From the Richmond Whig.

The Washington Reformer contains the follow. ing paragraph:

"Great national disasters have been oftentimes DESIGNEDLY produced with the view of securing,

ANY MEMBER OF THE EXECUTIVE DE. arms loose, robust and strong enough, to prevent our last, from a New Orleans paper, of the arrest and clumps of trees scattered here and there at distant in-PARTMENT RECOMMENDED, COUNSEL- the Mexican nation from being any longer the LED OR ADVISED, BY WORD OR LET- sport of deccit, hypocrisy and false policy." TER, THE SECRET ORGANIZATION OF A LARGE BODY OF MEN, TO MARCH Extract from the sentence of the Judge of the Dis-TO THIS CITY ON ANY GIVEN EMER. GENCY! IS THERE NOT NOW ACTUAL-LY SUCH AN ORGANIZATION OF MEN? We youch not for it-but we have some reasons for asking the question;—and we call upon the Champion to be good prize, together with her carment of specie for its own notes. Thus while the dister And it seems to rest on good authority, that Lacitizens to some hundreds, met Mr. W. at Middlefriends of the Constition, ESPECIALLY IN PHILA- go. I also declare to be pirates, the captain, crew BELPHIA, to be on their guard, and to inquire into and passengers of the said schooner. These last will at no very distant day take plar .-- it is una. Matamoras at public auction, and the vessel to be voidable. The insolence and pression, and the sold or preserved, for the public service, as the Surgerment and frandulent or gentry, will be from the people to be beyond sold or preserved, for the public service, as the subscription and fraudulent of the salaried preme Government may order.

The captain, crew and passengers are to be kept pressure. Their late movement in Philadelphia, martial law, according to the decree of October to which we suppose the above to have reference, 29, 1835. to raise a standing force of fen thousand, pledged to sustain the office-holders in whatever course they may choose to pursue, was merely intended to intimidate and overawe the people. They have no wish or design to come to blows-the extent of their hopes, is by timely threats and show of courthe people, and save themselves from the consequences of their manifold malleasances in office .-But Kendall and Blair, & Co., we can assure them, greatly mistake the character of the American people, in supposing that they can be deterred by any show of force or any threats, from the asser. sent happy condition of the national credit? We tion and vindication of their rights. They may suppose, however, that he does not feel the prespossibly, as they have been, be deceived, and coax- sure, surrounded as he is by the " nellow bons." ed into the support and teleration of official corsuption and usurpation; but they never can, by the threatning array of tens of thousands stipendiaries Isaac Hill advertises in his paper " a threshing of the Treasury, be driven to submit. The effort machine." We should think General Upham will fall whenever it is tried. The people's love threshing machine enough for Isaac .- Ib. of law and order has induced them to look with composure upon, and bear with patience, the bankruptcy of their government, the destruction of their trade and commerce, the ruin of their cities-it has also made them endure the insults and the arregance of the corrupt office-holders who liave exulted at the national calamities. - But the patience of a suffering people may be exhausted, and there is a point beyond which, submission ceases to be a virtue. Let not the office-party add further insult to the heavy afflictions with which they have already visited the country, by threatening to bayonet the a war that carried in its train all the evils of over-trading, over banking and over bank making.

SUSPENSION OF SPECIE PAYMENTS, in the United States of AMERICA, caused by the wicked war of the National Government against the currency of the country;

24th May, 1837 .- As far as heard from: The GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES. The United States Banktof Pennsylvania. All the Banks in New York.

All the Backs in Baltimore. All the Banks in New Orleans. All the Banks in Pmladelphia.

All the Banks in Boston.

andulgence of their sorrows.

Four Banks in the District of Columbia. All the Banks in New Jersey.

All the Banks in Connecticut. All the Banks in Khode Island. Four Banks in Mussissippi.

All the Banks in Florida, All the Banks in Maryland.

All the Banks in Charleston. All the Banks in South Carolina.

All the Banks in North Carolina. All the Banks in Deleware.

All the Banks in East Pennsylvania. All the Banks in Massachusetts.

All the Banks in Maine.

All the Hanks in Savannah. All the Banks in Augusta.

