ALEON K. PARRIS, Comptroller. To take effect from the 4th March, 1837. January 24. —35 2w.—

MONTAGUE'S BALM; AN INDIAN CURE for TOOTH-ACHE.

THE established reputation and constantly increasing demand for this effectual remedy of pain and preservative of the Teeth, has induced the subscriber to offer it to the American Public. Arrangements have been made to supply agents in all the principal cities and towns of the U. States, so as to place it within the reach of those suffering, and likely to suffer, with the most harassing of all aches, (tooth-ache). When applied according to directions given on the bottle, it has never failed to afford immediate and permanent relief. It also arrests the decay in defective teeth and relieves that soreness which so frequently renders a strong tooth useless.

The application and remedy are simple, innocent, and not unpleasant; and the large number of persons, in various sections of the country, that have already experienced such delightful and salutary benefits from the use of the Balm, are ready to bear (for the public good) their testimony to its unrivalled qualities.

It is an Indian remedy, obtained singularly and unexpectedly, and may be regarded by the civilized world as the most valuable discovery of the Red Man of the Woods.

WILLIAM W. GRAY'S

VALUABLE OINTMENT, For Ulcers, Tumours, &c.

Can now be obtained of the patentee, at the office of the Raleigh Register.

Single Pot, 1 dollar—One dozen, 9 dollars. WILLIAM W. GRAY, Raleigh, October 8, 1836.

For five or six years previous to the Spring of 1834, a Negro man of mine had been much afflicted with an ulcerated arm and hand, which rendered him almost useless. The ulcer embraced that part of his arm from the elbow down, including his entire hand, which was literally a mass of putrefaction. A joint of one finger, and a part of the thumb, perished and dropt off. A more distressing and hopeless case I have never beheld. It was abandoned by his physicians as incurable, except by amputation of the hand.

The best medical treatment having failed to relieve the man, I placed him under the care of Mr. William W. Gray, in this place, who, with his Ointment, has effectually cured the case, although the Negro was frequently absent for weeks and months together. He has been entirely well for the last eight months, and I have good reason to believe will continue so.

WILLIAM BOYLAN.

ANOTHER GREAT CURE! RALEIGH, September 21, 1836.

I am now 58 years of age—when in my 17th year, I received a wound on my left leg, which became ulcerated, and continued so until the first of March last. It would occasionally heal up, and then break out again; but most of the time, it was in a very painful condition, the sore having extended to a large size, and become very deep. I tried many remedies to make a cure, without success, until I applied Gray's Valuable Ointment, two pots of which have effectually cured my leg, and reduced it to its natural size. The cure would have been made much sooner, had I strictly attended to the directions for the use of the Ointment, but this I failed to do, while I took much exercise, and very imprudently used tight bandages. My leg has been well for more than six months, during which time, I have walked much, yet it remains firm and free from all soreness or inflammation. After having been afflicted for a period of forty-one years, I now enjoy the benefit of a sound leg again. LEWIS ROLLOMAN.

Southern Review.

ENCOURAGED by a belief that the Southern Review would receive a liberal patronage generally, and especially in the Southern and Southwestern States, the undersigned proposes to revise it, under auspices which promise fully to sustain the reputation which the late Southern Review during its brief existence, had earned.

It will be published in Washington, and edited by a gentleman whose high character and superior attainments guarantee that, added, as he will be, by the ablest writers and statesmen of the Union, the work will rank at once among the ablest and best periodicals of the age.

The condition of the South, and the crisis produced by the Revolution in Texas, demand that there should be some able and more authoritative exponent of public opinion than the newspaper press—that there should be some acknowledged organ of Southern sentiment, elevated above all the considerations of mere personal ambition, in which patriots of every party may commune together, and labor for the preservation of the Republic.

Some experience-admises the undersigned, that to obtain a subscription which will remunerate his own labor and expenditure, will require an active co-operation on the part of those who desire the accomplishment of this undertaking; and with this view it has been suggested, and he begs leave to urge upon such, and especially the young men, to organize committees, and, by subdividing their respective towns, cities, counties, and districts, apply to such individuals as may be induced to subscribe upon application. Many persons have expressed a willingness to contribute a fund to be applied towards the editor's salary, and in payment for contributions. It is suggested that the subscription of such, if any, should be taken, and, when paid, placed in the hands of the President and Cashier of the Bank and the publisher, as a committee for that purpose.

The Southern Review will be published quarterly, will contain 275 to 300 pages, at five dollars per annum, payable in advance. Committees or individuals obtaining subscribers, will forward the names and subscriptions to Washington. All contributions to the editorial fund will be forwarded to the Cashier of the Bank of Charleston, and placed to the credit of the editorial fund of the Southern Review.

DUFF GREEN, Acting President of South Carolina Society (for the Advancement of Learning), Jan. 10.

Resolution adopted by the South Carolina Society for the Advancement of Learning.

Resolved, That the Society approve of General Green's proposition to revise the Southern Review under the editorial charge of Judge Upshur, and, taking into consideration the claims which it will have upon the Public, and the duty of every one to assist in placing the work in a prosperous condition, would urge its friends, and especially the members of this Society, to aid in obtaining subscribers and contributions therefor.

WM. HARPER, Acting President of South Carolina Society (for the Advancement of Learning), Jan. 10.

VALUABLE Newspaper Establishment For Sale.

THE Subscribers having determined to engage in a different pursuit, THE SPECTATOR ESTABLISHMENT is offered for Sale.

The office is well provided with the necessary materials, and notwithstanding that no efforts have been made, beyond the mere transmission of the paper to those who voluntarily ordered it, the patronage is such that there is no other branch of business known to the subscribers to which the same amount of capital produces greater profits.

As the sale is merely a matter of convenience to the subscribers, no one need apply as a purchaser who will not sustain the political principles which the Spectator has advocated.

PASTEUR & MOORE, Newbern, 4th Nov., 1836.

Editors with whom we exchange, in this State especially, will oblige us by giving the above a few insertions.

More Negroes Wanted! THE subscriber informs those having Negroes for sale, that he is still in the business, and is desirous of purchasing a large number, for which he will at all times give the highest cash prices. Persons wishing to sell would do well to give him notice before they do sell.