A. I the Banks in Mobile. Atr the Banks in Alabama.

of New York

rect this list - N. w Orleans True American.

he a melancholy sight inc. d-the view one may that the struggle for liberty in these U. States, is nearnow obtain of this populous co amercial city, in any ly at an end. The fate of our Government will be direction towards which he may turn his eyes. - scaled, and the Republic will soon pass into a mon-Pearl, Pine, Cedar, Broad, Exc. ange, William archy. Congress it is believed generally, will prompt-Streets, once the scenes of bustle, movement, pros-Streets, once the scenes of bustle, in venicin, prosperity and cheerfulness; full of busy merchants active clerks, employed laborers, and analysis active clerks, and ana the side-waits overland with place of a decayand crates, present now the appearance of a decaying town, from which all the resources of its wonting town, from which all the places of public resort, the hotels, the watering its on their bonds for import duties. places around the city, the steamboats, rail cars, places around the city, the steamboats around the city aroun seems as if the prophecy of Thomas Ewine, sneerseems as if the prophecy of the sneer fast affairing a complete realization. The grass cap shieve on the troubles of this nation. We hope, fast affairing a complete realization. The grass cap short on the real will not come upon us. There does grow in our streets, and the wharves and once however, that the evil will not come upon us. There is four souls—all men—and one chief reason of our recorded marts of our great metropolis are becom- is no doubt that the out Tyraxr was extremely any. does grow in our streets, and the what ves and one couet reason of our reason of our preference of the Messenger was that she was less in both the Salisbury papers. - ing like the desert wilderness. And what is the lous for a war, but we may suppose that Mr. Van Bu- erowded, than the other Texas bound vessels. Forgreat cause of this melancholy change? The Ex- ren would prefer peace. A few months will now show tunately there were no ladies with us. With all my periment of Andrew Jackgon !"

Extract from the report or argument of the Prose-amidst the alarm, confusion and distress, the pos- vessel, and of the crew as pirates,) it is necessary York. session of arbitrary power. Who can say that the to make known to the miserable colonists of Texas, existing calamities were not produced for such a to their sympathizing protectors, to the Governpurpose? Circumstances are, at least, of a very ment of the United States, and to the whole world, suspicious character, and ought to induce us to ex- that if, in violation of the laws of nations, and notercise the greatest vigilance, prudence and circum- withstanding the treaty of friendship and alliance spection. The public liberties are IN DANGER .- between Mexico and the United States, the cabi-We put the following question, not without a rea- net of Washington has its hands tied, and cannot be a useful family paper. prevent its subjects from giving aid and protection HAS THE CHIEF MAGISTRATE, OR to the enemies of Mexico, this Republic has its > trict of New Leon and Tamaulipas, condomning the American schooner Champion, as good

"I definitively decree and declare the schooner the shorer plans on foot or not, vigilance and cir- shall not be included in this sentence, if they shall If the office-holders are organizing, the people by prove that they have not contributed, directed to be making preparations for resistance by and indirectly, to piracy, and that they are not eight to be muking preparations for resistance - enemies of the Mexican Government."

A contest between the people and office widers The sentence condemns the cargo to be sold in

But the conflict, we think, will not be in confinement, and placed at the disposition of begun by the sleek headed officials, who feel no General Bravo, commander-in chief, to be tried by > Rode Island .- The Providence Journal of Monday says that Mr. Sprague, one of the members of the last Congress, declines a re-lection. He exof the Currency and in the general prosperity of trythe country, to sustain the experimentors any lon-

What does the Great Crosser think of the pre-Louisville Journal.

-FIAT JUSTITIA RUAT CELUM-THE CAROLINIAN.

SALISBURY:

Friday Evening::::June 16, 1837.

EDITORIAL CONVENTION.

We are pleased to see the general disposition of the people for the expression of their griefs, and the Editorial traternity of this State for the people for the expression of their griefs, and the vention, to consult upon our "general welfare." In no State in the Union would such a measure, if judiclously carried out, be conducive of greater benefits to ken thousands who left in North Carolina, com- sun, The custom house has been selected as a site for Rothrock, Mr. SOLOMON BARRIER to Miss ELIZthe Editors and to the community in general. We parative plenty with health and happiness, for bank- a town which I think will in time, be a place of im- ABETH SINK. heartily take up the proposition; and would respect- ruptcy and rum in the South. fully suggest the 21 Monday in September as a suitable day for the meeting of the Convention, in Raleigh.

WILMINGTON CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT. ser," is making some efforts to stir up the sleepy head- burned. ed whigs of the Cape Fear. The Editor tugs away at them lustily enough, but as yet we see no sign of returning animation. Some think that instead of being from a Harrisburg (Pa.) Paper, that our readers may merchandize is lightered up to Harrisburg and Houston, the new scat of Government. We found two vessels the new scat of Government. We found two vessels the new scat of Government. hope that they will rise up in their might and put to apon the established order of social society in this at the Bar-a fine schooner and a stannch Brig, besides by, is an idea well calculated to make deep and lasting route that obedient tool of power, General McKay .-This man, it will be recollected, was the only member from North Carolina, who voted against distributing the most wholly inhabited by colored people. They have termined to visit the capitol and carry up her own earlying to all around. He still continued to bless and surplus money among the States. Rather than return between five and six hundred voters. At the State the money back to the people from whom it was unjust-ly collected, he preferred leaving it with Martin Van Buren for political speculations. We observe that parties received, but treated as delegates in all respects, "Gen. Miller" has consented to run against McKay, then all right. There were no newspapers that abused that this Gen. Miller wears about his neck a collar ful-All the Banks in Virginia with their branches, ly asstout as a wagger tyre, and if he should be elected. How the refinement and good breeding of certain equiexcept the Valley Bank and North Western Bank. he will be even more sobedient to orders, than his predecessor. No; let the Whigs rally under their own were two black men sent as delegates by the colored standard, and triumph or fall as independent men, not population of Philadelphia. They were said to be inas auxiliaries to either part of the faction. Half way telligent and well behaved, and to have addressed the measures never yet were wise measures, - go the whole, Convention very sensibly. There are now no votes at witch."

ly asked, -what can Congress do to relieve the embarrassments of the country ? It is really difficult to say | Wing and Van Buren Conventions, are horrised at secwhat they will or can do. Some suppose that the Van ing them in an Abolition Convention!" Buren party will have magnanimity enough to ac-All the country Safety Fund Banks in the State knewledge their errors as regards a national Bank, and establish a new one. We do not believe this; -but a visit to Texas, to the Editor of the Carolinian. The Independence, and also, the Mecklenburg declaration time I shall some meet two long last children in the As the slore rolls on, we shall add to and cor- there is some reason to fear that they will establish a same gent cman has kindly promised to give us a correct be read, and that a dinner be furnished by some person "Government Bank,"—that is, a Bank based on the statement in regard to the resources and future pros-Treasury of the U. States, and under the controle and pects of that country, as soon as he has been there long by Prayer. A letter from the c.) v of New York says: "It management of the Executive. This is a favorites prois really a sight to make a sa weep -and that should ject of Mr. Van Buren, and if carried, we may consider cuting Solicitor (Promotor fiscal) at Matamo- per recently commenced at Lincolnton, N. C. The pa. hevelled hair-bah! How the Messenger contrasted ras, in the case of the American schooner Champion.

In all about it.

Champion.

By these public acts, (the condemnation of the Press, and all, we understand, imported from New would expect from her name—combining all the ele-"By these public acts, (the condemnation of the Press, and all, we understand, imported from New would expect from her name-combining all the ele-

> This is the title of a new monthly periodical, published mind, the most vivid embodyment of Aristotle's idea of vored sedulously to aviod any estentation and chose in Ashborough, by Wesly D. Wilson, Esq. It is neat- pleasure. But let us return from this digression, y printed, and we think from the first No., bids fair to should show no quarter to such an institution.

that such a monstrous attempt was made to subvert the presses his dissatisfation at the policy pursued by Judiciary System, and make it subservient to the dethe Administration, which he has heretofore sup. signs of political gamblers, shows to what a fearful level, with scarcely a tree on it except a few planted and was welcomed by him in behalf of the city.

Texas, and the demand not half supplied.

The Carolina Gazette says that United States Bank

THE SOUTH.

resisted the tide of emigration, which for some years Texas to a return to Mexico after their liberation. resisted the tide of emigration, which for some years Galveston Island I was informed is a very healthy Galveston Island I was informed is a very healthy of the Country and enterprizing men, may be thankful that eases except mild intermittents, and sore eyes—the lat-of Suffolk, Va., a tew days since. The loss has been being three other schooners in company with us, We estimated at $200,000, and but a small amount insue met several sail boats—in one of which was the Secretary of the Navy, Judge Fisher, on a visit to the Fleet BALD YORK, of Consumption, in the thirtieth year of We are glad to see that the "Wilmington Adverti- red. The Court-House and Jail of the county were in the Harbor. The Bay is a beautiful expanse of wa- his age; leaving a disconsolate widow, and one infant and sat with the whites in the Convention. This was break down the barriers of society, by the introduction of | ican Independence. What will Congress do?—The question is frequent- blacks and whites promiscoously from the social circle to the public hall! The same men that saw nothing J. L. Beard, Esq. appointed Secretary. wrong or dangerous in receiving black delegates into write at all, or amidst such inconveniences, that my letters will require many apologies.

On my arrival in New Orleans I found several crafts large choice among evils. I met some gentlemen Artillery, to parade his company on that day, bound for Texas, and we pitched on the Messenger, a sort of rakish little schooner of 34 tons buithen, com- President, Wm. H. Archibald, and Wm. F. Phifer, have such faith as is strong enough to make me full

New Concern. -- We have seen a copy of a new pa- | boring under sea sickness. Hebe cascading with disgancies and quiet comforts of a life on shore, with all common impulse to do their meed of gratifude to the pleasurable excitoments of rapid travelling. My recollections of the Clay, and of the Susquehanna, a pressure of the times could not stay the overflow Temperance Advocate and Youth's Instructor .- steamer in which I descended the Ohio, form in my of public feeling. Although Mr. Webster endea-

the west till we came opposite Barataria, where we were becalmed. The shores of this region renowned in the annals of Piracy, are low and seen at a distance, Santa Ana.—The statement which we published in appear to be an almost barren sand beach, with a few man and throng after throng of the bone and sinew condemnation of Santa Ana, by the President of Mexi- tervals. A breeze springing up, we stood off at first to meet the great statesman, who had breasted and co, Bustamente, turns out to be entirely false. He was the south west, and then due west-and after three struggled with the storm of desolation which was still at his private residence, resting at ease, at our lathe middle of Galveston Island, and entered the bay of land of their f there. the same name by the eastern pass. From such information as I think I can rely on, regarding the difficult Outrageous conduct of a Bank .- The Pet Bank in ports and harbors of Texas, most of her foreign com-Mobile, Alabama, recently paid a Government Check merce, I apprehend must be carried on through this outpourings of a nation's gratitude to LaFavette, pass into Galveston Bay. A pilot acquainted with the "the guest of the nation." A cayalcade originalfor $10,000 in Specie, after it had suspended the pay- pass can readily take in a vessel drawing 8 feet of wa- ly intended to be fifty, but swelled up the throngs of tressed Merchants and laboring men of Alabama who fitte the Pirate carried in a vessel drawing 16 feet-it town, 12 miles from the city, where he arrived as hold the notes of the Bank, are denied the specie for true, I doubt whether this channel be known at least them, the Government which has created this distress accurately, although there is a tract designated as the ship channel. The harbor once entered affords good the committee of invitation, and was greeted by is permitted to draw from the Bank its specie-to ac- anchorage ground for any number of ships-although Chancellor Bibb, his old associate in the Senate, commodate the Government, the Bank, which was cre- exposed to winds from every quarter. Indeed I was and, in company with him and Col. F. Johnson, ated for the benefit of the People of Alabama, will dis- apprehensive that our craft would have been torn from joined the cavalende to proceed to the city. tress and grind them down. The People of Alabama her moorings the morning after our arrival, by a vio- At every avenue of the read and at every stoplent rain and wind storm. We found in the harbor ping place, citizens on horseback and in carriages three Texian schooners of war, the U. S. Revenue Cutter Campbel', besides several merchant crafts. 1 It is stated in the Northern papers, that the "Go- supped on board the Cutter with Mr. Andubon the mavernment" has applied to, and obtained from the mon- turalist and his son. Mr. Audubon, sen. is a noble the laws. A compact line of horsemen in double ster, a loan of $600,000, to enable it to "push-along looking old man of some 60 years or upwards, with a file and carriages under the direction and arrangevery intelligent and to my taste a remarkable handsome ment of Col. Tariton, the marshall of the escort, countenance. He is apparently capable of great phy- filled the whole space for nearly a mile, all impelsical exertion, which he assured me he makes daily .- led by an irresistible desire to pay bomage where A Resolution was lately introduced into the Con- He says that this part of the world is very uninterest- homage was due and to render honor to the patriot, necticut Legislature, to limit the office of Junes to a ing to the naturalist,—that he has discovered nothing who, year after year, had fought the great intellegence of Junes of Junes to the naturalist,—that he has discovered nothing who, year after year, had fought the great intellegence of Junes to the patriot, who, year after year, had fought the great intellegence of Junes to the patriot, and the patriot is the patriot of Junes to the Junes not very surprising by the way, when we remember lectual battles of his country. his great attainments.

growth-a species of Acacia or Locust tree. The and heart-felt admiration of the people. The ad-It is said that Carpenters are getting $10 per day in Sugar. I saw several pools of good water a hundred or two yards from the beach—made by digging about 3 the day of the Mayor, though short, was worthy of Our city and worthy of our high estimate of Mr. Webster's faithful and able discharge of every public day. feet into the sand. This part of the island is at the lic duty entrusted to him. It was indeed a proud present time occupied by a Texian garrison,-and by day for Louisville. The cavalrade proceeded The Van Buren party in Tennessee have nominated the Mexican prisoners of war who were captured at down Jefferson Street and returned to the Galt Gen. Robert Armstrong as their candidate for Governor. San Jacinto. Of the latter-the Mexicans-there are House through streets through with ager coun-We suppose they rely more on the magic of his milita- now only about one hundred remaining at Galveston, topances, and at last Mr. Webster took leave of the ry tame, recently obtained in the Fiorida war, for success, than upon his principles or the justice of his cause.

Gov. Newton Canon is again to be run by the Whigs, cross of Indian in them. In complexion, features, and apparent intellectual endowment, they resemble considerably the Chickasaw Indians whom I saw at Ponti-Bills are selling in Rotherfordton at a premium of 5 are superior to the Mexicans—and especially in a cer- says: "We learn this morning that Gen. Jackson tain quiet dignity of carriage. We must not however was thrown from his horse a day or two agrand forget the circumstances in which these Mexican prisoners are placed at this time. I think they are well so injured as to render him speechless."-Ib. treated, and being under no apprehension of any severe The news from the Southern sections of our country measures towards them, they appear quite cheerful, is any thing but favorable; the "pressure" remains much more so indeed than we could expect. I should tight. We think that those of our citizens who have feel no surprise to hear of their preferring to remain in and sailed up the Bay to Red Fish Bar-a distance of Mecklenburg, N. C. A most destructive fire occurred in the Town 15 or 20 miles. We formed a pretty little fleet, their ter several miles broad, studded with Islets and sand- child, to mourn their irreparable loss; Justice demands banks, and intercepted by sand bars which impede its that something be said with regard to his latest days Progress of Civilization.—We cut the following navigation. Vessels drawing 8 or 10 feet of water spent here on earth, it has rarely been our happy for to come up to this bar, viz: Red Fish Bar,-whence the witness such composure and completency, such perfect a steamer which plies between the Bar and Houston, impressions on all who ever witnessed such a scone, be "In the State of Maine there are two townships alalthough our diminutive craft, the Messenger has de- His latest, and we may add his dying counsel was truly freight. Small ships as well as small men have some praise redeeming love and mercy for what God had sion. You shall hear from me thence. I now send upon the easy and blessed terms of the Gospel only Concord, June 7, 1837.

According to notice given some time since, the or knock under,-never exchange "the d-1 for a stake, and some Whig and Van Buren editors hold it citizens of Concord assembled in the Court Room for up to the world, as an evidence of the amalgamation the purpose of making arrangements to celebrate in a of love and mercy and forgiveness to cast off one who principles, and awful designs of the Abolitionists to becoming manner the approaching Anniversary of Amer-appropriate remarks by Col. D. M. Barringer, and heart, for said he, "although I pass the James of death. u ranimously adopted.

The following letter is from a friend now on deliver an Oration. That the declaration of American of death. Yes, blessed be my Reduciner, I know in the Resolved, That a Committee of six persons' to con-Galveston Bay, Texas, May 8, 1837. Sist of Wm. Barringer, Caleb Phifer, Dr. Chas. Fex, come this night and kindly release my and from its festivities of the day.

Resolved, That Geni. Paul Barringer to appointed hely name. He spoke peace to my soul; and I saw comfortable; yes, even to rejuce in the expectation of being so soon released from this world, and all its emp-Resolved, That the merchants be requested to close ty vanities." A short time before he closed his eyes in their doors at 12 o'clock, and keep them closed until 4 death; he said, in a rapture, Oh my friends, I am dy ing. But Jesus lives! Blessed Jesus! Blessed Jesus! Resolved, That the above proceedings be published were the last words which were opparated from his de-

J. L. BEARD, Sec'y.

Bram Ile Louisville Journal of May 21.

Mr. Webster .- The reception of the "Western the defender of the constitution. Even the iron the ordinary mode of travelling in the public sta-On leaving the mouth of the Mississippi we stood to ges, the people, without concert thronged to greet him with overflowing hearts to their homes and firesides. It was not tinsel parade. Man after

This is no fancy sketch. Such a seene was never before witnessed in Kentucky-not even in the bout 4 o'clock in the evening, attended by one of were found waiting eagerly to join the throng that

At the city limits he was met by the Mayor, Mr. Galveston Island is about 35 miles in length-low, Kaye, accompanied by another band of citizens,

Gen. Jackson.-We vesterday received a lettoc. In stature and physical strength the Chickasaws ter from Nashville dated on Friday last, which Altar of Hymen.

"Breide the unplintensishbright,
The bard of Edensings...
"Young face his constant throp willinght,
"And wave his purgle wings."

UNITED IN WEDLOCK. In Cabarrus County, on the 30th ult., Mr. SIMON

In Davidson County, on the 8th inst., by the Rev. S. In Lancasterville, S. C., Mr. BENJAMIN TROTT.

Yesterday we hoisted anchor from Galveston harbor formerly of Salisbury, to Miss FRANCES ROSS, of DEPARTED THIS LIFE.

lone for his soul; He urged his friends who steed I am just apprised that I have no more time to write —we are about to get under weigh. I hope to arrive in Houston to-morrow, where Congress is now in sesreceive you; for whoseever cometh unto me (auth our blessed Saviour) I will in no wise cast off. Oh think what Jesus has done for us. He left a bright circle of Angelic samts; yes, he left his father's bosom and caure lown to suffer the ignominious death of the cross, to ourchase these heaven-born blessings for us, for his own Elect (and then added) I do firmly believe for as many more as would apply. Oh yes, said he, Jesus is too full will apply for parden and salvation through the merits of a crucified Savior. It was truly affecting to see him George Klutts, Esq., was called to the Chair, and look on his aged and widowed mother, and say oh! mother you will soon be left without a son to perpetuate The following Resolutions were introduced with our name on earth; but lay not my death as much to I thank God I have a reconciled friend hear to appoint Resolved. That some suitable person be requested to and comfort me through the gloomy valle, an shadow charge of im ortal blue. On no, I have not the teast tent with thy holy will, and take me to thread; The not my will, but there be done. And in mercy to mk. My Dear Sie: While trayelling I must either not effect the above recolution, and to invite the Revolutions, and leave, with those wire strong the trayelling in this County to partake of the partake of no matter how the clouds may gather, no many Resolved, That a Committee of eight persons' consist- the tempest may roar, only let my soul be by

> ing lips; truly, "Blessed are the dead, who die in the In Iredell County, on the 6th instant, JAMES CAMPBELL, Esq., Clerk of Iredell County Court